MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of KIMEP University is to develop well-educated citizens and to improve the quality of life in Kazakhstan and the Central Asian region through teaching, learning, community service and the advancement of knowledge in the fields of business administration and social sciences. To fulfill this mission, we offer graduate and undergraduate degree programs at the highest level of international educational standards in business, economics, finance, accounting, public administration, political science, international relations, law, pedagogy, journalism and mass communication to outstanding students, who will become equals to graduates of universities anywhere in the world. We seek to select students from among those who demonstrate leadership, talent and language capabilities, irrespective of their financial means, gender or ethnic origin, or any other subjective criteria.

KIMEP University has grown substantially since President Nursultan Nazarbayev established the Institute on January 14, 1992. He gave Dr. Chan Young Bang the responsibility of managing and developing this new academic institute, the first in Central Asia to be modeled on the North American system of education. By attracting local and international scholars, encouraging excellence in all operations and focusing on the long-term well-being of the members of this community, KIMEP University has grown into a vibrant , matching the high standards of leading Western academic institutions.

KIMEP has contributed enormously to the growth and development of the nation and its people by challenging young men and women to draw upon their standards of excellence and to contribute to society after graduation.

This part summarizes¹ key policies and procedures related to application and admission of students to KIMEP University for admission decisions in AY 2014-15. This document is subject to annual review in accordance with changes made to legislative acts, strategic goals, organizational operations and/or program structure.

Any changes and additions to admission policies are to be approved at by the KIMEP University President's Cabinet

All matters related to recruitment and admissions are to be addressed to the Department of Student Recruitment and Admission

PART 1 GENERAL PROVISION

KIMEP University is committed to a policy of equal opportunity for admission to all qualified individuals. The university is also committed to the principles of continuing life-long education. It does not discriminate against any individual or group on the basis of race, ethnicity, nationality, religion, gender, social or sexual orientation, creed, marital status, physical disabilities, remote area location, age and/or any other subjective criteria. KIMEP University seeks to enroll outstanding students who have demonstrated the potential to succeed through leadership and talent as well as having shown evidence of their capability to contribute to the community.

The university has created clear and transparent procedures for applying and accepting individuals with a diverse academic history and academic needs: Kazakhstani and international applicants, undergraduate students (graduates of high schools and vocational professional schools, transfer and reinstated students), graduate students and non-degree students for short and long-term study terms (international summer school, exchange students visiting, continuous non-degree students, adult learners etc.).

Any information concerning an applicant's disability provided during the admissions process is voluntary and leads to the specific services once eligibility is proven through professional documentation to KIMEP Medical Center. It is maintained in accordance with laws relating to confidentiality. No limitations are placed on the number or proportion of persons with disabilities who may be admitted or enrolled.

¹ The full version of the KIMEP Admission Policies for 2014-15 is available from Recruitment and Admissions department

PART 2 DEPARTMENT OF STUDENT RECRUITMENT AND ADMISSION

The Department of Student Recruitment and Admission (R&A) reports to the Vice President for Strategic Planning, Development and Research. It serves as a central information point for all internal and external inquiries on applications and admissions to academic programs.

Admission Officers and Coordinators work together with students (on part-time employment basis) on recruitment, applications and admission procedures that are in line with the strategic and operational plans; as well as the set goals and targets set at institutional, program and admission office levels.

Staff members are highly committed to integrity, transparency, ethics, respectful and customer-focused functions and processes in all appearances and operations; as well as have absolutely no tolerance for any form of favoritism, corruption or nepotism.

PART 3 APPLYING TO KIMEP PROGRAMS

KIMEP University has an open and transparent process of applying to academic programs on a year-round basis.

Specialists in the Department of Student Recruitment and Admission will provide assistance and will answer all questions regarding application process.

Applicants will need to submit the Application Form with required documents attached for certain semester by set deadlines.

According to state law, documents, submitted in foreign languages, have to be accompanied with a certified translation into Kazakh or Russian language.

In some cases, especially with foreign applicants, Department of Student Recruitment and Admission has a right to request additional documents (licenses for educational activity of organizations issuing the diplomas, confirmations of attestation and accreditation, confirmations of degree, specialization and diploma, etc.)

Incomplete application may result in delay for admission review/decision or rejection of admission.

Cases of fraudulent documents or submission of knowingly false information shall be transferred for consideration to law enforcement bodies in accordance with the order set forth by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

The complete application package has to be submitted to the Department of Student Recruitment and Admission:

Way 1: apply on-line and upload all necessary documents through on-line service of Applicants portal (<http://www2.kimep.kz/onlineappl/>);

Way 2: hard copy complete application has to be sent to the following mailing address
*Admission Office, KIMEP University
Abai avenue 4, Almaty city, 050010
Republic of Kazakhstan;*

All application packages are considered in the same manner, regardless of the delivery way.

Notifications

The system automatically sends out a notification on receipt of applications (both hard copy and on-line) to the e-mail address indicated in the application. The status of the submitted application may be checked using the on-line system: (www.kimep.kz/admission).

PART 4 APPLICANTS PORTAL

KIMEP strives to offer world class educational services and to increase its range of on-line admission and recruitment services. This goal requires that applicants are given the opportunity to apply on-line from any place in the world with Internet access, as well as to receive personalized information regarding the status of their application and other useful information through a centralized web-resource for applicants, known as the Applicants Portal (<http://www2.kimep.kz/onlineappl/>).

On-line application is developed in three languages – Kazakh, Russian and English. Explanations are also provided in Korean, Chinese and Turkish languages. Applicants may easily activate their account in the system by entering a current personal e-mail address.

On-line application is reviewed by the admission officers of the Department of R&A only on the condition of filling in all mandatory fields and submitting the on-line application. Incomplete or/and not submitted on-line applications will be annulled after one month of inactivity in the on-line account. Applicants may initiate another application later on from very beginning.

On-line applications shall be printed out and signed by the admitted students (together with signing a contract of rendering educational services) upon arrival to the university campus.

PART 5 REGULATION ON UNIVERSITY ADMISSION COMMISSION

1. Department of Student Recruitment and Admission (DSRA) is created to recruit and admit students to KIMEP academic programs in accordance with admission policies, strategic and operational plans.
2. Annually DSRA organizes relevant recruitment activities in Kazakhstan, Central Asia and internationally.
3. DSRA is empowered and responsible for all activities related to collection, review and data entry from the on-line and hard copy applications to all programs of the KIMEP University (except for exchange students and ISS students²). DSRA is also responsible for review of each and all applicants as to comply with the KIMEP Admission Policy 2014-2015 and, therefore, for identification in terms of admission or rejection to KIMEP programs with the follow up communication that would lead to arrivals, visa, registrations and enrollment or re-application for the next intake.
4. On behalf of the University, the DSRA proceeds with the admission to the academic programs as per the Admission Policies approved by the President (or his designee) and issues the Admission Orders for students.
5. DSRA reports to the Vice President for Strategic Planning, Development and Research. It serves as a central information point for all internal and external inquiries on applications and admissions to academic programs.
6. DSRA closely interacts with the KIMEP units responsible for the student admission decision-making, such Academic Council/Summer Oversight Committee and President’s Cabinet. Members of the committees are approved at the University-level.
7. In collaboration with Deans and faculty, the Chief Testing Officer, who reports to VPAA, plans, organizes, conducts and reports on the entrance exams that lead to admission or rejection decisions.
8. DSRA closely works with the Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Kazakhstan on the issues related to required state examinations (UNT/KTA and SFLT). Director appoints responsible DSRA officers and informs state bodies.
9. To ensure smooth and effective admission process in 2014-2015, the University Admission Committee is created as the following:
 - University President, the Chair
 - VPAA and VPSPDR
 - College Deans (CSS, BCB, LC)
 - Chief Testing Officer
 - Executive Secretary (Director of DSRA)
 - Chairs of Subject Examination Commissions:
 - a. Interview for undergraduate foreign applicants – Program Chairs
 - b. Graduate Programs Examinations – Program Chairs
 - Admission Committee is formed for 1 year and work is adjourned after all admission is done.
10. Student admission decisions are recorded in the form of Order specifying the grounds for the admission. The final list of admitted students is approved by KIMEP President in the form of Order on admission to undergraduate programs, graduate programs and non-degree programs. Each Admission Order has a list of requirements that admitted student shall fulfill to ensure eligibility for full admission. Those admitted students who did not comply with each and all requirements in the Admission Order are withdrawn as non-matriculated students. Students, who complied with each and all requirements stipulated in the Admission Orders, will have access to course registration in accordance with their program and terms of study.

² IRO is responsible

11. Neither KIMEP nor any group, committee, individual at any level will guarantee admission to KIMEP University or its programs.
12. Admission consideration is separate from any financial or financial aid considerations. By making acceptance decision to academic programs KIMEP University does not mean any financial aid promise to any type of applicant.
13. Upon completion of the recruitment and admission process, the Department provides detailed reports to KIMEP departments and administration, and to the state authorities (the Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Kazakhstan and National Statistical Agency).

PART 6 ADMISSION TO UNDERGRADUATE AND GRADUATE PROGRAMS

KIMEP is governed by the university's charter (available at <http://www.kimep.kz/governance/about/kimep/>) through the participation of faculty members, students, staff and administrators at various policy-making levels.

Together with the global experience of working with applicants, state admission legislation applies when making admission decisions, including the Law of the RK on Education, Standard Rules of Admission to Academic Institutions Offering Undergraduate Education (as of January 19, 2012 # 111), Standard Rules of Admission to Academic Institutions Offering Graduate Education (as of January 19, 2012 # 109), and Rules on Students' Transfer and Reinstatement (as of January 19, 2012 # 110), as well as the RK Government Order (as of July 9, 2013 #701).

KIMEP University and its academic units review the specific requirements for submission of documents and criteria of admission of students to each program on an annual basis. Requirements are approved by the University Academic Council (or its standing committee during summer period) as well as by the President's Cabinet. Upon completion of the process of admission, all applicants receive letters of admission (or letters of access to non-degree educational services) or letters of rejection. Appropriate orders are approved by the President and serve as a ground for the start of study at KIMEP University.

On behalf of the University the Department of Student Recruitment and Admission issues orders of three types for newly admitted degree and non-degree students. Periods of issuing the orders on admission to undergraduate and graduate programs are defined by the legislation of the RK:

1. Orders of admission of undergraduate, graduate and doctorate students (August 10-25)
2. Orders of transfer and reinstatement of undergraduate students (during summer and winter breaks periods)
3. Orders for granting access to non-degree educational services (throughout the year) for:
 - Non-degree students, taking some undergraduate or graduate level courses;
 - Auditing students – with the purpose of increased access to higher education;
 - Exchange students from other universities - to increase academic mobility;
 - International Summer School visitors - to increase the academic mobility;
 - Any other non-degree groups.

Admitted students will immediately receive notifications to their e-mail address, indicated in their application form, as well as via the Applicant Portal in the section “Check your application status”.

To take part in dual degree programs (at KIMEP University and a partner university) it is necessary to fulfill the admission requirements set forth by each university/program.

The order provides a list of requirements each admitted student has to fulfill before classes start. Admitted applicants not fulfilling all requirements listed in the order shall be expelled from the university during the semester at which they are to start study.

Information packages are sent to all admitted undergraduate, graduate, doctoral and non-degree students via mail to addresses indicated in the application form. The package includes the admission letter, important contact information, information about the orientation program, terms and conditions of tuition payment, registration for foundation and degree courses, medical requirements, nostrification requirements, etc.

Applicants that did not fulfill the admission requirements may contact the Department of Student Recruitment and Admission in order to take part in the next admission round and to voluntarily participate in the special preparatory program.

Nostrification

Documentation in regards to education, issued by the foreign academic institutions, shall undergo the procedure of nostrification required by the state (after admission of students, during the first semester of their studies).

Additional requirements to foreign citizens³

Foreign citizens shall submit the following documents before registration for any courses (according to the Law on Migration, Chapter 5):

1. Financial statement on availability of funds to cover accommodation and tuition in accordance with educational services contract, except ethnic Kazakhs;
2. Medical insurance;
3. Criminal records form.

Admission and Financial Aid

Applications for admission are reviewed separately from applications for financial aid. Admission to academic programs of KIMEP University does not guarantee provision of financial aid to applicants.

Admission and Scholarship Committee is the standing committee of the KIMEP Academic Council. It sets the policies and procedures for the financial aid.

KIMEP University, nor any other group, committee, or person may guarantee admission to KIMEP University or any of its programs.

PART 7 ADMISSION CRITERIA FOR ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

Number of sections: 3

Shortdescription:

Section 1: Grammar Structures

The first section is designed to test the grammar skills of applicants. Candidates will have to choose the correct word or phrase to complete simple sentences. They will choose from three or four possible answers that may have the same meaning, but only one of which is grammatically correct.

Section 2: Grammar and Vocabulary in Context

The second section is designed to test the grammar and vocabulary development of applicants. They will read short selections which are missing key words. They will choose the best word to complete the text from three or four possible answers.

Section 3: Reading Comprehension

The third section is designed to test the reading comprehension of applicants. They will read fairly long selections and choose from a multitude of answers or provide short written responses which best describe the meaning of the text.

ii. Creative entrance exams for journalism programs: essay and a written interview

Who takes the test:	Applicants to the BAJ & MAIJ programs
Language:	English, Kazakh, or Russian
Duration:	2 hours(essay) and 45 minutes (interview)
Volume:	450 – 500 words, no less than two pages of A4
Points	25 points maximum for essay and 25 points maximum for the interview

Short description:

The entrance essay is designed to enable the applicant to express his or her creative abilities in one of the chosen topics. The essay should be based on the applicant's life experience and personal views and not on literary sources. It should consist of an introduction, supporting paragraphs which develop the main idea, and a conclusion.

- b) Logic – the capacity to express clear and logical statements and ideas – 5 points;
- c) Structure - the ability to present an essay as a composition of multiple parts that will develop and articulate a clear idea(s) that are supported by logic and factual information – 5 points;
- d) Language - written clearly and thoughtfully, using a rich vocabulary – 5 points;
- e) Creativity - the essay should present a modern and interesting approach to the given topics - 5 points;

iii. Entrance exam for MA, MBA, MACTA, MFIN, MMKT and Executive MBA programs

The KGET measures various skills that should have been or will be developed in an educational and work environment. It does NOT measure knowledge of business, job skills, specific content in undergraduate studies, abilities in any other specific subject area, or subjective qualities, such as motivation, creativity, and interpersonal skills.

The test is given in English and it consists of 3 sections:

1. Problem solving (There are 20 questions and the recommended time is 30 minutes)
2. Data sufficiency (There are 20 questions and the recommended time is 40 minutes)
3. Critical thinking (There are 10 questions and the recommended time is 20 minutes)

Test takers have a maximum of 90 minutes to complete these 50 multiple choice questions. Problem solving is based upon mainly quantitative questions. This section tests the knowledge of arithmetic, elementary algebra, and common geometry. Data sufficiency questions consist of a question and two statements. The critical thinking section is composed of questions testing reading comprehension and critical reasoning.

The KGET test covers a wide range of topics.

iv. KIMEP Test for Master of Arts in Foreign Languages: Two Foreign Languages (MA FLTFL) program

Entrance exam for the MA FLTFL program is held in two stages: (a) an English Proficiency Test, b) two professional essays and an interview, and is assessed on a 100 points scale, with 50% as a passing score.

9. RULES OF BEHAVIOR AT TESTS AND EXAMS IN KIMEP UNIVERSITY

Exam rules are unified for all tests regardless of locations, on or off campus, within and outside the country where KIMEP decides to hold the entrance exams.

Note: violations of the rules of behavior during test taking (such as cheating, etc) results in the disqualification of an applicant for 1 to 5 years.

1. Applicants must produce their EXAM ENTRANCE TICKET and ID/passport before being allowed to enter the examination room
2. Proctors have the right to inspect applicants' ID/passports prior to entry to the examination room or at any time during the test.
3. All coats, bags, briefcases and other possessions (including mobile telephones) must be placed in the area designated by the proctors. Mobile telephones must be switched off.
4. All reference books, materials, papers, magazines and journals, whether relevant to the test or not, must be placed at the chief investigator's table. Unless the test rules require that they be referred to, these items may not be within the sight or reach of the candidate.
5. If it is evident that the candidate has in his/her possession any items, such as notes, answer-keys or crib-notes, after the start of the test, the candidate will be refused permission to continue the test and will be referred to the Chief Testing Officer for disciplinary action.
6. Applicants taking the KGET test are allowed to use simple calculators that do not have communication capabilities. Mobile telephones may not be used for the purposes of mathematical calculations. An applicant shall be solely responsible for having a calculator corresponding to the aforementioned requirements. If the applicant has no calculator on hand, the test should be taken without a calculator. Applicants may also refuse to take the examination and to take it at any other designated time.
7. Candidates may not communicate with or borrow any items from another candidate. Please, raise your hand to speak to a proctor in case of an emergency.
8. Candidates may not leave the test room once the test has started, regardless of the reason. This includes going to the toilet. It is highly recommended to take care of all necessary needs immediately before a test is scheduled to begin.
9. Candidates who leave the test room will not be allowed to return.
10. Any talking or signaling to any person other than a proctor will be viewed as cheating. If you need assistance, raise your hand to attract the attention of a proctor. Do not call out or make other sounds to attract their attention.
11. The test must be conducted in strict silence. Mobile telephones, pagers, walkman, clock or watch alarms or any other electronic devices must be switched off until leaving the test room.
12. No one is to leave the test room during the final 15 minutes. If you finish the test, wait patiently and quietly until your papers are collected and the proctor gives permission to leave.
13. Any candidate who continues working after the proctor has stated that the test time is over ("pens down") will be considered to have broken the rules of the test and will be referred to the Chief Testing Officer for disciplinary action. This will be interpreted as cheating.

KIMEP has a "zero tolerance" policy for any and all forms of academic dishonesty. Zero tolerance for all forms of dishonesty applies to any and all tests as well as classroom assessments. The zero tolerance policy also applies to faculty in the same regard as students.

10. FAST TRACK STUDY OPTION FOR THE GRADUATES OF THE TECHNICAL AND PROFESSIONAL VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS

KIMEP University admits applicants to fast-track study on UGRAD specializations the best graduates of technical and professional vocational schools under the following conditions:

1. Technical or professional vocational school should have a state license for conducting a certain educational activity and demonstrate the state attestation (copies of both documents are mandatory to be submitted to the Admissions Office of KIMEP University)
2. The diploma GPA should be no less than 4 (out of 5)
3. Courses taken in technical/professional vocational schools which are used towards the fast-track study should have individual grades of not less than 4 (out of 5).
4. The list of courses counted toward fast track study, the difference and the individual study plan will be defined by the General Education Department. The copy should be submitted to the personal file of the applicant no later than 5 business days.
5. KTA is required as per state admission rules

OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR

Registrar
Uvassilya Samuratova, MBA

Deputy Registrar
Rano Pakhirdinova, MBA

Coordinator
Kamila Mussina, MBA

Mission and Purpose

The Office of the Registrar is dedicated to providing the best possible services to for KIMEP University students, faculty and staff. The office generates student records from the point of first enrollment through graduation and beyond. It offers a wide range of services in the areas of academic records, student status, registration, course enrollment, classroom assignments and scheduling.

The office monitors implementation of KIMEP University policies and procedures to ensure maintenance of well-documented, valid, accurate, permanent, and confidential student records. It also provides certified documentation of academic records through official transcripts.

ONLINE RESOURCES

The Registrar's Office maintains a website with information and resources for students, faculty, administrators, and for the public at large. Through the website, students have access to their own personal records. Confidentiality of individual records is maintained by a personalized password system. The website is available at www.kimep.kz > Office of the Registrar > Student Portal: Here a student can check his/her advising materials, holds and blocks, checklist, personal registration and final examination schedule, wait list status, transcript, grades, payment report, degree requirements, etc.

For Faculty: Here a faculty member can find individual schedules, information on his/her advisees and advising online resources, students on wait lists, registration results, relevant statistics, grade entry pages, attendance sheets, etc.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

From time to time KIMEP University may change or add new academic policies. New and/or revised policies apply to all students regardless of the year of entry into KIMEP University unless specific exemptions are stated in the policy. Policies stated in this catalog replace policy statements from previous catalogs. The KIMEP University Academic Council may, during the course of the year, revise and alter current academic policy.

CREDIT SYSTEM

KIMEP University uses a modified American credit system as the foundation for the curriculum. Degree requirements are stated in terms of credits earned rather than in terms of courses completed. Each credits represents 50 student learning hours, which may include 10-20 hours of in-class instruction. Typically a semester long course will meet for forty-five class contact hours and is worth three credits. However, some courses are worth more than three credits and some worth less.

To earn a degree from KIMEP University, a student completes a set of credit requirements for a particular program. The requirements usually have a list of courses that must be taken, a list of elective courses, and a minimum number of credits to be earned. Elective courses are not a requirement but are necessary in order to complete the minimum number of credits. A program can have subparts, with required courses and a minimum credit requirement for each subpart.

Another requirement for graduation is a minimum level of scholastic performance, which is measured by the grade point average or GPA. The GPA is the average of the grades, but weighted according to the number of credits for each course in which a grade is received. An example of how to calculate GPA is given in a later section.

Credit Equivalents

Some courses are preparatory courses and are worth zero credits. Completion of any of these courses does not earn credits towards graduation. The courses, however, do have a credit equivalent. A three-credit equivalent means that in terms of class time and learning outcomes, the course is approximately the same as a typical three credit course. Some policies (such as maximum course load) are based on credit equivalents rather than on credits.

GRADING SYSTEM

KIMEP University uses a letter grading system A, B, C, D, F, etc. Letter grades are further differentiated with “+” for the top of the grade range or “-” for the bottom of the grade range.

Based on the grades assigned, a grade point average is calculated and recorded on the student’s transcript.

Grades and Grade Points

The following letter grades apply to courses at the undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral levels respectively.

Grade	Undergraduate	Masters	Doctoral	Points
A+	Highest grade		Highest grade	Highest grade	4.33
A	Excellent		Excellent	Excellent	4.00
A-	Very good		Very good	Good	3.67
B+	Good		Good	Passing	3.33
B	Good		Satisfactory	Failing or Passing	3.00
B-	Good		Passing	Failing or Passing	2.67
C+	Satisfactory		Failing or Passing*	Failing	2.33
C	Satisfactory		Failing or Passing*	Failing	2.00
C-	Satisfactory		Failing or Passing*	Failing	1.67
D+	Passing		Failing	Failing	1.33
D	Passing		Failing	Failing	1.00
D-	Lowest Passing		Failing	Failing	0.67
F	Failing		Failing	Failing	0.00

* Grade “C” for Masters students can be considered as either passing or failing, depending on the specific program.

 Grade of “B” and “B-” for DBA students will be considered as passing or failing, depending on whether or not the course is required for the student’s major.

Numerical Conversion to Letter Grades

The following table is a suggested equivalency between classroom numerical averages and the “A” - “F” letter grade scale.

Grade	Numerical Scale
A+	90 - 100
A-	80 - 84
B+	77 - 79
B	73 - 76
B-	70 - 72
C+	67 - 69

C	63 - 66
C-	60 - 62
D+	57 - 59
D	53 - 56
D-	50 - 52
F	below 50

Administrative Grades

The following KIMEP University wide notations apply to both graduate and undergraduate programs. These notations do not affect the calculation of the grade point average.

Grade	Comments	Points
NA	Not Applicable	N/A
Pass	Pass	N/A
AU	Audit	N/A
IP	In Progress	N/A
I	Incomplete	N/A
W	Withdrawn	N/A
AW	Administrative Withdrawal	N/A

Not Applicable - NA

Credits earned at other institutions transfer to KIMEP University without grades. In such cases the credits are posted to the transcript with the annotation "NA". Credits with a grade of "Not Applicable" are not included in the calculation of the grade point average.

Grade of Pass - P

In certain cases an undergraduate student may elect to have a course graded on a pass/fail basis rather than receiving a letter grade. Eligibility requirements are discussed below.

- To receive a grade of "pass" a student must have selected the pass-fail option at the beginning of the semester.
- After the registration period ends the pass-fail option cannot be changed.
- An earned grade of C or higher is recorded as "P"; an earned grade of "C-" or less is recorded as "F".
- "P" (pass) earns credits which may count towards graduation.
- "P" (pass) has no grade points and is not included in the calculation of the GPA.
- "F" earns no credits.
- "F" has zero grade points which are included in the calculation of the GPA.

Eligibility for Pass-Fail

- Full-time 4th year undergraduate students who are not on academic probation are eligible. The option is not available to graduate students.
- There is a limit of 3 credits per semester.
- The maximum within a degree is 6 credits.
- The pass-fail course must be a free elective course and not a requirement.
- The department offering the course must give written permission for pass-fail.
- Student must submit signed Pass-Fail form to the Registrar Office till the end of Registration period. Without submitted form Pass-Fail option is not valid.

Grade of Audit - AU

A student who wishes to sit in on a class without receiving a grade may elect to audit a course.

- Audited courses are recorded on the transcript with the notation "AU". Audited courses are not included in the calculation of the GPA.
- The grade of "AU" is automatic. The instructor cannot assign any other grade.
- Audited courses do not receive credit, cannot be counted towards graduation requirements and cannot be transferred.

Eligibility for Audit

- Any student may audit any course for which s/he meets the prerequisites.

- The student must register to audit the course.
- The student must pay for the course the same as for any other course.

Grade of In Progress - IP

"In Progress" applies to thesis and dissertation courses which are taken in a sequence over one or more semesters. Once the thesis or dissertation has been successfully defended, the "IP" grade is changed to the appropriate grade for the sequence. A thesis receives a letter grade; a dissertation receives a "Pass".

- The grade of "IP" does not affect the GPA.
- If a student does not complete the thesis or dissertation the "IP" grade remains permanent.

Grade of Incomplete

When a student has completed all except the final requirements for a course, but due to uncontrollable factors is unable to complete the final assessment portion, the instructor may assign a temporary grade of Incomplete ("I").

1. The grade of "I" is assigned 0 (zero) credits.
2. The grade of "I" has no grade points and is not included in the calculation of the GPA.

The following criteria for awarding or refusing an "I" must be adhered to:

- A grade of "I" may be awarded only for a serious event that occurs in the last few days of a course. Examples include a serious accident to the student, hospitalization, or the death or serious illness of a close relative. Documentary proof has to be produced for the above. Educational reasons, such as participation in an international educational event that coincides with a final examination, may also justify an "I".
- The student must have completed all course requirements prior to the uncontrollable event.
- An "I" may not be awarded for failure to attend class at earlier periods in the semester, as the student will have had sufficient time to make up the time missed.
- An "I" may not be awarded merely in order to give a student more time to complete a task. This gives him/her an unjustifiable advantage over other students.
- An "I" may not be used as an excuse for failing to meet the course attendance requirements, which are stated in every syllabus.
- An "I" may not be awarded as a substitute for a failing or poor grade.
- A student's need to seek employment in order to pay for his/her studies does not constitute a justification for an "I".
- If an instructor feels that there may be a case for a grade of "I" to be awarded, he/she must first discuss this with the Chair or Dean or Director, who must agree that the "I" is in accordance with both KIMEP University and the college or school policy.

Removal of Incomplete

It is the student's responsibility to arrange to make up the work that has been missed.

- It is also the student's responsibility to contact the instructor and determine what work needs to be completed in order to convert the "I" into a standard grade.
- The instructor and the student should develop a plan to complete the remaining coursework in a timely fashion.
- The grade "I" should be changed by the instructor to a letter grade (A, B, C, etc.) immediately after the student completes all course requirements. This should be done as soon as possible but at the absolute latest by the end of the seventh week of the semester following that in which the "I" was assigned. (The summer semester is not considered a full semester.) An electronic "Change Grade Form" shall be used for this purpose. Appropriate documentation must be accompanied with evidentiary support.
- If a student fails to complete all requirements as assigned by the instructor during the allowed time period after the incomplete grade was received, the "I" will automatically convert to an "F".
- If an instructor who has assigned a grade of "I" to a student leaves KIMEP before the time limit, the Dean will assign another faculty member to evaluate the remaining coursework and to convert the incomplete to an appropriate letter grade. The Registrar should receive formal notification of the name

- of the responsible faculty member and all current assessment records of the student; course syllabus and remedial components shall be transferred from the former to the new instructor. The Registrar will not sign a final clearance form for the departing faculty member without formal notification from the Dean on all of the above.
- A student may elect to repeat a course rather than remove the incomplete. In such cases the student must register for the course again and pay the regular tuition fees.

Grade of Withdrawal – W (by students)

The grade of W denotes that the graduate or undergraduate student has withdrawn from the course and has not completed the course requirements (Please refer to the academic calendar for the last date to withdraw from a course).

- The grade of “W” is automatic. The instructor cannot assign any other grade
- The grade of “W” is assigned 0 (zero) credits and cannot count towards graduation.
- The grade of “W” has no grade points and is not included in the calculation of the GPA.
- The grade of “W” does not count in any restrictions or limitations on the number of retakes for a course.
- A student is not obligated to repeat a course from which s/he has withdrawn. However, if the course is required then the student must complete the requirement in order to graduate.
- In order to repeat the course a student must register for the course again and pay the regular tuition fees.

Withdrawing from a Course

- Before the end of the add-drop period a student can use the online registration system to cancel the registration for a course. After the end of the add-drop period, the student must submit to the Registrar’s Office a completed electronic withdrawal form for each course from which the student is withdrawing. The e-form is available at the Students’ Portal
- Both the instructor and student will receive automatic E-MAIL notification on course withdrawal record in the system.
- During fall and spring semesters a student who withdraws early may be entitled to a partial refund of the tuition paid. The cutoff dates and amount of refund are stated in the academic calendar. These rules do not apply to summer semesters. There is no refund after registration period for any summer semesters.
- The withdrawal e-form must be received by the Registrar’s Office before the deadline to withdraw. Students may withdraw from courses until the last day of semester/summer classes. The last date to withdraw is stated in the academic calendar..

KIMEP University Refund Schedule Based upon a 15-weeks term and is linked to the withdrawal schedule as follows:

Week 2	80% Refund
Week 3	60% Refund
Week 4	40% Refund
Week 5	20% Refund
No Refund Subsequent to that time

Grade of Administrative Withdrawal –AW (by administration)

The grade “AW” is equivalent to the grade of “W” in all respects except that the Dean of Student Affairs initiates the withdrawal.

The non-academic type of administrative withdrawal can be initiated by the Dean of Student Affairs in collaboration with the instructor. Administrative withdrawal applies to emergency situations that do not allow the student to continue his/her studies in a course or at the university. An emergency situation may include medical conditions, family issues that impact the ability to study, excessive financial debt, or other reasons deemed appropriate by the Dean of Student Affairs. This type of withdrawal may be initiated at any time during the semester. The Dean of Student Affairs has the final decision on the appropriateness of an “AW” grade.

GRADE SUBMISSION

Based on the requirement of the Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Kazakhstan the course assessment should be divided into 3 parts: 2 assessments/exams which constitute 60% of the total points and the final assessments/exams should not exceed 40%.

Credit courses are to be assessed only (Thesis's, Internship, Dissertation are excluded). Foundation courses are not credit bearing courses, so it is not applicable to them as well.

- Fall and Spring semesters' 1st assessment must be completed by the 8th week of classes, 2nd assessment by the 15th week of classes and final assessment by 16th week (Final Exam period).
- Summer courses must include at least one assessment score (60%) due to the Registrar before the last day of the course and the final assessment (40%) score due to the Registrar by the end of summer term
- Students may withdraw from courses until the last day of semester/summer classes
- Fixed dates should be indicated in the Academic Calendar

Access to final exams is automatically will be given to the students having at least 50% of the points i.e. 30 out of 60 in their first and second assessments (effective from S2014);

Except in cases of audit (AU) or withdrawal (W), KIMEP University has an online Enter Final Grade system that facilitates the electronic submission of the assessments scores to the Registrar's Office.

Instructors must enter 1st and 2nd assessments scores no later than one week following the date of the assessment. No hard copy is required for 1st and 2nd assessments.

Final assessment scores must be entered no later than one week following the date of the final examination, or one week following the last day of classes for the courses with no final examination scheduled.

On-line grading system will automatically calculate all three assessments results and corresponding letter grade will be assigned, based on KIMEP grading scale.

Once the Final assessment scores are entered, the summary table, including all three assessments results and letter grade, will be provided by the system. Instructor should submit signed hard copy of the summary table to the Registrar office.

No faculty member may leave on vacation or permanently unless scores have been entered and a printed copy sent to the Registrar Office. Late submission of the grades formally affects annual evaluation process of the faculty.

Instructors may not post or publish any final grade results.

Instructors are encouraged to provide feedback to students on exam and evaluation results but information on final grades is disseminated exclusively by the Registrar's Office. The Registrar's Office will not release grades to students with outstanding debts.

Change of Grade

Faculty members are responsible for ensuring that assessment scores are accurate and correct at the time of submission. Nonetheless if a miscalculation was made, a faculty member can initiate a change of scores within set deadlines according to the Academic Calendar. An electronic "Change Grade" form shall be used for this purpose. Faculty members are allowed to change scores only if they have erred in compiling the final grade and the original scores that were submitted were incorrect. Appropriate documentation must be submitted for every change of entered scores in the system. The Instructor, Chair/Program director and the Dean must sign the Grade Change form.

GRADE APPEAL

Within appeal period (48 hours after the grades are posted) as per Academic Calendar, the College Academic Integrity Committee will consider student appeals for the scores change and after that will submit to the Registrar the official decisions of this committee with the evidence for proper change of scores no later than two weeks after the grades were posted.

GRADE POINT AVERAGE (GPA)

To calculate the grade point average in a credit based system, the numerical points for each grade are multiplied by the number of credits for the course. The results are summed for all courses included in the calculations. The total is the "Credit-Hour Value" (CHV). The Credit-Hour Value is divided by the total number of credits which yields the grade point average. The following is an example:

History of Civilizations A 3 credits

4.00 (for A) X 3 (credits) = 12.00

Kazakh Language B 2 credits
3.00 (for B) X 2 (credits) = 6.00
Credit-Hour Value = 18.00, Credits = 5
18.00 / 5 = 3.60 grade point average

Two calculations of the GPA are listed on the student's transcript: a semester-based GPA and a cumulative GPA.

The semester-based GPA is calculated and based only on grades from courses taken in a particular semester. The cumulative GPA is based on grades from all courses taken from the beginning of study.

If a course is taken more than once, only the grade received in the most recent retake is counted in the calculation of the GPA. The GPA is calculated only for degree students. The GPA is not calculated for exchange or for non-degree students.

ACADEMIC AWARDS AND HONORS

KIMEP University provides recognition for those students who achieve the highest level of scholastic performance. At the end of each regular semester, the Office of the Registrar compiles a list of the top performing students. All full time students, undergraduate or graduate, with a semester GPA of 4.0 or higher are placed on the "President's List". All full time students, undergraduate or graduate, with a semester GPA of 3.75 or higher are placed on the "Dean's List".

At graduation, KIMEP University recognizes students with outstanding academic performance by conferring a degree with honors. There are three levels of honors: Cum Laude (With Honors), Magna Cum Laude (With High Honors), and Summa Cum Laude (With Highest Honors). Graduating with honors is noted on the student's transcript and is printed on the Diploma. Honors applies to both undergraduate and graduate students.

To graduate Summa Cum Laude a student must have a grade point average of 4.25 or higher.

To graduate Magna Cum Laude a student must have a grade point average of 4.15 or higher.

To graduate Cum Laude a student must have a grade point average of 4.00 or higher.

A student receives the highest level of honors for which s/he is eligible.

STATE DIPLOMA WITH HONORS

According to the section 65 of the Order #152 from April 20, 2011 of Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Kazakhstan, a diploma with Honor is issued to a student with the following grades A, A+, A-, B+, B and B- and whose cumulative GPA (for the entire term of study) is not lower than 3.5, who has passed all State Exams and defended Thesis with A+, A or A- grades (excluding the grades of Military Training) provided there were no retakes within entire term of study.

KIMEP University Diploma with Honors is awarded to graduates in accordance with the policy Academic Awards and Honors.

ACADEMIC RECORDS

The Registrar's Office maintains records of student academic performance. Academic records are available on a continuous basis on four forms: mid semester grade reports, graduation checklists, unofficial transcripts, and official transcripts. Grades and credits earned are posted to academic records only when all required documentation submitted to the office of the Registrar from instructors.

Graduation checklist

The graduation checklist is an internal document which tracks a student's progress towards meeting degree graduation requirements. Completed coursework is organized by the degree requirement rather than by semester.

The checklist is used for advising purposes and should not be circulated outside of KIMEP University. A student's checklist is available to the student and his/her adviser online through the registrar's website: www.kimep.kz > Student Portal.

Graduation request

The student, planning to complete graduation requirements in the current semester, must submit a Graduation Request to the Registrar's Office. After that all graduation approval will start taking place. Without written notification through the Graduation request, registrar office cannot initiate graduation preparation for the student. Failure to submit graduation request by the prescribed deadline will postpone student's graduation till next semester. Candidates who apply for a given graduation and fail to qualify will need to reapply for a later graduation.

Unofficial Transcript

The transcript is the record of a student's academic performance.

The transcript contains the following information:

Student name, student ID, student status, degree program, declared major, declared minor, courses taken (with course code, course title, grade and credit hours), credits completed and GPA (grade point average). The transcript is organized by semester. Grade point average and credits earned are indicated for each semester and as a cumulative total. An unofficial transcript is available online through the registrar's website: www.kimep.kz > Student Portal.

Official Transcript

The official transcript is the formal presentation of a student's record to the external community. The official transcript contains the KIMEP University logo and address. It is printed on secure dark red paper with the official seal in the center and with the name of the university repeated in the background in white type over the face of the entire document. The registrar signs an official transcript and certifies the document with the registrar's official seal. When photocopied a hidden security warning appears over the face of the entire document.

In addition to the information mentioned for the unofficial transcript, the official transcript also contains information for the external community such as an explanation of KIMEP's University credit system, course codes and the grading system. A student may request an official copy of the transcript for any purpose at any time upon payment of the transcript fee. Student may request the official transcript online through the registrar's website: www.kimep.kz > Student Portal provided they have no tuition debt.

Registrar Office provides with the official transcript students from partner universities study at KIMEP University on Exchange Program for one or two semesters upon the official request from the International Office with no transcript fee.

COURSE CODING

KIMEP University uses an alphanumeric coding scheme that consists of 3 alpha and 4 numeric characters. The first two alpha characters represent the department or discipline for the course. The third character can represent a subsection of a department. The first numeric character represents the intended level of the course. The remaining numbers represent the unique identifier of the course. Course codes for discontinued courses cannot be reused.

ACADEMIC COMMUNICATION POLICY (G-MAIL)

All KIMEP University students and instructors are provided with an official e-mail address on gmail. Since the KIMEP University e-mail system is an official means of communication, both students and instructors are expected to communicate through it. Because the important announcements, news and messages regarding the academic affairs, student life, campus events or administrative issues are sent to the students' official e-mail, all students are expected to check their student e-mail on a regular basis (at least daily), and any communication sent to them by the administration or faculty is considered to be received and read by the students. Both instructors and students are expected to use their official e-mail address for academic communication.

Note: E-mail addresses are assigned by the Computer and Information Systems Center. The academic communication policy is based on existing KIMEP University e-mail policy. (Please, refer to the Computer and Information Systems Center section of the Catalog.)

CODE OF CONFIDENTIALITY

KIMEP University's policy on the confidentiality of student records is governed by Republic of Kazakhstan law: "On Education" dated July 27, 2007, № 319-III. Any majority age student has the right of non-disclosure of confidential information (number of registered courses per semester, schedule, tuition, payment, debts, grades, etc.). This information cannot be released to any other party without the student's consent. Permission for the release of information to other parties can be granted in person by the student or by submission of a notarized "Consent Form for Use and Disclosure of Student Information".

STUDENT STATUS AT KIMEP UNIVERSITY

KIMEP UNIVERSITY employs several criteria for classifying students.

The most important classification is the status while studying at KIMEP University.

Degree Student – is any student who intends to complete a program of study and to earn a degree, which is offered by KIMEP University. To have degree status a student must have successfully passed KIMEP University entrance examinations (if required) and have been formally admitted to a degree program. A degree student can attend either full time or part time.

Non-degree Student – is any student who wishes to take classes for personal reasons without the intent of earning a degree. In order to register a student must apply for admission as a non-degree student and be accepted.

Non-degree students can only take courses for which they meet the prerequisites. Registration for non-degree students is opened 3 days after registration for first year students.

If a non-degree student applies and is accepted to a degree program, some credits earned in non-degree status can transfer to the degree program. However there are restrictions and limitations. Details are defined in the section on transfer of credits.

Exchange student – is any student studying at KIMEP University who is a degree-seeking student from another university. KIMEP University has student exchange programs with many partner universities from around the world. Students from partner universities study at KIMEP University for one or two semesters and transfer the credits back to their home university.

Adult Learner – is a non-degree option offered to all people (above 21 years old) interested in auditing KIMEP University courses. A person who is accepted under the Adult Learning status is not formally the student of KIMEP University and, therefore, do not receive any/all benefits that students have. Though the rules and conducts while taking courses have to be followed (KIMEP University and KZ regulations). A person under the Adult Learning status can only audit the course and no course assessment will apply to these individuals. A person under the Adult Learning status take full responsibility on English proficiency to understand course materials. No course Prerequisites apply. No formal transcript is provided upon the completion of the course, just confirmation from the Registrar office, which reflects the name of the course, semester and AU grade. Audited courses cannot be transferred or converted to degree programs at KIMEP University. Registration for the courses is done on a space-available basis (any Undergraduate or Graduate courses in KIMEP University official schedule) during registration period for non-degree students. All other non-degree conditions apply, including full payment in advance with no refunds and maximum number of courses per semester the same as degree students.

Visiting students are those who independently come to the KIMEP U without having a formal exchange agreement.

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE-SEEKING CLASS STANDING

Freshman – refers to a student during his/her first academic year followed the admission to the program

First-year student – A student who has fewer than 30 earned credit hours student with up, regardless the year of entry

Sophomore - A student who has 30-59 earned credit hours

Junior - A student who has 60-89 earned credit hours

Senior - A student who has at least 90 earned credit hours

GRADUATE DEGREE-SEEKING CLASS STANDING

Newcomer - refers to a graduate student during his/her first academic semester followed the admission to the program

Fast-Track Student - newly admitted graduate student who has certain courses transferred from recognized undergraduate degree toward graduate records

ACADEMIC STANDING

Academic standing applies only to degree students. Therefore a student with Regular status is a degree student in good academic standing.

Regular - is a degree student whose academic progress is acceptable towards earning a degree.

Academic Probation (AP) - is a degree student whose performance is below the standards required for graduation (details are stated in the section on Academic Probation).

Full Time - Part Time

KIMEP UNIVERSITY also classifies students as full time or part time. The only distinction between full-time and part-time students is that part-time students may not receive scholarships, grants, or tuition waivers.

Full Time Student - is any undergraduate student who takes 12 or more credit equivalents per semester or any graduate student who takes 9 or more credit equivalents per semester. Foundation course count as a full time load.

Part Time Student - is any undergraduate student who takes less than 12 credit equivalents per semester or any graduate student who takes less than 9 credit equivalents per semester.

Year of Study

In the framework of academic credit system, the year of study is based on the number of credits completed according to the table below. Graduate programs have only a first and second year. In some cases a second year graduate student will have more credits than the upper limit in the table for second year status. Year of study is important for the priority registration system.

Credits earned	Year of Study
0 to 30	First year (Freshman)
31 to 60	Second year (Sophomore)
61 to 90	Third year (Junior)
91 and up	Fourth Year (Senior)

Confirmation of student status

The Office of the Registrar prepares enrollment verification documents (spravka) for students enrolled at KIMEP UNIVERSITY under any status as well as alumni. Documents are available in a timely manner. Students may request it online through the Student Portal.

AT-RISK OF ACADEMIC FAILURE

According to Fridlander (1980) at-risk students are "Those students who because of poor academic preparation, language handicaps, or low motivation may have difficulty to succeed"

Early warning indicators

Group "At risk"

For Freshmen only:

1. UNT score - students with overall UNT score below 60 and/or math. score below 10 should be flagged for possible early intervention.
2. KEPT score - students with KEPT score below 60 should be flagged for possible early intervention.

3. Study-Skills deficiencies
4. Place of origin (rural/urban)
5. Non-Almaty residents
6. Any student who fails to attend Fall Orientation should be flagged for possible early intervention.
7. Second-week (For English Foundation courses only), first-month first-quarter, and first-semester absences - students who miss more than 10% of instructional time should be flagged for possible early intervention.
8. Second-week (For English Foundation courses only), first-month first-quarter, and first-semester performance- students who demonstrated poor performance by the opinion of the instructors should be flagged for possible early intervention.

For First Year Students

1. Any first year student who did not pass Foundation courses during the first year after admission should be flagged as at risk
2. Any first year student with less than 24 credits taken and GPA below 2.0 should be flagged as at risk

For all Students including freshman and first year students

1. Course performance - students with more than one F in one semester should be flagged for possible early intervention.
2. Students who demonstrated poor performance on the first and second assessment.
3. Grade Point Average- any student with a GPA of 2.1 or less at the end of the term should be considered at risk for dropping out and should be flagged for possible early intervention.
4. Students who demonstrated significant drop in GPA comparing with previous semester should be flagged for possible early intervention.
5. Withdraw from a course- students with more than one W within one semester should be flagged for possible early intervention.

Some of the indicators should be looked at 'as a group' rather than individually (For example UNT Score, KEPT score, and first-month, first-quarter, and first-semester absences, or withdrawal and poor course performance). The grouping will be determined by the Registrar and retention specialists. A student who has many unexcused absences, poor course performance, withdrawals, GPA of 2.1 and below and an 'F' would qualify as 'at-risk'.

ACADEMIC PROBATION

Students on Academic Probation are considered as students at academic risk. AP students may register for restricted number of credits only and cannot be the recipients of the KIMEP University financial aid.

Undergraduate students

- By the results of the first semester of study at KIMEP University if cumulative grade point average of student is below 2.0 the obligatory academic counseling with the program/college is required.
- After an undergraduate student has taken 24 credits at KIMEP University, the student will be placed on Academic Probation if the cumulative grade point average is still below 2.0.
- An undergraduate student on Academic Probation may not register for more than 12 credits equivalents per Fall/Spring semester and for more than 6 (six) credit equivalents in a seven-and-a-half week Summer semester. While student on Academic Probation academic counseling remains obligatory for him/her.
- A student will be returned to regular status whenever the overall GPA is raised to 2.0 or above.
- An undergraduate student who has attempted 24 or more credits while on Academic Probation, whose overall GPA is still below 2.0 withdrawn from KIMEP University.
- Student may return to KIMEP University following the Reinstatement policy.
- An undergraduate student with GPA of 1.9 or above and 117 or more credits earned, may request an extension of the Academic Probation Period for one semester, if graduation is feasible based on the availability of remaining courses in the upcoming semester and raising the GPA 2.0 or above required for graduation

Graduate students

- By the results of first semester of study at KIMEP UNIVERSITY if cumulative grade point average of a student is below 3.0 for MBA, ExMBA, MATESOL, DBA and LLM and 2.67 for other Masters programs, the obligatory academic counseling with the program/college is required.
- After a graduate student has taken 18 credits at KIMEP UNIVERSITY , the student will be placed on Academic Probation if the cumulative grade point average is still below 3.0 for MBA, ExMBA, MATESOL, DBA and LLM and 2.67 for other Masters programs.
- A graduate student on Academic Probation may not register for more than 9 credits equivalents per Fall/Spring semester and for more than 6 (six) credit equivalents in a seven-and-a-half week Summer semester. While student on Academic Probation academic counseling remains obligatory for him/her.
- A student will be returned to regular status whenever the overall GPA is raised to 3.0 for MBA, ExMBA, MATESOL, DBA and LLM and 2.67 for other Masters program or above.
- A graduate student who has attempted 18 or more credits while on Academic Probation, whose overall GPA is still below 3.0 for MBA, ExMBA, MATESOL, DBA and LLM and 2.67 for other Masters program will be withdrawn from KIMEP University.
- Student may return to KIMEP University following the policy of Returning Students.

ACADEMIC SUSPENSION

Any student who does not regain good standing is offered one semester Academic Suspension option. If student decides to accept the offer, he/she has a right to register for one 2/3 credits course and is obliged to participate in an academic recovery program during one semester. After a semester of the recovery program, a student returns to the Academic Probation status for one more semester and if is not able or willing to regain good standing will be dismissed from the KIMEP U.

Academic Suspension is allowed during the whole student's history only once (at least under the certain StudentID).

ACADEMIC SUPPORT PROGRAM

The Academic Support Program is a mandatory recovery program for students with the academic suspension status. The Academic Support Program is designed to help students to regain good standing with emphasis placed on self-responsibility, proper decision-making and sturdy skills. Participation in the Program is a must!

Students must register for one credit course that includes a series of one hour workshops. These workshops are focused on the academic performance skills, such as studies, making the grade, critical thinking, presentations, working in groups, effective reading, writing, handling homework and test taking, communications, memory tricks, listening and note taking, etc.

All students who participate in the Support Program must attend the workshops on a weekly (every other week) basis throughout the semester.

The Student Learning Center advisors shall make individual appointments with students to help them design a personal schedule for the Academic Recovery Program that meets their individual needs. If poor academic performance is caused by behavioral problems rather than skills deficiency, the student should attend the mandatory counseling with the KIMEP University psychologist.

Students must fill in an application form to register for the Academic Support Program. The Academic support Program is free of charge.

The Academic Recovery Program will be offered in the Fall and Spring semesters on the dates specified in the KIMEP U academic calendar.

If a student fails to attend the workshops as scheduled in accordance with his/her individual recovery program a semester long, this student will be dismissed from the KIMEP U.

The Academic Support Program is an opportunity for students to identify their problems that caused their academic problems and define steps to be taken to correct these problems.

REGISTRATION FOR CLASSES

KIMEP UNIVERSITY has a unique online registration system following personalized and secure approach. The dates of the registration period for each semester (including summer sessions) are stated in the academic calendar. The online registration system is accessible only during the registration and add/drop periods.

Priority Registration

KIMEP University uses a priority registration system. Graduate students, fourth-year students, students with a grade point average of 4.0 or above, and students with special needs have the first opportunity to register for classes. The priority system ensures that graduating students are the first to be registered in courses that would be needed for graduation.

Thereafter registration is opened for third-year students, then second year, etc. The date on which registration is opened for each priority group is indicated in the academic calendar.

Add and drop

The first week of the full (Fall/Spring) semester is designated as the add-drop period. During Summer semesters add/drop period is two days. (The exact dates are stated in the academic calendar). Add and drop period is originally designed to add and drop courses for students who already registered.

Late Registration

The second week of the full (Fall/Spring) semester will be opened as on-line late registration for any students whose semester registration is delayed for any reasons. During Summer 1 semester Late Registration period is two days. No Late registration period in 3 weeks Summer 2 Semester. Limited course options are available at this stage. Applications for late registration will not be considered unless first approved by the Instructor.

A set Late Registration Fee applies to a student.

Student Activity Fee

All registered KIMEP University undergraduate students (including non-degree students) have to pay the Student Activity Fee for the Fall and Spring semesters.

The only exemptions are:

- Those be approved and recommended by the KIMEP Students Association (KSA) who must provide a resolution explaining and justifying the recommended exemptions.
- When exchange students (in/out KIMEP University) enter into different financial arrangements as specified in the relevant Memorandum of Understanding.

Duration of Semesters

Fall and Spring Semesters average 15 weeks long. Summer one is 7.5 weeks long and International Summer Two semester is 3 weeks long.

Maximum Course Load per Semester

The maximum course load is based on credit equivalents which includes both credit and non-credit courses.

Fall and Spring Semesters

The recommended academic load during fall and spring semesters for undergraduate students is 15 credits or credit equivalents. The typical course schedule is five 3-credit courses. The recommended academic load for graduate students is 12 credits or credit equivalents. The maximum number of credits (and/or credit equivalents) for both graduate and undergraduate students in fall and spring semesters is 18 (eighteen). The limit includes retakes and zero credit courses. Physical education can be taken above 18 credits.

Non-degree students and Adult Learners follow the same guidelines and restrictions on maximum course load as regular degree students.

In rare cases an exception can be made for graduating students with an outstanding academic record to take up to 21 credits in the final fall or spring semester. Approval of the dean and the Vice President of Academic Affairs is necessary. No other exceptions are permitted.

An undergraduate student on academic probation may register for up to 12 credit equivalents. A graduate student on academic probation may register for up to 9 credit equivalents.

An undergraduate student on academic suspension option may register for one 2/3 credits course and is obliged to participate in an academic recovery program during one semester.

Summer semester

The maximum number of credits (and/or credit equivalents) that a student may take in a seven-and-a-half-week summer semester is 9 (nine) credits. The limit for a three-week summer module is 3 (three) credit equivalents. The limits include retakes and zero credit courses. Students on Academic Probation are limited to 6 (six) credit equivalents in a seven-and-a-half week semester.

Waiting List

Once a course section is full, the online registration system allows students to sign up for a waiting list, (after verification of required prerequisites, max. number of credits in a semester and tuition availability). Any course drop of an earlier registered student will result in registration of the student who is first in the waiting list, requiring student confirmation within 24 hours. Immediate notification of the waiting-listed student is made through the E-MAIL system. Tuition is charged accordingly, and course registration is treated as for any other course. If a student fails to register within the given period, the eligibility to register for the course goes to the following student on the waiting list.

By the first Wednesday of classes each college management will clean up the waiting list.

Prerequisite Waiver Policy

Many courses have one or more prerequisite courses, which must be completed before a student can register for the course. The purpose of the prerequisite is to ensure that a student has sufficient knowledge to understand the content of a course.

Only in rare situations can a student enroll in a course without having completed the prerequisite(s). If a student feels that there is sufficient justification to waive a prerequisite, the student may submit a petition for a prerequisite waiver to the department chair or program director.

The chair then consults with the instructor of the course. If both agree, then a waiver can be granted. If either the instructor or the chair refuses permission, then the student will not be allowed to enroll in the course.

Retake (Repeat) of a Course

If a student receives a failing grade in a course, the student may retake the course. If the course is an optional elective, the student may choose to repeat the course but is not required to do so. A student who has completed a course with a passing grade may elect to repeat the course in order to improve the grade (except a State Exam for History of Kazakhstan course). All grades for a course and subsequent retakes are recorded on the transcript, but only the last grade is included in the calculation of the cumulative grade point average. This applies even if the last grade is lower than an earlier grade.

To retake a course, students should register for the course and pay tuition the same as for other courses. Student must attend class sessions (lectures and/or tutorials) and complete all assignments and examinations, the same as if they were taking the course for the first time. Student may not recycle assignments or exam scores from a previous enrollment nor can students use current assignments or exam grades to raise a grade from a previous semester.

To retake a course for a third time a student needs the approval of the dean of the student's college. A fourth and subsequent retakes require the approval of the Vice President of Academic Affairs.

Independent Study

An undergraduate student (in good academic standing on regular status) may enroll in independent study during the final semester before graduation if a course necessary for graduation is not offered or if a course necessary for graduation has been cancelled. Before an independent study can be authorized, the student should consult with the program advisers to determine if a substitute course is available. Independent study is not authorized if the required course was previously offered and the student would have been able to take the course but elected not to do so. No more than three credits of independent study can be used for an undergraduate degree. Independent study may not be used to repeat a course previously completed with a passing grade.

A graduate student (in good academic standing on regular status) may enroll in independent study if a course necessary for graduation is not offered or if a course necessary for graduation has been cancelled. Independent study can be authorized if sufficient courses or substitute courses are not available for the student to make continuous progress towards completing the degree. No more than six credits of independent study can be used for a graduate degree.

The process for completing an independent study is as follows:

- A faculty member with expertise in the subject area (preferably a faculty member who has previously taught the course) agrees to supervise the independent study.
- The faculty member submits a study plan detailing the learning objectives, reading assignments, student-faculty contact schedule, and methods of assessment.
- A faculty panel consisting of the chair or associate dean and one person from the department reviews the study plan. The panel may approve the plan, disapprove the plan, or request additional information.
- If the faculty panel agrees then a recommendation is made to the dean for final approval.
- The dean notifies the Registrar's Office in writing of the approval of the independent study. The form for Independent Study is available at Registrar's website.
- The student registers for the course as independent study and pays the regular tuition fee.
- At the end of the semester the faculty supervisor submits all documents verifying completion of the independent study along with the grade for the course.

This policy does not apply to ExMBA and DBA students.

Graduate Jump Start

A KIMEP UNIVERSITY undergraduate student with a grade point average of 3.0 or higher may request to enroll in graduate courses in his/her last semester of study. The student must be enrolled in all courses needed to complete the undergraduate degree and the total number of credits for both graduate and undergraduate courses may not exceed the maximum number of credits allowed for graduate students. If the student subsequently enters a graduate program, the graduate credits can be transferred to the graduate program and counted as credits taken in residence.

The graduate credits cannot be used as part of the degree requirements for the undergraduate degree. The graduate tuition fee applies to all courses receiving graduate credit.

Cancellation of classes

KIMEP University has no obligation to run a course with low enrollments. KIMEP University has an established policy on minimum class size and has the right to cancel classes due to low enrollment. To best assist students, the colleges will notify students about all class cancellations prior to a semester start. When a class is cancelled, students should consult with the department or advisers to determine an appropriate alternative and register accordingly.

Scheduling Final Exams

A final exam week shall be a final week of classes or 16th week unless otherwise determined by the College in terms of the mode of assessment or time of assessment. Exams are scheduled at the same time and halls as during the regular semester.

LEAVE AND WITHDRAWAL FROM KIMEP UNIVERSITY

A student may request a leave of absence by submitting a leave of absence form to the Registrar's Office. The maximum time for a leave of absence is one academic year or 2 semesters separately. Exception is Academic Leave due to maternity reason (3 years) and due to military services (for the whole period of services), provided official documents confirming the declared status.

If a student does not enroll for classes and does not request a leave of absence, the student is administratively withdrawn from KIMEP University at the end of the late registration period of non-enrollment (excluding summer sessions). Registrar's office informs non-enrolled students about upcoming withdrawal by e-mail only. Such students are welcomed back through Registrar Office, following the State Standard rules.

Eligibility for Leave of Absence (AL):

- All degree students are eligible for AL. This means they must have completed at least one semester at KIMEP University.
- A student must submit all supporting documents to justify the reasons for AL.

- Settle all financial obligations to the University.(Except for financial reason). If you have outstanding debts to your account while on leave, you will not be allowed to register until your debts are cleared before returning.

Application Instructions and Deadline:

- A student must complete the Leave of Absence Form through the students' portal, sign it and submit to the Registrar Office during the registration period stated in the academic Calendar. If there is a debt then VPaf consideration needed.
- Applications will NOT be considered until grades are posted for the last semester of enrollment.
- If students are enrolled for the term they wish to begin their leave and it is beyond the drop deadline, a student must officially withdraw from course(s) following the withdraw periods and tuition refund period stated in Academic Calendar.
- Registrar Office will process the form and issue an order for leave of absence.

Return from Leave of Absence

- Academic/Administrative Leave status will be converted to Regular status upon completion of the Academic/Administrative Leave period indicated in Leave of Absence Form.
- Registrar Office can cancel Academic Leave upon student's request if he wants to return earlier

Withdrawal from KIMEP University

Withdrawal from KIMEP University terminates the agreements between the student and the University. Withdrawal can be initiated by the student or by KIMEP University. KIMEP University has the right to administratively withdraw students for poor academic performance, for violations of KIMEP University regulations, for disciplinary reasons, for expiration of the time allowed for graduation or for non-registration (unless a leave of absence form has been submitted).

To voluntarily withdraw from KIMEP University, a student should:

- Apply for withdrawal on-line via Student Portal
- Contact the Dean of Student Affairs
- Settle all debts and obligations with the University.
- Pay a withdrawal fee if withdrawal is initiated by student

Withdrawal fee is not applied to students in the following cases:

- Students who are readmitted to regular KIMEP University programs.
- Students who are administratively withdrawn from KIMEP University.
- Newly admitted students who did not start study and not registered for any courses
 - Retrieve all official documents (such as UNT certificate)
 - If withdrawn students later desire to return to KIMEP University, they must apply for reinstatement through Registrar Office, following the State Standard rules.

Withdrawal period for newly admitted students

1. Newly admitted students have to enroll in the period indicated in their letter of acceptance/ Admission order.
2. If newly admitted students have not enrolled in the period indicated in the acceptance letter/ Admission order they will be administratively withdrawn from KIMEP University and reported to the Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

TRANSFER BETWEEN PROGRAMS

At KIMEP UNIVERSITY , degree students are admitted to a specific program. For various reasons a student may later decide to pursue studies in a different program. A transfer to another program is permitted for both undergraduate and graduate students, subject to the following limitations:

- Undergraduate students must complete one full semester and have passed 15 credits.
- Graduate students wishing to transfer from one program to another may do so without regard to the number of credits completed.
- The student must meet all admission and/or transfer requirements of the receiving program.
- Student has notified the parent college and has written permission of the dean of the receiving college.

- Students are free to change the program of study within KIMEP University as per their study aspirations. State transfer rules prevail any internal transfer rules.

Regardless of whether previous courses are counted towards a degree program, all courses taken at KIMEP University (with grades) should appear on the official transcript. Courses not counted towards a degree can be listed in a separate “additional courses” section at the end of the transcript.

For students who transfer from one program to another, or who transfer from non-degree to degree status, the GPA will be calculated using all courses for which credit is given in the degree program. Courses not counted towards the degree program “additional courses” will not be included in the calculation of the GPA, although they will appear on the student’s transcript.

TRANSFER OF CREDITS

Transferring KIMEP UNIVERSITY credits (Internal Transfer)

Credits earned in degree status at KIMEP University are permanent and can be used in any degree program for which the credits are appropriate. If a student is withdrawn from KIMEP University and later reapplies to study under a new student ID, the credits previously earned can be transferred to the records for the new ID .

If requirements have changed, then some credits may not be applicable. The curriculum committee of the department or program makes the final determination of whether previous credits correspond to current requirements and can count towards the degree.

A student who earned credits at KIMEP University as a non-degree student and who was later admitted to a degree program may transfer no more than fifty (50) percent of student’s degree program requirements.

Grades achieved at KIMEP University can be transferred automatically only if they are “C”, “C+” and better. The curriculum committee of the department or program may consider transferring a student’s “D” grades, in which case a transfer form shall be submitted to the Registrar Office.

All internal transfer should be processed during the admission period.

All internal transferred grades are calculated in overall GPA.

No transfer credits to non-degree status are allowed.

Transfer of Credits from outside of KIMEP University

Coursework completed at other universities in Kazakhstan or abroad can be transferred to KIMEP University.

Newly admitted students, who did not indicated their status as student transferring (intentionally or unintentionally) from other universities (from KZ or abroad) will not be able to transfer any courses later during their study term, except for the cases of pre-approved exchange programs or pre-approved study abroad programs. Registrar will, therefore, make the course transfer during study only for above mentioned groups.

The application must be accompanied by a detailed course syllabus showing the topics covered in the course and an official transcript showing the number of credits and the grade or final assessment in the course.

- If an equivalent course exists at KIMEP University, the transcript will indicate the course code and course title of the KIMEP University course. The course need not transfer for the same number of credits as the KIMEP University course.
- If a course does not match a current course title then the course can be transferred as Special Topics.
- Courses in disciplines that are not taught at KIMEP University can still be transferred as free electives.
- Credits for courses taken at other institutions of higher education will only be transferred if the student has earned “C”, “C+” and higher grade in the course. However coursework taken at a partner university as part of a KIMEP University sponsored student exchange program requires any passing grade in order to be transferred.
- No letter grade is assigned to transfer courses. Transfer courses are not considered in the calculation of the grade point average.
- No more that fifty (50) percent of student’s degree program requirements can be transferred. No transfer credits to non-degree status are allowed.
- To apply for the transfer applicant should submit a transcript with grading system described. No course with “pass” grade is transferred unless the numerical scale for the grade provided.

- Student, admitted by transfer policy, can further apply for additional course transfer within one semester of study. No course transfer is allowed thereafter.
- One course of Physical Education taken during one semester at other university is equal to 2 KIMEP credits.
- The course transfer decision is an academic decision, and the final judgment and decision is made by the academic departments (number of credits, level of the course, course equivalent in KIMEP University catalog, etc.).

The Registrar may not accept for processing some credit transfers if not satisfied with above. The Academic Council provides oversight of the course transfer procedure and decision-making in case of inconsistencies or student appeals.

ECTS transfer

Coursework completed at European universities is often defined in terms of ECTS (European Credit Transfer System).

ECTS is based on workload and learning outcomes rather than on class contact time. This is the same as KIMEP University credits. Each KIMEP University credit is equivalent to 2 European credits.

ECTS	KIMEP UNIVERSITY
3	1.5

Waiver of Graduate Requirements (Fast-track)

Students admitted to a graduate program who have an undergraduate degree in the same field or a closely related discipline are considered fast-track students. Fast-track students can transfer or receive course waivers according to the guidelines of the graduate program. For KIMEP University graduates each program has a policy on the courses and the minimum grade requirement that applies to the fast-track program.

Students who completed undergraduate programs at other universities should follow the course transfer procedures in order to qualify for waivers under the fast-track policy.

Fast-track courses are transferred without grades. Grades earned in undergraduate courses that are used to waive graduate requirements do not count in a student's graduate grade point average.

Transferred or waived credits cannot exceed fifty (50) percent of the requirements for the degree.

GRADUATION

Curriculum Requirements

In general, a student follows the curriculum requirements in place at the time the student begins to study at KIMEP University. However, KIMEP University has the right to improve or make substitutions to the curriculum. Every effort is made to ensure that any necessary changes do not put the student at a disadvantage or disrupt the program of study. In some cases, students in a particular program may have the choice of completing the program under all or part of the requirements from a later edition of the KIMEP University catalog. Whenever this is the case, students are informed of their options and can consult with advisers to determine the best course of action.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

In order to receive a degree from KIMEP University, a graduate or undergraduate student must:

- Fulfill all KIMEP University requirements.
- Settle all financial obligations to the University.
- Fulfill all requirements, if any, of the College.
- Fulfill all requirement of the degree program.

KIMEP UNIVERSITY Undergraduate Degree Requirements

KIMEP University has established six general requirements that a student must meet to earn a bachelor degree:

- Earn credits with a minimum passing grade of “D-” or better in each course.
- Earn at least 50% from courses taken at KIMEP University.
- Have a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.00. (It is necessary to have grades above the minimum passing grade in order to meet the 2.0 GPA requirement.)
- Complete General Education required courses (GER) based on program curricular .
- Receive a passing grade in all required non-credit prerequisite courses.
- Complete all of the requirements in a KIMEP University degree program. Degree program requirements are stated in later sections.

KIMEP UNIVERSITY Graduate Degree Requirements

Graduation requirements for Master’s degrees vary from department to department. Full details are given in the program sections. However, in general, to earn a graduate degree from KIMEP University , every student must:

- Complete a minimum of 36 credits of Master’s coursework beyond the undergraduate degree. The minimum includes credits for internship, practicum, thesis and research projects.
- Complete a residency requirement consisting of a minimum of 50% of graduate coursework completed at KIMEP University. Up to 6 credits of graduate coursework completed at a partner university in a KIMEP University -sponsored exchange program can be included in the 24 credits. Additional credits earned at partner universities can be transferred but cannot be applied to the KIMEP University minimum credits. The thesis and internship normally are supervised by KIMEP University.
- Receive a passing grade in all required credit and non-credit courses.
- Complete the number of credits required by the degree program with a passing grade in each course. Grades between “A+” and “B-” are passing grades. “C+”, “C”, or “C-” can be passing subject to the 2 C’s policy limitation.
- 2 C’s Policy: For the Bang College of Business and School of Law two grades of “C” are allowed for graduation. For the College of Social Sciences and the Language Center two grades of “C” in elective courses are allowed for graduation. The 2 C’s policy does not apply to 0 credit English courses.
- Have a cumulative grade point average (GPA) at or above the minimum requirement: 2.67 (3.0 for MBA, ExMBA, MATESOL, DBA and MLLM).
- Research, write and publicly defend a master’s thesis.
- Meet all requirements for the master’s program in the student’s major field of study.

Graduation requirements for Doctoral degrees are covered in their respective sections.

Time Allowed for Graduation

Undergraduate students are allowed 10 years to complete all requirements for graduation. Graduate students have a 5 year limit for completing graduation requirements. Any period of academic leave from KIMEP University is included in these time limits.

GRADUATION DATES

A student can graduate after Fall, Spring, or Summer semesters once all graduation requirements have been completed. In order to graduate, a student must complete all requirements by the end of the semester of graduation. In order to graduate, a student should:

- Submit a Graduation Request to the Office of the Registrar. This initiates the process of certifying that the student has met all degree requirements and is approved for the degree.
- Submit a Graduation Checkout List to the Office of the Registrar. This verifies that all administrative and financial obligations (library, dormitory, sport center, commandant, etc.) have been met.

Graduation Ceremony

KIMEP University holds an annual graduation ceremony shortly after the spring semester of each year. The graduation ceremony is for all graduates from the entire academic year.

- Spring graduates may participate.
- Graduates from the previous fall semester may participate even though they have already received their diplomas.
- Students who are short 12 credits based on Spring registration may also participate. These students do not officially graduate or receive their diplomas until after the semester in which all requirements are completed.

Graduation Participation

Student who wishes to participate in the graduation ceremony should:

- Inform the Office of the Registrar that they desire to participate
- Settle all debts with the University.

Statement of Purpose

The Language Center at KIMEP University delivers high quality language courses for undergraduate and graduate students that assist them in fully and effectively participating in their degree programs. The Center also offers three academic programs aimed at enriching opportunities for KIMEP students to encounter courses in the Humanities.

Mission

The mission of the Language Center is for all students to acquire the key language skills: the ability to listen effectively and understand the meaning of an oral communication, to speak fluently and to communicate clearly and concisely in a given language, to be able to express ideas in correct written format and to be able to read and comprehend university-level texts. In addition, the Language Center aims to integrate high-order analytical and critical thinking skills in all its courses and to provide students with a firm orientation in university study so as to enable them to be successful learners.

Profile

Since the inception of KIMEP in 1992, English has been the language of instruction. The Language Center has therefore always played a dominant role in KIMEP academics. At present the Language Center has a core staff of local and foreign language professionals. In addition, with support from the Soros Foundation, the British Council and TACIS, the Language Center has accumulated a rich and well utilized library of teaching resources. The Language Center now has over 1,250 titles from American and British publishers. In addition to running all-important English courses for both undergraduates and graduates at KIMEP, the Language Center also runs a Master of Arts in Foreign Language: Two Foreign Languages. This is useful not only for teachers of English but also for developing excellence in the teaching of any foreign or second language.

FOUNDATION ENGLISH

English at KIMEP University

KIMEP is an English-medium university. A basic knowledge of English is insufficient because the English used in the classroom is academic English. Academic English is different from general English in many significant ways. Because of this, the Language Center offers a number of courses in English for Academic Purposes to help students succeed in their studies. Every student must participate in some or all of these courses and receive a passing grade.

English Requirements

Although English is the medium of instruction at KIMEP University, it is not an admission criterion. The university admits students on academic merit and the Language Center supports them in reaching the level of English that is essential for success in their studies. As part of the admission process, students must take an English proficiency test. Usually students will take the KIMEP Entrance Placement Test (KEPT), which is administered by KIMEP.

New students except those who have a valid TOEFL or IELTS certificate must take a placement test (KEPT) prior to the start of classes. The information about dates and testing procedure should be obtained from the Admission office The Advising Office in the Language Center can provide additional information about testing.

Placement in Foundation English Courses

Upon admission to KIMEP, undergraduate students are placed in an English course according to their level of proficiency. This level is ascertained by reference to the KIMEP English Entrance Test (KEPT) or an equivalent instrument, such as a TOEFL or IELTS score. In the Foundation English phase, there are three levels of English, each requiring a total of 225 contact hours. The total number of courses that a student needs to complete will depend on his/her proficiency in English.

The Foundation English courses are as follows:

Code	Name of Course	Level of Proficiency at Entry *	Level of Proficiency upon Completion*	Duration in contact hours	Prerequisite
ENG 0101	Foundation English Level C	Beginner	A1 +	225 contact hours	Determined by KEPT
ENG 0102	Foundation English Level B	A1 +	B1 Mid	225 contact hours	ENG0101 (or requisite KEPT)
ENG 0103	Foundation English Level A	B1 Mid	B2 Mid	225 contact hours	ENG0102 (or requisite KEPT)

* Levels are defined in terms of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR).

 KIMEP English Placement Test

Confirmation of Level

Although the KEPT (or equivalent) is used as the primary reference for placement, new students will receive an assessment during the first week of classes in order to confirm their suitability to the level in which they have been placed. This assessment procedure is recommended for all newly admitted students. After the consultation and the approval of the Language Center's Executive Director, an instructor may advise a student to move to a higher or a lower level. All such moves are exclusively in the interests of the student. Students may refuse to move to a higher or lower level but will be required to sign a document in which they take full responsibility for rejecting the advice given. It is possible to skip a level provided students take an external test (such as IELTS) the result of which corresponds to the required level of proficiency upon completion.

Aims of the Foundation English Courses

These courses are KIMEP students' first encounter with university study. The purpose of the courses is, therefore, threefold:

- To offer intensive practice in the use of English in all four skill areas (speaking, listening, reading and writing).
- To guide students from the outset in the acquisition of effective study methods, sound academic skills, higher-order thinking and problem-solving, and critical thinking.
- To support students in taking responsibility for their learning and becoming increasingly independent learners.

Classes are strongly learner-centered and task-based. Great emphasis is placed on encouraging students to realize the crucial importance of diligent study habits both in and outside the classroom. Assessment is continuous and feedback is constructive and frequent.

Course Duration

Each Foundation English course requires 225 contact hours.

Courses offered in the fall, spring and summer semesters run for a semester. At the end of the course a final result is issued and students can then move up to the next level (either a Foundation English course or the first two courses in English for Academic Purposes) or repeat the course, if necessary. The Language Center Advising Coordinator is available to assist students in making appropriate choices.

Concurrent Study

Students may enroll in the 2-credit Life Security course and/or a course in Physical Education concurrently with any Foundation English course. In other cases concurrent enrollment is permitted only within the following guidelines:

Code	Students may take concurrently:
ENG0101	Only Life Security and/or up to 2 credit hours of Physical Education
ENG0102	1-3 credits taught in Russian or Kazakh and/or up to 2 credit hours of Physical Education
ENG0103	1-3 credits in any medium of instruction in a 1000-level course, and/or up to 2 credit hours of Physical Education

No exceptions to the above table will be considered. Students should refer to the Academic Program sections for any restrictions that might apply to courses that can be taken concurrently with ENG0103.

Final Results

Students do not receive a letter grade for Foundation English courses. Instead they receive either a Pass or a Fail. In the event of a Fail, the student must repeat the course. KIMEP's policy on grade appeal applies equally to Foundation English courses. Information on the Language Center's appeal procedure can be obtained from the Advising Coordinator of the Language Center in Room 221, Dostyk Building or one of the Assistants in Room 228, Dostyk Building.

ACADEMIC ENGLISH

After completing (or being exempted from) Foundation English, students proceed to four courses in Academic English. Each course is worth three credits. Details and regulations can be found in the General Education section of this catalog and in the sections dealing with specific programs.

The following four Academic English courses are required:

ENG1100/GEN1100	Academic Speaking
ENG1120/GEB1120	Academic Reading and Writing 1
ENG1110/GEN1110	Academic Listening and Note Taking
ENG1121/GEN1121	Academic Reading and Writing 2 (not offered in Summer)

The four Academic English courses (ENG1100, ENG1120, ENG1110, and ENG1121) form a sequence. ENG1100 and ENG1120 are normally taken in a student's first semester, and ENG1110 and ENG1121 in a student's second semester. Most academic departments expect a student to have taken and passed these four courses before taking content area courses in the major field. Therefore, it is especially important that students complete these courses in the first year.

ENG1100 and ENG 1120 form part of the General Education program, whereas ENG 1110 and ENG 1121 are located under Basic Disciplines in each academic program. For further details refer to the General Education section or the specific program.

English Completion

Please note:

- A student must have fulfilled his/her English requirements by the completion of 30 credits or, if he/she has not completed the required English courses at the 30-credit point, he/she must be enrolled in English concurrent with other courses; and
- A student must have totally completed all English courses by 45 credit hours; and

- If a student has not completed his/her English by 45 credit hours, the student will be limited to taking English language courses only until the English language requirement has been met.
- ENG1121 Academic Reading and Writing 2 (formerly GEN1121) is offered only in Fall and Spring, not in Summer.

KAZAKH and RUSSIAN LANGUAGES

Kazakhstani students will be given a diagnostic test in the first day of class to determine their level of proficiency and to ensure that they have registered for an appropriate course. Placement is determined by diagnostic tests, interviews and consultations.

Because Kazakh is the state language, all undergraduate students (except international students) are required to take two courses (six credits) of Kazakh language. Only one Kazakh language course is permitted per semester. Students should read the course descriptions to choose the best course for their needs.

International students can choose and take 8 credits of General Kazakh or General Russian.

Because of differences in curriculum requirements, students who started their studies in Fall 2007, or thereafter, receive three credits for a Kazakh course, but pre-Fall 2007 students receive only two credits per course

The following beginning Kazakh language courses are offered:

Code	Name of course	Number of credits	Prerequisite	Eligibility
KAZ 1501	Beginning Kazakh	3 credits	no	Students with non-Turkic language background
KAZ 1502	Elementary Kazakh-1	3 credits	KAZ1501 Beginning Kazakh	Students with Turkic language background and students with non-Turkic language background who completed KAZ 1501 Beginning Kazakh
KAZ 1503	Elementary Kazakh-2	3 credits	KAZ1502 Elementary Kazakh -1	Students with Turkic language background and students with non-Turkic language background who completed KAZ 1502 Elementary Kazakh 1
KAZ 1504	Pre-Intermediate Kazakh-1	3 credits	KAZ1503 Elementary Kazakh-2	Students with Turkic language background and students with non-Turkic language background who completed KAZ 1503 Elementary Kazakh-2

Other courses of Kazakh Language are offered:

Code	Name of course	Number of credits	Prerequisite

PROFESSIONAL KAZAKH and RUSSIAN

Undergraduate Kazakhstani students are required to take one professional language course (2 credits) according to the type of secondary school they attended:

- Kazakhstani students who attended a Russian-medium school are required to take a course in Professional Kazakh. Four courses are offered at various levels. Students should read the course descriptions to choose the best course for their needs.
- Kazakhstani students who attended a Kazakh-medium school will take a course in Professional Russian.
- International students will take either a course in Professional Kazakh or a course in Professional Russian.

SUMMARY of ACADEMIC ENGLISH, KAZAKH and RUSSIAN LANGUAGE COURSE REQUIREMENTS for UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

- Academic English (12 credits)
- Kazakh (6 credits) (International students may choose to take either Kazakh or Russian language courses)
- Professional Kazakh or Russian (2 credits)

MODERN LANGUAGE COURSES

The Modern Languages unit offers students an opportunity to learn a varied selection of modern languages. Beginner-level courses establish a sound foundation in these languages, enabling students to understand simple spoken and written forms used in everyday situations and to develop basic communication skills. An academic and critical thinking component is included in these courses, aimed at encouraging research on the countries where these languages are spoken, thereby also promoting cross-cultural understanding and respect. Elementary-to intermediate-level courses are also offered for certain languages. Advanced-level business communication in Russian is also on the schedule. Students can take one or more of these courses as free electives. Depending on enrollment, instruction may be available in Russian, German and Chinese. Each of these courses is worth 3 credits.

ADVISING OFFICE and STUDENT SUPPORT

In line with its commitment to strong support for students and their success as learners, the Language Center has an Advising and Student Support Office to which students are encouraged to turn for help in any of the following areas:

- Understanding of course or program requirements
- Communication issues
- Study or learning problems
- Study skills
- Difficulties in meeting course requirements
- Adapting to KIMEP and an international curriculum
- Understanding the meaning of independent learning hours, office hours as opposed to class contact hours
- Developing a good independent study program
- Taking responsibility for learning
- Becoming an independent learner
- Applications for credit transfers (from Kazakhstani and international universities)
- Applications for exemptions and waivers
- The dates of verification and placement tests

The Language Center's team of advisers will provide support for students themselves or refer students to the appropriate unit at KIMEP, such as the Language Center's own Academic Learning Studio or another department at KIMEP. Students will be guided in making the right choice.

Where to go?

If students are in need of advice about studies in any courses offered by the Language Center or unsure where to go for help, they are always welcome to approach the Language Center Advising Coordinator or his team. They are here to provide expert and constructive support and, where appropriate, will handle matters in a confidential manner.

Coordinator of Advising and Student Support:

Location: Room 221 or Room 228, Dostyk Building

ACADEMIC LEARNING STUDIO

The Academic Learning Studio was established by the Language Center in order to help students achieve better results in courses and programs offered at KIMEP University. The Studio is a place where students can find many multimedia resources and materials to help them with their language learning and other studies. It is open to all students, from those enrolled in Foundation English to Master's and Doctoral level courses. It works closely with other programs to assist in assignments across the KIMEP curriculum. Support services are offered in English, Kazakh and Russian. Details are available from the Academic Learning Studio (Room 230, Dostyk Building).

More information can be found at: <http://www.kimep.kz/lc/en/studio/>

LANGUAGE CLUBS

Club meetings are open to KIMEP students and employees, as well as members of the general public. For details of meeting schedules, contact the organizing committee.

English Club

The English Club promotes English as a language of communication and provides the KIMEP community and general public with opportunities to enhance and share English-related interests through various events and programs. The English Club holds its meetings on a regular basis and introduces various topics so that the participants can increase their confidence in using English, make lasting new friendships with English-speaking and local club participants, learn about international cultures, and participate in educational, cultural, and social activities. Students are welcome to join the club at any time and enjoy the activities, meet new people, and practice their English.

Contact Person: Irina Timokhina, lc-asst@kimep.kz

Kazakh Club

The Kazakh Club offers various kinds of activities to assist learners of Kazakh in enlarging their vocabulary and practicing their communication skills. The club provides a wide range of information about Kazakh culture, customs and traditions and enables its members to become acquainted with Kazakh literature. The club's regular meetings involve not only class activities, but also trips to different places of interest both in the city and in the countryside. Anyone can join the Kazakh Club and enjoy the famous Kazakh hospitality and at the same time enhance his/her understanding of the Kazakh language.

Contact Person: Dr Zauresh Yernazarova, ezauresh@kimep.kz

Russian Club

The Russian Club is a joint project of two KIMEP units: the Language Center and the International Relations Office. It assists international regular and exchange students as well as international faculty and staff and their family in learning the Russian language through various cultural programs and linguistic activities. The local KIMEP community is also welcome to join the club to help international Russian learners acquire and practice Russian and share their cultural experiences. The Russian Club holds its meetings on a regular basis and introduces various topics so that participants can build their confidence in using Russian, make new lasting friendships with other participants, learn about international cultures, and participate in educational, cultural, and social activities.

Contact Person: Dr Yulia Kulichenko, kulichenko@kimep.kz

German Club

The German Club promotes German customs and culture, and offers opportunities for good fellowship—“Gemutlichkeit”. German Club members meet regularly to discuss aspects of German culture, improve language skills, and plan German Club events. The German Club offers informal contacts with other students in German as well as German exchange students on campus through such activities as movies, forums, and social gatherings. KIMEP students and staff are welcome to join the club, enjoy a friendly German atmosphere, meet new people and speak German in an informal setting.

UNDERGRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN TRANSLATION AND INTERPRETING

The Language Center offers a Certificate in Translation and Interpreting for KIMEP undergraduate and graduate students and for continuing students through the World Languages and Preparatory Program (WLPP).

The Certificate consists of three 3-credit courses (9 credits in total). The required and elective courses are described below.

The Certificate in Translation and Interpreting complements academic majors by providing students with specialized training that is essential in a globalizing world. Students receive a thorough grounding in the theory and practice of translation, including:

- translation history
- translation theory
- professional terminology
- grammatical analysis
- textual analysis
- vocabulary building
- systematic research
- team-work

Students who choose the elective in interpreting will be introduced to the basic theory and practice of consecutive and simultaneous oral translation in a variety of professional contexts. The Certificate in Translation and Interpreting has two core courses: TRN2101 (Introduction to Translation) and TRN4103 (Senior Project). Students complete the Certificate by taking the core courses at the beginning and end of the program respectively, with one elective course in between. All courses are evaluated through a combination of continuous assessment, two midterms, and a final examination.

To qualify for the Certificate program, a student must demonstrate an acceptable level of proficiency in both Russian and English. KIMEP undergraduates must complete all General Education requirements (including all four Academic English courses) as a prerequisite. Students in the World Languages Program must have the approval of the individual instructor. At the discretion of the program coordinator, students who do not speak Russian, but who are proficient in Kazakh or another Central Asian or European language, may also qualify.

Under normal circumstances, a student must earn a minimum grade of "B" in TRN2101 before taking other courses in the program. The student becomes certified on successful completion of TRN4103, a senior translation project developed in consultation with an instructor or the program team leader.

Students do not need to pursue a Certificate in order to take individual translation courses. All courses except the senior project are open to any student enrolled at KIMEP or in the World Languages Program, subject to the prerequisites above.

Certificate in Translation and Interpreting

Two courses in Group A, plus any one course from Group B to complete 9 credits:

Group A:	Required Courses for Certificate
TRN 2101	Introduction to Translation
TRN 4103	Senior Project in Translation

Group B:	Elective courses
TRN 3101	Introduction to Interpreting
TRN 3201	Commercial Translation
TRN 3202	Legal Translation
TRN 3203	Translation from Informational Media
TRN 4101	Topics in Translation
TRN 4102	Topics in Interpreting

GRADUATE ENGLISH REQUIREMENTS

English Requirements for Admission

All applicants seeking admission to a graduate program at KIMEP University must satisfy the regulations of the Ministry of Education and Science RK (MES). The language requirements of the MES stipulate one of the following:

- A pass in the Foreign Language Test administered in August each year by the National Testing Center (the test is offered in English, French or German and applicants may choose the language they prefer)
- A score of 6 in IELTS
- A score of 560 in TOEFL

Applicants with an IELTS or TOEFL result have a score that indicates their proficiency in English, the language of instruction at KIMEP University. Those who choose to take the NTC test must also take the KIMEP English Placement Test (KEPT) in order that the university may ascertain their level of proficiency in English.

Using the results of the IELTS, TOEFL or KEPT tests, the Language Center will place graduate students in one of the following courses:

- Direct admission to the academic program—for those with IELTS 6 or TOEFL 560 or a minimum of 70% in KEPT
- Graduate Foundation English Level C—for those with a KEPT score of less than 40%
- Graduate Foundation English Level B—for those with a KEPT score of 40-49%
- Graduate Foundation English Level A—for those with a KEPT score of 50-59%
- Four courses of Academic English for students with 60-69% in KEPT

No concurrent study in a program is possible until students demonstrate a proficiency level equivalent to 6 in IELTS, 560 in TOEFL or ≥70% in KEPT.

Graduate Foundation

Students with less than 60% in the KEPT are placed in the Foundation Phase. They may not take any other courses concurrently with GFE Levels B or A. No exceptions will be considered.

The Foundation English courses are as follows:

Code	Name of Course	Level of Proficiency (at end of course)	Duration	Prerequisite
ENG5103	Graduate Foundation English C	Near Beginner to Mid-elementary A1+ on the CEFR	330 learning hours over a full semester	None
ENG5104	Graduate Foundation English B	Upper Elementary to Pre-intermediate A2 on the CEFR*	33- learning hours over a full semester	ENG5103 or requisite KEPT score
ENG5105	Graduate Foundation English A	Pre-intermediate to Intermediate B1 (mid) on the CEFR*	540 learning hours over a full semester	ENG5104 or requisite KEPT score

* Common European Framework of Reference

The primary goals of the Foundation Phase include not merely the development of English language competence to a level that sustains study at master's level, but also the improvement of study and organizational skills, critical and analytical thinking, and other skills that contribute to successful university study at an advanced level.

Each Graduate Foundation English (GFE) course takes 540 learning hours, including class study, homework, individual and group projects, library and Internet research, independent study and other tasks. GFE courses are available during the summer for students who wish to be able to begin full-time studies in the Fall semester. Courses are defined in learning hours because students are expected to combine classroom interaction and learning with substantial time spent on work and study outside the class.

Placement in a GFE level is checked on the first day of classes. A verification test is administered in order to check the accuracy of the placement. It is compulsory for all new students to take this test. The results of the test will lead to one of three possible outcomes:

1. Confirmation of the placement—the student remains in the assigned course.
2. Transfer to a lower level—this decision is mandatory.
3. Transfer to a higher level—this decision is optional and the student may choose to remain in the level to which s/he was originally assigned.

Course Assessment Criteria: Assessment is based on satisfactory attendance, completion of all course work and an exit test. Students must pass both the course work and the exit test in order to proceed to the next phase (English for Academic Purposes). A pass mark in GFE is a "B" or 73%. Students who encounter a serious problem in the last week will be eligible for an “I”. In the event of a fail (i.e. a “B-” or less), the student must repeat the course.

GRADUATE DEGREE PROGRAM

MASTER OF ARTS IN FOREIGN LANGUAGE: TWO FOREIGN LANGUAGES (MA FL)

Statement of Purpose

This graduate degree program is a Master of Arts in Foreign Language: Two Foreign Languages, which aims to prepare students to become qualified educators of foreign languages. The program draws ideas from applied or educational linguistics. Students in the program are prepared to teach a variety of languages since the theoretical basis and practical teaching practices apply to teaching all languages.

Learning Objectives

The MA in Foreign Language program’s learning objectives are based on the TESOL International Organization and the US-based National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education standards with some revisions taking into consideration the different contextual needs. By the completion of their studies, MA students in this program will be able to:

1. Describe Language and Language Development. Students know, understand, and use concepts, theories, and research related to the nature and acquisition of English and other languages to construct educational settings that support foreign language students.
2. Understand Cultural Influences in Instructional Settings. Students understand and apply concepts, principles, theories, and research related to culture and cultural groups to construct learning environments that support students' home backgrounds, acquisition of written and spoken foreign languages and content-area achievement.
3. Plan, Implement, and Manage Foreign Language Instruction. Students know, understand, and use standards-based practices and strategies for planning, implementing, and managing instruction in English and other languages, including classroom organization, teaching strategies for developing and integrating reading and writing, and choosing and adapting classroom resources.
4. Understand Instructional Assessments and Evaluation. Students understand issues of assessment and use standards-based assessment measures with foreign language students.
5. Serve as Professional Educators. Students demonstrate knowledge of historical approaches to foreign language teaching. They maintain understanding of new instructional techniques, research results, and innovations in the foreign language teaching field, as well as public policy issues. Students use such information in collaboration with other colleagues to reflect upon and improve foreign language education and provide support and advocacy for foreign language adult students.

Degree Requirements

Requirements for the MA in Foreign Language are as follows:

Discipline module	Credits
Core Courses	10
Major Courses	24
Other Graduation Requirements	14

GENERAL INFORMATION

Vision Statement

The vision of Bang College of Business (BCB) is to be recognized as a world-class business college that is responsive to the needs of a diverse population of students and demands of the society.

Mission Statement

The Bang College of Business:

- Educates and prepares citizens from Kazakhstan and other countries to become knowledgeable, ethical, and competent business professionals, entrepreneurs, and leaders to

- work in national and international organizations, assume challenging roles and become lifelong learners.
- Promotes faculty and graduates, with diverse professional and research interests including a Central Asian focus, to contribute to the development and prosperity of Kazakhstan and the global economy.

Values

The Bang College of Business values:

- Shared governance and transparency;
- Decision making based on consensus;
- Teamwork and collaboration among faculty, staff, and students;
- Contributions of each individual and our relationships with each other;
- Opportunity and desire for life-long learning;
- Innovation and continuous improvement in curriculum and pedagogy ;
- Creation of knowledge and its dissemination to students, businesses and to the community at-large.

Statement of Purpose

The Bang College of Business offers quality business and management programs, prepares students to be committed professional and lifelong learners to contribute to and take leading positions in business and society. Theory and practice are linked together through teaching, scholarship, and service in order to benefit both students and the community.

Profile

The Bang College of Business continues to develop future leaders by providing world-class business education through our cutting-edge Bachelor, MBA, Executive MBA (EMBA), Master of Marketing, Master of Finance, Master of Accounting and Audit and DBA programs. Further, we are aggressively pursuing accreditation by most prestigious agencies to become an internationally renowned business college. Currently, we hold Level III (International) accreditation for Bachelor, MBA and EMBA programs by the Asian Forum on Business Education (AFBE) and international accreditation from Austria Quality Assurance and Accreditation Agency (AQAAA). In October 2010, the BCB became a member of the most prestigious American accreditation agency - the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business, AACSB International, and we are committed to achieving this accreditation. BCB is also preparing necessary documentation to apply for membership in the European Foundation for Management Development (EFMD) that will allow us to pursue the European Quality Improvement System (EQUIS) accreditation. Recently, BCB has established graduate dual-degree arrangements with IESEG School of Management of France (KIMEP MBA + IESEG Master of International Business) and CASS Business School of the UK (KIMEP MBA + Cass MS in Finance). At the undergraduate level, we have a dual degree arrangement with EM Strasbourg Business School, IESEG School of Management of France and Arizona State University, US. More such arrangements are in progress.

We have the highest proportion of faculty members with doctoral degrees from American and other foreign universities, who have decades of experience not only in teaching and research, but also in industry and innovation, and will add many more to our existing high-credentialed faculty. Our administrators and faculty strive for continuous improvement in curricula, pedagogy, facilities, community relationship, and shared governance. The BCB intends to involve students in greater "Active learning" and plans to have more guest lecturers from the real-world in its classes, stronger corporate connections, and further internationalization. We have further strengthened our Bachelor, MBA, EMBA and specialized Master programs by revising its curriculum to be more application-oriented.

We respect diversity, not only of ethnicity, but also diversity in thinking, creativity, and approach to solving problems. The Administration and faculty encourage and support students to communicate their new ideas, leverage their strengths and perspectives, explore diverse projects, work collaboratively towards a common goal, and apply critical analytical thinking and innovation at work. Our program managers, specialists and faculty members are always willing to advise students pertaining to course and project selection, internship opportunities, and graduation requirements. The Bang College of Business has the student-centered philosophy of teaching/learning and educates world-class business leaders.

The Bang College of Business has grown steadily since its inception in 1992. It currently has around 1600 undergraduate students, 400 master students and 24 doctoral students. BCB has a well-balanced mix of local and foreign faculty members who are academically qualified (AQ) or professionally qualified (PQ) or both. A core of highly qualified Kazakhstani faculty - many with North American and European degrees - is supplemented by more than twenty foreign faculties who bring a wealth of international experience and cross-cultural knowledge to the college's learning community. Only a few universities worldwide can match the BCB in terms of the diversity of the faculty, and opportunities for learning cross-cultural exposure.

Degree Programs at BCB

The Bang College of Business offers four undergraduate degree programs with various specializations, five graduate Master's degree programs, and a Doctor of Business Administration (DBA). The degree programs are:

- Bachelor of Accounting and Audit (BACTA)
- Bachelor of Finance (BFIN)
- Bachelor of Management (BMGT)
- Bachelor of Marketing (BMKT)
- Masters of Business Administration (MBA)

BANG COLLEGE BUSINESS RESEARCH CENTRE (BCBRC)

Office No: 334/Dostyk
Tel: +7 (727) 270 44 40 (Ext. 2161)
bcb-rsch@kimep.kz

The Bang College of Business Research Centre (BCBRC) identifies and develops innovative theoretical and managerial insights and application-oriented solution for academia and businesses in Kazakhstan, Central Asia and the global community at large. The main objectives of BCBRC are to:

1. to make a substantive contribution both to academic understanding and to policy debate on business environment within Kazakhstan and the CIS countries;
2. to develop a coherent research agenda and create a framework for the acquisition of funding to undertake and expand the research agenda;
3. to provide a structure within which interested individuals and groups can provide mutual support in advancing their research and create a structure within which young researchers (DBA students) can obtain help and advice; and
4. to develop CIS and international links of the highest possible quality with a view to collaborative research and the exchange of personnel in order to establish a major focus of activity on a Central Asia scale

BCBRC strives to be world-leading in all its research activities and output. Our research groups are multi-disciplinary units which focuses the school's academic expertise in defined research themes. These five themes, with fifteen specific topics, under the broad umbrella theme of 'Harmonization of Science and Business Policy' best support the school's research vision "to promote critical thinking, research and publications to meet opportunities and challenges of business and society" with regard to the mission of KIMEP. The themes represent a combination of existing research strength and key emerging fields. They represent the bedrock on which research activities in the BCB will develop over the next five years.

In order to provide a focus for the identification and implementation of high quality research projects and provide a link with other scholars, commercial interests and governments in both the Kazakhstan and CIS countries, BCBRC organizes research and teaching excellence seminar every week during spring and fall semesters. It also organizes KIMEP International Research Conference (KIRC) on an annual basis. The center publishes Central Asia Business Journal (CABJ), a leading research outlet on the Central Asian business and economic issues. The journal, published bi-annually in Spring and Autumn of each year, is the official publication of the Bang College Business.

THE KIMEP CENTER FOR ENTREPRENEURSHIP

There is both a need and an opportunity for KIMEP to make an impact on entrepreneurship in Kazakhstan. The new Center for Entrepreneurship will be based in the Bang College of Business and reach out to the entire University and the community beyond. Our vision is for the Center to have three pillars: research, education, and practice.

Research in entrepreneurship will commence in collaboration with the Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM) Consortium (www.gemconsortium.org). Since 1999 GEM has led an annual, internationally coordinated, cross country assessment of national and regional entrepreneurial activity. Through the Center's initiative, Kazakhstan will join the other 59 nations in collecting and analyzing this data nationally and then provide the data for a global assessment. This information will be available for KIMEP scholars to conduct further research which may have a profound impact on public policy decisions and economic development in the region.

Education in entrepreneurship will be enhanced with the introduction of an entrepreneurship minor, available to all KIMEP students with the design of additional courses for both business and non-business majors. In addition, we plan to develop workshops and certificate programs on how to launch start-ups in Kazakhstan for the greater community through the Executive Education Center.

The Center for Entrepreneurship will not only enhance research and education in entrepreneurship, it is our intention to help create new businesses in practice. We will do this by initiating an annual business plan competition. The judges of the competition will be actual successful entrepreneurs from KIMEP's vast alumni network. Eventually we would like to create an association of angel investors who are prepared to actually fund students' new venture ideas. In the future we may consider creating an incubator at KIMEP to help nurture start-ups.

Additional courses can be taken with the approval of the Dean of BCB

Program Specialization Requirements (32 credits)

The details of Program Specialization Requirements are provided under respective degree programs: (1) Bachelor of Accounting and Audit (BACTA), (2) Bachelor of Finance (BFIN), (3) Bachelor of Management (BMGT) and (4) Bachelor of Marketing (BMKT).

Internship (6 credits)

All bachelor degree students are required to complete an internship. The Internship requirement gives students the opportunity to gain real world business experience and the chance to apply, in practical business contexts, the knowledge they have acquired during their course work.

To earn internship credit the student must have completed 90 credits of coursework and must register in the appropriate degree program course prior to beginning the internship. It is recommended that the internship be completed during the summer between the third and the fourth years of study. It is, however, possible for students to satisfy this requirement during the fourth year. To prepare for the internship, students should contact the Career Services Center, which maintains information on firms offering internships. Further details on BCB Internship policies and procedures are available from the BCB Internship Specialist's Office.

Physical Education Requirements (16 credits)

Students should take the appropriate Physical Education required courses. The details of Physical Education Requirements are explained in the Undergraduate General Education section of this Catalog.

Final Assessment (3 credits)

Final Attestation Requirements consist of two components: (1) Thesis (2 credits) and (2) State Examination (1 credit).

Thesis (2 credits)

Students are required to write a thesis on a topic that is relevant to their degree program. Students will be supervised by faculty members in the process. Further details on thesis requirements are provided under the KIMEP University regulations on this matter.

State Examination (1 credit)

Students are required to take the state examination. Further details on this requirement are provided under the KIMEP University regulations on this matter.

Choosing a Specialization or Minor

Students usually declare a specialization or minor in the second, third or fourth year of study. At the time of declaration, students can choose from any specialization or minor that is being offered. The Bang College of Business is responsive to changes in student interests and there may be additional specializations or minors available in the future. On the other hand any of these with very low demand can also be suspended. Thus, when declaring a specialization or minor, the available options may be different from those stated in the catalog of the year of entry.

Each area sets the requirements for earning a specialization or minor. In addition to course requirements, some disciplines have Grade Point Average requirements that must be met in order to qualify for the specialization or minor. The requirements for a specialization or minor are stated in the sections that list the course requirements for each discipline. In a few instances a course can be applied to more than one specialization /minor. A student cannot, however, use the same course in more than one specialization or minor; an approved substitute must be taken for one of the requirements.

Once a student declares a specialization or minor and enrolls in one or more of the required courses, KIMEP is committed to allowing the student to complete the program under the stated requirements. If specialization or minor requirements or course availability change before a student graduates, the program office can assist in finding substitute courses or in arranging for independent study. As a matter of policy, students have the option of completing the specialization or minor based on the requirements that are current at the time of graduation. This choice is usually to the student's advantage but is not required.

The specialization and minor are independent of the General Education requirements and the program foundation requirements which are based on the requirements in the catalog of the year of entry.

Specializations and Requirements under Specialized Bachelors Programs

Each degree program has option for various specializations. A specialization requires a set of required and elective "Specific Discipline" courses for a total of 32 credits. However, in none of the programs, a student is required to choose a specialization. A student who graduates without a specialization has more flexibility in selecting elective courses within the specialized discipline of the program. MBA: ACCOUNTING AND AUDIT SPECIALIZATION

Accounting involves the measurement, recording and reporting of financial information that is critical for management decision-making in organizations. Managers need to understand how accounting information may be used to make decisions, control processes and people, and motivate employees. In addition to use this information effectively, managers need to be familiar with the manner in which Annual Financial Statements, Budgets and Variance Reports, etc. are constructed. Crucially also, managers need to understand their personal and legal responsibilities for internal control and for reporting financial information.

The MBA program offers a 4-course specialization (including the MBA Thesis and Internship courses) in “Accounting and Audit” that addresses the broad range of issues described above. The specialization prepares students both for careers as managers, and for careers in accounting, auditing, controllership, treasury functions and budgeting. The Accounting specialization will help prepare students to sit for such professional exams as the CPA, CMA, ACCA, etc.

Equal Opportunities

KIMEP University provides equal opportunities for all applicants irrespective of age, sex, religion and other conditions. It includes the acceptance of people with disabilities, offering them the same conditions as are offered to other applicants.

A person with a disability is able to seek admission to, or apply for enrolment in, KIMEP University on the same basis as a prospective student without a disability.

KIMEP University puts actions in place to help ensure equal opportunity for people with a disability by making education related adjustments.

The academic requirements for admissions are determined by identifying academic achievement reasonably expected at the admission, including skills and abilities required and whether the academic requirements can be met in another way by making education related adjustments.

Admissions test: KEPT is objective and does not discriminate against applicants on grounds of any of the protected characteristics. Tests and assessments are accessible to applicants with disabilities and KIMEP University complies with its duty to make reasonable adjustments for disabled people who are being assessed. KIMEP University makes the test material available in an adapted format, allowing extra time or providing a scribe, depending on the individual needs of the applicant.

NB: Fulfilling the entry requirements does NOT guarantee admission, as the admission is subject to approval by the Executive MBA Oversight Committee.

Commencemnt of studies

Beginning date of studies by the cohort is subject to achieving of the minimum target number of enrolled students. More detailed program study plan is available at the Program Office.

Degree Requirements

The Executive MBA is offered via a venue that is consistent with the area that business and government needs. Class meetings are scheduled on weekends during intensive learning sessions. In the future, a customized meeting schedule may be developed to accommodate the specific needs of prospective candidates. Anyway, the requisite 45 hours faculty-to-learner contact time per each 3-credit module (equivalent to 5 ECTS) will be achieved.

Learning time at the Executive MBA Program is organized so that a learner is required to spend per week on average 30 hours including teaching and self-study hours.

The schedule or order of course/module delivery is at the discretion of the Executive MBA Oversight Committee. While the program curriculum is fixed, the order that courses/modules are delivered may vary from cohort by cohort.

Prerequisite coursework

Prerequisites to all Executive MBA courses/modules shall be determined at the discretion of the Executive MBA Oversight Committee. In general, the business or government management/leadership experience prescribed in the admissions criteria is sufficient. However, if a particular set of skills or background knowledge are missing, a pre-requisite course/module can be required.

The program encompasses the business skills and knowledge needed for effective leadership capacity in a small and large organization.

Transfer of Credits

Transferring KIMEP credits

Business-related credits earned by a student in degree status at KIMEP University are permanent and can be used in any degree program for which the credits are appropriate. If a student is withdrawn from KIMEP University and later reapplies to study under a new student ID, the credits previously earned can be transferred to the records for the new ID. If requirements have changed then some credits may not be applicable. The curriculum committee of the department or program makes the final determination of whether previous credits correspond to current requirements and can count towards the degree.

Grade taken at KIMEP University, on a different students' ID, can be transferred only if they are "B-" or better." Students who change degree status or ID number must request that their records are updated during the first semester of study under the new ID number.s

Transfer of credits from non-degree status are allowed in case the student transfer from non-degree to a degree status and when student has earned a grade of minimum "B" or better. Any credits earned by the day of student's transfer to the regular status are eligible for transfer from non-degree to a degree status. Transfer of credits from a degree to non-degree status is not allowed.

Transferring Credits from another University

Business-related coursework completed at other accredited universities in Kazakhstan or abroad can be transferred to KIMEP University. The verification of the Ministry of Education and Science (MES) license or its equivalent shall accompany any college decision on credits transferred (except for the institutions that have a formal agreement with KIMEP University on academic course/module transfers). Number of credits transferred is a math calculation of course/module content as per the current KIMEP University credit system.

A student with the coursework completed outside of KIMEP University should present a request for course/module transfer to the department that would most likely be responsible for the course/module at KIMEP University. The application must be accompanied by a detailed module syllabus showing the topics covered in the module and an official transcript showing the number of credits and the grade or final assessment in the module.

1. If an equivalent course/module exists at KIMEP University the transcript will indicate the equivalent KIMEP University module code and module title. The module doesn't need to be transferred for the same number of credits as the KIMEP University module.
2. If a business-related module does not match a current module title then the module can be transferred as Special Topics.
3. Courses/modules in disciplines that are not taught at KIMEP University can still be transferred as free electives.
4. Courses/module taught in languages other than English can be considered for transfer if the courses/modules were taken at an accredited university.
5. Credits for courses/modules taken at other institutions of higher education will only be transferred if the student has earned a "B-" or higher grade in the course/module. Transfer of grades earned at graduate level at KIMEP University involves a transfer of a letter grade equivalent and will count towards the requirements of Grade Point Average (GPA). However, coursework taken at a partner university as part of a KIMEP University sponsored student exchange program requires only a passing grade in order to be transferred.

6. Course(s) /modules transferred credits do not affect the tuition fee for the program. Candidates are required to pay the full tuition cost in effect at the time of enrollment regardless of number of credits transferred. Students may be offered the equivalent credits free of charge in a regular Master degree program at KIMEP or other programs at the discretion of the Executive MBA Oversight committee and KIMEP administration approval. Such courses/modules will not be included in the student's graduation requirements.
7. No letter grade is assigned to transfer courses/modules. Transfer courses/modules are not considered in the GPA calculation
8. No more than fifty (50) percent of student's degree program requirements can be transferred. No transfer credits to non-degree status are allowed.
9. The course/module transfer decision is an academic decision and the final judgment and decision is made by the department that would most likely be responsible for the course/module at KIMEP University (number of credits, level of the course/module, course/module equivalent in KIMEP University catalog, etc.).
10. Office of the Registrar may not accept some credits transfers for processing if not satisfied with above. The Academic Council does oversight of the course/module transfer procedure and decision making at KIMEP University in any cases of inconsistency or student appeals.

Independent Study

In light of a special course/module delivery mode at Executive MBA Program (sequential delivery), certain students may require to enroll in the format of Independent study course format.

A graduate student (in good academic standing on regular status) may enroll in independent study if:

1. A course/module necessary for graduation is missed when offered at the enrolled cohort.
2. A course/module necessary for graduation is missed with the next cohort when the course is offered.
3. A course/module necessary for graduation is not offered.
4. A course/module necessary for graduation has been cancelled.

Independent study can be authorized if sufficient courses or substitute courses are not available for the student to make continuous progress towards completing the degree. No more than six KIMEP University credits of independent study can be used for a graduate degree.

The process for completing an independent study is as follows:

1. A faculty member with expertise in the subject area (preferably a faculty member who has previously taught the course) agrees to supervise the independent study of an executive student.
2. The supervising faculty member submits a study plan detailing the learning objectives, reading assignments, student-faculty learning schedule, and methods of assessment.
3. The Program Administration reviews the submitted study plan. The Program Administration may approve the plan, disapprove the plan, or request additional information.
4. If the Program Administration agrees with the proposed study plan then a recommendation is made to the dean for the final approval.
5. The dean notifies the Registrar's Office in writing about the approval of the independent study. The form for Independent Study is available at the Office of the Registrar webpage.
6. The student registers for the course/module as independent study. A regular tuition fee is charged for the course/module.
7. At the end of the semester, the supervising faculty submits all documents verifying completion of the independent study along with the student grade.

Time Limits

All students admitted to the program are admitted as full-time students

1. The program is delivered such that students are expected to complete all degree requirements within 18-months period.

2. The maximum duration of the program is 36 months. Under exceptional circumstances the Executive MBA Oversight Committee may extend this period.

Grade of Incomplete

The procedure for Incomplete grade follows KIMEP University policy, except for the period of grade completion. At the EMBA program the grade of Incomplete stays at the student's records for the entire period of study of the respective student until it is changed into regular letter grade.

Tuition and Refund Policies

There is one fee for the program, set for each cohort group. Information on tuition fee, discounts, payments options and refund policy are available from the program office.

TUITION:

There is one fee for the program, referred to as the 'Tuition Fee', set for each cohort group. This fee includes:

- Tuition
- Textbooks and reference materials
- Meals and refreshments during class sessions
- Preparation trainings for taking SFLT
- Parking (KIMEP campus only)

Information on tuition fees is available from the program office.

PAYMENT OPTIONS:

There are two payment options for the Executive MBA Tuition Fee.

Option 1: Full Tuition Payment upon Enrollment

Candidates pay for the full program prior to commencement in the program. In the case of advance payment, candidates are provided a 10% discount on the total tuition fee (in effect at the time of enrollment).

Option 2: Four Installment Payment Plan

Payment for the program is made in four installments, each equal to 25% of the total tuition fee and each spaced a quarter of the program's 13 modules duration apart.

First installment deadline: First day of first module

Second installment deadline: Last session of the third module

Third installment deadline: Last session of the sixth module

Fourth installment deadline: Last session of the ninth module

There is no discount on the tuition fee under this payment plan.

Note: that candidates are free to pay in two installments of 50% of full fee on first and third installment deadlines articulated above.

Option 3: Monthly Installment Payment Plan

Candidates may to apply to special status and pay according to the program administration elaborated plan. Installment payments must be made on the first working day of the month.

In case of debt occurrence before registration for the upcoming module, the outstanding debt must be covered.

In case when accumulated tuition fee including latest monthly installment is less than the cost of the registered modules, difference must be covered in addition to the monthly installment.

No registration with outstanding debt is allowed at the program.

REFUND:

The refund available to students is dependent on the payment option chosen by the student. In each case the student forfeits claim to 25% of the full tuition fee at the start of each quarter. Forfeited amount is cumulative resulting in no refund available after the start of the fourth quarter of the program.

Refund Policy for Full Tuition Payment Upon Enrollment

A full refund of tuition fee paid is available up to, and including, the day prior to the first class meeting. Partial refunds follow the schedule below:

Refund Amount	Available Until
(Discounted Tuition) - (25% * Full Tuition)	End of the 3 (third) module
(Discounted Tuition) - (50% * Full Tuition)	End of the 6 (sixth) module
(Discounted Tuition) - (75% * Full Tuition)	End of the 9 (ninth) module

Refund Policy for Four Installment Payment Plan

Candidates forfeit refund of quarterly tuition fee payment upon commencement of each quarter. Payment for any quarter that has not commenced is fully refunded.

Refund Policy for Monthly Installment Payment Plan

Candidates forfeit refund of monthly tuition fee payment upon commencement of the module during the payment month. Payment for any month before the commencement a module is fully refunded with prior written notification of the program administration.

DISCOUNT OPTIONS:

Information on discount schemes is available from the program office.

Suspension of Studies

The program recognizes that unforeseen circumstances may result in a student being unable to attend one or more courses/modules. In such cases, the student may request a temporary suspension of their studies. This does not mean a withdrawal from the program itself. Requests to suspend studies must be made in writing to the Executive MBA Program Director.

Courses/modules missed during the period of suspension may be taken by joining another Executive MBA cohort. In the event that the course/module is not offered by the Executive MBA Program, or if the student is unable to attend the course/module that is offered, the student may be required to take a similar course/module (approved by the Executive MBA Program) from KIMEP University's regular MBA program. Alternatively, the student makes a special request to the Executive MBA Program Director to complete the course/module requirement as a self-study. Normally, a maximum of one self-study course/module will be permitted for EMBA. At the discretion of the Program, additional requests may be considered in exceptional circumstances.

In the cases of courses/modules taken by joining another Executive MBA cohort, or taken with the regular MBA program, there will be no additional charge to the student, provided the request for suspension of studies was received prior to the start of the course/module. In the case of self-study the student will be required to pay the full-credit (Executive MBA) value for the course/module.

A suspension of studies does not alter the time allowed to complete the Executive MBA degree. It is the student's responsibility to complete the degree requirements within the time period articulated in the 'Degree Requirements' section of the Program Overview and/or KIMEP University catalog.

Retaking of Courses/Module

Students retaking courses/modules for reasons other than those described above will be required to pay a tuition fee based on the per-credit fee in effect for the Executive MBA class that he/she joins. The tuition fee will be calculated as 'total credits in the program / full tuition fee for the program' * 'credit value of the course'/module'.

Industry and Pedagogic Internship or Organizational Internship

Internship gives DBA students an opportunity to put into practice the knowledge acquired during their studies, get some business and academic experience and be better prepared for their future career. Details of this requirement are specified in the DBA Handbook.

Experimental Research

Under this component of the DBA program, requirements are twofold: (1) a student must take a qualifying exam in order to demonstrate proficiency in the knowledge acquired through course work and be admitted to the candidate status; and (2) undertake appropriate research activities that lead to conference presentations and journal publications. Details of this requirement are specified in the DBA Handbook.

Dissertation and DBA Dissertation Defense

DBA dissertation is a scholarly research work, involving the analysis of a specific problem in the area of specialization, evaluation of the results of the analysis, which serves as a basis for developing specific proposals and implementing the appropriate solution to the problem. The student will present an oral defense of their dissertation in front of the members of the dissertation committee, in a public forum. Details of this requirement are specified in the DBA Handbook.

Comprehensive Exam

Before graduation, a doctoral student must pass a comprehensive exam in the field of specialization. Details of this requirement are specified in the DBA Handbook.

Program Plan

Students may take courses in any order they wish as long as courses meet all prerequisites. The following schedule is suggested to ensure that students make orderly progress towards degree completion, by taking prerequisites before the courses that require prerequisites.

DBA PROGRAM ACADEMIC POLICIES

In general academic policies on registration, course load, class attendance, withdrawal, etc. apply to doctoral students the same as to other graduate students. In other cases there may be a separate policy for doctoral students which take precedence over general academic policy.

Independent Study Policy

An Independent Study is a course in which the instructor will direct student(s) in a non-classroom environment to replace a regular (traditional) course when the regular course cannot be offered by the program for the current semester due to various reasons. The purpose of an Independent Study course is to help the student complete their course requirements in a timely manner. Any course in the curriculum can be taken as an independent study if there is consent from the instructor who offers the course and approval from the DBA Council. The Independent Study workload should be equivalent to a regular DBA course. Students must submit an Approval for Independent Study Form. A DBA Student may take a maximum of 9 credits as independent study.

Transfer of Credit

Unless coursework has been transferred, students must take a minimum of 75 credits to satisfy the requirements of the DBA program. A transfer of credit may be given for a post graduate level course completed by the student especially if taken as part of an official exchange program. A maximum of nine credits of coursework may be transferred upon petition to the DBA Council. Transfer credits are allowed only for courses from accredited institutions with a grade of B or higher. A doctoral student must successfully complete one semester in residency at BCB before the coursework is eligible for transfer. The transfer of credit must be approved by DBA council.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Statement of Purpose

The College promotes understanding about society, its structure, its relationship to both the state and the marketplace, and the means by which information is disseminated throughout society. The College accomplishes its purpose by:

developing graduates who are independent and highly qualified critical thinkers, who are well prepared for graduate social sciences study in English, and who can become the future leaders of the public and private sectors, including news media, in a modern Kazakhstan; conducting and disseminating applied and academic research for the betterment of Kazakhstan and Central Asia more generally; and contributing, through our graduates, to the securing of the foundations for democratic government, strong civil society, good laws and fair law enforcement in the region.

Mission Statement

The goal of the College is to aid in the building of civil society in Kazakhstan and, through our graduates who move beyond its borders, in Central Asia and elsewhere. The College strives to play a significant role in promoting societal and political liberalization throughout the region, thereby contributing to the quality of people's lives both materially and culturally.

The Strategy for achieving the mission is to develop and disseminate knowledge of diversified human economic, social and political experience relevant to Central Asia. We recognize that life is complex and that not all the situations our graduates will face will be easily understood. That's why we prepare them to think analytically and critically about past and present human experience at the individual, group national and global level. That is also why we provide our students with the values, the basic analytical knowledge and techniques, and the employment-relevant and problem-solving skills they needed to be able to address both the anticipated and the unknown challenges that lie ahead in the twenty-first century. Our students are prepared for a wide variety of graduate programs in the social sciences and for career opportunities in business, journalism, government, social services and education.

We want all our students to experience a vibrant academic community, one in which they have opportunities:

- to mix with foreign exchange and visiting field-work students;
- to learn from, and to be mentored by our well qualified and experienced foreign and local faculty and visiting professors;
- to study abroad for credits at one of our world-class partner universities; and
- to be paid teaching and research assistance working with faculty committed to delivering high quality teaching and learning, and research.

Profile

The College is a union of four disciplines that range from classical social science theory to professionally-oriented curricula. The faculty is a mix of both foreign faculty and Kazakhstani faculty. Not only are the faculty academically qualified but they possess a wealth of professional experience which is important in developing and mentoring the professionals of the future.

To provide a focus for College's research and scholarship activities, there is an active academic research center – The Central Asian Studies Center.

Research Center

Since the Academic Year 2010-11 the College of Social Sciences (CSS) of KIMEP University has created the Central Asian Studies Center (CASC) based in the College of Social Sciences (CSS) - led by the Department of International Relations and Regional Studies and including academics from all the four departments of the college - for fostering cooperation on research with international scholars.

Mission Statement

The Department provides international-standard education in economics. It is a center of education with relevance to the region and beyond.

Its core mission is to train students in the economic way of thinking and apply analytical tools to social, business and economic policy issues. It aspires to enable its students to compete on an equal footing with graduates from top-ranking departments anywhere in the world. It trains graduates to lead and support decision making processes at all levels in organizations in business and society and inculcates them with a set of concepts and ideas which transcend cultural boundaries.

The department prepares its students for a wide range of career choices in government, financial institutions, private and public sectors, intergovernmental as well as multilateral institutions. It provides its students accordingly with personal development and a choice of courses and specializations, such that they can match their educational profile to the career they wish to pursue. The greatest strength of an education in economics, however, is the variability of how it can be applied and the rigor and clarity of thinking which it imparts.

Degree Programs

The Department of Economics offers a Bachelors of Economics at the undergraduate level and a Master of Arts in Economics for post graduate students.

Mission Statement

The Department of Media and Communications offers the skills and understanding needed for success in professional communication, in such fields as Public Relations, online and print Journalism, Management of media organizations, and Broadcasting. In an age of Internet-propelled change, effective communication is essential. We are the leading program in Central Asia for preparing students for professional and academic excellence. Courses are taught in English, giving graduates the strong language skills that help them achieve their dreams around the world.

The Department offers international-level opportunities to aspiring communication specialists. We have strong ties with Journalism, Broadcast and Public Relations leaders, both internationally and in Kazakhstan. This helps our graduates gain key positions in a full range of media companies. Beyond media employment, many graduates become leaders in commercial, governmental and non-governmental organizations, which increasingly demand communication and media expertise.

At the same time, the Department prepares students for academic prominence. Our graduates earn Ph.D.s in leading Western universities. Analytical and research skills, valued by employers all over the world, are a central part of each course.

Students learn from highly qualified international professors with a wealth of both professional and academic experience. Instructors from Kazakhstan combine Western training with extensive local knowledge. The DMC department is strongly student-focused and supportive. We treat each student as an individual, helping them complement practical skills with a superb knowledge base. Departmental facilities are exceptional, giving graduates outstanding hands-on skills and problem-solving abilities.

The Department of Media and Communications is Kazakhstan's leader in professional communication education at an international level. It has been conditionally accredited by the American Communications Association (ACA). We are committed to the success and satisfaction of our students, and to the development of Kazakhstan in an interconnected world of information.

Degree Programs

The Department of Journalism and Mass Communication offers a Bachelor of Journalism and a Master of Arts in International Journalism and Mass Communication.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Administration

Department Chair
Dennis Soltys, PhD

Mission Statement

The mission of the Department of Public Administration is to deliver international-standard education and research in public policy, administration, and management relevant to Kazakhstan and the Central Asian region. The department's operational goals are:

- to educate Kazakhstani and Central Asian professionals for future leadership in government, business, and the NGO sector;
- to provide students with the analytical and practical skills needed for them to be successful researchers, policymakers, and managers; and
- to foster within students an ethos of public service and active citizenship.

The Department realizes its goals through a diverse and highly qualified local and foreign faculty and support staff. It offers an interdisciplinary range of courses in areas such as financial management, public administration, environment, health, and education, while encouraging students in a broad range of research endeavors of their own choice. Its program is rounded out through a Public Administration Internship which places candidates in their choice of public, private, and non-government organizations, including the Parliament of Kazakhstan. Graduates of the Department of Public Administration are accepted into top Western universities.

The Department is an institutional member of various organizations, such as the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration (NASPAA), the Network of Asia-Pacific Schools and Institutes of Public Administration and Governance (NAPSIPAG), and the Network of Institutes and Schools of Public Administration in Central and Eastern Europe (NISPAcee). The membership in NISPAcee qualifies the Department to apply for accreditation of its programs by the European Association for Public Administration Accreditation (EAPAA).

Degree Programs

The Department of Public Administration offers a Bachelor of Public and Municipal Administration for undergraduate students and a Master of Public and Municipal Administration for post graduate students. Both BPMA and MPMA programs of the department are accredited by the European Association for Public Administration Accreditation (EAPAA). KIMEP University is the first institution in Central Asia to achieve this recognition. The accreditation is valid for a period of seven years with effect from September 2012.

Administration

Department Chair
Scott Spehr, PhD

Mission Statement

The Department of International Relations and Regional Studies is designed to produce graduates capable of taking on leadership roles in the challenging arena of world affairs, including positions within the diplomatic corps, multinational corporations, education and non-governmental organizations. Our multidisciplinary program provides a cutting-edge, well-rounded education, modeled on and delivered according to the highest international standards. Our program of study has received international recognition from top programs such as the Internal Masters in Russian, Central and Eastern European Studies program in Glasgow University, UK, which now offers a joint degree with our Master of International Relations program. By closely cooperating with a KIMEP-based research institute, the Central Asian Studies Center(CASC), the Department is establishing itself as an internationally-recognized base of excellence in research and the training of future scholars.

Objectives

The Objectives of the Department are:

- 1.to train professionals capable of taking on challenging jobs and playing leadership roles in the international arena, as diplomats, consular agents, communications officers, international affairs analysts and advertising specialists; and
- 2.to provide a solid foundation for future scholars who want to pursue graduate study and research in international relations and related fields in the social sciences and humanities.
- 3.To foster students' critical and analytical thinking and to expand their linguistic, technical, research and communication skills.
- 4.To analyze the core fields and sub-fields in the discipline through innovative teaching
- 5.To develop student/faculty collaboration that allows students to attain the political literacy necessary for good citizenship.
- 6.To help students understand the concepts, theories and methodologies used in the disciplines so that students can integrate theoretical knowledge and practical experience.

Degree Programs

The Department of International Relations and Regional Studies offers a Bachelor of International Relations (BSSIR) for undergraduate students and a Master in International Relations (MIR) for post graduate students.

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE PROGRAMS

To earn a degree from the College of Social Sciences, a student must fulfill the following requirements:

1. Fulfill all KIMEP degree requirements, which include the completion of all General Education Requirements and completion of a minimum of 154 credits.
2. Completion of 33 credits of General Education Required courses
3. Completion of 64 credits of Program foundation courses.
4. Completion of 33 Major requirements
5. Completion of an internship (6 credits) as specified by the program requirements.
6. Completion of the requirements of a degree program offered by the College of Social Sciences.
7. Completion of the physical education, internship, thesis and exit test requirements

The College of Social Sciences offers the following undergraduate degree programs:

- Bachelor of Arts in Economics (BAE)
- Bachelor of Arts in Journalism (BAJ)
- Bachelor of International Relations (IR)
- Bachelor of Public and Municipal Administration (BPMA)

Each degree program has one or more options for a major. In some programs the student is not required to complete a major. A student who graduates without a major has more flexibility in selecting elective courses within the program.

The following table illustrates the general structure of the degree programs in the College of Social Sciences. The exact details are given under each degree program.

GENERAL EDUCATION

GENERAL INFORMATION UNDERGRADUATE GENERAL EDUCATION CURRICULUM GENERAL EDUCATION FOR TRANSFER STUDENTS

The courses are offered by the departments that are most in line with the specific area of general education. General Education courses will still refer to the goals and objectives that are listed under this section.

Mission

General Education develops the foundation skills necessary for functioning in complex local and global environments. General Education courses foster those skills necessary to acquire knowledge, comprehend complex material, think critically and creatively, formulate ideas, evaluate moral and ethical issues, consider different and sometimes conflicting perspectives, derive solutions to problems and communicate effectively throughout the process.

Goals and Objectives

The experiences of General Education encourage students to develop a critical and inquiring attitude, an appreciation of the interdisciplinary nature of subject areas, acceptance of persons of different backgrounds or values, and a deepened sense of self. In their lives and in their careers, students must be prepared to grasp complex problems, develop a global perspective on the diversity of human experience and knowledge, respond to changing demands, and articulate innovative responses and solutions. GE seeks to grow students':

- Creative and intellectual engagement.
- Civic, personal and social responsibility.
- Dedication to lifelong learning to enable them to thrive in a knowledge-intensive economy and a society where new ideas are essential for progress.

Intended Learning Outcomes

The goals of the General Education program as well as the measurable learning outcomes are driven by the mission of KIMEP. These goals reflect the philosophy of a balanced education that prepares students for decision-making, leadership and lifelong learning. After completing the General Education program, a student will be able to:

- 1: Demonstrate analytical skills.
- 2: Demonstrate effective problem solving and critical thinking skills.
- 3: Demonstrate awareness of topics in history, geography, and economy.

- 4: Demonstrate awareness of ethical and philosophical topics.
 5: Demonstrate awareness of topics in political science.
 6: Demonstrate knowledge and skills in legislative system.
 7: Demonstrate knowledge and skills in information technology.

Required GE courses: 33 credits equivalent to 53 ECTS

	TOTAL GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS	33	53

The Ministerial course requirements apply to all undergraduate degree students (including students from outside Kazakhstan). Non-degree students (including non-degree international exchange students) are exempt from these Ministerial requirements, as they are not seeking a KIMEP undergraduate degree. Anyway, if non-degree students later decide to enroll as regular students, they will be required to take the courses required by the Ministry of Education in order to complete their programs.

The General Education curriculum consists of preparatory courses that develop the skills necessary to succeed in other core courses. These courses include English, Kazakh, Life Security, Introduction to Computers, History of Kazakhstan, Political Science and Economics. They must be completed in the first year of study to ensure that

¹² Depending on the level of their proficiency students take two of the following courses:

- KAZ1401 Beginning Kazakhs
- KAZ1402 Elementary Kazakh 1
- KAZ1403 Elementary Kazakh 2
- KAZ1404 Intermediate Kazakh 1
- KAZ1405 Intermediate Kazakh 2
- KAZ1407 Business Kazakh
- KAZ1408 Kazakh Language and Culture (Advanced)

¹³ Students complete their preparation in English by undertaking two further English courses as part of their Program Required Foundation Courses (see below)

- GEN1110 Academic Listening and Note Taking
- GEN1121 Academic Reading and Writing II

students are prepared to do well in more challenging courses. For some of them there are course options that are designed specifically for students in certain fields.

GEN1040.2/PAD 1040.2 Life Security should be taken in the first semester. Sections are available in Kazakh, Russian and English. Students should complete GEN1000 History of Kazakhstan during the first year of their study at KIMEP. Sections of this course taught in Russian and Kazakh are available, although students are strongly encouraged to take the course in English.

Students (except non-degree international exchange students) must study two semesters of Kazakh language. The program in Kazakh includes suitable courses at various levels, from beginner to advance, for students who enter with different levels of Kazakh proficiency. Students should read the course descriptions in order to ensure that they choose the right level. Kazakh instructors will offer assistance in the first week of classes in order to confirm the choice of level.

After all preparatory courses have been completed, students are encouraged to make regular progress on the other advanced General Education courses, such as Ecology and Sustainable Development, Fundamentals of Sociology, Introduction to the Legal System of Kazakhstan, Principles of Ethics or Introduction to Philosophy by taking at least two General Education courses per semester, or as specifically recommended by a student's department of major, until all requirements have been completed.

The following general rules and procedures apply to the State Exam for "History of Kazakhstan" in effect at KIMEP U from Spring 2013:

1. State Exam for "History of Kazakhstan" is conducted during the final examination period based on the approved academic calendar.
2. All students enrolled in any bachelor program are required to take the State Exam for "History of Kazakhstan" after the full completion of the course and at the same semester.
3. The Department of International Relations under the supervision of CSS Dean's Office, and in cooperation with Office of Academic Affairs organizes state Exam preparation work.
4. The Faculty Members who are teaching the course are responsible for developing a unified course structure including content, assessment scheme, and syllabus. These must follow Ministerial standards, and must be approved by the KIMEP Academic Council.
5. The State Exam conducted in written form, counts as the course final exam.
6. The Membership of the State Examination Commission is formed for the one academic year, and should be approved by the President of KIMEP University. The candidate for the Chair of the State Examination Commission should be sent to the relevant state organ at the latest by November 1, and be approved by the MES at the latest by December 1.
7. The Office of the Registrar must schedule the meeting of State Examination Commission. This meeting's purpose is to ratify and approve those students eligible to take the State Exam. This meeting must take place two weeks before the State Exam date, and its duration must not exceed 6 hours.
8. The minutes (online protocol) of State Examination Commission meeting should be prepared for each individual student. The signed original hard copies should be submitted to the Office of Registrar in the Ministerial required format (numbered, officially bound, and stamped). The other copies should be kept in the Department of International Relations.
9. The grading system for State Exam is the same as that used at KIMEP University.
10. If a student has failed the State Exam for "History of Kazakhstan" s/he must retake the course. To retake the course, a student should pay registration and tuition fee just as for the other courses. The student must attend class sessions (lectures) and complete all assignments and exams, the same as if s/he was taking the course for the first time. The student may not recycle assignments or exam scores from a previous enrollment, nor can a student use current assignments or exam grades to raise a grade from the previous semester. To retake the course for the third time a student needs the approval of the dean of the student's enrolled college. A fourth and subsequent retake require the approval of Vice President of Academic Affairs.
11. If a student receives a passing grade (at least D-) on State Exam for "History of Kazakhstan" s/he is not permitted to retake the course.
12. If a student feels that a grade is incorrect s/he should go through an official process (write an official appeal request and submit to State Examination Commission for future consideration).
13. The Chair of State Examination Commission is responsible for preparation of the State Exam report. The report should be approved by KIMEP Academic Council, and to be sent to the MES during the period of one month after State Exam's completion.
14. Credits for "History of Kazakhstan" taken at other institutions of higher education will only be transferred if the student has earned a “C” or higher grade in the state exam.

Physical Education

The undergraduate academic curriculum includes physical education courses that adhere to the current legislative standards of the Republic of Kazakhstan. Physical Education courses are compulsory and not included in the GE curriculum. Physical education (PE) emphasizes the development of physical skills; improvement in physical self- education, shaping the need for regular physical activities, and the acquisition of knowledge that contributes to a healthy lifestyle.

A total of 8 credits in physical education need to be completed in order to earn a bachelor degree. Special arrangements have been made for students with disabilities and other health-related conditions.

Math Study Support

A Math Study Support is available to provide assistance to students who need help in mathematics. The lab is open to all KIMEP students regardless of the courses in which they are enrolled. The lab has several computers with self-teaching software that can give students practice in solving math problems. Tutors are also available who can provide help in understanding math concepts.

GENERAL EDUCATION FOR TRANSFER STUDENTS FROM INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION

Students who have completed general education course requirements at other institutions of higher education may transfer these courses subject to the following conditions:

1. Course being transferred must be sufficiently similar in content to KIMEP University course description.
2. A grade of „C” or higher must be earned for any course being transferred.
3. Any course being transferred must have at least the number of credits as the corresponding KIMEP University GE courses
4. No letter grade is assigned to transferred courses, meaning such courses do not figure into the calculation of grade point average.
5. Credits for “History of Kazakhstan” will only be transferred if the student has earned a “C” or higher grade in the state exam.

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN ECONOMICS (BAE)

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The BAE program teaches students how to analyze social and economic systems. This gives them flexibility in thinking and in choice of career. The program emphasizes intuition and empirical foundations of economic analysis.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

In order to ensure that graduates have the critical perspective necessary to lead and the skills to support decision making, the BAE program aims to impart

- knowledge of core concepts and theories of economics sciences and the ability to put them into perspective, that is to compare their predictions and to critically assess their applicability in different circumstances;
- the ability to structure and analyze situations and to critically assess and evaluate solutions;
- practical skills to establish relationships between economic variables;
- the ability to communicate ideas and information clearly and effectively in oral and written English;
- the ability to work effectively with others in the pursuit of common objectives.

and any other course which may be studied within a minor in accounting or finance at BCB or within a minor offered by the Department of International Relations and Regional Studies.

Major requirements (32 credits)

The BAE program offers three majors: Business Economics, Public Policy and Financial Economics. Students who want a flexible curriculum may choose to graduate without a major by earning 9 credits from economics elective courses.

Public Policy prepares students to work with international organizations such as IMF, World Bank, WTO, multinational organizations, international law firms, financial institutions, government agencies, such as ministry of commerce and trade and research organizations.

Business Economics prepares students for work in the private sector with an emphasis on courses which combine decision theory with the analysis of interaction in markets. Several electives allow a more focused specialization in institutions and organizations in financial markets.

Financial Economics prepares students for work in the financial sector. The courses are designed to meet the qualification profile of financial analysts, risk-performance analysts, investment bankers, investment brokers, and financial consultants.

Prerequisites

The following chart illustrates which Economics courses have prerequisites. For details see course descriptions. All required English courses must be completed before taking Microeconomics or Macroeconomics.

Thesis requirements¹⁶

Thesis (ECN4183.2) Students have to write a thesis on an appropriate topic. Initially, a student must enrol in the thesis seminar ECN4183.1 and develop a thesis proposal under the guidance of a faculty advisor. After submitting a thesis proposal and receiving a passing grade a student enrolls in ECN4183.2. In order to register for the course, a student must have completed 90 credits, including ECN 4104 Research Methods and Methodology and an econometrics methods course.

Writing the thesis

The thesis analyzes an economic problem. It should follow the structure of a journal article: Introduction, Explanation of the Methodology Used, Evaluation of the Data (if any), and Conclusion. As a guideline, the paper should be about 10,000 words in length, with supporting data, graphs and appendices.

Grading of the Thesis

The thesis is graded on a letter scale with plus and minus grades (e.g., A+, A, ..., D, D-). The faculty advisor will determine the final grade based on the quality of the thesis and on feedback from two faculty members.

The following criteria will be applied:

- Is the argument of the thesis sound?
- Does valid evidence and do examples support the argument of the thesis?
- Is the thesis well organized? Are the parts arranged in a clear sequence?
- Is the thesis well researched?
- Is the thesis well presented?
- Are there mistakes in usage or spelling?

State Examination (Exit Exam) Students are required to take the examination.

Internship requirements

All BAE students are required to complete a 6-credit internship.

Minor in Mathematics

Why Mathematics? All major US universities offer minors in mathematics because Mathematics plays a very important and ever growing role in modern science and technology. The symbiotic relationship between mathematics and its areas of application is ever growing as more areas of engineering and science become dependent on new mathematical tools and mathematically trained scientists. Applied mathematics is therefore becoming underpinning of the revolutionary changes taking place in all scientific, engineering and technological fields. These areas are vital to the new industries that will dominate the twenty-first century. A great variety of areas of human activity need mathematically trained people. Prospective employers recognize that mathematics is an excellent tool to develop critical thinking and analytical skills.

Why Mathematics at KIMEP? Modern financial analysis, economic analysis, operations management and other areas of business administration use a high-level mathematics. We want to recruit high quality students from the best local high schools especially through the Early Start Program. A minor in mathematics can, potentially, attract to KIMEP the brightest young people of Kazakhstan. These same students will be advised and mentored regarding the interrelatedness of mathematics to the career paths in business such as Finance, Accounting, or Operations Management as well as the opportunities presented in the discipline of Economics. We believe the Math program will benefit the College of Business and the College of Social Sciences as well as serve the community by offering this new degree program. A minor in mathematics can significantly widen anyone's scope of career opportunities and will benefit those individuals. Interaction between students studying social sciences or business and those studying fundamental mathematics would make the atmosphere at KIMEP more intellectually stimulating and so improve students' learning.

Why anything beyond 'Mathematics for Business and Economics' and 'Calculus'? These two are introductory courses with an emphasis on computational skills rather than mathematical theory. But mathematics is not just substitution of numbers in the known formulas. If a student wants to properly understand and successfully apply mathematics, to know where the formulas and rules come from and maybe to derive his or her own formulas or develop his or her own methods, he or she should have a sound knowledge of fundamental mathematics where the emphasis is on the theory, ideas, and deductive reasoning.

The mission of the proposed Minor in Mathematics is to give students a solid knowledge of fundamental mathematics, to develop their ability to think critically and analytically and ability to use their knowledge. This will improve preparation of students and increase their competitiveness for future jobs and graduate schools anywhere in the world.

Program structure. All CSS minors consist of 5 courses (15 credits). Thus, a Minor in Mathematics at KIMEP also consists of 5 courses: all courses from Group A (required courses) and any 3 courses from Group B (elective courses).

Group A: Required Courses

Course Code	Course Title	Credit hours	ECTS
MATH2001	Linear Algebra	3	5
MATH3001	Introduction to Analysis	3	5
Total		6	10

Group B: Elective Courses

Course Code	Course Title	Credit hours	ECTS

MATH4001	Discrete Mathematics	3	5
MATH4002	Probability Theory and Statistics	3	5
MATH4003	Introduction to Multivariable Analysis	3	5
Total		9	15

Who can minor? To be admitted to the Mathematics minor, a student must have a minimum overall GPA of 2.67 and have a grade of B or higher in any of the mathematical courses from the general education requirements.

The learning objectives of the Minor in Mathematics program are to develop:

- critical thinking and analytical skills;
- the ability to make a sound logical inference;
- an understanding of basic mathematical techniques and the ability to use them;
- an understanding of mathematical proofs and the ability to produce a correct mathematical proof; knowledge of foundational facts (theorems) of linear algebra, analysis and related subjects.

Minor in Financial Economics

A student taking a minor in Financial Economics has to take two required courses and select two elective courses as specified below:

Group A: Required Courses

Course Code	Course Title	Credit hours	ECTS
ECN3081	Intermediate Microeconomics	3	5
ECN3350	Financial Economics I	3	5
Total		6	10

Elective courses for the minor in Financial (for a minor, two electives have to be taken):

Group B: Elective Courses

Course Code	Course Title	Credit hours	ECTS
ECN2360	Introduction to Personal Finance	3	5
ECN3155	Money and Banking	3	5
ECN4351	Foreign Exchange Markets	3	5
ECN4350	Advanced Financial Economics (prerequisite ECN3350 Financial Economics I)	3	5
ECN4352	Financial Econometrics (prerequisite ECN3184 Econometric Methods)	3	5
ECN3230	Financial Institutions Management	3	5
Total		6	10

Minor in Economic Policy and Development

A student taking a minor in Economic Policy and Development has to take two required courses and select two elective courses as specified below.

Group A: Required Courses

Course Code	Course Title	Credit hours	ECTS
ECN3523	International Political Economy	3	5
ECN2103	Microeconomics	3	5

or any other 3000 or 4000 level course in economics.

BACHELOR OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS (BIR)

MISSION OF THE BIR PROGRAM

Our mission is to prepare leading professionals and scholars in the fields of International Relations while providing students with solid training in the social sciences and liberal arts. After completion of the program, students are expected to be familiar with all aspects of international and comparative politics.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE OF THE BIR PROGRAM

The BIR Program is designed to:

- ✓ produce graduates capable of taking on leadership roles in the challenging arena of world affairs, including positions within the diplomatic corps, multinational corporations, education and non-governmental organizations.
- ✓ offer an integrated multidisciplinary curriculum program that compares favorably in standards and quality to comparable programs in Western universities.

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAM

The objectives of BIR program are:

1. to train professionals capable of taking on challenging jobs and playing leadership roles in the international arena, as diplomats, consular agents, communications officers, international affairs analysts and advertising specialists; and
2. to provide a solid foundation for future scholars who want to pursue graduate study and research in international relations and related fields in the social sciences and humanities.
3. to foster students' critical and analytical thinking and to expand their linguistic, technical, research and communication skills.
4. to analyze the core fields and sub-fields in the discipline through innovative teaching
5. to develop student/faculty collaboration that allows students to attain the political literacy necessary for good citizenship.
6. to help students understand the concepts, theories and methodologies used in the disciplines so that students can integrate theoretical knowledge and practical experience.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

In line with the Institute's development strategy to 2014, which has at its heart the development of a transparent learning process, learning objectives have been developed. In many respects, the BIR has built this process in advance of the rest of the Institute. The BIR's program's learning objectives are to ensure that graduates have:

A satisfactory level of knowledge of:

- the concepts and theories that inform the field of international relations, political theory, comparative politics and regional studies;
- the nature of the international system and its relationship to individuals, socio-economic and cultural groups, states, international organizations, international law, global civil society, and private multinational corporations;
- the economic perspectives on global, international and regional governance;
- ethics as they apply to international affairs;
- the differences between political systems in terms of constitutional frameworks, social and cultural traditions and practices, and political participation;
- one or more areas of specialization in international and regional studies (including security, natural resources, geopolitics, foreign policy history and decision-making, bilateral relations, diplomacy, and governance of international organizations);

And the necessary cognitive, inter-personal and self-management skills to:

- undertake research that synthesizes, integrates and applies theoretical constructs to define, analyze and address issues in the fields of international relations, comparative politics, and regional studies;
- communicate ideas and information clearly and effectively in oral and written English;
- make appropriate use of information technology for the retrieval, analysis, and presentation of information;

- work effectively with others in the pursuit of common objectives.

INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the successful completion of the program, graduates will be able to:

1. describe and articulate the key concepts, major paradigms and theoretical perspectives within the discipline;
2. appraise the impact of cultural, historical, geographic, and economic factors on the formation of different states, regions and civilizations within the international system;
3. analyze the structure and dynamics shaping the contemporary international system and regional structures such as the European Union, NATO, the Eurasian Economic Union, the Shanghai Cooperation Organization, the Asia Pacific Economic Conference, and others;
4. explain the behavior and interactions of the primary actors within the international system and regional subsystems, so as to be able to explain their impact on state-level policy decision-making, risk assessment and conflict resolution;
5. appraise the structure of political systems and the impact of social classes, ethnic groups, social/political movements and interest groups on the formation of foreign and domestic policy in various states;
6. evaluate the role of global institutions, international law, and fundamental values or ethical considerations in the formulation of foreign and domestic policy;
7. assess the impact of major threats to the global order, including the breakdown of the global financial system, economic and social polarization, geopolitical rivalry, resource scarcity, environmental degradation, terrorism and nuclear proliferation;
8. utilize the skills and knowledge noted above to frame the policies of Kazakhstan and other Central Asian states in a global context;
9. implement basic social scientific research skills, critical thinking models and effective communication techniques in the preparation of original compositions in the field of international relations and regional studies; and
10. work effectively with others in the pursuit of common objectives.

CURRICULUM

Program Structure

Like all undergraduate degrees at KIMEP University, the BIR has five study program categories.

To earn a Bachelor of International Relations a student must complete 154 KIMEP credits equivalent to 240 ECTS

Category	Credits	ECTS
General Education	33	53
Physical Education	16	8
Program Foundation Courses	64	106
Major Requirements	32	58
Other Graduation Requirements	9	15
Total Required for Graduation	154	240

PROGRAM FOUNDATION COURSES (64 credits equivalent to 106 ECTS)

- Program Foundation Required Courses 52 credits equivalent to 86 ECTS
- Program Foundation Elective Courses 12 credits equivalent to 20 ECTS

Program Foundation Required Courses (52 credits equivalent to 86 ECTS)

Pre-requisites: All International Relations majors are required to take POL1511.2/GEN1701.2 “Fundamentals of Political Science” and IRL1512.2 “Fundamentals of International Relations” prior to admission into other program-foundation and program-major classes.

All language courses offered by the Language Center are exempted from these prerequisites (GEN1110, GEN1121, Kazakh or Russian Professional Language).

Also exempted from these prerequisites are GEN/POL2600 “History of Civilizations 1”, GEN/POL2601 “History of Civilizations 2” and IRL3541 “Contemporary World History”.

NOTICE: Program foundation required courses are normally offered once a year. Students should carefully decide what courses to take on a yearly basis.

IRL/POL 4534	Politics of the European Union	3	5
IRL4519	Globalization: Current Issues	3	5
IRL3550	United Nations: Structure and Practices	3	5
Total		3	5

Program foundation elective courses are normally offered once every three semesters. Students should carefully decide what courses to take on that basis.

Students must take 9 credits (equivalent to 15 ECTS) from this list:

These courses can be used in two ways:

- for students who want to be free in their choice for broadening their knowledge of social sciences and/or languages (they can choose any three courses)
- for students who are interested in a specific minor (they have to choose specific courses as indicated in the table)

BACHELOR OF PUBLIC AND MUNICIPAL ADMINISTRATION (BPMA)

(Code of the Major: 5B051000)

Statement of Purpose

The purpose of the Bachelor of Public and Municipal Administration at KIMEP is to prepare professionals for careers in the public, non-profit, and private sectors through an intellectual and practical interdisciplinary approach. The program aims to prepare prospective managers with skills that enable them to adapt to changing demands within different sectors.

Learning objectives

In order to equip students who graduate from the BPMA program with the essential knowledge and skills they need to gain employment in professional, managerial, and, ultimately, executive positions in the public, non-profit and private sectors, the program's learning objectives are to ensure that undergraduates have a satisfactory level of knowledge of:

- the concepts and theories that have informed the development of public administration, public policy and public management;
- the nature of the public sector and its relationship to government, civil society and the marketplace, and how it can be institutionally arranged and reformed;
- the concepts and theories of public finance (taxation and expenditure), governmental budgeting and financial management;
- the nature of public organizations and impact of their structure and culture on organizational performance;
- the concepts and theories of motivation, leadership, job design and organizational change that can be applied to improve the performance of public organizations; and
- one or more areas of public policy specialization (including natural resources, urban development, social policy, environmental policy, and health policy).

The undergraduates also acquire the necessary cognitive, inter-personal and self-management skills to:

- 1) undertake research involving the synthesizing, integrating and applying of theoretical constructs to define, analyze and address issues in the fields of public administration, public policy and public management;
- 2) communicate ideas and information clearly and effectively oral and written English;
- 3) make appropriate use of information technology for the retrieval, analysis and presentation of information; and
- 4) work effectively with others in the pursuit of common objectives.

BPMA Curriculum

To earn a Bachelor Public and Municipal Administration a student must complete 154 credits.

Major Requirements

The Department of Public Administration offers the following specializations to students: Public Policy and Administration, Financial Management, Governance and Law, and International Customs Administration.

Financial Management provides an opportunity to acquire more of the knowledge and skills that are required to make policy and manage effectively in public and management organizations. It is designed to prepare students to pursue careers as financial analysts in the public, nonprofit, and private sectors. The coursework in this track will have an analytical, problem solving orientation, and focus on effective management of programs and resources.

Public Policy and Administration is for students interested in policy issues, politics, public administration, and related areas. It gives students the foundational skills and knowledge needed for understanding the policy process, and provides students with the analytical skills and training necessary for careers in government agencies, business, consulting, and non-profit organizations.

Governance and Law is designed to prepare capable, innovative professionals to pursue careers in the public and non-profit sectors. The program equips future managers with knowledge and practical skills for effective governance in an era of globalization. The joint major permits students to pursue either an LLM at the Law School or a Master in Public Administration at the College of Social Sciences. This is a new major and shall be implemented in Fall 2015.

MASTER OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS (MIR)

Statement of purpose of the MIR program

The Master's Program in International Relations (MIR) was launched in 2002. The MIR is a three regular semesters, 48 credits (90 ECTS) program. It is designed to build up a new cadre of scholars/officials capable of taking on leadership roles in the challenging arena of world affairs, including positions within the diplomatic corps, multinational corporations, education and non-governmental organizations.

Mission of the MIR program

The aim of the Master's Degree in International Relations is to train experts and young professionals capable of taking on challenging jobs and playing leadership roles in the international arena. Unique in Central Asia, the MIR program is comparable in standards and quality to masters' programs in Western Universities, such as Glasgow University, which offers its students in the Russian, Central and Eastern European Studies program an opportunity to earn a dual degree program by studying alongside MIR students at KIMEP.

The overarching goals of the MIR program are:

- to promote excellence in the study of international relations and regional studies
- to train professionals capable of taking on challenging jobs and playing leadership roles in the international arena; and
- to provide a solid foundation for scholars who want to pursue doctoral study and research in international relations.

Objectives

The objectives of MIR program are:

- to provide students with graduate-level knowledge and analytical skills needed for employment in public, no-profit, and private organizations with an international orientation as well as government agencies and higher education institution; and
- to educate graduate students for ethical service to their society and the broader regional and international community.
- to prepare graduates for doctoral studies in areas relevant to international relations

Learning Objectives

The MIR program's learning objectives are to ensure that graduates have:

A satisfactory knowledge of:

- the major paradigms of international relations;
- the nature of the international system and its relationship to individuals, socio-economic and cultural groups, states, international organizations, international law, global civil society, and private multinational corporations;
- the economic perspectives on global, international and regional governance;
- ethics as they apply to international affairs;
- international organizations and their management and leadership, and the impact of development paradigms on political, social and cultural changes;
- Central Asian security issues, geopolitics, economics and integration in the international and global system

And the necessary cognitive, inter-personal and self-management skills to:

- undertake supervised independent research, involving the synthesis and application of theoretical constructs to topics in the fields of international relations, international political economy, developmental studies, and regional studies with a specific focus on Central Asia
- communicate ideas and information clearly and effectively in written and oral English;

- use information technology for the retrieval, analysis and presentation of information; and
- work effectively with others in the pursuit of common objectives.

Intended Learning Outcomes

At the successful completion of this Program, graduates will be able to:

1. identify and analyze the structure and fundamental dynamic processes of the international system;
2. describe and articulate the major paradigms and theoretical perspectives within the discipline;
3. explain the behavior and interactions of the primary actors within the international system, so as to be able to construct basic models of policy decision-making;
4. discuss and appraise the impact of culture, history, geography, and power and wealth differentials on the formulation of foreign policies of different states;
5. appraise the impact of social classes, ethnic groups, social/ political movements and interest groups on the formation of foreign policy in various states;
6. evaluate the role of global institutions, international law, and fundamental values or ethical considerations in the formulation of foreign policy;
7. utilize the skills and knowledge noted above to frame the policies of Kazakhstan and other Central Asian states in a global context; and
8. conduct original research and develop the capacity to communicate that knowledge via written and oral presentations at a satisfactory level in English.

CURRICULUM

MASTER OF PUBLIC AND MUNICIPAL ADMINISTRATION (MPMA)

Statement of purpose

²⁰ If not taken as Major required

²¹ If not taken as Major required

The MPA Program's purpose is to prepare graduates for careers, leadership positions, and ethical service in public, non-profit, and business organizations. It seeks to demonstrate to Kazakhstan and the Central Asian region the value of high-quality, research-informed teaching of public administration, policy, and management. The Master in Public Administration (MPA) program started in 1994 shortly after the inception of KIMEP. Since then, over 300 MPAs have graduated, contributing skills, knowledge and abilities to public, non-profit service at the national as well as the international level. We are currently working to internationalize the student body to bring people together to share ideas from across the world, and particularly China and South Asia, as well as former Soviet republics.

The program:

- Promotes excellence in public, non-governmental, and private management and policy-making through the building and strengthening of the analytical and leadership capacity of graduate students;
- Provides graduate students with the generic and specialized management and policy knowledge and skills needed for successful careers in the public, non-governmental, and private sectors; and
- Educates graduate students for ethical service to their society and the broader regional and international community.

The Master of Public Administration degree requires 48 credits of coursework for students new to the field or a minimum of 36 credits for students with significant experience in public management and/or KIMEP graduates. The program includes 42 credits of required component courses, 6 credits of concentration and electives courses.

The courses taught for MPA students are conducted in a number of ways: as advanced lecture courses, as seminars in which faculty and students present critical studies of selected problems within the subject field, as independent study or reading courses, or as research projects conducted under faculty supervision. It is important to note that all graduate courses are offered during evening time to ensure that our students keep their full-time jobs at KIMEP or outside of KIMEP.

Graduate studies imply developing scientific curiosity and acquiring special skills to be able to do the research. Nurturing a research culture among MPA students is one of our very first priorities. Under the guidance of a faculty member, all MPA students are expected to write and defend a thesis. A thesis should make a genuine contribution to the understanding and analysis of public policy issues, management and administration in Kazakhstan.

Learning objectives

In order to equip students who graduate from the MPA program with the essential knowledge and skills required by professionals seeking managerial and executive positions in the public, non-profit and private sectors, the program's learning objectives are to ensure that graduates have:

1. a satisfactory knowledge of the nature of the public sector and its relationship to government, civil society, and the marketplace, and how it can be institutionally arranged;
2. a satisfactory knowledge of economic perspectives on government and public policy, governmental budgeting, and public financial management;
3. a satisfactory knowledge of ethics as they apply to the public sector;
4. a satisfactory knowledge of public organizations and their management and leadership, and the impact of organizational structure, culture, and leadership on organizational change and performance;
5. a satisfactory knowledge of project appraisal and management, and the necessary cognitive, self-management, and interpersonal skills;
6. a satisfactory knowledge of the concepts and theories of public policy and analysis;
7. a satisfactory capacity to undertake supervised independent research, involving the synthesis and application of theoretical constructs to topics in the fields of public administration, policy, and management
8. a satisfactory capacity to communicate ideas and information clearly and effectively in written and oral English;
9. a satisfactory capacity to use information technology for the retrieval, analysis and presentation of information; and
10. a satisfactory capacity to work effectively with others in the pursuit of common objectives.

MASTER OF INTERNATIONAL JOURNALISM (MAIJ)

The Graduate Program in International Journalism and Mass Communications leading to a Master of Arts in International Journalism (MAIJ) was first offered in August 2002.

This is a four-semester program of full-time study that must be completed within five years of commencement. There are two specializations or majors in the program: media management and public relations.

Mission and Goals

This three-semester (48 KIMEP credits, 90 ECTS) program is designed to appeal to media scholars or professional employees seeking career development or advanced education, and to recent recipients of undergraduate degrees in communication arts or other fields seeking to advance their competitiveness and research and communication skills. Its central goals are:

1. to provide graduate-level education in the discipline of communications as consistent with the mission statement of KIMEP University;
2. to produce competent professionals who demonstrate a thorough knowledge of the theory and practice of print journalism, broadcasting and/or new media, media management, public relations and advertising; and
3. to foster within students an ethos of professionalism and citizenship.

Objectives

The objectives of the MAIJ program are to:

1. provide the knowledge and communication skills necessary for students to succeed as leaders in their chosen area of mass communication, and/or as scholars and researchers in academic or other spheres;
2. develop student understanding and competence in key skills of media management and PR;
3. strengthen critical thinking and analytical skills needed to investigate trends and issues in journalism and mass communication;
4. help students develop as constructive and ethical members of their local, national, regional and international communities.

Learning Objectives

The learning objectives of this program study are to ensure that students understand:

- the major concepts and theories of the production, distribution, and impact of mediated messages in a range of contexts and technologies, including traditional and online communication;
- the nature of mass communication processes and production and their relationship to society, the marketplace and Kazakhstani media systems, and how professional projects can be conceived, designed, planned and implemented; and
- the characteristics and structures of media organizations, and the impact of their activities and culture on information flow within individuals, groups, and society.

Program Intended Learning Outcomes

The program is a national and regional leader in developing and implementing transparent and effective academic learning outcomes as a core element of the development strategy of KIMEP University. Therefore, on the successful completion of the program, MAIJ graduates will be able to:

- describe the function of mass media in society, and integrate their understanding into their own advanced professional and academic work;
- apply advanced practices in professional communication, such as conducting research, planning, report writing, and analysis;
- describe and evaluate the elements of ethical and professional practices related to journalism and mass communication;
- manage and explain the changing and formative role of new information technologies in mass communication;
- engage with, and advance, communication practices in CIS and Kazakhstan and in other regions of the world, reflecting the major social, economic, and political aspects and impacts of those practices;

- develop the analytical skills needed to critically evaluate professional communication materials and performances;
- adopt the language, management and technical skills needed to communicate effectively as a leader in their selected field;
- describe, assess and apply the concepts and procedures of commercial and academic research, and master the use of key research methods;
- design and complete a professional or academic thesis, based on an original theorization and resulting in high-quality analysis and/or professional product;
- undertake at least one semester of work in a mass communication role or field.

Program Majors' Intended Learning Outcomes

Major in Journalism and Media Management ILO

On completion of the MAIJ with a Major in Journalism and Media Management, students will demonstrate the following learning outcomes at an advanced level:

- conceive, plan and execute relevant, publishable articles or other materials that demonstrate professional values, standards and ethics;
- find information and evaluate, organize and present it efficiently and clearly, with fairness and balance;
- use advanced reporting/writing techniques in print, broadcast and online journalism;
- gather information, using methods relevant to the discipline and the topic;
- investigate civic issues through original research and analysis of official and public materials;
- meet the operational needs of media organizations;
- assume leadership in strategic and operational opportunities and problems;
- design and implement plans that help organizations transform their vision into reality;
- plan and execute activities for public relations, advertising and other communication, media and other organizations;
- design marketing that fully utilizes traditional and interactive marketing techniques; and
- use strategic planning and communication to analyze their organization's current conditions and how to reach goals;
- consult for media companies and organizations, and the communication departments of other companies.

Major in Public Relations and Advertising ILO

On completion of the MAIJ with a Major in Public Relations and Advertising, students will demonstrate the following learning outcomes at a high level:

- write a comprehensive public relations plan and effective traditional and electronic press releases and media kits;
- apply reporting/writing techniques in broadcasting and online journalism;3. design and implement effective public relations strategies, and evaluate results, to improve the image of a corporation or business;
- apply a range of effective planning and communications strategies during a crisis;
- formulate targeted marketing plans and develop a company's marketing communications strategy;
- write in a clear, lively, visual, stimulating and concise style;
- plan and manage cost-effective media that reach selected targets through advertising and sales promotion;
- demonstrate a range of copywriting, photographic, video and design techniques and skills for a PR campaign;
- develop a professional integrated marketing communications plan;
- design, compile, and produce a professional-quality marketing plan using traditional and new direct marketing techniques;
- formulate a cost-effective marketing communications budget;
- gather and apply information on consumer behavior to create a marketing plan using traditional and new direct marketing techniques.

Department of Media and Communications policies

Graduate students may enroll in 4000-level courses for graduate credit so long as the chosen course does not substantially reproduce the content of another course the student has taken or is currently taking. Graduate students may be allowed to enroll in courses at the 3000-level or below for graduate credit with permission of the department. Graduate students who enroll in undergraduate-level courses will be required to complete additional course requirements to justify graduate credit.

Advanced undergraduate students may enroll in graduate-level courses for undergraduate credit with permission of the Department. The content of such courses must not substantially duplicate the content of a course the student has previously taken or is currently taking.

Internships

Student internships, which are a mandatory component of the program curriculum, are an important part of the learning process. They can take two forms:

- professional (for students contemplating a career in journalism, media management, public relations or advertising);

- organizational (for students contemplating employment in the public, non-profit, and business sectors).

To support its internship program, the College has:

- an Internship Coordinator, who is responsible for finding suitable Professional Internship opportunities and placing students in such internships;
- a dedicated Senior Lecturer in Governmental Internships, a former Minister of Labor, who is responsible for designing, delivering, and assessing Introductory Internships to the Kazakhstan Parliament and the Ministry of Economic Development and Trade; and
- a MAIJ core faculty, appointed on a semester basis, to oversee and assess student internships.

The DMC Internship Program aims to provide students with an opportunity to work in real-world organizations (media outlets, PR and marketing and advertising companies, production and film studios, corporate media, government agencies, embassies, etc.) and acquire marketable skills in the areas of their specialization.

Internships are available in the following areas:

- communication,
- broadcasting,
- publicrelations,
- marketing,
- advertising,
- multimediajournalism,
- SMM
- mediamanagement, and
- eventmanagement.

The professional internship program is designed to:

- Immerse the students into the reality of Kazakhstani and international multimedia and communication field.
- Get introduced to the work of mass communication professionals; learn more about career choices;
- Give students hands-on reporting and writing experience in a professional newsroom; experience in planning and implementing strategic campaigns;
- Help students build a portfolio that will strengthen their applications for post-graduate jobs; employers will require previous experience and gauge a candidate's ability through their work samples;
- Develop a network of professional contacts that will help students launch a career in mass communications, public relations, marketing, and advertising.
- Improve their understanding of how market-based analysis can help them better understand economic and social problems;
- Enhance interns' awareness of the real-life situation in the chosen field;
- Help identify necessary skills and knowledge in order to focus in their academic program;
- Help develop interns' analytical, communication, team-working, decision-making and other professional skills;

The DMC internship program prepares students for such jobs as:

- Multimediajournalists
- Mediaproducers
- PR managers
- Magazineeditors
- Marketingspecialists
- Communicationconsultants
- Corporatecommunicationsspecialists
- Accountmanagers
- Mediaplanners

- Newsanchors

GENERAL INFORMATION

Statement of Purpose

The School of Law provides undergraduate and graduate education in national and international law. It prepares students to take leadership and management roles in the development of the business economy, legal practice community and civil society in Kazakhstan, Central Asia and the rest of the world.

Mission

The mission of the School of Law is to provide students with a deep understanding of substantive Kazakhstani and international law, and of the role that national and international law play in the development of orderly and successful societies. In addition, the School will provide students with the skills necessary to apply that law to solve business, individual and societal problems. The fundamental principle guiding the School of Law and the courses in its curriculum is the Rule of Law. The School seeks to produce the next generation of leaders in legal practice, government, and international organizations. Accomplishing this mission necessitates a reconstruction of how law is taught and applied in Kazakhstan and Central Asia. The School of Law has developed a four-step plan to implement that policy.

Profile

The School of Law incorporates best academic practices in teaching and scholarship adopted by leading law schools throughout the world. The School stresses innovative courses and teaching methodology, legal research and publication, and education in non-legal disciplines to deepen understanding of the law. The School's objective is to create the foremost School of Law in Central Asia.

The School of Law teaches by transmitting knowledge required to understand each field, instilling in students critical thinking skills, and developing practical skills to apply law to solve legal and social problems. Because of their unique training that integrates theory and the practice of law, graduates of the KIMEP School of Law will have a competitive advantage when they work for internationally recognized law firms, consulting firms, accounting firms or multinational corporations as well as for smaller law firms and individual clients.

Faculty

The Faculty of the School of Law consists of foreign and local scholars and practitioners. The School of Law stresses high-quality teaching and aspires to advance knowledge through the development of research. Faculty members are actively engaged in research both in law and in related fields. The faculty publishes articles in international and national peer-reviewed journals and engages in the publication of books in their fields of expertise.

Degree Programs

The School of Law offers two undergraduate (LL.B) programs and one post-graduate (LL.M) program. In addition, the School of Law offers a Minor in Law program to undergraduate students enrolled in other Colleges of KIMEP.

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE PROGRAMMES

The School of Law offers the following undergraduate (LL.B) programs that qualify graduates to pursue post-graduate studies as well as to practice law in Kazakhstan and/or to work at the international level:

- 1) Bachelor of Law in Jurisprudence
- 2) Bachelor of International Law

Description

The Bachelor of Law program is designed to provide the young people of Kazakhstan with a comprehensive education in law that will enable them to acquire both the theoretical knowledge and the practical skills. In accordance with current international best practices, the KIMEP LL.B degree will integrate the study of substantive Kazakhstani law with critical thinking and problem solving skills, and with drafting, negotiating and advocacy skills. As a result, students who earn the KIMEP LL.B degree will be well-trained, highly effective lawyers and business people, who upon graduation will be well-prepared to practice law in Kazakhstan. The LL.B program requires that students complete 154 credits of education. It is recommended that students take 18 credits per academic semester, so that the program may be completed within four academic years.

The Bachelor of International Law program aims to provide a high-quality education on the legal regulation of inter-State relations, of private relations between natural persons and legal entities, and of business relations between partners resident in different jurisdictions. This knowledge and correspondent skills should enable graduates to become effective lawyers in the public and private practice areas. In particular, graduates of the LL.B in International Law program should be suited to practicing public and private international law at relevant State organs, international inter-governmental and non-governmental organizations, at private companies, and law and consultancy firms. The LL.B in International Law program requires that students complete 158 credits of education. It is recommended that students take 18 credits per academic semester, so that the program might be completed within four academic years.

Language Policy

The general LL.B of Jurisprudence program will be taught primarily in English. However, instructors may use presentations and handouts in Kazakh/Russian and refer to Kazakh/Russian language sources for better explanation of technical terms.

The LL.B in International Law degree shall be taught almost exclusively in English. Students shall be expected to have acquired near-native professional English language proficiency by the time of their graduation. High-level English language proficiency will enable graduates of the LL.B in International Law program to have a distinct competitive advantage when working in their chosen professional fields.

However, students must understand the technical legal terms, and be able to apply Kazakhstan's national law in advising clients and representing them in judicial proceedings in Kazakhstan. Therefore, Russian may be used extensively in the following practice-oriented courses:

GRADUATE DEGREE PROGRAM

MASTER OF LAWS IN INTERNATIONAL LAW (LL.M)

Statement of Purpose and Mission

The LL.M in International law is a one-year degree program providing specialized knowledge of International law for legal and business practitioners engaged in cross-border legal transactions. Foundational knowledge of international law permits students to acquire a profound understanding of the normative predicates upon which contemporary and particularized departments of law repose. The objective of the program is to provide professionals with the skills to solve complex legal problems, provide service to clients based on ethical principles, and to reform the legal system of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

The KIMEP LL.M in International Law is based on first principles. Students are expected to acquire the skill to read and interpret legal texts, to critically examine the underlying policies of legal rules, and to prepare written and oral arguments based upon correct reasoning and applicable to practical tasks encountered in the external environment. The KIMEP LL.M in International law next takes advantage of Kazakhstan's geopolitical position. Kazakhstan is rich in natural resources, expects the city of Almaty to become the financial center of Central Asia, and has joined a Customs Union with the Russian Federation and Byelorussia. The curriculum weaves conventional courses found in general LL.M courses with courses dealing with the particular legal regime of Kazakhstan that constitute a precondition for foreign direct investment in the extractive industries and emerging cutting edge markets of Kazakhstan. The faculty within the LL.M program provides guidance to its students, especially within the context of the LL.M thesis. Close relationships between faculty and students benefit both parties. Students have an opportunity to receive professional advice both in academic matters and professional career choices. The ratio of faculty to students is low and allows for the creation of a "lyceum-like" atmosphere at KIMEP.

Program Objectives

The primary objective of the LL.M program is to train students to apply detailed substantive knowledge of international law, using skills required by the external environment in which they will undertake careers in law and businesses engaged in international transactions.

These mandatory skills are:

1. To draft legal documents in the English language virtually equivalent to a native speaker.
2. To think outside the box by knowing how to interpret and apply law to formulate creative solutions to legal problems.
3. To understand legal principles triggered by cross border transactions.
4. To comprehend the business models upon which laws are based.
5. To understand legal formalities without losing sight of substance.
6. To produce an LL.M thesis demonstrating deep knowledge of a subject and representing scholarly work equivalent to that expected in any world class law school.

Each course in the LL.M program contains explicit components on critical thinking and legal argumentation. No student graduates from the program without mastering these skills.

Program Intended Learning Outcomes

At the successful completion of this Program, graduates will be able to:

1. Describe, interpret, synthesize and apply principles of public and private international law, including statutes, treaties, judicial decisions, legal texts, and public and private legal agreements.
2. Provide ethical legal advice and solutions to legal problems involving the international aspects of actions by private individuals, business, government and civil society.
3. Identify and advocate among choices of law and plan the locations of international activities based upon comparisons of the legal frameworks for conducting international and cross-border private and business transactions and other activities in Kazakhstan, Central Asia and internationally.
4. Complete supervised independent research projects, involving the synthesis and application of legal principles, legislation, judicial decisions and expert commentary, to practical and scholarly topics in the field of international law.
5. Communicate ideas and information clearly and effectively, in both oral and written English, using correct legal terminology, in descriptive, persuasive and transactional formats, using principles of inductive, deductive and practical reasoning.
6. Demonstrate the ability to work collaboratively in teams, evidencing leadership capacity.

Having achieved these learning outcomes, students are prepared to pursue further study of law at the PhD level or to work locally or internationally. For example graduates will be qualified to work in:

1. Law Firms
2. Business Firms

3. Financial Services Firms
4. Government
5. International organizations

Also, program graduates with an academic inclination shall be eligible to apply for appropriate PhD programs at the KIMEP University and other higher education institutions in the Republic of Kazakhstan or abroad.

Language Policy

The LL.M in International Law degree shall be taught almost exclusively in English, the official language of most conventional multilateral sources of international law, and of a wealth of the international legal doctrine. Students shall be expected to have acquired good professional English language proficiency by the time of their graduation.

High-level English language proficiency will enable graduates of the LL.M in International Law program to have a distinct competitive advantage when working in their chosen professional fields.

However, students must also understand the technical legal terms, and to apply Kazakhstan's national law in advising clients and representing them in judicial proceedings in Kazakhstan. Therefore, Russian may be used as the main language of instruction in some courses.

Degree Requirements

The LL.M program consists of 37 credits. The LL.M degree may be completed in one year for full-time enrolled students. The LL.M also may be completed over an extended time period to accommodate working professionals. Admitted students who have a score of less than 60 on the KIMEP Entrance English Test (KEET) test are required to take Foundation English language courses depending upon the range of the KEET score.

UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

LANGUAGE CENTER

ENGLISH

Undergraduate Foundation English Program

Course description/overview

The Foundation English Program is a package of courses designed for students whose native language is other than English and whose knowledge and use of English do not meet the standards for entry into regular first-year English courses. The Program aims to bridge the gap between secondary school and university education and focuses on developing four language skills (reading, writing, listening and speaking), which will prepare students for academic subjects. Its goals are to encourage students' independent learning and critical thinking abilities.

Foundation English Level C

Common European Framework: A1 upon completion

The Foundation English C course is the beginning step in the set of levels to be taken by freshmen and is intended for students at the Beginner level of proficiency upon entry. This is an integrated A 1 level course that develops students' receptive skills (reading and listening), productive skills (writing and speaking), and develops a good control of simple grammatical structures and sentence patterns. The course focuses on writing dictations, diaries, personal messages/ letters, and basic paragraphs conveying personal information. The course focuses on delivering monologues as well as intensive and extensive reading of graded texts. Listening skills are developed primarily through fulfilling independent-study assignments and classroom interaction. There are multiple individual tutorials with the instructor. By the end of Foundation English Level C, students satisfy the criteria of the CEF A1 level.

Foundation English Level B

Common European Framework: B1 Mid upon completion

The Foundation English B course is the second step in the set of levels to be taken by freshmen and is intended for students at the A1+ level of proficiency upon entry. This course continues the development of language skills through activities such as group discussions, individual presentations, writing reproductions, descriptive paragraphs and essays, listening to information on various topics, watching videos and films, reading short stories and novels of a corresponding level. Particular emphasis is placed on analyzing information and drawing conclusions, and relating ideas in the text to real life experiences. By the end of the Foundation English 2 students will demonstrate competence at the CEF B1 level.

Foundation English Level A

Common European Framework: B2 mid upon completion

The Foundation English A course is the third step in the set of levels to be taken by freshmen and is intended for students at the B1 Mid level of proficiency upon entry. This course continues the development of language skills through such activities as discussions, presentations, speeches, and group work; writing summaries, argumentative essays, and letters; listening to news, speeches, films, and other videos; and reading of essays, short stories, novels or non-fiction books, textbook chapters, and academic and popular articles. Particular emphasis is placed on developing as writers and speakers and using ideas and information from reading and listening. By the end of the course, students who have made adequate progress in English demonstrate competence at the CEF B2 level.

English for Academic Purposes

ENG1100 Academic Speaking (3 credits)

*Prerequisites: ENG0005 Foundation English Level 5 or direct admission to Academic English based on KEPT/IELTS
Common European Framework: B2 upon completion*

This course develops students' skills in speaking confidently and persuasively on a variety of academic topics in the Humanities, Business Studies and the Social Sciences. Students will be expected to undertake extensive research on their chosen topics and thereby develop their ability to use resources appropriately and ethically. In so doing, they will engage analytically and in-depth with their topics and offer constructive criticisms of one another's presentations. At all times critical thinking will be emphasized. Students will adopt a process approach to academic speaking, placing emphasis less on the final product than on the stages of academic research, each of which will be presented to the class in the form of a mini-presentation. Through regular presentations on their research and finally on their topics, students will improve their language proficiency and ability to argue effectively and persuasively within an academic context, and to handle evidence and statistical data. Class activities will take the form of discussions, debates and presentations.

ENG1110 Academic Listening and Note Taking (3 credits)

*Prerequisites: ENG1100 Academic Speaking
Common European Framework: B2 to C1 low upon completion*

This course develops students' abilities in these two essential academic skills, while at the same time ensuring that listening is not a passive activity. Students improve their understanding of academic discourse in a variety of contexts, including lectures and less formal situations. They are exposed to a variety of dialects of English and levels of formality. They refine their note-taking skills and then use these notes as the basis for questions, responses and requests for clarification. In addition, their notes will be useful for revision and for developing essays, presentations and debates. Mere noting of facts will not be the primary goal. Rather, students will use their notes to write responses and develop their own critical thinking. As far as possible, authentic audio and video materials will be used in preference to the artificial materials specially prepared for such courses.

ENG1120 Academic Reading and Writing 1 (3 credits)

*Prerequisites: ENG0005 Foundation English Level 5 or direct admission to Academic English based on KEPT/IELTS
Common European Framework: B2*

This course enables students to deal with the academic reading and writing requirements of the program courses. Course activities develop advanced-level reading ability by focusing on main ideas and specific information, by recognizing lexical meaning from content areas in context, and by training in writing that presents clear, well researched arguments within particular essay styles and structures. Students will acquire independent research skills, using online and print sources in a responsible and ethical manner so as to extend their critical thinking ability within a piece of academic discourse. They will learn to find and select relevant reading texts that provide information and interpretations that can be used to support their ideas and provide evidence in their essays. Students will need to process and critically analyze that information before incorporating it within their own arguments. A process-writing approach will be adopted, with greater emphasis on the process of reading and writing and on drafts of the essay than on the final product.

ENG1121 Academic Reading and Writing 2 (3 credits)

*Prerequisites: ENG1120 Academic Reading and Writing 1
Common European Framework: B2 to C1 low upon completion*

This is an advanced-level academic reading and writing course in which students undertake a major research project on an academic topic of their own choice. Building on the research and writing skills developed in previous courses, students select a project of substantial scope within an area of interest to them. They offer a sound defence of their choice of topic, using criteria appropriate to an academic context, and then prepare to undertake research. In preparing their research essays, students make extensive use of library and online resources, as well as field research such as interviews and off-campus research, depending on the nature of their topic. Reading tasks include finding, analyzing and evaluating a variety of sources. A process-approach to writing is adopted, with specific attention to planning, outlining, surveying the literature, drafting, rewriting, reviewing and using feedback constructively. Attention is paid to both peer and instructor feedback. At the final stage, editing, citations and bibliographical components are the focus of attention.

This course follows Beginning German and assumes knowledge of all the materials covered in GER 1301. This course is designed to provide students with a solid background in the four language learning skills: speaking, listening, reading and writing. A special focus of this course is given to developing speaking skills as an integral part of the learning process. Students will learn to communicate simply about their house/flat and their immediate needs, and to describe and comment on their living situations, as well as daily and leisure-time activities. Reading and listening activities will focus on a variety of topics from everyday life in the German speaking countries. Students will also have an opportunity of learning about German culture and traditions.

GER1303 Elementary German 2 (3 credits)

Prerequisite: GER 1302 Elementary German 1 or equivalent

This course is a continuation of GER 1302 Elementary German 1. Students continue developing their communicative skills in listening, speaking, reading, and writing. The course content will include language and vocabulary used in situational contexts, cultural and historical information about regions where German is spoken. Emphasis will be placed on improving proficiency in oral communication and on developing reading comprehension and fluent writing skills. Students also read short pieces on modern German culture, write compositions and make presentations on topics of personal interest. The course makes extensive use of technology (computer programs, the Internet, e-mail, videos) to promote and enhance students' comprehension of the German language.

RUS1301 Beginning Russian (3 credits)

Prerequisites: None

This Beginning Russian course introduces the basic elements of the Russian language in such a way as to enable students to engage in simple communication. It also provides a good foundation for further study of the language. Practice is given in the four skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing. Basic vocabulary and elementary grammatical structures are introduced. The course focuses on writing short compositions, dictations, delivering monologues, intensive and extensive reading of graded books. Speaking and listening skills will be developed primarily through fulfilling the self-study assignments.

RUS1302 Elementary Russian 1 (3 credits)

Prerequisite: RUS1301 Beginning Russian or equivalent

The course assumes the knowledge of all the materials covered in RUS 1301. This course is designed to provide students with a solid background in the four language learning skills: speaking, listening, reading and writing. A special focus of this course is given to developing speaking skills as an integral part of the learning process. Students will learn to communicate simply about their house/flat and their immediate needs, and to describe and comment on their living situations, as well as daily and leisure-time activities. Reading and listening activities will focus on a variety of topics from everyday life in Russian-speaking countries. Students will also have an opportunity of learning about Russian culture and traditions.

RUS1303 Elementary Russian 2 (3 credits)

Prerequisite: RUS1302 Elementary Russian 1 or equivalent

This course is a continuation of RUS1302 Elementary Russian 2 and is aimed at students who have a basic knowledge of Russian. Students continue to develop communication skills in listening, speaking, reading and writing. The course includes a cross-cultural material, encompassing themes of Russian history, culture, literature, and social and intellectual texts from Russia. The focus is on the development of oral communication skills and the understanding of texts from different genres. Students will prepare presentations on a variety of topics including writing an essay based on listening materials provided from classical and contemporary literature. This course involves the increased use of technology (computer software, Internet, e-mail, and audio and video materials) for the development and understanding of the Russian language.

RUS1304 Pre-Intermediate Russian 1 (3 credits)

Prerequisite: RUS1303 Elementary Russian 2 or equivalent

This course is a continuation of RUS1303 Elementary Russian 2 and is aimed at students who possess sufficient basic knowledge of phonetics, morphology and syntax of the Russian language and have experience in everyday speech in Russian. The course will help to improve students' accents, to provide proper intonation, to improve their knowledge of Russian grammar, and to introduce the basic features of functional styles of the Russian language. This course will greatly expand the vocabulary and common lexicon, and will form a reserve of "background knowledge" of Russian culture. Students will learn not only to participate in educational discussions, but to lead them. The course involves watching television, and listening to lectures and recorded guides to historical Russian cities. These auditory and visual materials will help improve skills in monologues of oral and written texts on cultural material. Tasks will include a need to describe, narrate, explain and reason about the given cultural information.

RUS1305 Pre-Intermediate Russian 2 (3 credits)

Prerequisite: RUS 1304 Pre-Intermediate Russian 1 or equivalent

This course follows Pre-Intermediate Russian 1 and assumes knowledge of all the materials covered in RUS1304. This course will continue the pre-intermediate level of Russian while emphasizing the acquisition of reading, listening, speaking and writing skills at pre-intermediate level. Focus will be on developing conversational proficiency and control of basic grammar and vocabulary. A component promoting cross-cultural understanding and sound academic skills is also included. Contents included in this module should enable a student to achieve the level B1 in Russian, according to the CEFR or TORFL-1 on the Russian State System established for classifying levels of Russian as a foreign language.

RUS 1306 Intermediate Russian 1 (3 credits)

Prerequisites: RUS 1305 Pre-Intermediate Russian 2 or equivalent

This course is intended to motivate students in their Russian language learning, develop communication skills in real situations, and improve knowledge and appreciation of Russian culture. The course is intended to be communicative, with a focus on active student participation and the use of many different learning resources (textbooks, recordings, computers, etc.). Cultural and literary readings are used to expand vocabulary, stimulate discussion, and broaden understanding of the Russian world. Constant review and acquisition of new knowledge are fundamental requirements for the study of this course.

RUS1307 Intermediate Russian 2 (3 credits)

Particular emphasis is placed in the course on understanding psychological principles at the customer level that will improve managerial decision-making with respect to brands. A central aim of the course is to make these concepts relevant for any type of organization (public or private, large or small).

MKT3216 New Product Development (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MK1201

This course addresses important marketing issues involved in developing new product and is based in the strategy of the firm and includes the marketing, manufacturing, finance, engineering and R&D functions. In the context of the course the term "new product" is related to anything new and creative including a product concept, an advertising slogan, the new design of packaging, and a new logo among others. One unique feature of this course is to get students understanding and managing new-product marketing processes.

MKT3220 Tourism Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisite: MKT3150

This course enables the student to understand the nature of the tourism and hospitality industry. It also provides students with a strong foundation in the field of tourism marketing as well as the essential business skills to enhance this exciting field of marketing. It develops an understanding of applied marketing theory in an international tourism and hospitality environment, provides students with an understanding of the complexity of tourism buyer behavior. Opportunities will be identify to position tourism products and services through an effective target marketing approach.

MKT3221 Tourism Practices and Principles (3 Credits)

Prerequisite: None

Through an interdisciplinary approach this course introduces students to the nature of tourism and hospitality from both an industry and a social perspective. The course imparts knowledge and comprehension by introducing research skills, the development of critical analysis and encourages the articulation of concepts and opinions. Students will be made aware of the development of "system thinking" and its application in both the tourism and the hospitality industry.

MKT3222 Cross-Cultural Tourism Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT3150/MKT3140

Through an active participation in this course the student will develop an understanding of culture as a tourism product, as well as cross-cultural tourism marketing and its place in tourism. The perspectives include the fundamental – what is culture and how are representations embodied in specific products and communication channels, the global and comparative – how is the nature of culture changing in a global economy from tourism marketing point of view and how can tourism business respond to the challenge, developing tourism that is culturally sustainable?

MKT3223 Niche Tourism (3 Credits)

Prerequisite: none

Niche Tourism examines one of the fastest growing areas within the tourism sector. This course provides an integrated picture of specialty/niche tourism as a whole looking at both the 'macro' and 'micro' niche area. It has a comprehensive theoretical framework, and discusses initiatives, policies and strategies adopted internationally. With an emphasis on linking theory to practice, it is underpinned by up-to-date international case studies from around the world. Divided into 3 parts, it covers a variety of aspects under the headings of special interest tourism, tradition and culture base tourism and activity-based tourism.

MKT3275 Advertising Management (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT3202

This course analyses the principles and practices of advertising from a managerial viewpoint. The purpose of the course is to familiarize the student with the process of developing and managing advertising. The course considers the reasons to advertise products and market analyses in the planning phase of the advertising program. This stage also includes media selection, creation, and production of advertisements, copy testing and development of advertising budgets.

MKT3277 Sustainable Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT3200, MKT3150

Sustainable Marketing course will introduce students to the concepts of social and environmental sustainability principles applied to marketing activities of organization. The course will demonstrate students how to optimize marketing decisions with respect to nature and society well being. Participants will learn concepts like Triple Bottom Line, Natural capitalism, cradle-to-cradle design, and other. It is expected to demonstrate that implementation of sustainability principles to marketing activities can improve performance and profitability of business organization.

MKT3279 Cross-Cultural Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT3200, MKT3150

The course will provide the students with an understanding of cross-cultural aspects of marketing. By looking at marketing from a cultural perspective, the students will gain insight into the problem-solving process of international marketing. The cross-cultural setting will enhance understanding of global marketing activities. Students will be introduced to both cross-cultural and intercultural approaches in international marketing decisions.

MKT3280 Social Media (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT3202

The course will introduce students to social media marketing specifics. It will provide students with detailed knowledge of social networks, online communities, blog, wikis and any other collaborative media for marketing. The course will detail use of social media portals in order to influence conversion of potential clients into customers, facilitate consumer insights sessions, co-creation activities and other brand related experiences.

MKT3300 Research Methods in Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MGT3201, GEN2402 and at least 90 credits completed

This course is designed to provide students with an introduction to the research theories, policies, concepts, methods and practices in the field of Marketing. Students will receive instruction on research design and research proposal writing. Specifically; students will learn how to identify an appropriate research problem, how to develop research questions and how to formulate hypotheses. Students will be guided to survey current literature on a topic and from this write a literature review. Students will understand how to work with secondary data and how to conduct research ethically. This course will develop conceptual and critical thinking skills; analytical and investigative skills and academic writing and reasoning skills useful as a foundation for further study or for practical application in the world of business.

MKT4201 Cases in Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT3150 and 90 credits completed

The course offers various advanced case studies on practical problems in marketing.

MKT4203 Marketing Research (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT3150

This course looks at how marketing research functions and procedures can be utilized in measuring and analyzing environmental factors in consumer demand, sales efficiency, effectiveness of promotional programs, and effects of competitor's strategies. It includes methods of product distribution and pricing research. Projects emphasize current marketing research techniques.

MKT4208 International Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT3150

This course covers international marketing operations by looking at issues such as product policies, pricing, marketing communications, distribution channels, and marketing research. The factors governing the decision to engage in foreign transactions by organizations are explored in detail. In-depth market studies form a core part of the course.

MKT4210 Digital Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT3202

The course is designed to examine the unique features of marketing through the digital media. Upon completion of the course, students will be able to understand what activities comprise digital marketing and how to support marketing strategy with those activities. Students will not only learn the advantages of digital media compared to off-line media, but also get recommendations on how to properly use various instruments of digital marketing such as web design, search advertising, display advertising, online video, viral marketing, branded content, mobile marketing, and social media marketing. The course will use local and international real life cases and will emphasize ethics surrounding digital marketing activities.

MKT4219 Event Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT3150

The course will provide the students with an understanding of the constituent elements of the planning, designing, and implementing events. The focus is placed on sales promotion techniques, marketing creativity, and public relations in the organizations. The course will develop analytical and diagnostic skills in dealing with marketing situations.

MKT4225 Qualitative Research in Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT4203

This course focuses on employing a qualitative approach in marketing research. It will introduce students to details of various traditional methods like focus groups, in-dept interviews, projective techniques, case studies and observations. The course will consider contemporary qualitative research methods like netnography and use of special software NVivo for analysis of data.

MKT4299 Selected Topics in Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT3001

This course provides further study into various areas in marketing. Topics covered will change from year to year depending on the students' particular needs and strengths.

MKT4250 Credit Internship Program (6 Credits)

Prerequisites: 90 credits completed

An internship is working for a company and learning on-the-job. It is an opportunity to put into practice the Marketing knowledge learned from classroom coursework.

MGT4275 Thesis (2 Credits)

Prerequisites: 105 credits completed

A thesis is a research work on a topic that is in the area of Marketing. Students will be supervised by faculty members in the process. Further details on thesis requirements are provided under the KIMEP University regulations on this matter.

MGT4277 State Examination (1 Credit)

Prerequisites: As per MES regulation

Students are required to take the state examination. Further details on this requirement are provided under the KIMEP University regulations on this matter.

OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT AREA

OPM3011 Decision Techniques and Tools

Prerequisite: GEN1201 or GEN1202

Replaces OP1201 Business Quantitative Methods

The course provides the essential concepts of business mathematical methods and knowledge about computer tools used for decision making and problem solving. It will deal with such topics as LP Solutions, Breakeven Analysis, Sensitivity Analysis, Decision Trees, CPM/PERT, Time Series Analysis, Quantitative Forecasting Techniques, Decision Support Systems & Spreadsheets. The course will have a lab section added to focus on application of computer tools.

OPM3131 Introduction to Operations Management (3 Credits)

Prerequisite: GEN2402

Previously listed as OP2202

This course is an overview of the fundamentals of operations management (OM) used in service and manufacturing organizations. OM uses analytical thinking to deal with real world problems. Students will be introduced to the application of effective operations management techniques: productivity management, product and process design, job design, the planning and management of materials flows, manpower and capacity planning and scheduling, project management, and quality management.

OPM3205 Logistics and Supply Chain Management (3 Credits)

Prerequisite: OPM3131

The course reviews how organizations can gain sustainable competitive advantage in global marketplace by efficient and effective management of supply and distribution chains. Methods and techniques to model supply chain strategy, supply chain route analyses, supply chain outsourcing and partnering, JIT management philosophy, inventory management and material requirement planning, warehouse operations, logistics system design, reverse logistics, information systems for logistics, and enterprise resource planning are integrated. The course also looks at the relevance of modern supply chain logistics in Kazakhstan and concepts of the course will be illustrated and integrated with the particular issues facing local industries.

OP3207 Total Quality Management, 3 Credits

Prerequisites: OPM3131

This course emphasizes applications of principles and techniques of TQM to manufacturing and service organizations. It will introduce many aspects of quality management and discusses: quality philosophies and principles, Total Quality Management and continuous improvement, process control and improvement (Statistical Process Control, Process Capability and Six Sigma Quality), quality design and improvement, acceptance sampling, ISO 9000:2000 and the implementation of quality improvements.

OPM3215 Business Time Series Forecasting (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: GEN2402

The course is devoted to advanced students who would like to refine their knowledge in applied statistics. The course consists of forecasting models and techniques, such as exponential smoothing models, ARIMA models, neural network techniques, rule-based forecasting, business forecasting. Commercial software such as SPSS and Neural Networks Package will be used for practical applications. Examples of time series forecasting related to marketing, operations, and finance are provided.

OPM4201 Purchasing and Materials Management (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: OPM3205

This course reviews analysis and application of an integrated approach of purchasing and material management. Particular emphasis will be given on organizational policies and procedures on purchasing, relation of purchasing department with other departments, make-or-buy decision; bid and proposal preparations, supplier or vendor selection; quality assurance, value and cost analysis; quantity discounts, inventory determination, material requirement planning, Just-In-Time (JIT) purchasing; purchasing and warehouse management and purchasing information systems. The students will also relate the government rules and regulations of purchasing.

OP4202 Transportation and Distribution Management, 3 Credits

Prerequisites: OPM3131

Transportation alternatives and technologies are changing very rapidly. It is necessary to study the fundamental differences among the various transportation modes in terms of their basic cost structures, mode of transportation, market competition and service characteristics to minimize the transportation cost as well as total logistics expenses and reduce the shipment time. From local and international point of view this course addresses the role of commercial transportation in logistics & business, existing transportation infrastructure, intermediaries involved in movement of goods to and from a country, all critical routing and scheduling; shipment planning & containerization; mode, carrier, and third-party selection; transportation regulations and documentation; transportation management systems; and transportation organization design.

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

Undergraduate courses description

ECONOMICS AREA

ECN1101 Introduction to Economics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: None

The course develops economic concepts and illustrates them with applications from Kazakhstan and elsewhere. The course surveys both microeconomics and macroeconomics. "Micro" addresses how markets coordinate the choices of firms and individuals. "Macro" concerns the national and world economy. Macroeconomic topics include the measurement of national economic activity (Gross Domestic Product, or GDP), economic growth, the business cycle, unemployment, inflation, international trade, and the economic role of government. This course helps the student to reach General Education objectives in critical thinking and writing.

GEN1201/ECN 1201 Mathematics for Business and Economics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ENG0004 Foundation English Level 4

The course develops the basic concepts of mathematical analysis used in economics and business with emphasis on differentiation and integration of single real-variable functions and matrix algebra. The approach to these concepts is intuitive and visual. The formal proofs are given only when they help in understanding concepts. Applications to economics, business and social science as well as computational realizations are studied.

ECN2083 Introduction to Statistics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: GEN1201/ECN1201 (Not available to students who have credit for OPM2201 or STAT2101)

This course introduces the basic concepts of study design, data collection, data analysis and statistical inference. Topics include an overview of observational and experimental study designs; graphical and numerical descriptive statistics; probability distributions for simple experiments and for random variables; sampling distributions, confidence intervals, and hypothesis testing for the mean and proportion in the case of one sample. The emphasis is on developing statistical reasoning skills and concepts; computational skill is secondary. Students are taught the use of statistical software to handle the computations.

ECN2102 Principles of Macroeconomics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: All required GE English courses

This course provides basic understanding of a typical market-based economy from society's point of view. It includes national income analysis; the traditional theory of income and employment; economic fluctuations; the economic role of the government; government expenditures and taxation; money and banking; economic growth; and international economics.

ECN2103 Principles of Microeconomics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: All required GE English courses

This course provides students with a basic understanding of how markets work. At the end of the course, students should be able to: understand and explain the basic problems in micro economics; demonstrate knowledge of basic microeconomic terms, concepts and models; correctly apply microeconomic terms and concepts when discussing economic issues; and appreciate the contributions, as well as the limits, of microeconomics in solving current economic problems.

ECN2202 Business Law (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: All required GE English courses

This course familiarizes students with core notions and landmark concepts of the legal system of Republic of Kazakhstan that are likely to be encountered in future business practice. It begins with an introduction to the major legal concepts in the context of modern business and then introduces students to the basic doctrines of the business law of Republic of Kazakhstan and covers its main branches, including: Law of Transactions, Property Law, Liability Law, Land Law, Labour Law, Tax Law etc..

ECN2360 Introduction to Personal Finance (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2103 and ECN2102 (for non-economics students ECN 1101)

This course of applied economics helps consumers plan a budget and earmark savings for personal goals. Topics include financing and owning a home; minimizing taxes; budgeting to balance income and expenses; managing expenses such as credit-card spending; planning one's savings, particularly for investment; planning education and careers; determining how much insurance to buy; and retirement planning. The course shows students how to apply basic economic theory to practical problems.

ECN2401 Calculus (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN1201/GEN1201.

This course provides students with methods of multivariate integral and differential calculus, including partial differentiation and its applications, vector calculus, and nonlinear optimization, both constrained and unconstrained. The students who successfully complete the course will be acquainted with necessary concepts, and they will develop skills to apply their knowledge in business, economic analysis, and academic research.

ECN3081 Intermediate Microeconomics (Microeconomics) (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2103 or FIN2105. Alternatively ECN1101 with minimum grade B minus.

This course falls between Principles of Microeconomics and Advanced Microeconomics. Topics include consumer theory, firm production and costs, decision-making under perfect competition, imperfect competition, monopoly, and oligopoly. Students can diagnose and solve microeconomic problems using the economic concepts and tools acquired in this course.

ECN3082 Intermediate Macroeconomics (Macroeconomics) (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2102 or FIN2106. Alternatively ECN1101 with minimum grade B minus.

This course provides the theoretical background to analyze macroeconomic phenomena. Several competing theories will be introduced to discuss controversial issues of employment, inflation and government policies. Traditionally, Keynesian and Classical theories are debated in depth in this course. Theories like the Real Business Cycle Model also will be included.

ECN3083 Mathematical Economics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2103, ECN1201/GEN1201

This introductory course applies mathematical tools to optimization decisions in economics. Matrix algebra and calculus (differentiation and integration) will be briefly reviewed. The economic intuition behind various mathematical assumptions is explained. Particular emphasis is given to the unconstrained and constrained optimization techniques applied to the consumer theory, production theory (profit maximization and cost minimization), and to general equilibrium analysis. Linear modelling and linear programming are also covered.

ECN3101 World Economy (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2103 and ECN2102 (for non BAE students may alternatively take ECN 1101 or FIN2106 and FIN2105))

The purpose of this course is to enable students to understand the world economy. Students will examine classical trade theory and learn the arguments that favor free trade. The course will also introduce the arguments challenging the free-trade paradigm, including New Trade Theory, as well as contentions drawn from economic geography, location theory and other fields. The course may also consider the environment, poverty, demographics, and technological progress, depending on the preferences of the instructor and of the students. The students will learn to analyze current economic events and global economic institutions, using the economic theory developed earlier.

ECN3103 Quantitative Methods for Economics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

The course provides necessary concepts of one and multivariable calculus as well as the theory of matrices needed for mathematical economics, econometrics, and financial mathematics. The course emphasizes intuition and conceptualization, avoiding difficult proofs. The course applies these concepts to economics, business, and other social sciences.

ECN3151 Managerial Economics (Entrepreneurship) (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2103

This course provides the student with the tools for decision making in an enterprise. Course topics include organization and finance of the firm, optimization techniques, estimation of demand functions, behaviour and pricing strategies under different market conditions, creating and capturing value, task assignment and labour contract.

ECN3155 Money and Banking (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2102

The course begins with a review of the functions of money and of the structure of banking. It proceeds with monetary theory as a guide to changing the money supply and the interest rates. Much of the course concerns bank regulation. To understand the functioning of banks and, more generally, of financial institutions, one must first comprehend such phenomena as market equilibrium, interest, inflation and exchange rates. Specific banking issues will be interwoven into digressions concerning macroeconomics, microeconomics and international trade. The last part of the course is about duration and convexity, which help immunize bank balance sheets against unexpected changes in interest rates.

ECON3161 Natural Resource Economics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2103

This course addresses theoretical and policy issues related to the exploitation of renewable and non-renewable natural resources, such as land, water, forests, fisheries, minerals and mining. The dynamic dimension in economic modelling of mining and forestry is addressed. In particular, the efficient extraction and depletion path of natural resources (under various market structures and government control) is discussed along with the management of natural resources. Present value and cost benefit analysis are also covered. The issue of sustainability is addressed with particular reference to natural resource scarcity.

ECN3184 Econometric Methods (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN 2103 (alternatively FIN2105), ECN 2102 (alternatively FIN2106) and ECN2083 (alternatively GEN2400 or GEN2402)

This course introduces regression techniques widely used in economics and finance. It discusses basic procedures for estimating equations and testing hypotheses; the use of one or more independent variables; and problems in time series or cross-sectional data (for example, a dataset of income in each Kazakhstani oblast for a given year).

ECN3189 Economy of Kazakhstan (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2103 (alternatively FIN2105) and ECN2102 (alternatively FIN2106)

This course starts by introducing the economic history and geography of Kazakhstan and its neighbors. It then details economic development before, during and after the Soviet period. It emphasizes the stabilization and restructuring of Central Asian economies after 1991. It concludes by examining Kazakhstan's resources, sectoral composition, and international comparative advantage.

ECN3193 Project Appraisal (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2103

In this course, students will be introduced with the tools used in planning and evaluation of projects. The relevant topics are: the theory of cost-benefit analysis, its application, strengths and limitations, as well as, the course will cover various other competing approaches/techniques/models of project planning and evaluation. Taking this course will help students to make feasibility study, monitoring and evaluation of economic projects.

ECN3230 Financial Institutions Management (Management) (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2103

This course gives an overview of financial institutions and their role as financial intermediaries. It develops a framework within which questions of adequate regulation can be addressed and introduces tools to measure, analyze and manage different types of risk to which these institutions are exposed.

ECN3350 Financial Economics I (Finance) (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN3081

This course introduces modern theories in financial economics. It applies economic analysis and the modern theory of finance to decisions of investors and firms. Topics include the selection of a portfolio that may comprise bonds and other securities; option pricing; and basic theories of efficient markets. Students will learn how to evaluate such corporate financial decisions as capital budgeting, working capital management, mergers and acquisitions, bankruptcy and corporate reorganization.

ECN3888 Professional Internship in Economics for BAE (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: Minimum 60 credits completed

This course is the first part of the required internship for undergraduate students majoring in Economics. Through the internships, students will be given an opportunity to work with a for-profit or not-for-profit organization and determine alternative ways for better academic and professional planning. Under the supervision of a faculty advisor, students will gain minimum 80 hours working experience. Related readings, a daily journal, and a final report are required for the final evaluation.

ECN3888_1 Professional Internship in Economics for BAE (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN3888

The course consists of the second internship and completes the internship requirement for BAE students.

ECN4085 Applied Macroeconomics (Macroeconomics II) (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN3082

This course applies the framework of the course in Intermediate Macroeconomics to current macroeconomic issues. It broadens and deepens the analysis of phenomena such as money, inflation, employment, economic growth and technological change.

ECN4086 Applied Microeconomics (Microeconomics II) (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN3081

This course follows up Intermediate Microeconomics with such advanced topics as general equilibrium theory, strategic behavior, making decisions under uncertainty, asymmetric information, public goods and externalities. The course develops these topics with elementary mathematics.

ECN4104 Research Methods and Methodology (Data analysis) (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: 90 Credit hours

This course introduces students to methods and methodology of research in economics. It discusses issues such as organizing a research project, collecting data and it provides them with techniques of statistical and data analysis such as cluster analysis and factor analysis. The course will guide the students towards developing their own research projects.

ECN4111 International Finance (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN4112

This course gives deepens the analysis of international economics, including different theories of the foreign exchange rate, currency crises, efficiency of foreign exchange markets and international monetary arrangements.

ECN4112 International Economics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2102, ECN2103

This course gives an overview of the determinants of trade and money and finance in an open economy. It introduces basic concepts and general equilibrium models of trade with and without factor movements; trade barriers and their impact on social welfare; the political economy of trade barriers and the evolution of trade organizations. It also introduces the balance of payments, theories of the exchange rate and open economies macroeconomics. Other issues, such as optimum currency areas are also discussed.

ECN4121 Public Economics I (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2103

This class emphasizes government expenditure policy. Topics include the theory of externalities and public goods, welfare economics and income distribution, political economy and voting mechanisms, and the design and evaluation of social insurance programs.

ECN4122 Labor Economics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2103

This course develops theoretical models for the labour market, presents related empirical research, and discusses policy applications. Topics include labour supply, labour demand, market equilibrium, compensating wage differences, investment in human capital, and cyclical unemployment. In addition, labour unions, minimum wage laws, compensation policies and productivity, wage indexation, and discrimination and equal opportunity laws may be discussed.

ECN4125 Monetary Economics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN3082

This course develops the basic analytical tools used in monetary regulations, such as money supply aggregates as well as the demand and supply of money. After developing several theories of macroeconomics, the course will analyze the effectiveness of monetary policy in various economic situations. Inflation theories will be also covered.

ECN4152 Industrial Organization (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN3081

The study of industrial organization is important for understanding corporate behaviour. The course focuses on an empirical and theoretical examination of the structure, conduct, and performance of firms and industries. Major topics include the theory of the firm; profit maximizing and growth maximizing models; price and output determination under different market structures; measures of market structure and market performance; production and cost functions; productivity growth, technical efficiency and technical change.

ECN4153 Law and Economics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN3081

This course introduces students to law making and enforcement from an economic perspective. Areas of law amenable to this treatment include contracts, torts, and property law. Topics may include rationality; motivation; moral judgment and responsibility; fairness and justice; self-control; informal social control via norms and education; formal social control via laws; and issues of identity and intergroup conflict.

ECN4154 Government and Business (Government Regulation of the Economy) (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN3081

This course surveys theoretical treatments of oligopoly, natural monopolies, mergers, vertical restraints, and price discrimination; and social welfare tradeoffs associated with public regulation of electrical, natural gas, cable TV, and telecommunications firms and the effects of government policies on businesses and individuals.

ECN4169 Development Economics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2103 and ECN2102

The module aims to introduce students to the problems and features of developing economies, and it is based on the modern analytical quantitative approach adopted by the main international development institutions, with an emphasis on the most recent advances in the field. The course focuses on growth models, child labour, inequality and poverty, sharecropping theory, and economics of conflict.

ECN4181 Special Topics in Economics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: Minimum GPA 3.4 and 90 credits completed

This is a study of current topics of economic interest that are not normally covered in the curriculum. Students should discuss their special interests for this course with the Department Chair.

ECN4183.4 Thesis (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN 4104, 90 credits completed

A thesis is an independently written piece of work which represents critical scholarly reflection or original research in the student's major field of study. Proposals must be approved by a faculty sponsor. Completed projects will be announced and presented to interested students and faculty.

ECN4185 Applied Econometrics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN3184

This course applies regression methods to answer economic questions.

ECN4350 Advanced Financial Economics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN3184, ECN3081, ECN3082.

The course will give an introduction to advanced mathematical and econometric modelling techniques in financial economics.

ECN4351 Foreign Exchange Markets (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2102

The course will enable students to understand global markets for foreign exchange (forex). It emphasizes practical currency dealing, providing the skills that you need to become a forex dealer or market analyst. To learn the ropes of trading, students will play a margin trading game with an Internet demonstration account. The main topics of the course are basic analysis of forex, technical analysis of forex markets, and principles of currency dealing in Kazakhstani banks.

ECN4352 Financial Econometrics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN3184.

The course focuses on advanced techniques for financial data analysis using methods such as ARCH, GARCH and AREMA.

ECN4359 Investment in Emerging Markets (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN2102 and ECN2103

This applied course involves a wide array of issues. These include the peculiarities of emerging capital markets, especially in the CIS. Other topics include investment in emerging fixed income markets, pension funds, securities markets, and foreign direct investment. Theoretical benefits of international investment are examined empirically. Macroeconomic stability, capital flows, and exchange rate options and are analyzed against a historic background, including the currency crises of Asia and Latin America. Undergraduate students investigate one of these topics in detail and make a paper proposal, which they present in a seminar setting. Graduate students are required to do an extensive paper.

ECN4999.1 State Examination (1 Credit Hour/2 ECTS)

Students will take an exit test that evaluates their competencies in the field of economics.

MATHEMATICS AREA

MATH2001 Linear Algebra (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: any of GEN1201, GEN 1202, GEN1203

This course studies in depth the main notions and tools of linear algebra including matrices, systems of linear equations, vector spaces, linear operators, determinants, eigenvalues and eigenvectors, inner product spaces, quadratic forms, and some applications. Additional topics may be selected by instructor. The emphasis is on mathematical theory and proofs.

MATH3001 Introduction to Analysis (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: any of GEN1201, GEN1202, GEN1203

This course studies in detail the main notions and tools of mathematical analysis. The topics include the real number system, limits, continuous functions, differentiation, the Riemann integral, the concept of metric space, uniform convergence, infinite series. Additional topics may be selected by instructor. The emphasis is on mathematical theory and proofs.

MATH3002 Differential equations (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: MATH2001, MATH3001

This course studies first-order and second-order differential equations, homogeneous ordinary differential equations, systems of linear differential equations. Such topics as existence and uniqueness of solutions will also be covered. Additional topics may be selected by instructor. The emphasis is on mathematical theory and proofs.

MATH4001 Discrete mathematics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: any of GEN1201, GEN1202, GEN1203

This course studies such topics an introduction to logic, mathematical induction, sets, relations, functions, introduction to graphics, elementary number theory, combinatorics, algebraic structures. Additional topics may be selected by instructor. The emphasis is on mathematical theory and proofs.

MATH4002 Probability Theory and Statistics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: GEN2401/ECN2083 or equivalent, MATH3001

This course starts with elementary probability and statistics and goes much further. The topics include expectation, distributions (including multivariable), laws of large numbers and central limit theorems, conditional expectations. Additional topics may be selected by instructor. The emphasis is on mathematical theory and proofs.

MATH4003 Introduction to Multivariable Analysis (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: MATH3001

This course studies functions of a several variable. The topics include parametric equations and polar coordinates, vectors in 2- and 3-dimensional Euclidean spaces, partial derivatives, multiple integrals, vector calculus, theorems of Green, Gauss, and Stokes. Various kinds of diplomatic documents will also be examined.

IRL3595 Research Design and Methodology (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

To do research is very exciting and challenging. It can be a source of great satisfaction and fascination. Research helps to understand the world around us, including such complex spheres of our life as politics, economics, history, decision-making, and many other. Social research is an attempt to develop and refine theories that help us to make an order out the chaotic reality.

This course is designed to be an introduction to the concepts and tools necessary to conduct research both in political science and other social science disciplines. During the course we will discuss why and how certain research tools, e.g. survey, in-depth interviews, experiments, are used to explore certain phenomena. Students will develop important practical skills to collect data and develop their own research design. They will learn how to establish causal relationship between different social phenomena; analyze the effects of various political processes using appropriate specific research techniques they will acquire in this class.

The course will be valuable to anyone who will choose future profession in law, government, business, or community advocacy. It will be also interesting for those who seek to make better arguments and become critical consumers of mass media and political information.

IRL4527 Ethics in International Affairs (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

The course presents students a normative approach centered on ethics for studying international affairs. The main purpose of this course is to acquaint students with the moral dilemmas that political leaders, activists and citizens have to face in a globalized world. The theoretical approach is combined with case studies in fields such as just war theory, conflict and reconciliation, humanitarian intervention and the responsibility to protect, sovereignty and social justice, and environmental and technological challenges in the international arena.

POL/IRL3515 Political Geography (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

This course provides an introduction to political geography, the study of the location, distribution, and interaction between political units in the world. The world political map has changed dramatically over the past century with a sharp increase in the number of states and nation-states. Today’s era of globalization heightens the need for an understanding of global political-geographic issues. This course will cover such wide-ranging topics as international conflict, relationships between states, ethnic tensions within states, globalization, the breakup of the Soviet Union, and the political geography of Central Asia.

This course provides a historical background to the development of social and political thought in European and Asian civilizations from antiquity to the present day. Readings from primary sources, such as Plato, Aristotle, Confucius, the Dhammapada, Augustine, al Farabi, Ibn Khaldoun, Aquinas, Machiavelli, as well as modern thinkers from Hobbes to the post-moderns will help students to comprehend the theoretical underpinnings of research on political systems, political economy, social hierarchy and comparative civilizations.

IRL2512 Fundamentals of International Relations (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

This is an introductory course designed to acquaint students with the various theories and concepts used in the field. This course will examine and analyze the emergence and evolution of the modern world-system, its nature and characteristics as well as the emerging issues and challenges faced by the world today. The focus will be also roles and functions of states, non-state actors and institutions. The course is not only designed and developed for students in Political Science and IR but it will also fulfill the needs and interests of students from other disciplines.

IRL3541 Contemporary World History: 1945 to Present (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

This course presents the major historical events from 1945 to the present. It starts with the end of the Second World War and covers the years of the Cold War and Decolonization up to the fall of the Soviet Union. It then considers the end of the second millennium with the fragmentation of states and the beginning of the third millennium with the emergence of new threats such as international terrorism, challenges such as environmental problems, opportunities such as technological developments, and the new distribution of power.

IRL3547 Security Studies (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

This course is designed as a foundational course for students majoring in International Relations aimed to complement their general knowledge of international issues with an understanding of the challenges of globalizing world. The course will address conceptual problems of defining the 'threat', as a key notion in Security Studies. Threats could range from the survival of individual to groups, nations, and the whole world. By investigating definitions of security as state provision of defence in realist and neorealist conceptions we will set up an analytical departure point. Then we will move towards exploring the notion of threat by 'broadening' and 'deepening' its definitions. Expanded definitions enable us to engage with the constructivist, structuralist and post-modern analytical frameworks within Security Studies.

IRL4526 Comparative Foreign Policy (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

This course centers on the foreign policies of states, and more specifically, on the various factors that produce these policies. It is not an easy task to analyze policy "outputs". The complexity of the matrix makes clear that we cannot attribute the adoption of one foreign policy rather than another to any single factor. Clearly, the interactions between and among all the various sources of "input" makes any such analysis that much more difficult. Nevertheless, it is possible to discern patterns in policy process and the broad outlines of policy goals, and this is what will be accomplished in this course. In this task we will be aided by the use of "case studies" and foreign policy profiles of selected countries.

IRL2510.2 Professional Foreign Language: Strategic Communications in International Affairs (2 credits → 3 ECTS)

The course focuses on international relations and effective communications with a special attention to international treaties, memorandums and speeches of key decision makers in international relations. In particular we will study the theoretical frameworks behind the communications in International Relations and how to employ them in order to reach the targeted audience and goals.

IRL3521 Theories of International Relations (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

This is a basic course on theories of international relations. The purpose of this course is to acquaint students with the historical evolution of the theories of IR and to focus on various theories, concepts, approaches and methodologies used in the field. Instead of focusing on any particular group of theories, this course will critically review and analyze all theories: old and new, traditional and modern. Particular attention will be paid to the historical context of thinkers and concepts and to the issue of how the theories and ideas articulated in political thought have shaped the contemporary principles of state and law.

LAW2302 Philosophy of Law

Prerequisites: None

Philosophy of law deals with essential questions about law and legal systems, such as: what exactly is "law"? How is law different from other systems of rules? What is the relationship between law and morality? What is "justice"? What is "wrong"? What are "rights"? What is the best way to interpret a legal norm? What can be achieved through law and what cannot? What punishment is appropriate to the various cases of misconduct? The course discusses these and other questions with particular regard to the contemporary international debate. Its chief aim is equipping students with stringent and sophisticated legal reasoning.

LAW2303 Roman Law

Prerequisites: None

All the legal systems called "civil law systems" have a common ancestor: Roman law. In Kazakhstan or in France, in Mexico or in Germany, many of the terms, concepts, and basic rules of functioning that modern legal systems use were first developed by ancient Roman jurists. For this reason, the study of Roman law can offer important insights into the nature of modern law. Further, Roman law enabled the evolution of the so-called modern state. It was in Roman law, for example, that the distinction between public and private law first appeared; and it was in Roman law that an early form of international law emerged. The course provides a survey of the original contributions of the ancient Romans to the systematic development of law, and outlines the subsequent development of Roman law into the modern "civil law systems".

In addition, the course examines international agreements and policy goals dealing with the mitigation of the adverse effects of cross-border pollution and other environmental damage and the allocation of liability for that damage.

LAW3309 Animal Law (3 credits)

Prerequisites: None

Previously listed as LAW3713

Animal law is the branch of law that deals with animals. It addresses topics such as: breeding, sanitary and veterinary norms, population control, registration, trade, husbandry standards and practices, animals for human entertainment, use of animals in scientific laboratories, etc. Historically, this branch of law has been developed with an exclusive concern for human health and economic or scientific interests. More recently, however, there has emerged another perspective that is centered on the protection of animals for their own sake. An example of legislation inspired by this perspective is the one aimed at the prevention of cruelty against animals.

LAW3310 Customs Law of RK (3 credits)

Prerequisites: None

Previously listed as LAW3707

As international trade has increased over the years, customs law has become increasingly more internationalized, important and complex. This course will examine and provide a basic introduction to the concepts and principles relating to both Kazakhstan and international customs law. This will include an examination of those concepts and principles relating to tariff classification, customs valuation, rules of origin, border enforcement of intellectual property rights and regional trading arrangements.

LAW3311 Private International Law (3 credits)

Prerequisites: None

Previously listed as LAW4107

Private International Law [PIL] is the study of jurisdiction and applicable law in international and trans-national legal disputes, and the recognition and enforcement of judgments. A dispute is considered international or trans-national if one or more of the constituent elements of that dispute are connected with more than one country. These elements may relate to the parties' domicile, residence, country affiliation; the location of events that gave rise to the dispute; or to the location of the dispute. Examples are: contractual disputes between citizens of different states or a property dispute between domiciliaries of one state regarding assets located in another state, or a tort resulting from conduct occurring in one state and causing injury in another state. The course focuses on private international law within three legal systems: US, EU, and the Republic of Kazakhstan, but places emphasis on domestic law.

LAW3312 Public International Law (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

Previously listed as LAW3511

Public international law is the system of law governing the international community, thus the aim of the course provides a framework to understand the normative dimensions of international relations. The course introduces students to the fundamental principles and doctrines of public international law as a meaningful tool for providing order to world politics and for minimizing global conflict. The course reflects the breadth and diversity of international law and covers all its main branches, including: sources; the subjects of international law; international institutions; the law of treaties; peaceful settlement of international disputes; the use of force; territory; human rights; diplomatic and consular law as well as international economic law. A problem-oriented approach to various case studies is used in both lectures and discussion sessions. Situations in the former Yugoslavia, in Africa, in Afghanistan and in Iraq may serve as case studies.

LAW4502 Law of the WTO (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

Previously listed as LAW4602

Three institutions operate globally to improve trade relations, solve poverty and promote infrastructure investment, and maintain financial stability: the World Trade Organization, the World Bank Group, and the International Monetary Fund. This course provides an overview of each institution and its primary impact upon legal systems. The WTO is the product of the Bretton Woods Agreement following World War II. The GATT [the original name] created a multilateral trading system to reduce tariffs and non-tariff barriers to trade in an effort to make the economic interests of its members interdependent. The WTO, which was formed in 1995 and incorporates the 1948 GATT, introduced several new covered agreements and significantly the Dispute Settlement System. The course also covers the role of the major public international institutions, with the exception of the United Nations, and provides historical case studies.

LAW4503 Law of the European Union (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

Previously listed as LAW4515

The Member States of the European Union adopted the Lisbon Treaty in December 2009. The Treaty endows the EU with legal personality, and the EU will replace the EC [European Community]. The Lisbon Treaty contains provisions virtually identical to the failed European Constitution and consists of two Treaties: The Treaty on European Union and the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union. The Lisbon Treaty has reconstructed the architecture of the EU, its institutions, and field of competences between the Member States and Community Institutions. This course studies the new constitutional order of the EU and covers the most important substantive areas of EU law such as Free Movement of Workers, The Right of Establishment, Freedom to Provide Services, and Free Movement of Capital. These core rights developed over decades through decisions of the ECJ, Community Regulations and Directives, and supplementary concepts such as free movement of goods and EU Citizenship. The development of the EU from a Customs Union to a sui generis political structure, with its own currency, may inform developments that take place in the Customs Union formed by Russia, Kazakhstan, and Belorussia.

LAW4504 International Human Rights Law (3 credits)

Prerequisites: None

Previously listed as LAW4211

This course serves as a basic introduction to International Human Rights law. The course will acquaint students with every significant aspect of this critical field including its history, theory, and practice. Beginning with a focus on the historical origins, philosophical foundations and the emergence of the concept of human rights, the course will go on to cover such topics as: the United Nations human rights system, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and United Nations Charter; the various generations of rights - including political, civil, economic, social and cultural rights - and remedies for human rights violations including the use of force and humanitarian intervention; major international and regional human rights conventions and other related legal instruments and organizations; and the mechanisms for the implementation human rights and the reporting of violations, including through the advocacy efforts of NGOs.

LAW4505 International Investment Law (3 credits)

Prerequisites: None

Previously listed as LAW4709 International Investment Disputes

This course deals with the international law applicable to the rights and obligations of foreign investors and States of the place where the foreign investment is made. The course will have two parts: substantive and procedural. The substantive part will study the rights and obligations of foreign investors and national States, as included in Bilateral Investment Treaties (BITs), other international instruments, as well as in customary law and which protect the investment from unlawful State actions such as expropriation without appropriate compensation or unfair and inequitable treatment. Special attention will be paid to BITs to which the Republic of Kazakhstan is party. The procedural part will deal with the different dispute resolution mechanisms between foreign investors and national States, focusing on arbitration under the Washington Convention of 1965 and the International Center for the Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID). This type of arbitration is particularly important in Kazakhstan, because this country relies heavily upon foreign participation in the development of its energy sector. BITs are triggered and their terms may or may not provide clarity on substantive and dispute resolution issues. Recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards issued under the different instruments will also be studied.

LAW4506 International Commercial Transactions Law (3 credits)

Prerequisites: None

Previously listed as LAW4518

This course provides an overview of the general requirements of contract from a de-nationalized perspective and focuses upon provisions allocating risk between the parties. Students shall be instructed on the most important terms of a commercial contract, whether a sale, lease, license or service as each transaction contains a set of common problems that are essential to anticipate and realize their effects. The course also covers rules governing private international transactions. The main instruments of uniformity are examined, such as the UN Convention on the International Sale of Goods (CISG). Major international Treaties and Model Laws shall be studied applying, for example to secured transactions, payment systems, assignment of receivables, and security interests in mobile equipment. Trade finance, mainly in the form of letters of credit, independent guarantees and stand by-credits is introduced. As well as transport law, mainly maritime, including the UNCITRAL Convention on Contracts for the International Carriage of Goods Wholly or Partly by Sea. Finally, the course studies ICSID [International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes], under the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States [1965 Washington Convention].

LAW4507 Law of Energy and Natural Resources (3 credits)

Prerequisites: None

Previously listed as LAW4706

Acknowledging the importance of energy on a global scale, and particularly to the economic development of Kazakhstan, this course introduces students to international legal principles (sovereignty, territoriality, principles of compensation, liability etc) and relevant treaties, especially the Energy Charter Treaty, that govern the interaction between states and other potential subjects of international law relevant to energy. The course explores the agreements/contracts/treaties and negotiations between states (public) and multinationals (private) in the exploration, supply of, and investment in energy resources. The course examines the role of major players in energy resources including international organizations in the energy sector, such as OPEC, the OECD, the IEA, the UN, the EU as well as NGOs. International energy investment disputes are most often resolved by arbitration as the preferred mode, with ICSID the forum of choice. International energy disputes can also be environmental and human rights disputes, litigated in international courts and national courts. While using oil, natural gas and nuclear power as examples for the course, we will look toward the future and evaluate the international legal and policy (regulatory) issues facing the development and expansion of renewable energy, such as biofuels.

LAW4508 Financial Law of RK (3 credits)

Prerequisites: None

Previously listed as LAW4601

GRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

LANGUAGE CENTER

GRADUATE ENGLISH

Graduate Foundation English—Overview

Graduate Foundation English courses are non-credit courses designed for those whose native language is other than English and whose knowledge and use of English do not meet the standards for entry into graduate program courses. The Graduate Foundation English program aims to prepare students for the use of English in their graduate discipline and the courses focus on developing four language skills (reading, writing, listening and speaking) in progressive levels of preparation. Each course consists of 600 Learning Hours, including a minimum of 10 contact hours per week and 30 hours of out of class learning hours per week.

There are three courses of Graduate Foundation English.

ENG5103 Graduate Foundation English C

Prerequisites: None

Graduate Foundation English C is the beginning step in the set of levels to be taken by graduate students to prepare them for entry into graduate programs. This course is for those who have learnt very little or no English in the past. The students will learn to pronounce English words; ask, understand and respond to simple questions, directions and instructions; read and understand short adapted texts; and write sentences and short descriptive paragraphs. They will acquire knowledge of fundamental grammar structures and their functions (e.g. sentence types, tenses). They will learn to converse about casual topics, personal details, and concrete needs. The course focuses on writing and vocabulary development based on readings and listening activities. The instructional methods focus on in-class activities combined with self-study. Students will satisfy the criteria of A1 level. By the end of the course students should minimally satisfy the criteria for level A1 and optimally satisfy the criteria for lower level A2 on the Common European Framework.

ENG5104 Graduate Foundation English B

Prerequisites: ENG5103 or placement according to English language test

Graduate Foundation English B is for newly enrolled master's students. By the end of the course students should satisfy the criteria for level A2 on the Common European Framework. In addition to developing proficiency with reading, writing, listening and speaking, this course especially includes extensive reading and writing projects, reading and discussion of current events, and regular listening to news and fiction through an action-based approach. Students work on a number of projects that aim to develop their ability to learn English as well as general communicative competences that will enable them to use the language in various contexts and under various conditions. Study skills suited to university work are given special attention. With a pass mark in this course, students enroll in ENG 5105 Graduate Foundation English A.

ENG5105 Graduate Foundation English A

Prerequisites: ENG5103 or placement according to English language test

Graduate Foundation English A is the third level of English Course for newly enrolled master's students. The course focuses on developing the four skills— reading, writing, listening and speaking—through a variety of activities in which students interact with authentic material in English. The course expects students to graduate with B1 proficiency on the European Common Framework. The course emphasizes two complementary aims: the continuous improvement of English language proficiency as well as the development of critical thinking and study skills. Academic skills including note-taking, critical analysis and critical approaches to writing will be emphasized throughout the course.

PROFESSIONALLY ORIENTED FOREIGN LANGUAGE (Graduate)

LAW5101 Professional English Language (2 credits)

Prerequisites: None

This course introduces students to the methodology of reading legal text: extending from Treaties, constitutions, legislation and cases. It also provides an overview of the structure and hierarchical form of most domestic legal systems and their relation to international law and organizations. The course also covers the basic techniques of legal research, writing and analysis. Students learn to brief cases, perhaps synthesize cases from related fields, and write, legal documents as opinions memoranda or thesis related essays. The course is based on solving and analyzing legal questions taken from different disciplines.

RUS5101, Russian for Academic Purposes (Independent Study) 3 credits

Prerequisite: RUS 2002 Advanced Russian 2 or equivalent

Russian for Academic Purposes is designed for high intermediate and advanced students who study Russian as a foreign language. This course helps students develop appropriate language skills for study in Russian. The aim of the course is to facilitate student academic research and writing in Russian.

The course will focus on the skills required for reading, understanding and writing academic paragraphs. Language skills addressed include: listening comprehension, fluency development, oral intelligibility, reading, grammar, writing, and vocabulary development. Academic study skills addressed include: test taking and note taking skills, academic vocabulary usage, critical reading and writing, comprehending academic articles, research and library skills, formal composition forms and development, including research papers.

MASTER'S DEGREE

FOREIGN LANGUAGE: TWO FOREIGN LANGUAGES

TFL5101 Introduction to Linguistics (cross-listed as TEL 5101) (3 credits)

Prerequisites: None

This course provides an overview to the general study of language. Introduction to Linguistics surveys linguistic theory focusing on subtopics of particular relevance to language teachers including: general phonetics, phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, and historical-comparative linguistics. This course considers a universal grammar that governs language, and it also explores similarities and differences among languages. Other topics include language learning and the psychology of language; linguistic universals; and aspects of language in society. Topics covered will be exemplified through a variety of languages.

TFL5102 Introduction to Sociolinguistics (cross-listed as TEL 5102) (3 credits)

Prerequisites: TEL5101

This sociolinguistics course focuses on examining language as it is used in society and how language and society affect each other. It assumes that language is fundamental in the organization and understanding of everyday interactions, from both individual and societal perspectives. The course topics include social dialects; class, ethnic, and gender differences in speech; linguistic change; language in multinational settings; and the politics of language. The course also studies applications of sociolinguistic research methods to problems in applied linguistics and language education.

TFL5201 Language Analysis for Language Instructors: Formal and Functional Grammars (cross-listed as TEL 5201) (3 credits)

Co-requisites: TEL5101

This course is the first part of a two-course sequence. The course provides an overview of formal and functional perspectives using English language structure as the point of departure and focuses on English phonetics, phonology, morphology and syntax. The course surveys the role(s) of grammar in second/foreign language teaching, and presents strategies for introducing grammatical forms to non-native speakers.

TFL5202 Language Analysis for Language Instructors: Grammar in Social, Cultural Contexts (cross-listed as TEL 5202) (3 credits)

Prerequisites: TEL5101, TEL5201

This course is the second part of a two-course sequence. The course analyzes relations between situational contexts and grammatical choices, and refers to contemporary views about language semantics, pragmatics, and discourse structures. The course also considers implications of grammatical choices in situational contexts for foreign language instruction.

TFL5301 Introduction to Second Language Acquisition (cross-listed as TEL 5301) (3 credits)

Co-requisite: TEL5101

This course examines the process of acquiring a second or additional language. Topics include the nature of learner language, individual differences in language acquisition, the role of input and interaction, similarities and differences in L1 and L2 acquisition, instructed acquisition, and the relationship between acquisition research and second language teaching. The course also analyzes the neurolinguistic, psycholinguistic, and sociolinguistic bases of second language acquisition in childhood and adulthood.

TFL5302 Second Language Acquisition Research (cross-listed as TEL 5302) (3 credits)

Prerequisites: TEL5301

This course is an introduction to research on the language and learning processes of second-language learners. The goal of this course is to deepen students' knowledge of cognitive and linguistic approaches to second language acquisition and to analyze research according to grammatical, pragmatic, and sociolinguistic dimensions of language learning. The course surveys major perspectives on second language acquisition processes, including interlanguage theory, the Monitor Model, acculturation theory, cognitive/connectionist theory, and linguistic universals. Course work shall consist of the planning and implementation of a research project and the exchange of the results of this research through discussion, reports, and/or papers.

TFL5401 Methods in Language Teaching (cross-listed as TEL 5401) (2 credits/3 credits)

Prerequisites: None

This course is an introduction to current instructional methods and approaches for teaching a second language to adults. The course focuses on theoretical perspectives, major methodological issues, and current controversies, and examines the historical and theoretical foundations in second language teaching. The course involves extensive readings, discussions, and observations of language classes, with consideration of principles for instruction in a wide range of teaching contexts. Particular attention is paid to long-term development of language teachers as decision-makers and problem-solvers.

TFL5402a Practicum (cross-listed as TEL 5402a) (3 credits)

Prerequisites: TFL5401; can be taken concurrently with TFL5402b; a minimum of 18 credits in the program

The practicum is a course in which the student demonstrates the knowledge and skills developed in the master's program. It is an observation of and practice in teaching second language to adults at the college or university level. Students are apprenticed to experienced mentor teachers in ongoing language classes, and receive detailed feedback on their teaching, including comments about the knowledge, principles, and skills required to teach second languages; performance with language curriculum and materials development; and use of student assessment. For experienced teachers, especially those who have taught for many years in ESL and multilingual settings, a research project is an option.

TFL5402b Practicum (cross-listed as TEL 5402b) (3 credits)

Prerequisites: TEL5401; TFL5402b can be taken concurrently with TEL5402a; a minimum of 18 credits in the program

The second part of the practicum is the in-class, student teaching experience, where the knowledge and skills developed in the program is applied. TEL5402b can be waived for teachers who are working full-time.

TFL5403 Curriculum Design and Classroom Management (cross-listed as TEL 5403) (2 credits)

Prerequisites: None

This course prepares and evaluates materials for teaching second language in a variety of contexts. The course focuses on learning-centered approaches to designing courses, from developing curriculum to material design. Curricula in both second and foreign language environments will be addressed. During the course, students will design a curriculum to respond to the needs of a specific student audience through a process of needs assessment, selection, sequencing, presentation, and evaluation. Students will select, adapt, develop, and evaluate course goals and objectives, structured syllabus, course units, lesson plans, system of evaluation, and materials for one lesson.

TFL5404 Language Evaluation and Assessment (cross-listed as TEL 5404) (2 credits/3 credits)

Prerequisites: A minimum of 18 credits in the program

This course introduces the principles and practice of conducting language learning evaluation within the context of adult foreign language acquisition from both theoretical and practical perspectives. The course is aimed at analysis of the goals and rationale of different types of assessments in foreign language programs, including teacher-made assessments and current standardized test instruments. Students will also gain experience in developing and critiquing assessment materials.

TFL5501 English for Specific Purposes (cross-listed as TEL 5501) (2 credits)

Prerequisites: None

This course is a critical review of literature on genres of English used in identified social contexts, such as the language used in academic journal articles or during job interviews. Students carry out their own ESP research projects, describing the way English is used in a target context.

TFL5502 Educational Technology in Language Classrooms (cross-listed as TEL 5502) (2 credits)

Prerequisites: None

This course explores the uses of computers in the foreign language classroom, including language learning through information processing software, digital technology, multimedia applications for home-oriented and educational software, and the Internet. During the course students will have hands-on experience with multimedia applications and instructional software, information processing software, and digital technology.

TFL5503 Teaching Writing and Reading (cross-listed as TEL 5503) (2 credits)

Prerequisites: None

This course examines language reading-writing theory and pedagogy focusing on adult EFL/ESL classrooms. Readings and discussions address intellectual and analytical procedures involved in writing and reading, social and political contexts within which second language writing/reading occurs, etc. Students explore second and foreign language reading and writing development and examine effective teaching by designing methods and materials for teaching reading and writing and evaluating phonological, semantic, and syntactic aspects of instruction.

TFL5504 Teaching Listening and Speaking (cross-listed as TEL 5504) (2 credits)

Prerequisites: None

This course examines foreign and second language listening/speaking theory and pedagogy in adult classrooms. It explores the process of listening and comprehension, and highlights problems faced by non-native speakers. The course also surveys the methods, techniques, and activities for teaching conversation and listening comprehension, with an examination of recently published materials. Lesson planning and effective classroom management appropriate to the needs of students are emphasized.

TFL5506 Cross-Cultural Aspects of Language Teaching (cross-listed as TEL 5506) (2 credits)

Prerequisites: None

This course defines and explores the relationship between language teaching and culture with a heavy emphasis on how to use different approaches (literature, writing, media, theatre, history) to teach culture through language courses starting with the basic question of what is culture? This course is grounded in a socio-cultural constructivist approach towards language and language learning. Students will study culture in general and learn about their own cultural influences to better understand teacher-student and student-student interactions from various cultures through and in language teaching.

TFL5601 Research Methods and Graduate Research Writing (cross-listed as TEL 5601) (3 credits)

Prerequisites: TFL5302; a minimum of 18 credits in the program

This course is designed to familiarize students with a variety of scholarly and scientific approaches and methods for research in education settings, theory development, data processing, scholarly writing, and organization of a research paper related to applied linguistics, second language acquisition, and pedagogy.

TFL5690 Thesis I (3 credits)

Prerequisites: TEL5601; a minimum of 18 credits in the program

Students register for this course and TEL5691 while they are working on and defending their master's thesis.

TFL5691 Thesis II (3 credits)

Prerequisites: TEL5690 (or concurrent enrollment); a minimum of 22 credits in the program

This is the second course for working on and defending the master's thesis.

TFL5692 Comprehensive Examination Preparation Course (1 credit)

Prerequisites: Must have completed all coursework in the program except TFL 5690 and TFL 5691 (Thesis I and II).

This course prepares students for the Kazakhstani state-issued comprehensive exam for the Foreign Language: Two Foreign Languages degree.

TFL5700 Seminar in Applied Linguistics (cross-listed as TEL 5700) (2 credits)

Prerequisites: None

This is a special topics seminar that will focus on various contemporary issues in language acquisition and teaching. Seminar topics include (but are not limited to): bilingualism, language policy and planning, discourse analysis, program evaluation, and critical pedagogy. Seminar topics will be listed on the program website during the registration period preceding the semester.

In this course students will learn what is corporate reputation, how it should be managed. There will be four major components for building corporate reputation covered: corporate personality, corporate branding/identity, corporate image and corporate communications. Participants will investigate in details the importance and types of corporate culture. They will learn specifics of corporate brands, the approaches to measurement of corporate brand value. Special attention will be devoted to learning corporate communication tools.

Elective Courses

Students will take three specialized courses presented below in addition to the above-mentioned courses (which are required for Chartered Institute of Marketing Program Levels III and IV).

MKT5120 Digital Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT5102

This course is an introduction to digital marketing technologies employed by companies (Internet, CRM and Demand Generation Systems). Topics covered will include privacy and brand protection in the Internet. Special attention will be devoted to study social media types and incorporation of social networking sites, blogs and micro blogs in the marketing communications activities of the organizations. Emphasis on incorporation of digital marketing tools in current marketing activities of the company will be made.

MKT5122 Strategic Brand Management (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT5102

Strategic Brand Management is an advanced course, which explores issues relevant to deep analysis of branding strategies and tactics. Conceptual frameworks like 4D branding and Brand Resonance Pyramid for creating and growing brand will be developed by students for local and global brands. Brand identity elements will be studied and identity design practiced. Qualitative and quantitative approaches to brand valuation will be discussed. Brand extension strategies will be implemented. Modern approaches to communicate brand value will be presented.

MKT5124 Consumer Behavior (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT5102

Consumer behavior has become an integral element in strategic marketing planning. Now people use consumer behavior/demographics to differentiate new market segments;

Major purpose of the course is to learn the uses of multi attribute attitude models, their three components & changing consumer attitudes through elaboration likelihood model, i.e. central cognitive processing in high knowledge/high involvement situations versus low involvement/low knowledge buying situations using peripheral cues. Consumer behavior is one of the key foundational courses for training graduate marketing majors. It provides many of the basic theories and techniques used in other marketing courses, such as service marketing or advertising/promotions.

MKT5126 Integrated Marketing Communications (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT5102

This course offers students the opportunity to broaden their understanding of marketing management by integrating advertising, promotion, social media and public relations as part of a campaign to achieving market growth. Students will learn how to design creative yet well grounded advertising campaigns that are aligned with corporate objectives, allocated resources, the operating environment and the targeted consumers. Students learn to think strategically and apply theory to real world marketing and selling of products. Case studies, simulated role-playing, tailored individual and group projects will enable the student to synthesize ideas and data as a means of formulating and executing a winning advertising campaign.

MKT5128 International Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT5102

This course offers to students an analytic decision-oriented framework for the development and implementation of global marketing programs. Examples of global marketing practices by companies are used throughout the course. Students will learn internationalization decisions, which market to enter and market entry strategies, and finally to design a global marketing programme. Case studies will take important part of the course.

EXECUTIVE MBA PROGRAM: COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

FOUNDATION MANAGEMENT

The learning under the Foundation Management provides an overview of the philosophy and practical applications of research. Students will learn the methodological processes one should take in order to produce valid and reliable data that can be used in decision making in both professional and personal life. Through the learning of processes students will be able to better critique and analyze secondary data, understand what constitutes empirical data, and know how to conduct an independent study that will produce the results students need.

EBA5290 Research Methodology and Writing, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

This module is designed to familiarize students with the thesis procedures and guidelines, and explain them the research process and research methodologies in more details, including an overview of the philosophy and practical applications of research. Students will learn the methodological processes one should take in order to produce valid and reliable data that can be used in decision making in both professional and personal life. Through the learning of the processes students will be better able to critique and analyze secondary data, understand what constitutes empirical data, and know how to conduct an independent study that will produce the results students need. The module will also emphasize the importance and limitations of theory and methodology in scientific research as well as the purposes of applied research, evaluation, analysis, and research ethics. Throughout their Executive MBA studies students will design the original research project that will turn into the Master's thesis. This module also serves to meet the MES requirement of Professional Foreign Language (Business English).

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Explain, in both theoretical and practical terms, why research is important and different from the "street-smart" approach;
- Design independently and administer study;
- Differentiate between the qualitative and quantitative research and the pros and cons attached to each;
- Develop research plans that produce valid and reliable results;
- Analyze and critique secondary and primary data and produce final report.

EBA5254 Organizational Behavior and Development, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

This module examines management and leadership tasks associated with the effective design of an organization to achieve strategic objectives. Emphasis is placed on creating alignment among people, culture, structure and reward systems of an organization to assure high performance. The module considers international best practices in management and HR techniques and compares with practices prevalent in Kazakhstan today. This module also examines the role of the leader in the organization and facilitates the development of fundamental leadership skills such as self-awareness, strategic thinking, creating a motivating environment, empowerment and delegation, managing change and team processing in modern organizations. The module will also explore the emergence of corporate ethics in the business/work environment, its impact on the role of the leader and how it can be applied in Central Asia. This module also serves to meet the MES requirement of Psychology.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Analyze and synthesize business theories, markets, and reporting practices in organizational development;
- Apply organizational development theories and best practices;
- Assess culture and change management in organizations;
- Evaluate strategic management and critical thinking in organizations; manage data; apply systems theory and design to organizations;
- Communicate effectively;
- Analyze ethical and legal responsibilities in organizations and society;
- Identify creative solutions to organizational and managerial problems and issues.

CORE MANAGEMENT CONCEPTS

Core Management Concepts examine and analyze market behavior and real consumer actions; the principles of economics, accounting and finance are reviewed. The core concepts also help executive students developing their management skills to understand and utilize economic and financial information relevant to business in domestic and multinational decision-making.

EBA5231 Applied Managerial Economics, 3.5 ECTS, 2 KIMEP credits

This module examines market behavior and focuses on actions of real consumers. The module analyzes how market behavior impacts on production, competition, monopolies and oligopolies. The principles of macroeconomics and microeconomics are reviewed. The module also provides students with the ability to understand and utilize economic information relevant to managerial decision-making in domestic and multinational companies based in Kazakhstan.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Use a simple circular flow model and the national accounts, i.e. components of Gross Domestic Product (GDP) to identify how and why economics factors can contribute to an organization's success or failure;
- Analyze the role of interest rates in determining components of GDP, with particular attention on the "investment function;"
- Determine the role of interest rates in determining the demand and supply of "money;" the resulting IS-LM model demonstrates the relationship between interest rates and "real" economy output;
- Analyze how "fiscal" and "monetary" policies will affect the model, which allows predicting patterns of interest rate changes; and also – develop strategies, based on such forecasting, to increase money supply under the conditions of volatility on financial and commodity markets.

EBA5206 Accounting and Finance: Theory and Applications, 6 ECTS, 4 KIMEP credits

This module surveys the basic concepts and tools of Accounting and Finance.

- Finance part: Provides an overview of main concepts and issues of the modern financial systems including financial markets and financial institutions. Theoretical grounds for such concepts as time value of money, bond and stock valuation, net present value and investments valuation will be discussed along with the emphasis on practical skills of problem-solving by students. This learning module will also lay background for the future advanced courses/modules in finance area.
- Accounting part: Focuses to establish understanding of the underlying principles by making it possible to account for business/financial transactions in numeric sense. Students will become familiar with financial statements, and learn how not only to construct but also to interpret different financial statements. Importance of financial reporting and analyses will be emphasized during both lecture and practical case studies.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Identify and synthesize the main concepts and issues of the modern financial systems including financial markets and financial institutions;
- Evaluate theoretical grounds for such concepts as time value of money, bond and stock valuation, net present value and investments valuation will be discussed along with the emphasis on practical skills of problem solving by students;
- Analyze the underlying principles making it possible to account for business/financial transactions in numeric sense;
- Analyze financial statements;
- Analyze and interpret different types of financial statements.

LEADERSHIP and TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPMENT

Managers and decision makers in business, industry and government are learning to become familiar with the leadership and ethics, as well as use of information, its processing and analysis. The purpose of Leadership at the graduate level is preparing middle and senior management to understand different leadership theories, to maximize efficiency of their preferred style of leadership and to differentiate leadership applications. Business Intelligence aims to support better decision making and basically refers to the computer-based techniques used in identifying, extracting and analyzing business data for strategic decision makers.

EBA5257 Leadership and Ethics, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

This module prepares senior and middle managers to understand different leadership theories, which demonstrate the most effective leadership styles, to distinguish leadership methods and to apply various leadership styles. Students will have the opportunity to practice and further develop their leadership styles as well as to identify and form strategies for dealing with conflicting leadership styles. Ethics part of the module will emphasize the individual as a decision-maker and focus upon the ethical issues and dilemmas facing managers in most business organizations. The specific objectives of this learning module are to raise students' general awareness of ethical dilemmas at work, to place ethical issues within a management context subject to analysis and decision-making action, and to enhance and improve the ability of students to reason toward a satisfactory resolution of an ethical dilemma.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Describe a number of management theories and distinguish between them;
- Articulate what leadership is and what good leaders do;
- Discriminate between individual, team and organizational leadership roles and activities;
- Apply several key theories of motivation and to address organizational and managerial issues;
- Identify organizational, personal, cultural issues that impact on Ethics as leaders;

- Recognize cultural differences that leaders must accommodate in order to lead culturally diverse work teams;
- Identify contemporary challenges facing leaders and some potential strategies to manage these challenges;
- Apply critical thinking and problem solving skills to the analysis and resolution of leadership problems and Ethics in studies.

EBA5281 Business Intelligence Applications, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

Module introduces the essentials of Information Technology and Management Information Systems (IT/MIS) for executive learners, explores the effects of IT/MIS on modern organizations, and how it can help them reach a competitive position in a rapidly changing business environment.

This learning module is designed to study how to use technologies, processes and applications to analyze information and business processes as well as how to collect, analyze and utilize information with a focus on strategic competitiveness. Executive learners also discuss the conceptual and practical aspects of presenting, manipulating, processing and visualizing large amount of data needed for strategic decisions.

This module examines management, organizational and technological issues regarding information systems technology through miscellaneous problems that today's management face, such as: business intelligence, information management, knowledge management, planning, decision making and communications. Several concepts, case-studies and examples will explore new technical and managerial developments, including innovation, creativity and executive-level implications.

Intended learning outcomes:

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Define IT/MIS-related key concepts;
- Analyze and write a short critique of an element of the IT/MIS literature in the area of his/her interest;
- Create a clearly stated problem statement; demonstrate and document the problem solving process;
- Evaluate contemporary issues in IT/MIS and their impact on IT/MIS problems in an organizational setting;
- Make a presentation, written or verbal business reports that demonstrate their capacity of critical thinking, and working as a team.

DECISION MAKING

Studies review classical methodologies and techniques for different types of the decision making including financial, management and economic decisions. Control systems are also covered with emphasis on the new management practices. Decision making is an essential leadership skill, thus the following courses/modules will enhance students' ability to understand how to make timely, well-considered decisions, empowering and increasing the learner's ability to lead a team to success.

EBA5221 Management Control Systems, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

The objective of this module is to provide the participants with a thorough understanding of the management control structure and processes in firms, specifically in the implementation of control instruments in organizations. The accounting and financial control systems are also discussed, as a part of the overall control system, with emphasis on the financial information and feedback of organizational performances, as well as human behavior aspects of management control.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Identify and analyze the basic terminology, tools and techniques of accounting and its impact on financial statements;
- Prepare and explain pro-forma financial statements, as well as to demonstrate problem solving skills through different types of accounting cases and problems;
- Apply accounting tools and techniques in decision-making processes;
- Enumerate underlying concepts, techniques, analyses and methods by which the accounting functions support management decision-making.

EBA5216 Financing and Investment Decision Making, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

This module examines financing and investment decisions, and their interrelations in detail. The overall goal is to obtain a comprehensive and in-depth perspective of the area of Financial Management. Special emphasis is given on integration of the concepts of financial management into a total systems approach to business decision-making. Major topics include financial analysis and planning, valuation, capital budgeting, capital structure, dividend policy, working capital management, mergers and acquisition, hybrid financing, bankruptcy, multinational financial management, and risk management.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Analyze the foundational theories of Corporate Finance related to financing and investment decisions;
- Analyze the business reports and evaluate the financing and investment decisions of the organization;
- Synthesize current investment decision-making methodologies of the organization.

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES

Studies enhance the individual's ability to understand his or her condition in the community and the world, and improve the ability to make effective judgments, including the study of nations, cultures, and civilizations and their impact upon business interactions throughout the world with a focus on understanding how these are all interconnected and how they change, and on the individual's responsibility in this process. Executive learners are also provided with a realistic perspective on world issues, problems and prospects, and an awareness of the relationships between an individual's enlightened self-interest and the concerns of an organization as a whole.

EBA5273 Global Logistics and Supply Chain Management, 3.5 ECTS, 2 KIMEP credits

Module focuses on managing resources in service and production operations environments for globalization and outsourcing for competitive advantage from a strategic viewpoint. The program participants will learn how the value chain and lean synchronization improve supply-chain management (SCM) design. The module builds a solid foundation in designing SCM networks, process design, capacity assessment and operations network configuration in SCM. The role of location and distribution networks, customer handling, order fulfillment and service quality design in SCM are identified. Participants will understand the applications of strategic forecasting, inventory flow, material requirements planning (MRP), vendor selection and evaluation, purchasing and subcontracting, contract preparations, management of integrated project planning and financial analysis for global strategy formulation.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Analyze the relationship between operations and a competitive advantage in the marketplace;

- Identify the issues related to designing and managing operations and the techniques used for that identification;
- Develop techniques to analyze their quantitative reasoning ability.

EBA5242 Strategic Marketing, 3.5 ECTS, 2 KIMEP credits

Strategic marketing, as a process of creating market-driven strategies, contributes to the further refinement of students' abilities and skills, development of core strategy and competitive positioning. The students will learn to develop and implement effective marketing strategies including the identification of target markets and creation of competitive advantage.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Analyze the key concepts in strategic marketing and assess their relative importance;
- Analyze external environment and impact on organization's marketing competitiveness;
- Identify and synthesize the tactical marketing methodologies for implementation within the workplace;
- Identify and apply the elements of marketing strategies at different product life cycle stages within the organization.

EBA5255 Global Business, Innovation and Risk Management, 3.5 ECTS, 2 KIMEP credits

This module introduces the student to the "real world" of international business and covers the theory and practice of international business since the political transformations in the world in the 1980s/1990s. The areas covered are globalization, country factors, global trade and investment, global monetary system, regional economic integration (Americas, Europe, Asia Pacific and others), strategy and organization, joint ventures and strategic alliances, international business operations such as export and import management, global manufacturing, global marketing, global human resource management, international accounting and financial management and their implications for business. Case studies of international, multinational and global enterprises and practical managerial applications in Kazakhstan and neighboring CIS countries are part of the course/module.

This learning module also provides comprehensive analyses and insights in risk management performed by corporations and financial institutions. Module will focus on case studies and discussions in order to study the fundamentals of financial risk management. It covers techniques to identify, measure, and manage financial risk, as modern financial markets and regulation require. Specifically, discussion topics will include the development of value-at-risk and stress-testing, the management of exchange rate risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, operation risk and integrated risk. The module also studies risk management applications of forwards and futures, option strategies, swap strategies, as well as credit derivatives and learn the pros and cons of many derivative securities. Students will be exposed to various risk management issues in today's marketplace.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Identify the current trend of globalization;
- Analyze current and classic theories for trade and internationalization of firms;
- Identify the global influences of multinational bodies (IMF, World Bank, WTO);
- Identify and evaluate trends in regional economic integration;
- Evaluate the impact of government intervention on business;

- Identify and analyze the international monetary and exchange rate systems;
- Identify appropriate global strategy and organizational options;
- Assess the firms' tactics methodologies to enter and operate in the international markets;
- Identify and analyze challenges in international marketing;
- Identify and synthesize strategic approach and applicability of the risk management;
- Identify and apply strategies implications for managing: market risk, credit risk, and liquidity risk;
- Analyze and assess operational and integrated risks.

INTEGRATIVE CONCEPTS

The studies cover executive management decisions and actions for formulating and implementing short and long-term plans, which determine organizational performance; role of the top-management decision making in establishing the firm's mission; strategic analysis of alternative actions; evaluation of external and internal environmental conditions, industry characteristics and organizational capabilities in determining the strategy for the firm in the 21st century. Different business disciplines are integrated for the purpose of developing the student's strategic decision-making skills. The focus is on the (complex) case studies, strategic thinking, project management, use of quality to improve performance and assignments related to the top-management development.

EBA5251 Strategic Management and Business Policy, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

The module is aimed at students developing the appropriate conceptual framework for approaching the main management decisions connected with the strategy. The study of strategic management emphasizes the monitoring and evaluating of external opportunities and threats in light of a corporation's strengths and weaknesses.

Internship is 0 (zero) ECTS as it is included in the Strategic Management and Business Policy learning module. Learning assessment (in the strategic plan format) documents portfolio of students' practical experience, which serves as the basis of the internship requirement by MES.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Analyze methodologies of strategic management process;
- Formulate and implement of corporate, business, and functional strategies;
- Identify and evaluate the principle driving forces that will shape the future of international competition;
- Analyze and evaluate corporate governance issues pertinent to an organization;
- Analyze and formulate tactical decisions in business-level strategy;
- Synthesize, select and justify an appropriate business strategy, and use it in strategic audit of a company.

EBA5292 Executive MBA Thesis, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

Completion and defense of the Executive MBA Thesis – so-called Integrated Business Research Project (IBRP) – is an integral part of this module. Under the supervision of his/her academic adviser or full-time faculty, the program participant completes an individual research project in an area of interest, which may include domestic or international business applicable to Kazakhstan and/or CIS countries. The research proposal for IBRP should be submitted to the supervising BCB Executive MBA Core Faculty – an adviser specializing in the area relevant to thesis topic. The research work may also include theoretical and practical (applied) aspects, conclusions and recommendations.

Executive MBA Thesis consists of the following two parts:

Part I: Strategic Audit of an Organization

Preferably, a company of current employment; however, it may be a company of past employment, or another organization.

Part II: Research Projecting an Area of Interest:

Business Studies Areas: (i) Accounting; (ii) Finance; (iii) Management; (iv) Marketing; (v) Information Systems; (vi) Operations Management and/or any other relevant area of Business Studies.

Learning outcomes

The primary purpose of the thesis work is:

- To enhance and apply the body of knowledge acquired by a student during studies on the Executive MBA Program;
- To share this knowledge with interested parties in the society;
- To transfer the acquired knowledge to the workplace;

These purposes are accomplished through an in-depth investigation of a particular business issue and dissemination of the findings.

OGM5201 Energy Policy, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

This module uses as its central theme the "colors" of the petroleum industry. For example, the industry's financial impact on the global economy is based on the idea that the color of oil is green (the color of money). A technical chapter on exploration and production is based on the idea that the color of oil is black. A chapter on the regional impact on the oil industry begins with the idea that the color of oil is red, white and blue (Russia) and light blue and gold of Kazakhstan.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Familiarize with history of energy and current energy issues;
- Draw relationship between energy and development, environmental and environmental justice impacts of energy generation;
- Understand the respective roles of state agencies and governments in regulating energy production and energy markets;
- Analyze jurisdiction conflicts that may arise in energy policymaking;
- Comprehend and evaluate major legislation governing oil production and how they affect energy system investment decisions and public behavior;
- Analyze and evaluate the potential economic and environmental impacts of different energy policy options involving oil;
- Explain and evaluate political and security implications of world patterns of oil and gas supply and demand.

OGM5202 Environment, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

This module focuses on the environmental issues and management approaches associated with oil and gas exploration and production operations and defines the global framework for environmental management (regulatory and corporate approach) through reference to information developed by the United Nations Environment Program (UNEP) and a range of NGOs. It covers two sectors of the industry: 'upstream' (exploration and production) and 'downstream' (refining and processing of crude oil and gas products, distribution and marketing) and comprises the following key topics:

- Management Systems
- Leadership and commitment
- Policy and strategic objectives
- Organization, resources and documentation
- Evaluation and risk management
- Planning
- Implementation and monitoring
- Audit and review

It then covers operational practices and procedures such as the environmental protection measures implemented on-site and investigates the operational considerations associated with:

- Pollution prevention and cleaner production
- Waste treatment and disposal techniques
- Oil spill contingency planning
- Decommissioning and rehabilitation
- Environmentally sensitive areas

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Develop strategies, policies and procedures to implement Environment Management Systems (EMS);
- Explain environmental implications of energy;
- Understand the concept of energy and its interaction with the environment;
- Evaluate upstream exploration and production risks for environment to plan and monitor environment safety;
- Provide regular audit and review of an organization's environment protection activities to timely make and/or implement preventive measures;
- Analyze and track environmentally sensitive areas.

OGM5203 Petroleum Economics, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

The petroleum industry is arguably the most influential and important industry in the world. This module offers a comprehensive introduction to the economics of oil and natural gas extraction and production along with a detailed discussion of pricing, taxing, and markets of these most valuable commodities. The optimization of the time profile of revenues from individual fields is discussed along with the development of oil pricing, tax systems, and oil and natural gas regulation. This module will be of great value to petroleum engineers, students in business and economics, policy makers, and anyone else interested in the future of petroleum production.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Analyze and synthesize theories, market analysis and reporting practices in an organizational development setting, so that to be able to identify creative solutions to organizational and managerial problems;
- Use simple circular flow model and the national accounts to identify how and why economic factors can contribute to an organization's success or failure;

- Categorize economics and business factors which might influence oil and gas industry to develop preventive measures as tools of risk management;
- Gain knowledge on how to apply energy management techniques to reduce energy consumption and improve energy efficiency in the industry, the building sector, and transportation.

OGM5210 Oil and Gas Business and Markets, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

Despite its size and importance, a surprising lack of basic knowledge exists about the oil and gas industry. This course help readers with technical backgrounds better understand the business of oil and gas. It describes and analyzes the global oil and gas industry, oil and gas markets, focusing on its strategic, financial, and business aspects and addressing a wide range of topics organized around the oil and gas industry value chain, starting with exploration and ending with products sold to consumers.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Provide an overview of energy markets;
- Understand the place of oil and gas in the domestic and international energy landscape;
- Analyze, synthesize and evaluate real-world oil and gas industry environments in which business functions;
- Understand and evaluate of the process of exploring for, producing, and terminating oil and gas projects;
- Describe the history of production in the oil and gas industry from onshore to offshore;
- Explain the fundamentals of geology pertaining to oil and gas reservoirs;
- Discuss the types of exploration techniques, different methods of production, methods of transporting oil or gas products;
- Identify the players involved in the production and marketing of the oil and gas products;
- Review energy fundamentals such as energy sources, energy uses, and key definitions;
- Analyze and synthesize theories, market analysis and reporting practices with an emphasis on marketing and sales, so as to be able to identify creative solutions development setting, so that to be able to identify creative solutions to organizational and managerial problems and issues;
- Analyze the relationship between operations and competitive advantage in the marketplace, so as to be able to use marketing data to support management decision making;
- Use critical thinking to analyze, synthesize and evaluate real-world oil and gas industry environments in which business functions.

OGM5260 Selected Topics in Oil and Gas, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

This module examines specific contemporary issues in O&G at an advanced level. Topics vary according to the interests of the students and the instructor.

ELD5201 Leading Change and Innovation, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

This module offers a conceptual model for understanding how organizations move from short - term performance improvements to sustained, organization - wide effective improvements. Key elements critical to successful transformation will be identified and a transformational change model proposed, drawing on practical and specific practice examples for applying the elements and model.

Learning methods include reflective writing, threaded discussion, team exercises, collaboration, ongoing interaction, and connection with each other, managers and leaders.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Build an organizational capability and personal capacity for innovation and creativity to advance all aspects of transactional, transformational change, and requisite transformative learning;
- Identify pitfalls and key elements in making successful organizational transformations;
- Analyze various change models and identify commonalities and differences;
- Identify critical elements to garner organizational support and exert influence for advocacy of system - wide transformational change initiatives;
- Understand the need for developing metrics and creating processes to mitigate and manage risks related to change efforts;
- Discuss steps critical to analyzing change processes and for building momentum to enlist stakeholder involvement.

ELD5202 Managing Organizational and Business Processes, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

General principles of modeling. Methods for modeling organizational and business process for information applications development. Approaches to evaluating models based on their accuracy and usefulness.

The module introduces a number of contemporary methods for framing and modeling organizational and business processes for a variety of purposes, including information applications development. Among those methods are UML, data and logic requirements modeling, and system dynamics simulation modeling.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Use UML for modeling basic organizational and business processes;
- Identify feedback dynamics in phenomena encountered in organizational and business settings;
- Develop cause-and-effect diagrams of problems for identifying major feedback loops, and simple models that can be simulated for analysis of organizational and managerial processes and problems;
- Analyze a systemic problem that may impair the sustainable operation of an organization, and develop strategies to solve the problem by making use of modeling and simulation.

ELD5203 Leadership Workshops, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

Workshops may take a form of the live seminars and webinars. In this course students will become familiar with different ways of exercising leadership, their own strengths and weaknesses, and how they can best work with others in a leadership context. They will learn and apply leadership skills in a hands-on practical way that encourages them to challenge their own beliefs and assumptions about what constitutes leadership. This course offers a comprehensive review of contemporary issues and perspectives on leadership, including multi-disciplinary and systems-oriented approaches as well as classic theory, moving to the examination of evolving contemporary beliefs. The emphasis is on application of concepts in actual leadership settings and situations.

Topics include development of leadership theories, personal assessment and development, values and ethics, motivation, power, followership, group dynamics, multiculturalism in leadership, conflict resolution, performance excellence, and the change process. Through a process of readings, self-discovery, group observations, and case studies, the student will identify, observe, analyze, and apply new leadership behaviors. This course is based on the premise that each student will face a variety of leadership challenges in life. How these challenges are met, whether as a formal leader or a member of a team, can have a significant impact on an organization and on one's career. Learning more about leadership will help every student meet their leadership challenges.

The methodology followed by this course will be one of knowledge acquisition, practice, and reflection.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Improve and address learners' skills in key areas of leadership, including change and innovation, reflection, collaboration, communication, conflict, and multi-cultural awareness;
- Apply leadership theory in relevant real world contexts.

ELD5260 Selected Topics in Leadership, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

This module examines specific contemporary issues in Leadership & Organizational Development at an advanced level. Topics vary according to the interests of the students and the instructor.

GLM5201 Logistics & Supply Chain Management, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

This module reviews how organizations can gain sustainable competitive advantage in global marketplace by efficient and effective management of supply chain and distribution chains. Methods and techniques to model supply chain strategy, supply chain route analyses, supply chain outsourcing and partnering, JIT management philosophy, inventory management and material requirement planning, warehouse operations, logistics system design, reverse logistics, information systems for logistics, and enterprise resource planning (ERP) are integrated. It also looks at the relevance of modern supply chain logistics in Kazakhstan and concepts of the course will be illustrated and integrated with the particular issues facing local industries.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Explain logistics/supply chain terms. Solve transportation problems using knowledge of world geography and the transportation system;
- Explain the elements of logistics systems: demand management, inventory management, transportation management, packaging and material handling and distribution and warehouse management;
- Explain about organizing, analyzing, and controlling logistics systems;
- Analyze the relationship between operations and a competitive advantage in the marketplace;
- Identify the issues related to designing and managing operations and the techniques used for that identification;
- Develop techniques to analyze their quantitative reasoning ability.

GLM5202 Transportation Logistics, 1.5 ECTS, 2.5 KIMEP credits

Transport is one of the main component factors taken into account when determining the final price of a product. The transportation economics and management module has three primary areas of emphasis: (1) application of demand, cost, and pricing principles to transportation; (2) the operating, service and financial characteristics of the various modes and types of transportation; and (3) managerial issues in transportation.

The discipline of “Transportation Logistics” examines material, related financial and information flows. Relevance of discipline is determined by considerable potential opportunities for increasing the efficiency of production systems offered by the use of logistic approach.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Understand general principles of transportation logistics management that is based on the appliance of advanced equipment and technology;
- Use theoretical foundations studied discipline in production environments;
- Create logistics technology of goods delivery;
- Take decisions on the choice of the carrier and mode of transportation;
- Conduct a comparative economic assessment of cargo delivery system.

GLM5203 Warehouse Logistics, 1.5 ECTS, 2.5 KIMEP credits

The warehouse is the corner stone of the supply chain operation. It ensures the proper flow of goods from suppliers to end customers and guarantees the availability of stock to satisfy demand. Traditionally considered as the storage of goods for profit, warehousing has evolved over the years in a way that modern warehouses now fulfill multiple roles within the overall supply chain. This module also reviews in detail the different operations performed inside the warehouse.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Analyze how managing materials flow effectively improves warehousing activities and the impact of JIT systems on logistics;
- Analyze a variety of plant layouts and locations for contemporary, customer-focused warehousing facilities as part of a total logistics network;
- Apply learned methodologies to the analysis of various logistical systems and practical supply chain scenarios and case studies;
- Highlight and explain supply chain technologies for warehousing management and customer service focused systems;
- Focus on relevant warehouse measurements for distribution operations that underscore plant performance, customer service and cost optimization.

GLM5204 Inventory Management, 1.5 ECTS, 2.5 KIMEP credits

This module covers the fundamental principles of inventory control. Inventory management measurements and techniques will be explained. The financial importance of inventory management and control and its relationship to company financial statements will be reviewed. Students will learn the role of inventory control management in supporting the supply chain process, issues in inventory control with known and unknown demand, materials requirement planning, just-in-time, pull control systems, operations scheduling, dispatching and aggregate planning, and the basic dynamics of production and inventory control.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Learn the fundamental principles of inventory control. Understand inventory classifications;
- Explain the importance of accurate inventory records and how they can be maintained. Calculate inventory turnover using both the average method and point-in-time;
- Understand the evolution of MRP and MRPII. Perform calculations of order point, EOQ's and MRP;
- Explain internal vs. external lead time. Understand the principle of cumulative lead time. Learn what inventory carry cost includes;
- Explain how to avoid accumulating excess and obsolete inventory;
- Understand how inventory control fits in the logistics organization;
- Learn how to use physical inventories and cycle counting.

GLM5205 Customs and Duties, 1.5 ECTS, 2.5 KIMEP credits

The purpose of discipline «Customs Law and Customhouse" is to study international and domestic experience on determination of customs commodity costs, regulatory base for customs valuation for Kazakhstani customs purposes. Moreover, as part of the study it is necessary to consider monetary policy and exchange regulation in Kazakhstan, its monetary system and foreign exchange market, to show the purpose and the principal directions of foreign exchange control, the role and importance of the customs authorities in such processes.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Develop structure of the customs service, its role in ensuring economic security of the foreign economic sphere and prospects of development of the service;
- Discuss principles of the movement of goods and vehicles across the customs border of the Republic of Kazakhstan;
- Know initial knowledge of customs clearance technologies and customs control;
- Understand the role of customs in the management of the national economy;
- Know the rights, duties and responsibilities of customs broker, carrier and the declarant;
- Know the order of goods declaration;
- Use a system of knowledge according to customs statistics when doing calculations on export-import operations;
- Calculate customs duties and taxes.

GLM5206 Logistics Information Systems, 1.5 ECTS, 2.5 KIMEP credits

Logistics is concerned with the management of the flow of goods and services from firms to consumers. The design of a high-performance logistics network (supply chain) depends decisively on the information available to the different parties. The available information technology, together with the incentives for the sharing of information within and across firm boundaries, is of key importance for the analysis and optimization of supply chains. This subject provides students with the ability to understand the theory, principles, and applications of logistics information systems (LISs); describe the concepts of operations research for solving logistics optimisation problems; identify the relationship between data warehousing and online analytical processing (OLAP) in logistics operations; apply artificial intelligence techniques for distribution planning and logistics operation improvement.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Demonstrate their understanding of LISs and how such systems can be used in existing work situations to identify how the dispersed operations of a supply chain network can be configured;
- Examine the concepts of data preprocessing and OLAP in logistics operations;
- Apply the concepts of operations research to physical distribution planning and logistics operation improvement;
- Select appropriate LISs to achieve logistics intelligence.

GLM5260 Selected Topics in

Global Logistics & Supply Chain Management, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

This module examines specific contemporary issues in Global Logistics & Supply Chain Management at an advanced level. Topics vary according to the interests of the students and the instructor.

CGN5201 Corporate Governance, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

This is a comprehensive and in-depth Corporate Governance course/module, combining theory and applications. The students will be introduced to Corporate Governance practices in different countries. The course/module provides deep involvement of students in assessing the costs and benefits of better corporate governance standards that will help making reasonable decisions to protect investors' rights. The course/module will also explore the emergence of corporate ethics in the business environment, its impact on the role of the leader and how it can be applied in Central Asia. The OECD Principles of Corporate Governance will be reviewed. This course/module will present the unique situations in the Kazakhstan corporate governance environment. Potential or existing directors are expected to understand elementary accounting (International Standards) and the fundamentals of Risk Management. The class will analyze the corporate governance structure of Kazakhstani companies that are listed on the London Stock Exchange (LSE) and see how these companies have evolved their governance to abide by the listing requirements of the LSE. Case studies will be discussed throughout the course/module.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of how the principles of corporate governance can be applied to different types of organization across the private, public and not-for-profit sectors;
- Critically evaluate the extent to which their own organizations demonstrate characteristics of good and effective corporate governance;
- Promote the value of embedding best practice governance policies and procedures into the culture of an organization;
- Identify the practical operational benefits that should result from the application of the principles of good governance;

- Take a more active and informed role in supporting the management of the organizations with which they are associated;
- Discuss the role of corporate governance codes and evaluate their usefulness in achieving better corporate governance practices;
- Comprehend the importance of having organization to be registered on the exchange stock market;
- Assess relationship between the quality of corporate governance and capital formation.

CGN5202 Organizational Design, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

This course/module intends to develop basic understanding of organizational theory and enables students to apply the knowledge acquired to help organizations in solving their current problems. Students will also be equipped with critical and analytical toolkits to assess organizations' structure and its impact on the organizational effectiveness. Thus, students will understand how to design and change organizational structures to achieve superior performance and be able to analyze the organizations from the leadership and managerial viewpoint.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Identify the role of organizational culture, structure and process in shaping corporate decision making, accountability, controls and behavior;
- Analyze how organizational systems influence performance, including both the performance of individual firms and the allocation of capital within a country;
- Analyze the organizations from the leadership and managerial point of view.

CGN5203 Corporate Law, 5 ECTS, 3 KIMEP credits

This course/module brings many positive functions in the development of legal relationships of joint stock companies. These include improvement of relationships between shareholders, minimization of conflict situations, increase of legal literacy level, and also formation of mental and ethical fundamentals of entrepreneurship. Maintenance of these laws will help further development of corporations as subject of entrepreneurial relationships.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of this module, learners will be able to:

- Outline and discuss the key legal, political and economic features of the major corporate governance systems found around the world;
- Evaluate theories of the firm, and explain how they are relevant to the diverse range of ownership structures that exist in reality;
- Address such practical questions, as how should the board of directors and executive teams be composed; how should executives and board of directors be remunerated given the legal, political and economic framework in the country; how do CEOs decide about the mix of debt and equity finance and how does the mix affect their discretion and control over cash flow;
- Assess why systematic failure of corporate governance can lead to failure of confidence that could spread from individual firms to entire markets or economies.

DOCTOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION COURSES

CORE COURSES

BUS6201 Modern Problems of the Economy (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: None

This course provides an overview of the current status of Kazakhstan's economy and explores future opportunities and challenges. Topics include unique issues encountered in establishing a market economy in Kazakhstan, analysis of current business environment in Kazakhstan, role and relative importance of Kazakhstan in the world economic system, prospects and problems of Kazakhstan's accession into the WTO, analysis of experience of developed countries with a market economy and comparison with the economy of Kazakhstan, globalization and the economic development of the Republic of Kazakhstan, tendencies and trends of development of international business and their reflection in the economy of Kazakhstan, role of various institutions in business development in the RK, role of information, tele-video-communication technologies, advertisement public relations and industrial innovation in Kazakhstan's business industry and role of Kazakh businesses in providing employment to the population.

BUS6301 Qualitative Research Methods (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: None

The concept of rank and methods of solving systems of linear equations will be considered. The course will give also main concepts of the probability (some often used discrete and continuous models), and univariate statistics (random variables, samples, central limit theorem, point and interval estimators including MLE and GMM, parametrical and non-parametrical hypotheses testing, ANOVA, ANCOVA, and regression analysis).

BUS 6302 Quantitative Research Methods (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: none

The course gives important concepts of matrix algebra (Eigen-values, Eigen-vectors, spectral decomposition, square-root matrix, etc.), multivariate normal distribution (parameters estimation, hypotheses testing, MANOVA, MANCOVA, etc.), multiple multivariate linear regression, logistic regression, principal components and factor analyses, canonical correlation analysis, discriminant analysis and clustering.

BUS 6303 Econometrics (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: BUS 6302 Quantitative Research Methods

This course is designed to build a solid background in econometric theory and its applications to economic and business problems. It provides the necessary background to perform empirical studies by focusing on conceptual skills in basic and multivariate linear regression models, simultaneous equation systems, stationary and non-stationary time series analysis, panel data analysis, and policy evaluations.

MGT6304 Strategic Management and Competitiveness Analysis (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: BUS6201 Modern Problems of the Economy

Students will explore current academic research in strategic management and global competitiveness of business organizations. This course examines the standard models of mission, vision, policies, procedures, resources, competencies, capabilities, control, and evaluation of organizational strategies, and their impact on organizational performance. For competitiveness analysis, it will look into industrial clustering and competitiveness, the competitive and comparative advantages of nations, social capital, the diamond theory, the network theories, social structures and capabilities of markets, and international competitiveness from a global perspective.

MGT6309 International Business Strategies

Prerequisites: BUS6201 Modern Problems of the Economy

This course examines the theories as well as empirical evidence on the patterns of doing business internationally, which is mandatory in professional life. The course engages intensive study and critical examination of current international business patterns and the social systems within countries and how these systems affect the conduct of business. Students learn the major theories explaining international business transactions and the institutions influencing the activities. Students will gain an understanding of the concerns and management of international activities. The course will provide insight into the variety of ways in which international business may evolve in the future in the context of changing markets.

SPECIALIZATION AREA: ACCOUNTING

ACC6301 Accounting Research (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: None

This course discusses the nature of scientific theories and the development of modern accounting theory as it relates to accepted theories in economics and finance. This course introduces students to major areas of accounting research and research methods. During this course, students develop substantial skills in absorbing and critically evaluating contemporary accounting research.

ACC6302 Accounting Related Capital Markets Research (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: ACC 6301 Accounting Research

This course focuses on research evaluating the usefulness of accounting information for valuing equities securities. The course builds a foundation for conducting accounting related capital market research.

ACC6303 Management Accounting Research (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: ACC 6301 Accounting Research

This course focuses on theoretical foundations and empirical testing of current management accounting issues.

ACC6304 Judgment and Decision Making in Accounting (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: ACC 6301 Accounting Research

This course introduces the major areas of inquiry in judgment and behavioral decision making research in accounting. The course focuses on major theoretical and methodological issues and assesses the practical implications of the research.

ACC6306 Auditing

Prerequisites: ACC 6301 Accounting Research

This course examines the theories as well as empirical evidence on auditing. It covers auditing standards, theories and procedures observed by Public Accountants in the examination of financial statements of business and other organizations; audit standards, objectives, and conceptual framework for collection of evidence and assessment of control risk; and short-form audit report and operational auditing.

ACC6307 Taxation

Prerequisites: ACC 6301 Accounting Research

This course examines the theories as well as empirical evidence on taxation, tax structure including concepts and policies. Emphasis will be on both legal elements and concepts applicable to corporations and partnerships. Among the issues addressed will be taxation of manufacturing, retailing and services, and to the manner in which organizational accounting policy and strategy can shape, and in turn be shaped by taxation.

SPECIALIZATION AREA: FINANCE

FIN6301 Theory of Finance (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: None

The course engages intensive study and critical examination of modern finance theory, emphasizing the integration of firm investment and financing decisions under certainty and uncertainty, as well as, under perfect and imperfect capital markets. Major topics may include, but are not limited to, asset pricing and valuation, capital budgeting and real options, capital structure and dividend policies, capital market efficiency, information asymmetry and agency theory, term structure of interest rates, option valuation, international parity relationships, etc. Empirical studies that have bearing on modern finance theories are also explored.

FIN6302 Research in Finance (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: BUS 6301 Qualitative Research Methods + BUS6302 Qualitative Research Methods + FIN 6301 Theory of Finance

In this course, students acquire knowledge and research skills necessary to conduct original and applied financial researches. Students will master empirical and analytical research skills in the studies such as financial information and capital market behavior, problem of information asymmetry in financial markets, pricing and valuation of assets and claims, financial decision making of firms and financial intermediaries, and other wide spectrum of empirical testing and development of theoretical models using advanced econometric tools and statistical methods.

FIN6303 Corporate Finance (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: FIN 6302 Research in Finance

The course focuses on intensive review and study of theories and practices of corporate financial policies and strategies. Areas of study include complex capital budgeting under certainty and uncertainty, valuation of projects and firms, capital structure and cost of capital, dividend policy and stock repurchases, corporate risk management, mergers, acquisitions and corporate restructuring, working capital management, corporate governance and control, agency conflicts, information asymmetry, etc. Case study may be utilized to examine, analyze, and integrate corporation decision-making. Also, theoretical and empirical literature on corporate finance issues will be reviewed.

FIN6304 Financial Markets and Institutions (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: FIN 6302 Research in Finance

The course focuses on intensive review and study of the financial environment, including securities, markets, and institutions. Emphasis is on interest rate determinants, fixed income, equity and derivative securities, and the operations and management of all types of financial intermediaries. Theoretical and empirical literature on models and behavior of financial intermediaries, structure and regulation, interest rate theories, financial markets, and the impact of macroeconomic policies and procedures on financial markets and institutions are explored. Regulatory structure over capital markets and institutions, market developmental issues, market microstructure issues, creation of capital market infrastructure, and impact of globalization and technological development are also discussed.

FIN6307 Investment Management (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: FIN 6302 Research in Finance

This course examines the theories as well as empirical evidence on investment environment and the investment process. An investment is the current commitment of money or other resources in the expectation of reaping future benefits. The investment process involves identifying objectives and constraints, formulating and implementing strategies, and monitoring and updating the portfolio as needed. Major topics include investment alternatives, securities markets and trading mechanism, risk and return analysis, modern investment theory, valuation, analysis and management of bonds, common stocks and derivative securities, and investment performance evaluation.

FIN6308 Financial Derivatives (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: FIN 6302 Research in Finance

This course examines the theories as well as empirical evidence on derivatives. A derivative is an instrument whose value depends on the values of other more basic underlying variables. This course focuses on the financial derivatives. Emphasis is placed on organization and role of put and call options markets, futures and forward markets, swaps markets, and their interrelations. Major topics include arbitrage relations, valuation, hedging and speculating with derivatives, implementation of derivatives trading strategies, the perspective of corporate securities as derivatives, the functions of derivatives in securities markets, regulations and recent innovations in derivative markets.

SPECIALIZATION AREA: MANAGEMENT

MGT 6301 Business and Entrepreneurship (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: None

The purpose of this course is to provide DBA students a solid knowledge about business and industrialization history of different developed countries. It will prepare them for taking future leadership in entrepreneurial activities and steer economic development of the country. Topics will cover history of industrial development of leading industrial countries in the world, different economic systems, different governance systems, and different national business system from a global perspective. The Japanese Keiretsu, Korean Chaebol, Italian Industrial Clustering, and German Corporatism concepts will be discussed in details and lessons for emerging countries will be identified. From an entrepreneurial perspective, it will include issues related to new business identification, small business financing, capital budgeting tools, project management and evaluation techniques, market research, product pricing, technology innovation and management for new venture creation in an emerging economy context.

MGT6302 Organizational Behavior and Leadership Theories (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: None

Organizational Behavior is a field of study that is primarily concerned with understanding individual and group behavior in work organization. The OB course is designed to explore in depth the core body of literature that constitutes organizational behavior and to investigate the central debates, methodological issues, ethical concerns, and other contemporary concerns within the field at an advanced level. In addition, participants are expected to be able to apply these theories to the design, assessment, reengineering, and adaptation of systems and processes that will ensure the maximum organizational, group, individual, and technological performance. This course also will enable students to understand the history and development of leadership theories. Emphasis will be given on ethical responsibilities of leadership and learn how, as leaders and followers, actively engage in change process to create a better organization and society.

MGT6303 Management and Organization Theory (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: MGT 6302 Organizational Behavior and Leadership Theories

The objectives of this course are to (1) familiarize student with seminal works and theories of management and organization studies, (2) identify the research gaps in existing literature and recommend future research opportunities. The student will study elements of theory and model development from macro and micro perspectives. The intent will be to understand how these different concepts of modern business organizations are meant and shape the generalist point of view into management theory and practice in both a national and global context. The classical management theories, cultural theories, institutional theories, regulation theories, modernism and post-modernism debate, Fordism, Toyotaism, TQM, Six Sigma, Lean Production, etc. will be included in this course. Further it will look into grounded theory approach to understand the development of new theories and approaches in management and organization analysis.

MGT6306 Leadership and Corporate Governance

Prerequisites: MGT 6302 Organizational Behavior and Leadership Theories

This course examines the theories as well as empirical evidence on Leadership and Corporate Governance. It provides understanding of corporate governance as an institutional framework providing shareholders a safe return on their investments. The participants will gain the capacity to analyze the economic background of the compensation practices and get exposed to corporate governance regulations and practices in different countries. The course provides deep involvement of students in assessing the costs and benefits of better corporate governance standards that will help making reasonable decisions to protect investors' rights.

MGT6307 Human Resource Management (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: MGT 6302 Organizational Behavior and Leadership Theories

This course examines the theories as well as empirical evidence on human resource management. It deals primarily with activities that directly affect how employees are brought into the firm and how they are treated while they are employed. These activities include selection, training and development, performance evaluation and management, reward and compensation, labor relations, working conditions, among other related issues.

MGT6308 Change and Innovation Management (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: MGT 6301 Business and Entrepreneurship

This course examines the theories as well as empirical evidence on change and innovation management. This course provides conceptual and theoretical underpinning of change in different organizational contexts. Students will also learn how effective change management helps an organization gain competitive advantage and understand the skills needed to manage change effectively. This course also provides an essential insight into the area of innovation management. The class covers issues such as risk management, managing the research and development process, intellectual property management, integrating innovations into existing operation, the marketing of new products and technology transfer.

SPECIALIZATION AREA: MARKETINGMKT6301 Theory of Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

The objective of this course is to familiarize students with the history and evolution of marketing thought. The course will review the literature regarding the definition of marketing, marketing as a science, and major theoretical perspectives in marketing. Special emphasis will be placed on theoretical paradigms and perspectives in marketing such as system theory, the behavioral theory of the firm, resource dependent theory, and social exchange theory that have influenced marketing as a discipline. Philosophy of science including inquiry and nature of scientific explanation, theories of truth, and distinctions between science and non-science will be discussed as it pertains to theory development.

MKT6302 Theories of Consumer Behavior (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT6301 Theory of Marketing

This course examines the theories as well as empirical evidence on theories of consumer behavior. The aims of this course are to provide the student with a basic understanding of the importance and real influence of consumers on marketing strategy. The course emphasizes the practicality of behavioral sciences' theories as demonstrated by consumer behavior by examining how these concepts can be used by marketing practitioners to develop and implement effective marketing strategies.

MKT6303 Strategic Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT6301 Theory of Marketing

This course examines the theories as well as empirical evidence on strategic marketing. It offers students the opportunity to broaden their understanding of marketing management by dealing with strategy development and its implementation. Students will learn how to design imaginative yet well-grounded strategies that match corporate objectives, and which are appropriate in terms of corporate resources, the operating environment and the target public. Students learn to apply strategic knowledge to practical problems in a creative and analytical manner; frequent use of cases will give ample practice in realistic implementation. The course discusses well-established marketing themes such as effective services marketing, ethical issues in marketing, corporate social responsibility, relationship marketing, and Internet marketing. Newer marketing ideas such as customer co-creation and environmental issues will also be discussed.

MKT6304 Strategic Brand Management (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT6301 Theory of Marketing

This course examines the theories as well as empirical evidence on strategic brand management. It addresses important branding decisions faced by organizations. The objectives are: to increase the students' understanding of important issues in planning and evaluating brand strategies; to highlight appropriate theories, models, and other tools that enhance branding decisions; and to provide a forum for students to apply these principles. Particular emphasis is on understanding the customers' psychological principles, resulting in improved managerial decision-making regarding brands. The course will make these concepts relevant to most types of organization (public or private, large or small). During the course students will be introduced to the theoretical concepts of branding and brand management. Interactive learning integrates theory into practice through case studies, analysis of video materials, and analysis of brand strategies for the company operating in Kazakhstan and its presentation.

MKT6306 Integrated Marketing Communications (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT6301 Theory of Marketing

This course examines the theories as well as empirical evidence on integrated marketing communications. The main goal of this course is to introduce students to the main concepts of marketing communications strategy. This course anticipates the needs of future marketing managers who are able to lead company's communication. By the end of this course students are able to define and develop company's marketing communications strategy based on corporate attitudes and values.

MKT6307 International Marketing (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: MKT6301 Theory of Marketing

This course examines the theories as well as empirical evidence on integrated marketing communications. The course examines companies operating in international markets, where competition is not limited to local producers offering competitive products. Students learn different models of entry into new markets and the differential application of customization versus standardization strategies.

Graduate courses description

ECONOMICS AREA

CSS5103 Professional English (for MAE program) (2 Credit Hours/3 ECTS)

Prerequisites: None

This course is designed to prepare you for the writing of a masters thesis by addressing the challenges common to graduate research writing. Students will learn how to analyze and present valid arguments. Practice includes developing writing skills that enable students to clearly present claims to support their conclusions and avoid reinforcing biases. Topics addressed include the relationship between critical thinking and clear writing, credibility of sources, rhetorical devices, fallacies, unclear or misleading language, and the characteristics of various types of arguments.

CSS5501 Management (1 Credit Hour/2 ECTS)

Prerequisites: None

This course deals with the functions of management of organizations. It analyses organizational structure, motivation and incentive conflicts, human resources and compensation schemes, organizational culture and ethics.

CSS5502 Psychology (3 Credit Hours/3 ECTS)

Prerequisites: None

This course gives an introduction to psychology and its applications to learning, management and interpersonal relations. It gives an overview of the interconnection between psychology and economics covering such topics as consumer choice, happiness measures, social preferences and behavioral approaches to policy and finance.

CSS5503 Research Methods and Methodology in the Social Sciences (Thesis I, 3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: None

This course gives an overview of the methodological basis of the social sciences. Students are introduced to logical reasoning and to concepts such as causality and statistical inference. The course also covers methods in applied research, drawing on examples of current research papers. Its purpose is to prepare the students for writing a master thesis.

ECN5012 Econometrics (Econometrics I) (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: None

Econometrics deploys economics, mathematics and statistics to specify economic relationships that help people forecast and make decisions. The course presents basic concepts in econometrics methods and methodology, regression models with time series, cross section and qualitative data. Topics in estimating single equations models are including Distributed lag models, causality problems, and dummy variables models in particular. Application of econometric models in real world economic data analysis will also be covered in the course.

ECN5013 Advanced Econometrics (Econometrics II) (3 Credit Hours/7 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN5012 (can be waived for students with undergraduate coursework in economics)

This course begins with fundamentals of advanced econometric modeling methods and techniques. This considers in detail econometric model formulation and estimation in multi equation settings. Topics covered are seemingly unrelated regression models, simultaneous equation models, panel data models, advanced time series models, probit, logit and limited dependent variable models. Students practice their skills with statistical packages such as Eviews.

ECN5021 Microeconomics (Microeconomics I) (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: none

This course covers consumer and producer theory, welfare measures and analyzes different market forms.

ECN5022 Advanced Microeconomics (Microeconomics II) (3 Credit Hours/7 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN5021 (can be waived for students with undergraduate coursework in economics)

This course provides a rigorous introduction to advanced microeconomic analysis. It covers consumer theory, auction theory and general equilibrium analysis, incorporating uncertainty, asymmetric information and externalities.

ECN5031 Macroeconomics (Macroeconomics I) (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: none

This course introduces standard concepts of macroeconomic theory including growth theory, aggregate demand and supply, stabilization policy and open economy macroeconomics. It gives an overview of the current macroeconomic debate.

ECN5032 Advanced Macroeconomics (Macroeconomics II) (3 Credit Hours/7 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN5031 (can be waived for students with undergraduate coursework in economics)

This course covers advanced topics in macroeconomic theory such as models of economic growth, rational expectations models, models of currency crises, nominal rigidities, business cycle theory, time inconsistency and microeconomic foundations of aggregate behavior.

ECN5051 Money and Banking (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN5031

The course analyses financial intermediation and the role of financial institutions for monetary policy. In addition, it focuses on issues such as risk management by private banks and financial regulation.

ECN5052 Statistical Methods (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: none

This course uses advanced statistical methods such as multivariate data analysis with estimation, hypothesis testing factor analysis and cluster analysis.

ECN5053 Game Theory (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: none

This course gives an introduction to the mathematical analysis of strategic interaction in conflict and cooperation. It includes repeated games, Bayes-Nash equilibrium, sequential games and introduces cooperative concepts such as core and Nash solution.

ECN5054 Mathematical Modeling (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: none

This course provides an overview of mathematical models which are used in economics and empirical modeling, encompassing data mining and flexible methods of modeling.

ECN5093 Project Planning and Welfare (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN5021 (can be waived for students with undergraduate coursework in economics)

This course gives an introduction to the planning and budgeting of projects and their evaluation in terms of private and social desirability. It covers issues such as measurement, accounting for risk and choosing a discount rate and combines the rigorous treatment of welfare theoretic foundations of cost-benefit analysis with its practical application.

ECN5142 International Trade (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN5021 (can be waived for students with undergraduate coursework in economics)

This course covers the basic theory of trade, including gains from exchange and specialization; factor and goods prices; tariffs; imperfect competition in trade; distortions in commodity and factor markets; and economic integration. . Topics include: Ricardian theory of comparative cost; the Heckscher-Ohlin model and the impact of factor abundance on trade; increasing returns and product differentiation; factor movements; commercial policy -- tariffs, quotas, export subsidies, and infant industries; international oligopoly and strategic trade; and economic integration, exemplified by free trade areas and customs unions. The course complements one on international finance but can be taken alone. A basic undergraduate course in trade would be useful although not necessary. Students should also have had an undergraduate course in intermediate or advanced microeconomic theory. The course deploys calculus and basic statistics.

ECON5143 International Finance (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECON5031 (can be waived for students with undergraduate coursework in economics)

This course deals with macroeconomics, financial markets, and monetary institutions, all from an international point of view. The field is eclectic, so the course can cover only a few theoretical topics: The balance of payments; international asset markets; and the exchange rate. The course concludes with contemporary policies in the international monetary system. The course complements International Trade (ECON5142) but can be taken alone. Students should have had undergraduate macroeconomics and microeconomics. Basic undergraduate courses in international trade and finance, as well as in money, would be useful. The course will use calculus and basic statistics.

ECN5226 Industrial Organization (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN5021 (can be waived for students with undergraduate coursework in economics)

The study of industrial organization is important for understanding industrial economics and corporate behavior. It is also essential for students aiming to serve the industrial sector of the economy. The course focuses on an empirical and theoretical examination of the structure, conduct, and performance of firms and industries at the micro and macro level. What determines the market structure and how is it measured? How do firms in an industry behave or perform in a given market structure? The course emphasizes production and cost functions; productivity growth; technical change and technical efficiency; corporate investment; dividend policy; and financing behavior. Major topics include the theory of the firm; profit maximizing and growth maximizing models; price and output determination under different market structures; and measures of market structure and market performance.

ECN5261 Public Economics I (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN5021 (can be waived for students with undergraduate coursework in economics) 1

This course examines the role of the public sector in the economy. It analyzes the behavior of the public sector and the incidence of its attempts to fulfill allocation, distribution and stabilization functions. It begins by asking the central questions of whether or not markets work, and if not, what is to be done about it. It discusses the market failures -- externalities, public goods, imperfect competition and asymmetric information -- that arise when competitive markets cannot give a socially desirable outcome. Topics may include the provision of public and private goods; collective decision-making; taxation -- tax incidence, equity, efficiency, and optimal taxation; theory of and evidence on government expenditure policy; redistribution and welfare policy; social cost-benefit analysis; fiscal aspects of macroeconomic theories; and local government. This would be a good course for students interested in: 1) generally, the economist's view of the appropriate roles for government within markets; 2) specifically, in the analysis and institutional background of government programs and initiatives --in both expenditures and taxation.

ECN5271 Emerging Markets and Powers (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN5021 (can be waived for students with undergraduate coursework in economics) 1

Emerging markets is an overarching concept describing a group of countries with common issues and a similar role in the international system. This course critically discusses the concept of emerging markets and the role of institutions, natural resources and international organizations in their development. It reviews economic growth, open economy macroeconomics and geography as they pertain to emerging markets and introduces case studies.

ECN5296 Labor Economics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

Prerequisites: ECN5021 (can be waived for students with undergraduate coursework in economics)

This course develops theoretical models of the labor market, presents related empirical research, and discusses policy applications. Topics include labor supply, labor demand, market equilibrium and compensating wage differences, investment in human capital, and cyclical unemployment. Additional topics may include labor unions, minimum wage laws, compensation policies and productivity, wage indexation, and discrimination and equal-opportunity laws.

ECN5334 Monetary Economics (3 Credit Hours/5 ECTS)

IRL5540 History of International Relations (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

This is an advanced course that presents students both an analysis of the major events in the history of international relations and a detailed study of a specific historical case. In the first half of the semester, after a review of the Peace of Westphalia in order to understand the role of the state as the main actor in the international space, the course focuses on events such as the Napoleonic Wars and the Congress of Wien, the European preeminence, World War I and II, the Cold War, Decolonization and the Collapse of the Soviet Union. In the second half of the semester the course will focus on one historical event in order to provide an in-depth analysis. For example, among the issues under review there can be: the Cuban Missile Crisis, the Arms Race, the Non-Aligned Movement, the Communist Revolution in China and others.

IRL5542 Government and Politics in Central Asia (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

This advanced course examines the multifaceted historical, ethnic, religious and linguistic factors that impact on the development of Central Asia after 1991. It provides a comparative study of political institutions, domestic politics and foreign policy behavior of Central Asian countries. The course is not only an introduction to the political systems of Central Asian states – new patterns of power and decision-making – but it also offers an analysis of ongoing changes generated by world geopolitics in a period of global uncertainty.

IRL5547 Russian Foreign Policy (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

The background of the present day Russian foreign policy is to be found in this advanced course. The emergence of USSR and US as the two global powers mainly defined the whole system of international relations in the world from 1945-89. Throughout this period, the Cold War confrontation constructed the essence of Soviet policy. The subsequent crisis and demise of the Soviet Union means not only the end of the “Cold War era” but also denotes the emergence of new key concepts and changes to dominant paradigms that explain the role of an independent Russia in the new world. The goal of the course is to develop students’ critical and analytical skills, and to direct them to explaining the motives and objectives of Russian diplomacy operating on several levels: relations with the USA and the West, the establishment of a new system of relations with former Soviet republics and the development of new approaches to Third World countries.

IRL5548 European Union: Politics and Foreign Policy (3 credits → 5 ECTS) This course offers an advanced study of the model of the European Union as a unique experiment whereby European law supersedes national law and a single European currency is used. The purpose of this course is to offer students an advanced and critical analysis of European government and politics as well as of the structure and foreign policies of the European Union.

IRL5551 Petro Politics (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

This course provides a comprehensive study of the contemporary politics of oil via a critical analysis of the causes, dynamics and implications of the global quest for energy. The course lays special emphasis on the geopolitics of energy in the various oil-producing regions of the world and the interests of great powers in these regions. General theories, concepts, paradigms and models associated with international relations, economics, and security studies will be introduced to provide students with the analytical tools and knowledge necessary to comprehend the complex dynamics of energy politics and to facilitate an understanding of current developments in the field of energy. The course is designed to sharpen students’ abilities in the area of geopolitical analysis by evaluating various strategies for constructing pipelines, accessing markets and forming strategic alliances between producing and consuming nations.

IRL5552 Central Asia-United States Relations (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

This is a graduate-level survey course on the development of Central Asia - US relations from 1991 to the present. At the outset, we will examine the mutual “discovery” of the United States and Central Asia by their opposite number, as well as the framing of the relationship in the context of realist, idealist, and neo-Marxist paradigms. We will further consider the interests that determine foreign policies of Central Asian states and that of the United States in the region, perceptions and decision-making processes, and the broader geopolitical context of Central Asia - US relations (with the focus on Russia, China, Afghanistan, Iran, and EU). A broad variety of topics will be discussed: American contribution to Kazakhstan’s denuclearization, investments in the energy sector, development assistance, the post-9/11 security relationship, US military bases in Central Asia, US cultural influence on the region, and other issues. We will conclude by examining the likely trajectories for the development of these relationships in the coming decade.

IRL5555 Asian Security: Theory and Practice (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

The course aims to provide both an advanced theoretical knowledge of the current debates of security studies and to apply their paradigms to the study of Asian security at different levels of analysis: national, regional and global. An updated research of key issues in each region (Northeast Asia, Southeast Asia, South Asia and Central Asia) will be combined with an in-depth consideration of various aspects of security: military (including nuclear), political, economic, environmental, societal and human.

IRL5558 Central Asia - Russia Relations (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

This graduate course provides a comprehensive and comparative overview and analysis of the political, economic and historical background of Russian - Central Asian relations throughout the Tsarist and Soviet periods and their reflection in cultural, political, strategic, economic, ethno-religious relations between the former Soviet Central Asian states and the Russian Federation. In doing so, the course provides a thorough methodological and analytical foundation of the cultural and demographic peculiarities of post-Soviet Russia and Central Asia, their foreign and domestic politics, economy, security. The bulk of the coursework will be devoted to investigating and discussing specific aspects of the Russian - Central Asian relations, such as nation building, language policies, minorities, separatism, interethnic conflicts, global security, democratization, as well as the influence of other global actors like the US, China, the EU, and the Muslim world on the interaction between Russia and the Central Asian states.

IRL5561 Emerging Powers and Markets (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

This course is designed to present students the evolution of the international system by looking at emerging powers and markets. In particular, the course will consider the conceptualization of 'emerging powers and markets' and the methodological bases for studying high-growth economies. An analytical review of social, political and legal frameworks for economic development will be used for comparing case studies.

IRL5563 Foreign Policy: Doctrines and Strategies (3 credits → 5 ECTS)

This course focuses on the doctrines and strategies adopted by states in foreign affairs. It aims to provide students both a comprehensive view of foreign policy making given the flexible constraints of the international system and an in-depth analysis of case studies. The course will mostly study major powers (USA, EU, Russia, China), but it will also consider a few examples of regional powers.

IRL5534.4 Internship in International Relations (4 credits → 5 ECTS)

The internship is designed to provide the student with a hands-on learning opportunity by in a consulate, the Foreign Ministry, an NGO, private company or other agency. A program of study and activities is collaboratively designed by the students' advisor and the participating agency. In the past, departmental internships have been pursued at the Foreign Ministry, US and UK consulates, the UN, the OSCE, and the EurAsEC.

IRL5525 Thesis II (3 credits → 10 ECTS)

Prerequisite: IRL5512 Thesis I

All Master's students have to write a M.A. thesis. The thesis topic must be approved in writing, first by the prospective thesis supervisor and then by the Thesis Supervisory Committee (Panel). The thesis research has to be supervised by a qualified KIMEP faculty. (For details, please see the CSS Guidelines for Master's Thesis.) In his/her M.A. thesis the student has to demonstrate that he/she can design and execute with competence a major piece of research. The length will vary with the nature of the topic, but it should be developed in 50-60 pages (double-spaced). This course, taught by an experienced instructor, is designed to help students to acquire necessary skills in writing their thesis and to organize their time and thesis materials. The course complements the guidance of students' thesis supervisor. By the end of the semester, students will have completed the introduction, the theoretical framework and the methodology (literature review and bibliography) and have prepared for the Thesis Proposal Defense.

IRL5526 Thesis III (3 credits → 10 ECTS)

Prerequisite: IRL5512 Thesis I and IRL5525 Thesis II

This is the writing and finalization of the research thesis. Normally, by the end of the semester, students will have completed and submitted their thesis, and have it defended before the Thesis Defense Committee. The Thesis has to follow the formal requirements and standards as detailed in CSS Guidelines for Master's Thesis.

IRL5999.1 Comprehensive Examination (1 credit → 2 ECTS)

Students have to pass an advanced comprehensive exam in international relations that will evaluate their knowledge of theories and issues studied during their graduate academic career as well as critical and analytical skills they have developed.

PAD5218 Project Evaluation and Management in Public Sector (3 credits)

Prerequisites: PAD5114

This course is designed to help students enhance their skills in project evaluation and management. This course emphasizes the practice and process of project evaluation. In the course, we will not only develop an understanding of why projects fail, but also how they can succeed. The course provides practical tools, techniques and best practices adapted to the local environment. Students will be accompanied and supervised throughout all stages of the evaluation process. No previous experience with evaluation research and empirical or qualitative data analysis is required.

PAD5219 Public Sector Reform (3 credits)

Prerequisite: PAD5114

The focus of this course is on the changing role of the public sector in the context of globalization and marketization trends in the contemporary political-economic environment. Students will explore issues related to allocative, distributive and stabilizing role of the state in the market economy. Among issues to be discussed will be questions of scale and scope of the public sector, public and private sector competition and partnership, the role of quasi-autonomous organizations, and tension between majoritarian and non-majoritarian institutions.

PAD5222 Social Policy (3 credits)

Prerequisite: PAD5114

This course introduces students to the concepts, history, and development of social policy, the funding authority and patterns of service delivery, and how political and social ideologies influence policy development. It shows that policy is a function of social, political, and economic context and transitions. An analytic framework is utilized to identify trends and assess gaps in policies and programs, especially as they impact on women, child support enforcement, nutrition programs, and medical care.

PAD5223 Public Sector Economics (3 credits)

Prerequisites: PAD5114, PAD5123

This course focuses on the role of the government in the economy. It discusses how the government affects the economy, what the government should and should not do, and why. It addresses the range of questions of why some economic activities are undertaken in the public sector, and others are in the private sector. Students will study the size and scope of the public sector in selected countries, and will explore the reasons of why there are substantial differences in government sector activities in countries around the world. While the main goal of the course is to develop students' critical thinking about the government involvement in the economy, students will study reasons for government intervention such as a market failure, public goods, government redistribution programs, and government taxation policies.

PAD5230.4 Internship in Public Administration and Management (4 Credits)

Prerequisite: PAD5114

Internship is designed to provide the student with an experiential learning opportunity by placing the individual in the office of a public official or a nonprofit organization on a part-time, volunteer basis. Students are expected to examine and analyze the functions, processes and outputs of organizations in the public or private sector.

PAD 5229.4. Applied Research Project in Public Administration and Management (4 credit)

Prerequisite: PAD5131

The project involves the development and implementation of a solution for a theoretical or design problem. Methodological knowledge and skills play a vital role both in developing and conducting applied research project. Although Master's projects generally address a practical research/design problem and its background, they can also focus specifically on an academic research question.

PAD5231.1 Thesis II: Thesis Proposal (3 Credits)

Prerequisite: PAD 5131

Under the guidance of a PA faculty member, all students are expected to submit a proposal before the end of the second semester. A proposal should make a genuine contribution to the understanding and analysis of public policy issues, management, and administration in Kazakhstan. All students shall have a "Thesis Proposal Defense" before three members of a Master's Thesis Committee constituted by the Graduate Program Director. The Thesis Committee consists of a thesis supervisor and two full-time faculty members. One member of the Committee may be a full-time faculty member from another department, when the discipline represented is relevant to the student's thesis. Once the proposal has been approved, permission to enroll in Thesis Option III Form may then be issued by the Graduate Director.

PAD5231.4 Thesis III (4 credits)

Prerequisite: PAD5231.1

Before a student may enroll for Thesis Option III a successful thesis proposal defense must be held, during which the thesis proposal is discussed by the student and all committee members. The final revised draft of the completed thesis should be submitted to the Thesis Committee Chair (thesis supervisor) at least four weeks prior to graduation. Students are expected to carefully consider the comments of their Thesis Committee. The Committee Chair (the supervisor) has final responsibility for thesis approval. The supervisor, in consultation with the student, shall set a date for the oral defense of the thesis before the Master's Thesis Committee.

PAD5255: Current Issues in Public Administration (3 credits)

This course critically reviews the contemporary burning issues (theoretical and practical) of Public Policy and Administration in Kazakhstan and elsewhere from a multidimensional point of view. The primary goal is to help students develop a deeper theoretical understanding of the contemporary administrative and policy issues and grasp the real-world implications of these issues and thereby providing them with skills to develop as successful, socially productive professionals.

PAD5256: Seminar in Public Administration (3 credits)

This course is designed to provide focused work on a selected public administration policy or program issue. Students, as directed by the professor, will study and report on the analytic, substantive, policy, and managerial dimensions of a policy issue or problem in public policy and administration. This seminar is intended to facilitate the application of concepts from the other courses in the Public policy and management.

PAD5260 Selected Issues in Public Administration and Management (3 credits)

Prerequisite: PAD5114

This course examines particular issues of public administration and management. Topics vary according to the interests of students and instructor.

PAD5262: Organizational Behavior for Public Organizations (3 credits)

PAD 5269 NGO and Non-Profit Management

Prerequisite: PAD5114

This course is designed to enhance student's understanding of the theoretical and practical aspects of managing non-governmental organizations. The aim of this course is to increase students' NGO management potential by enhancing their competence in deepening their understanding of how management decisions contribute to organizational performance. This course will advance students' understanding of NGO management and how government could work with NGOs in carrying out public policies or delivering public services. Students will develop management skills in strategic planning, project management, human resource development, outcome measurement.

PAD5999.1 Comprehensive Examination (1 credit)

Students will take an exit test that evaluates their competencies in the field of public administration.

SCHOOL OF LAW

LAW5201 Legal Method, Skills and Reasoning (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

Certain skills are required for the successful study of law. This course teaches those skills: Methods of Study, Use of Language, Critical Thinking, Legal Text Interpretation, Legal Research and Writing, and Architecture of Argument. The course uses legislation, case reports, and research assignments to achieve its multiple objectives. Writing about the law and learning the art of advocacy are taught through solution of practical problems. This course must be taken during the first semester in which a student enrolls in the LLM program.

This course may also serve as Professional English Language course. It will introduce students to the methodology of reading legal text: extending from Treaties, constitutions, legislation and cases. It also provides an overview of the structure and hierarchical form of most domestic legal systems and their relation to international law and organizations. The course also covers the basic techniques of legal research, writing and analysis. Students learn to brief cases, perhaps synthesize cases from related fields, and write, legal documents as opinions memoranda or thesis related essays. The course is based on solving and analyzing legal questions taken from different disciplines.

LAW5202 Methods of Legal Argument (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

This course primarily is a course in Logic modified for legal study. It covers the following subjects of logic: (1) Basic Logical Concepts, (2) Analyzing Arguments, (3) Language and Definitions, (4) Fallacies, (5) Categorical Propositions, (6) Analogical Reasoning, and (7) Probability. The objective is to teach students how to identify arguments from other types of statements, such as explanations, to distinguish between correct and incorrect reasoning, and to deconstruct legal texts and judicial opinions. Practical and inductive reasoning are emphasized as these are the tools of the lawyer. The course also advances the proposition that: Law is not logic, but a system of authority. The façade of stylized reasoning is pierced.

This course may also serve as Professional English Language course. It will introduce students to the methodology of reading legal text: extending from Treaties, constitutions, legislation and cases. It also provides an overview of the structure and hierarchical form of most domestic legal systems and their relation to international law and organizations. The course also covers the basic techniques of legal research, writing and analysis. Students learn to brief cases, perhaps synthesize cases from related fields, and write, legal documents as opinions memoranda or thesis related essays. The course is based on solving and analyzing legal questions taken from different disciplines.

This course should be taken during the first semester in which a student enrolls in the LLM program.

LAW5203 Public International Law (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

Public International Law is the system of law that governs the international community; thus the aim of the course is to provide a framework to understand the normative dimensions of international relations. The course introduces students to the fundamental principles and doctrines of public international law as a meaningful tool for providing order to world politics and for minimizing global conflict. The course reflects the breadth and diversity of international law by covering all main branches, including: sources; the subjects and international institutions; the law of treaties; peaceful settlement of international disputes; the use of force; territory; human rights; diplomatic and consular law and international economic law. A problem-oriented approach to various case studies is used in both lectures and discussions.

LAW5204 International Commercial Law (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

This course examines the law governing transnational commercial transactions between private parties. Since the Convention on the International Sale of Goods (CISG) is one of the most successful instruments unifying international commercial law, it is studied in depth. An introduction to the English law of international sales is also provided, in view of its common application worldwide. Course coverage also includes commercial terms of the sales agreement (Incoterms 2010), shipping contracts, insurance, financing arrangements (e.g., Documentary Credits, Standby Guarantees), and customs documentation. The laws of transport operators, including multi-modal transport, are examined, as well as any applicable treaties. Freight forwarders, mandatory carrier regimes, and the respective liabilities of the parties involved in international transport are identified. The second portion of this course examines expansion of business through: export/import, licensing and franchising, and specialized modes of foreign direct investment.

LAW5205 Private International Law (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

Private International Law is the set of legal rules that determine the jurisdiction, the applicable substantive law, as well as the recognition and enforcement of judgments in cross-border relations among individuals and legal persons. This course will mainly focus on Private International Law rules applicable to transnational business transactions. Preliminary matters such as renvoi, characterization, and historical principles guiding forum selection and applicable law are covered. There is no uniform “international convention” in this field excepting the Hague Conventions dealing with the Service Abroad of judicial and extra-judicial documents in civil matters and the Taking of Evidence Abroad in civil and commercial matters. Several “dead” Hague conventions may be examined to facilitate an understanding of the aims of unification of rules. Since there are similarities among the rules found in several jurisdictions, this course covers the subject matter from a comparative perspective. The Private International Law rules of the United States, the European Union, and the Republic of Kazakhstan serve as the foundation for the study of Private International Law principles. The CIS Treaties governing enforcement of arbitral awards within the member States are identified and discussed. Pertinent provisions of the Customs Union Agreement are tracked during the course.

LAW5206 International Commercial Arbitration (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

International Commercial Arbitration [ICA] has already turned into the preferred means of dispute resolution in international business. ICA allows parties to overcome cultural, legal, and geographical differences by appointing a private tribunal to hear and resolve a dispute in a final and efficient manner. However, the key advantage of ICA compared to litigation in domestic courts is that arbitral awards of ICA are enforceable in 144 states. This makes ICA an extremely important subject for every legal practitioner or businessman dealing with international transactions. This course will have a very practical focus. Apart from the general theory of ICA, we will focus on the practices of Kazakhstani courts with respect to enforcement of arbitral awards, we will discuss common grounds of appeal, the appeal procedure, enforcement practices, the ways of interaction between arbitral tribunals and domestic courts, and many other aspects.

LAW5207 Management and Psychology for Law (3 credits)

Prerequisites: None

The management part will provide you with an engaging and accessible introduction to the disciplines of business and management. The course introduces you to key arguments and debates that form the study of business and management. The course enables you to become knowledgeable and sensitive to the complexity of modern business organizations, both domestic and international. This course will introduce students to the ethical climate that underpins sound management.

The psychology part will provide a brief overview regarding the application of positive psychology to work settings and the psychological influences on the development and behavior of managers and organizational leaders. Increasingly business leaders are realizing that an understanding of psychology helps them unlock the potential of the “human capital”. Topics include: follower influences, nature vs. nurture in the development of leaders, relationship of personality to leadership style, behavioral decision-making biases, tactical, operational, and strategic decision-making, group think, and scenario planning and the retention and development of individual talent, and the selective departure of talent.

LAW5299 Selected Graduate Topics in Law (3 credits)

Prerequisites: None

This course provides further study into various areas of law. Topics covered will vary from semester to semester depending on expertise and interests of instructors and students' particular needs and strengths. This course may be repeated for credit if the topics are different.

LAW5701 Company Law (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

This course examines business organizations, applicable legal rules, and best practices from a comparative perspective. The company law of the State of Delaware, United Kingdom, the European Union, and the Republic of Kazakhstan serve to explore common principles pervading the object of company law across multiple legal systems. All business forms – ranging from proprietorship to the Joint Stock Company - are delineated, purposes explained, and liability consequences discussed. Tax advantages and disadvantages of each business organization are identified, though not examined in depth. The course identifies the duties and liabilities of officers and directors under laws of the legal systems identified. It also investigates the various theories of company law: Coases' Theory of the Firm, Easterbrook's Economic Structure of Corporate Law, and Company Law as a Matrix of Financial Data. Discussions of publicly listed companies include disclosure, management requirements, trading restrictions, proxy contests, and insider trading.

LAW5702 Tax Law of RK (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

Tax law is one of the most important legal courses for any successful lawyer-since taxation is present in almost every aspect of professional and business life. This course introduces students to the fundamental principles of taxation both from the theoretical and practical perspective. Specifically, students will explore the key sources of tax law in Kazakhstan - Tax Treaties, Tax Code, Transfer Pricing Legislation, relevant administrative guidance and instructions, including the most important tax returns, but will also familiarize themselves with the important case law. The course covers elements of taxes, basic rules of tax calculations for major taxes (corporate and personal income tax, value added tax, subsurface use taxation, excise and customs regime, special tax regimes) and the importance of tax considerations for business decisions and tax planning. It also focuses on the rights of taxpayer and tax authorities, rules related to tax (de-) registration, tax control procedures, tax dispute resolutions, administrative and procedural tax rules, appeal procedures at tax administration and court levels. Students should also explore and distinguish between tax evasion and tax avoidance, understand the key anti-avoidance provisions and also study the relationship of Ethics and Tax Planning

LAW5703 Business Litigation Practicum (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

This class gives students an opportunity to participate in real-life experience complex business litigation. In this simulation class, students will draft claims, answers, replies, motions, appeals, cassation appeals, and Supreme Court petitions under the Kazakh rules of procedure. The class is based on an actual rich and complex case study drawn from practice. The Practicum is intended to cover all four levels of the current Kazakh court system: the trial court, the appellate court, the cassation panel, and the Supreme Court. After drafting the relevant court documents, students will act as the attorneys and participate in scheduled trial and appellate hearings before lawyers and faculty members serving as judges. In this course students will not only develop their writing and oral advocacy skills, but will also learn the substantive law involved in the case and the rules of procedure in civil practice. The course may be conducted in the Russian and English languages or both. For example, trial court level proceedings (both the written documents and the actual hearings) may be conducted in Russian, while the appellate level litigation may be conducted in English.

LAW5704 Law of Energy and Natural Resources (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

Acknowledging the importance of energy on a global scale, and particularly to the economic development of Kazakhstan, this course introduces students to international legal principles (sovereignty, territoriality, principles of compensation, liability etc) and relevant treaties, especially the Energy Charter Treaty, that govern the interaction between states and other potential subjects of international law relevant to energy. The course explores the agreements/contracts/treaties and negotiations between states (public) and multinationals (private) in the exploration, supply of, and investment in energy resources. The course examines the role of major players in energy resources including international organizations in the energy sector, such as OPEC, the OECD, the IEA, the UN, the EU as well as NGOs. International energy investment disputes are most often resolved by arbitration as the preferred mode, with ICSID the forum of choice. International energy disputes can also be environmental and human rights disputes, litigated in international courts and national courts. While using oil, natural gas and nuclear power as examples for the course, we will look toward the future and evaluate the international legal and policy (regulatory) issues facing the development and expansion of renewable energy, such as biofuels.

LAW5705 Intellectual Property Law (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

The law of Intellectual Property is fast becoming a significant area of law due to the increasing value of company intangible assets and the World Wide Internet. It also raises the question of balance of property within the public domain and property that may be privatized with economic rights exercised by the holder. The subjects covered are: Introduction to IP, Copyright, Patents, Trademarks, Trade Secrets, Geographical Indications, Industrial Design, Patents, WIPO and other international treaties. The trend toward harmonization, protection of IP rights, and open source are consistent themes throughout the course.

LAW5706 International Banking Law (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

The International Banking Law course commences with a study of money and central banking policy. The relationship between currency and trade is identified. A country's Balance of Payments is key to understanding this function of international banking. This aspect of international banking law is properly called the "international public law of banking". The course then proceeds to identify the business activities of banks, the creation and function of bank holding companies, cross-border banking structures, and the definition and function of "international banking activity". This is properly called the international private law of banking. Payment systems, bank formation, branching, and restrictions on banking activities are discussed from a comparative view. The course then pursues financial institution regulation, risk valuation and control, insolvency, and restructuring of banks.

LAW5707 International Commercial Arbitration Practicum (3 Credits)

Prerequisites: None

This Practicum is designed to teach students the fundamental and advanced principles of International Commercial Arbitration in the context of an international sales transaction through the use of a case study. The case study is based upon an Arbitration problem released by the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot. The first phase of the Practicum is a study of the fundamental principles of International Commercial Arbitration, the UNCITRAL Model Law [amended as of 2006], the New York Convention of 1958, and the Convention on the International Sales of Goods, in preparation for the release and examination of the Vis Moot problem (usually early October). The Problem is read, analyzed, and parsed for identifying key facts and legal issues. Additional treaties may be examined depending upon the issues raised in the case study. The class is divided into teams of four students representing the Claimants and the Respondents. Each team is responsible for submission of two written pleadings on behalf of the respective parties. Subsequent to submission of the pleadings, the teams then prepare for oral argument that takes place in a simulated International Commercial Arbitration; practice sessions are held. The four best-performing students are selected to represent KIMEP at the 19th Annual Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot held in Vienna, Austria during the Spring Semester as a co-curricular (non-credit) activity. Students representing the KIMEP team are responsible for submission of written pleadings and for argumentation at the competition.

FOREWORD

The purpose of the 2015-2016 KIMEP Catalog, Part II (on-campus resources) is to provide students, faculty members, administrators and all other interested persons with the details of policies at KIMEP University. While the audience for the KIMEP Catalog, Part II (on-campus resources) is the campus community, we recognize that applicants, prospective students and many other people will read this material. This publication offers them insight into KIMEP, its policies and auxiliary services.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of KIMEP University is to develop well-educated citizens and to improve the quality of life in Kazakhstan and the Central Asian region through teaching, learning, community service and the advancement of knowledge in the fields of business administration and social sciences. To fulfill this mission, we offer graduate and undergraduate degree programs at the highest level of international educational standards in business, economics, finance, accounting, public administration, political science, international relations, law, pedagogy, journalism and mass communication to outstanding students, who will become equals to graduates of universities anywhere in the world. We seek to select students from among those who demonstrate leadership, talent and language capabilities, irrespective of their financial means, gender or ethnic origin, or any other subjective criteria.

KIMEP University has grown substantially since President Nursultan Nazarbayev established the Institute on January 14, 1992. He gave Dr. Chan Young Bang the responsibility of managing and developing this new academic institute, the first in Central Asia to be modeled on the North American system of education. By attracting local and international scholars, encouraging excellence in all operations and focusing on the long-term well-being of the members of this community, KIMEP University has grown into a vibrant , matching the high standards of leading Western academic institutions.

KIMEP has contributed enormously to the growth and development of the nation and its people by challenging young men and women to draw upon their standards of excellence and to contribute to society after graduation.

STUDENT LIFE

THE OFFICE OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

The support of students towards achieving their educational goals is the focus of the Office of Student Affairs. The office provides an environment that fosters the intellectual and personal development of students, consistent with KIMEP University's mission. The Office of Student Affairs reinforces and extends KIMEP University's influence beyond the classroom. Its services include student support services such as Recreation and Sports, Student Housing, Student Health, and Student Life.

KIMEP STUDENT ASSOCIATION (KSA)

KIMEP University is one of the few universities in the world where students are part of the decision-making process. The KIMEP Student Association (KSA) vigorously protects student interests at all levels and can influence Administration's decisions and policies. Elected student representatives sit on almost all major standing committees such as the KIMEP Budget Committee, Disciplinary Committees, Tender Committee and so on. All full-time KIMEP University students automatically become members of the KSA. Every year, in the beginning of the Fall Semester, the KSA members elect the KSA Cabinet that is headed by an elected President for a period of one year. The KSA organizes student events and activities in collaboration with the Office of Student Affairs. The KSA plays a key role in student life at KIMEP University. Any KSA member can plan an event or activity, or can launch a project with the approval of the KSA Cabinet and the Executive Director of Student Affairs. The KSA Cabinet and, in fact, all members of the KSA contribute greatly to the intellectual and personal development of the student community.

KIMEP University is an institution that fosters higher education for all students, regardless of gender, age, race, religion and physical condition. KIMEP University promotes the general welfare of students and preserves within the University an atmosphere of free discussion, inquiry and self-expression in order to appropriately organize the responsibilities of participatory governance as a joint effort between students, faculty and the administration of KIMEP University.

ASSISTANCE FOR PARENTS AND STUDENTS

The Office of Student Affairs will make every effort to provide assistance, or direct the parent or student to the proper office for assistance.

STUDENT FACILITIES

STUDENT CENTER

The Student Center provides cultural, social, leisure and extra-curricular activities for the KIMEP University community and guests. It is also home to various student activities such as: campus clubs, disco nights, job and student organizational fairs, art exhibitions and a host of other events.

GREAT HALL

The Great Hall hosts many activities, including biweekly screenings of newly released movies on a large theatre screen and theater-quality sound system run by KIMEP University. Also a variety of conferences and seminars take place in the Great Hall. Well-known people in the areas of culture, education, business, and international relations visit and give talks in the Great Hall. The theater seats 500 people.

Use of KIMEP University Facilities for Activities

The use of KIMEP University facilities for activities and events is considered as a privilege. Therefore, any conduct that in any way deliberately vandalizes or damages property; poses risks to staff, faculty or students; and, in general, is not adult or professional behavior will not be tolerated. Unacceptable behavior includes but not limited to fighting, shouting, theft or destruction of property, or any use of facilities other than their intended purposes. Under no circumstances will facilities be used for political and religious activities, such as political party and religious meetings, political and religious events, or for discussion on political and religious matters. The policy outlined in this Code of Conduct is not to restrict the freedom but only to protect KIMEP University property, members, and their guests. The following rules must be adhered to at any event held using facilities and will be strictly enforced. Students, student organizations, faculty or staff may use facilities for any event they choose. The Executive Director of Student Affairs and Office of Student Affairs must be notified at least three weeks in advance of any plans to conduct an event on campus. The administration reserves the right to refuse usage of facilities to any entity for any event.

The Director of a particular facility is the official point of contact for the particular event and remains so up until the time of the event. It is the responsibility of the Director of the particular facility to ensure that all procedures have been correctly followed. From the start of the event until the end of the event the entity hosting (hereafter "Event Host") the event is legally responsible for anything that happens. At the time of the request of use of facilities the Event Host must sign the Code of Conduct Form. These forms will identify the person or persons in charge of the event and who will be legally responsible should anything wrong occur. Ultimately, it is the responsibility of the Event Host to make sure that all participants are obeying KIMEP University rules and regulations. The administration encourages events on the campus to target KIMEP University students. Any student, staff or faculty in good standing with the university is allowed to participate in campus events. Security shall be provided for any event that occurs after normal business hours and the Head of Security will determine the appropriate security measures. Upon entrance to any event on the campus, KIMEP University security reserves the right to ask for official identification of any participant, including members and their guests. In the event, that such a request is made and the participant does not have such identification, security has the right to refuse entrance of the person. Non-KIMEP University participants must be invited by an acknowledged member in order to be admitted to KIMEP University events, and members and their guests must seek admittance into the event at the same time. Guests will not be admitted separately from their acknowledged KIMEP University host. Member will be held responsible for the behavior and conduct of their invited guests. In other words, members will be held responsible for any unacceptable or unethical behavior of their guests as if the members themselves misbehaved. This rule will be strictly enforced. The Event Host must provide a registration list for all guests, which will be used only to identify members and their accompanying guests. Prior to admittance to the event, Security must verify the identity of both the member and the guest(s) and record this information on the registration list. When Security is satisfied and sees no obvious grounds for refusal of admittance, only then will the guest be admitted. KIMEP University Security discretion and judgments in these regards are final. Only members who bring guests will be required to sign this list jointly with their accompanying guests. All other members are free to enter the event after they have been identified as a member. If there are no gross violations at the event, then the list will be returned to the Event Host following the conclusion of the event.

The policy towards events on campus that involve the consumption of alcohol is as follows:

In the event that any violation of these rules occurs and the on-duty Security is unable to manage the situation, then the Head of Security shall be contacted immediately. The Head of Security shall use all resources at his discretion to rectify the situation. In the event that such violations pose grave risks to students or KIMEP University property, and the Head of Security is convinced that the safety and security of students are in danger and he is unable to manage the situation, then the proper law enforcement authorities shall be contacted immediately. In the event that such violations are illegal by Kazakhstan law, the Head of Security has the right to contact the appropriate law enforcement authorities without further consideration. In the event of such gross violations, the Head of Security shall at the first opportunity inform the administration and shall make a formal report informing all relevant administration officials of the details of the event. These matters shall be reported to the Student Affairs Disciplinary Committee for action. The Student Affairs Disciplinary Committee will make recommendations to the Executive Director of Student Affairs, who will then pass this on to the Vice President of Academic Affairs of the KIMEP University for appropriate action.

SPORTS CENTER

The Sports Center is conveniently located on campus and has almost everything to meet the requirements of the sports activities of students, faculty members and staff. Regular weekly activities include: volleyball, indoor basketball, table tennis, and aerobics. The Sports Center regularly schedules competitions between the students and faculty. The Sports Center is equipped with a wide variety of facilities including training machines, a full-length basketball court, a weight lifting room, and special aerobics and fitness rooms. A number of showers and lockers are also available, and entry to the Sports Center is free for KIMEP University students, faculty and staff. The outdoor sports field also offers a variety of outdoor sports activities for KIMEP University students, faculty and staff.

Starting from 2014 KIMEP University offer to students the 2 credit courses of “Physical Education”. These courses include disciplines such as: pilates, fitness, cardio, yoga, aerobics, basketball, mini football, ping-pong. At the end of bachelor program students get 8 credits for 4 courses of Physical Education.

STUDENT DINING

Currently, students have multiple full-time locations where they can choose to eat, ranging from cafeteria-style breakfasts and lunches at the KIMEP University Grill; light snacks and hot and soft drinks at the Canteen, and K-store; Panini, and home-cooked local dishes at the Dormitory Canteen. All locations offer friendly service and delicious and affordable meals. These locations are popular among students who want to eat, drink, or just simply socialize between classes.

MEDICAL SERVICES

The mission of the KIMEP University Medical Center includes the provision of medical care and emergency services to KIMEP students, faculty and staff. The Medical Center is staffed by board certified physicians, psychologist, and nurses who provide primary care services including physical exams, preventive care, emergency medical care, and psychology counseling. The Medical Center office is located inside the Dormitory building on the ground floor; it has four rooms that include a waiting room, an examination room, a room for injections, and physiotherapy. The Medical Center also offers therapy services to the KIMEP community.

The professional psychologist at Counseling & Psychological Services (CPS) offers free, confidential counseling to the students and staff.

The Medical Center accepts medical certificates (form 086 and 063) and supervises the annual chest X-rays of students and employees.

The Medical Center controls medical certificates for absences of students and employees because of health-related conditions that may affect their work and require medical attention.

The Medical Center works in partnership with students, faculty and staff to provide medical information and to promote healthy lifestyles.

THE DORMITORY

Student housing is conveniently located on campus. The dormitory may accommodate 424 students. There are comfortable and clean rooms served by a polite and friendly staff. The dormitory also has: ironing room, DVD & television rooms, a hairdresser and kitchens, most of which are available for student use 24 hours a day. Dining services provides fresh dishes for breakfast, lunch and dinner. There is a computer laboratory located on the first floor with 24 computers in the room. Utilities such as cable television, telephones, electricity and water are included in the Dormitory rate. All rooms are equipped with a telephone. The Housing Department also helps students in finding off-campus housing. The Housing Department is located within the Dormitory.

The entire Dormitory, as well as the entire KIMEP University campus, offers a secure environment 24 hours a day. KIMEP University continues to renovate the dormitory.

The Dormitory, like KIMEP University itself, is a smoke free building. Violations will be subject to fines, and if appropriate, expulsion. Each Dormitory resident will be expected to abide by all non-smoking rules and regulations.

DORMITORY ACCOMODATION PAYMENT POLICY

Students, who intend to take up residence in the dormitory, must confirm their place by making a payment of at least 1/3 of the total cost for the semester by the first day of the semester. The payment must be made within 5 (five) working days after student's check-in. Payment for accommodation in the Dormitory for summer semesters should be paid 100% in correspondence with the KIMEP Tuition Fee schedule. This policy is subject to change at the University's discretion. This policy does not prohibit students in extraordinary circumstances from requesting special consideration.

There is no coed dwelling in the dormitory – all rooms are single sex.

APPLICATION

It is the responsibility of all applicants and current students who desire campus housing to apply for it by the deadline.

ASSIGNMENT OF SPACE

Assignment to the university residence hall is made without regard to race, ethnicity, gender, or religion. When possible, the assignments would take in to account preferences of the applicants. Assignment procedure as well as other housing policies and procedures are subject to change and it's applicant responsibility to learn new rules and regulations.

Please note, the dormitory space is limited and the priority is given to those eligible candidates who first made payment. (first come, first served)

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants for the dormitory space are prioritised as the following:

- ✓ Orphans and students with special needs
- ✓ 1st year Kazakhstan regional students
- ✓ 1st year international students
- ✓ Exchange students
- ✓ CAUS and other scholarship students
- ✓ Special cases (potential UGRAD failed UNT/ non-degree)

all others (including returning students, and residential assistants).

OFF-CAMPUS HOUSING PROGRAM

Students who were not accommodated in the Dormitory automatically become eligible for Off-Campus Housing Assistance. The Off-Campus Housing Assistance consists of an off-campus database which will be utilized in assisting KIMEP university staff, faculty members, international students, and local students from other regions of the country to find off-campus housing.

RESIDENTIAL ASSISTANT PROGRAM

The Dormitory Residential Assistant (RA) Program operates to support the mission of the University. The purpose of the program is to facilitate the daily operations of the dormitory and to ensure that with an increased number of students there will be an increased amount of safety. The Residential Assistants help other students with their questions about on-campus living, payment arrangements, housing policies, employment in housing, and other topics. Students should feel free to discuss any concerns with their Residential Assistant.

Each RA is assigned an area of responsibility within the dormitory and has a certain number of duties contained in the RAs job description.

Compensation for RAs includes free room in the dormitory for the length of their term of service, limited to 1-year.

Overview of Duties:

- ✓ Regular reporting of dormitory issues.
- ✓ Establishment and participation in an RA Council to facilitate and support student events.
- ✓ Support in maintenance of dormitory rules and policies.
- ✓ Reporting violations of dormitory rules and regulations.
- ✓ Helping dormitory residents with their questions about on-campus living, payment arrangements, housing policies and other topics.
- ✓ Attend and participate in the RA staff meetings.
- ✓ In case of necessity to be available to help the Student Affairs Department
- ✓ Adherence to the all University policies, rules and regulations. Failure to abide by all regulations and policies or failure to present him/herself as a positive role model may result in the termination of RA job.

Selection Process

There will be a maximum of eight RAs in the Dormitory, with two RAs per floor. A Committee from the Office of Student Affairs will select RAs. (The selection process for RA positions must be completed by the end of the academic year; usually this is done in April).

Qualification Criteria

KIMEP University students -- undergraduate and graduate students -- are welcome to apply for residence staff positions.

1. All candidates must be able to demonstrate through an interview process the personal maturity, responsibility, patience, aptitude for conflict resolution, creative thinking, enthusiasm and commitment.
2. Candidates for the RA position can apply no more than two times.
3. RAs are expected to remain in good academic standing. Candidates who are on Provisional Status, Academic Probation, Non-academic Probation, Academic Disqualification, or Non-academic Disqualification are not eligible for an RA position. Incomplete grades must be completed before the start of employment in September. If a student is placed on probation or is suspended during his/her service as a Residential Assistant, this will be grounds for termination.

4. RAs must be full-time students and maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.67 or better on an ongoing basis.
5. RAs are required to live in the residence to which they are assigned.

LEARNING SUPPORT CENTER (LSC)

The KIMEP University Learning Support Center (LSC) was established to serve a broad scope of student needs, ranging from the individually structured assistance and services to specialized, comprehensive and concentrated support systems. The KIMEP University Learning Support Center is working on developing unified promotional materials for informing students and parents to have reasonable expectations regarding their education and possible career options.

The KIMEP U LSC organizes and conducts effective Advising and Orientation programs for local and international first year / freshmen students in the beginning of fall and spring semesters. All newly admitted students are obliged to attend Advising and Orientation Program. Students will be assigned to a particular workshop program. Some of the workshops are mandatory; others are optional. The students may not register for the regular courses until enrolled in Orientation Workshop Program. After the completion the Orientation Workshops the students will be awarded the grade pass or fail.

The LSC activities are focused on the retention of students providing them with collaborative academic support, promoting the academic success of students who are at risk or on academic probation. The KIMEP University LSC developed a strong program for effective academic advising for all students. One of the mechanisms to reduce the attrition rate among students is an early-alert intervention program which is implemented through the intrusive advising and informing parents of students in academic difficulties. The LSC helps students to design a plan for success and provides the academic support that meets their individual needs. All students are invited to join the academic recovery program which is designed to help students at risk of academic failure. To achieve this goal, the program offers a number of effective study skills workshops to all interested students.

Equal Opportunities Policy

The KIMEP University is committed to provide fair and inclusive environment for all members of our diverse community and prohibits discrimination and harassment against any individual on the basis of ethnic or national origin, race, gender, age, personal beliefs, socio economic background, sexual orientation, physical or psychological disability unrelated to job or learning requirements.

This policy extends to all privileges, rights, and activities and applies to all recruitment, admission, scholarship, registration, housing, learning support policies and to all employment decisions including hiring, promotion, recruitment, termination, compensation and benefits.

The policy requires, for students, admission to the University and progression within graduate is to be determined only by personal merit and by performance. For staff, entry into employment and progression is to be determined only by personal merit and by the application/evaluation of criteria which are related to the duties and conditions of each particular position.

No student, member of staff, applicant for admission as a student, or applicant for appointment as a member of staff will be treated less favorably than another because of her or his belonging to a protected group.

If any person admitted as a student or appointed as a member of staff considers that he or she is suffering from unlawful discrimination, harassment, or victimization in her or his admission, appointment, or progression through the University because of belonging to any of the above protected groups, he or she may make a complaint, which will be dealt with through the agreed procedures for complaints or grievances or the procedures for dealing with bullying and harassment, as appropriate. The University will take whatever action may be needed to prevent, and if necessary, discipline behavior which violates this Policy.

Academic Suspension Program

The Academic Support Program is a mandatory recovery program for students with the academic suspension status. The Academic Support Program is designed to help students to regain good standing with emphasis placed on self-responsibility, proper decision-making and study skills.

Any student who does not regain good standing is offered one semester Academic Suspension option. If student decides to accept the offer, he/she must fill in an application form to register for the Academic Support Program. Student on Academic Support Program has a right to register for one 2/3 credits course and is obliged to participate in an academic recovery program during one semester. After a semester of the recovery program, a student returns to the Academic Probation status for one more semester and if is not able or willing to regain good standing will be dismissed from the KIMEP U. Academic Suspension is allowed during the whole student's history only once (at least under the certain Student ID). The Academic Recovery Program will be offered in the Fall and Spring semesters on the dates specified in the KIMEP U academic calendar. The Academic support Program is free of charge.

Academic Induction Program

An Induction Program is a mandatory program for all undergraduate students placed on AP status. The aim of an induction program is to make sure that students on AP are given all the help and guidance they need for them to succeed in their study to the required standard as soon as possible. The Program is designed to help students to monitor, build, and reflect upon their personal and academic development with the major goal to return the student on good academic standing. Students who will be linked to Induction Program will embrace the academic excellence value, and learn about learning, motivation, time management, organization, goal-setting, test-taking, and self-regulation, and apply this knowledge now and later in life. However, students on AP status may need to overcome difficulties and may need extra support or more discipline based skill training than other students. The discipline based workshops will be offered based on particular student needs. The Induction Program will be offered in the Fall and Spring semesters on the dates specified in the KIMEP U academic calendar

UNIVERSITY CODE OF BEHAVIOR

KIMEP University continues to work proactively in order to reduce the need for disciplinary action. Given the complexity of the university, however, the need for disciplinary actions occasionally do arise. It is the general policy of practice at KIMEP University to take such actions with care and to only implement formal disciplinary procedures as a last resort in resolving a difficulty that may arise. The following describes the expectations of KIMEP University regarding academic and personal code of behavior for all students, faculty and staff.

All members of this academic community enjoy the same basic freedoms, rights and responsibilities. In particular, students and faculty at KIMEP University should exercise freedoms and responsibilities related to the educational process. In order for this to happen, teachers should be free to teach, conduct research, and publish findings in the spirit of free inquiry, and to exercise academic responsibility in the classroom in examining and discussing subjects in a spirit of freedom. For students, attendance at KIMEP University is a privilege. In order to maintain the ideals of scholarship, character and commitment to excellence, KIMEP University establishes these rules and regulations to further these ideals within the university community. Students must understand that individual rights bring associated responsibilities and that individual rights must be viewed in relationship to the health, safety and welfare of the university community. Faculty, students and administrators who are found by the appropriately constituted committee(s) to have contravened any KIMEP University regulation designed to protect the above principles will have the right to due process. Due process means the confidential and impartial consideration of their case by the appropriate committee, with the right to appeal any decision taken. These rules apply to all members of the university community equally. All members of the university community are responsible for the rules enforcement. Any KIMEP University student, teacher or employee who is aware of an offense and who does not act to prevent it, if possible, or to report it to the properly constituted authorities is also considered to be guilty in connection with the offense. All are also required to give evidence of what they saw, heard or perceived by other means before the appropriate committees when a case is under consideration.

Policy on Sexual, Religious and Ethnic Harassment

It is the policy of KIMEP University to provide a safe and positive learning environment for all faculty, staff and students. To ensure such an environment, KIMEP University will not tolerate acts of sexual harassment or retaliation for filing a charge of sexual harassment against or by any employee or student. The following provides a definition of sexual harassment, any potential retaliation, and the procedures to be followed in cases related to sexual harassment. Furthermore, it is a violation of KIMEP University policy to knowingly lodge a false complaint of sexual harassment or give false information regarding such a complaint. This policy applies to all faculty, staff, and students of KIMEP University. There are many definitions of sexual harassment.

- ✓ Sexual harassment consists of interaction between individuals of the same or opposite sex that is characterized by unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature under the following conditions.
- ✓ Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly as a term or condition of an individual's employment, living conditions and/or educational evaluation.
- ✓ Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment or educational decisions affecting such individual.
- ✓ Or the conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work or academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working or educational environment.

A hostile environment concerning sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual conduct that is sufficiently severe or pervasive that it alters the conditions of education or employment and creates an environment that a reasonable person would find intimidating, hostile or offensive. The determination of whether an environment is "hostile" must be based on the circumstances and conditions in which the act has taken place. These circumstances could include the frequency of the conduct, its severity, and whether it is threatening or humiliating. Examples which may indicate a violation include but are not exclusive to a faculty member who suggests that a higher grade will be given to a student if the student submits to sexual advances; a supervisor who implicitly or explicitly threatens termination if a subordinate refuses the supervisor's sexual advances; a student who repeatedly follows an instructor around campus and sends sexually explicit messages or images to the instructor's voicemail, email or phone; demands by anyone for sexual favors, accompanied by implied or overt threats concerning one's job or letter of recommendation; subtle pressure for sexual activity; unwelcome physical contact; sexual comments and innuendos; visual displays of degrading sexual images; and physical assault and rape. These are only examples, whereas the actual definition of sexual harassment may include a variety of other interactions.

It is a violation of KIMEP University policy to engage in retaliatory acts against any employee or student who reports an incident of alleged sexual harassment, or any employee or student who testifies, assists or participates in a proceeding, investigation or hearing related to such allegation of sexual harassment. Students and employees who believe they have been retaliated against because of testifying, assisting or participating in a proceeding, investigation, or hearing relating to an allegation of sexual harassment, should meet with and seek the advice of the Chair of KIMEP University Disciplinary Committee, whose responsibilities include handling retaliation as well as sexual harassment allegations. All members of the university community enjoy the same rights and privileges, independent of their ethnicity, gender and sexual orientation, and are protected from harassment related to them. Therefore it is forbidden to pressure students or any member of the KIMEP University community for sexual favors or to insult, harass, threaten or assault any person for reason of their religion, ethnicity, gender or sexual orientation.

KIMEP University Drug and Alcohol Policy

The President's Cabinet reaffirms legislation that KIMEP University cannot sell alcoholic beverages, including beer, on campus. Based on this, a decision was made to prohibit the possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages, including beer, on campus by students, faculty, and staff.

It is also prohibited to sale or distribute of alcoholic beverages, including beer, in the Faculty and Staff Lounge. For other events on campus involving faculty, staff and guests, permission to serve alcoholic beverages must be approved in advance by the Office of the President of KIMEP University.

For further clarification, refer to the "Bylaws" of KIMEP University's Policy Regarding Alcohol and Drug Use. (See the "Student Handbook.") Cases where evidence of possession or use of these substances is discovered at "student events" on campus will automatically be referred to KIMEP University authorities and then reviewed and discussed by the Student Affairs Disciplinary Committee or KIMEP Disciplinary.

KIMEP University Gambling Policy

Gambling is prohibited on KIMEP University premises, and violators will be subject to sanctions. Based on this, it is important that KIMEP University clearly states guidelines of what is considered gambling and why it has been prohibited.

All students are expected to be familiar with and abide by KIMEP University's policies regarding gambling-related activities. The practice of illegal gambling among students has a disruptive effect and can lead to financial loss and possible retaliation by others. Students are not allowed to organize games of skill or chance where money changes hands. This includes playing cards, in which money is bet, won or lost.

For further clarification refer to the "Bylaws" of KIMEP University's Policy Regarding Gambling. (See the "Student Handbook.") Cases where there is evidence that there has been a violation of this policy will automatically be referred to our KIMEP University authorities and then reviewed and discussed by the Student Affairs Disciplinary Committee.

Smoking and Chewing Gum Policy

a) Beginning Fall 2009 smoking is prohibited throughout all of the KIMEP University campus. Also, smoking is prohibited in toilet facilities.

b) The use of chewing gum is forbidden during classes. At all other times used chewing gum must be neatly disposed of in garbage and trash cans.

Campus Cleanliness

KIMEP University seeks to keep our campus as clean as possible. The students have a responsibility with regards to their personal conduct. Students must use proper disposal places for their cigarette butts, chewing gum, and other trash. To encourage students to use proper disposal places, KIMEP University has implemented a disciplinary procedure for those who do not comply. After one written warning by the security staff or other KIMEP University personnel, the student will be referred to the KIMEP University Disciplinary Committee for further action. Considering the nature of the offense and the number of times an offender is caught, the Committee will consider the following disciplinary actions.

Cafeteria/Buffer Policy

1. Queue jumping or barging into the queue for food and beverages is forbidden.
2. Used napkins, tissues, and food wrappers must be neatly disposed of in trashcans. The customer must return glasses, plates and other utensils to the cafeteria in a timely manner.

GENERAL CONDUCT POLICY

Faculty and students are considered to be professionals and adults, whether teaching or in the process of being taught at the university level. For this reason, KIMEP University requires adult and professional behavior and conduct from everyone on campus. Examples of behavior which contravene this policy include, but are not limited to, the following:

I. Severe Behavioral Misconduct that leads to immediate Suspension and likely Dismissal

Behavioral Misconduct Includes:	Normal sanction

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

All members of the KIMEP University community are required to give true and accurate testimony during any of the procedures listed below. Giving false or misleading testimony to an officer of KIMEP University who is investigating a complaint, or to any official body that is judging a complaint may result in disciplinary action. The Student Affairs Disciplinary Committee members shall be the Executive Director of Student Affairs, one faculty member from each College/School, nominated by the Dean, and representative of Financial Aid., International Academic Mobility, Medical Center, and Dormitory. The rotating department chair position will change each semester. KSA selects a student member. If a member of this committee is involved in the disciplinary action as either the initiator or alleged violator, then he/she will be replaced by an alternative representative chosen by the Executive Director of Student affairs or by KSA in case of the student representative. In case of student disagreement with the Student Affairs Disciplinary Committee decision, Academic Affairs Department will conduct appeal Disciplinary Committee. Case of Faculty or Staff refers to the "Faculty Code of Practice" or "Employee Hand Book".

1. The Student Affairs Disciplinary Committee has the jurisdiction to investigate any non academic student violations of rules and regulations of the institution.
2. Violations of published laws; policies or rules and regulations may subject violators to appropriate disciplinary action by KIMEP University authorities. In non-academic personal behavior cases, the Chairperson of the SADC will consider the original complaint and decide if the complaint merits a hearing. If it is decided that a hearing is warranted, the Chairperson will assign the case to the - Student Affairs Disciplinary Committee. The Chairperson may also decide that the charges are without merit, or that the issue can be equitably resolved otherwise.

3. The student(s) or faculty member(s) named in the complaint will be told to attend a meeting of the SADC in most cases three days in advance. Exceptions to this policy may occur if it is deemed by the Chairperson in consultation with the President of KIMEP University that an emergency situation exists.
 4. The student(s) MUST appear at this meeting. Failure to do so without giving advance notice of extenuating circumstances is taken as an admission of guilt.
 5. The SADC will hear from both sides in the question. The person(s) facing the complaint and those bringing the complaint will then be asked to leave the room while the SADC makes a decision.
 6. A simple majority constitutes a decision. The Chairperson has the casting vote in the event of a tie.
 7. The person(s) about whom the complaint was lodged is then notified in writing within three days of the Committee decision.
 8. Upon the publication of the order, the order must be immediately obeyed. Failure to do this will open the person penalized to further disciplinary action.
 9. All appeals must be submitted to the Academic Affairs Department within one week of the decision of the SADC. Academic Affairs will conduct appeal committee. The decision of this Committee is final.
 10. Students are free to appeal to bodies outside of KIMEP University. Before doing so however, it is only fair to advise that the following circumstances may apply:
 - a) It will cease to be an internal private matter, and become a matter of public record and knowledge.
 - b) It may involve legal action in criminal or civil courts.
 - 11.

ACTIONS OF THE COMMITTEE

The SADC may recommend one of, or a combination of, the following:

Disciplinary Probation

Disciplinary probation is a formal warning to a student that their conduct is unsatisfactory. A record of the probation is placed in the student's academic file. Any further violations of the discipline code will result in automatic suspension or dismissal from KIMEP University.

Suspension

The student is told to leave KIMEP University for a period deemed appropriate for the offense. During this time the student is forbidden to enter KIMEP University buildings and premises unless they have the written express consent of the Chair of Student Affairs Disciplinary Committee.

Dismissal

The student is told to leave campus and not allowed to return to KIMEP University. Any degree candidacy or academic standing is automatically nullified. The student is forbidden to enter KIMEP University buildings and premises unless they have the written consent of the Chair of Student Affairs Disciplinary Committee.

Community Service/Work Experience

The student is asked to perform a specified number of hours of volunteer work, either at KIMEP University or in the wider community. In certain circumstances, the Committee may require that the student find regular paid employment and demonstrate a period of time working in that job.

Monetary Compensation For Damages From The Student

In cases where property has been damaged (E.g. computers, software, fixtures etc.), the Committee may offer the student an opportunity to compensate KIMEP University for the damage caused. If the value of the damages exceeds this 20%, the Committee may not levy damages. The Committee may impose either suspension or expulsion, or recommend that KIMEP University sue the student in a civil court action to recover the cost of the damages.

Course of Consultation With a Psychologist Or Psychiatrist

There are circumstances where the Committee may feel that the student should have consultation(s) with a mental-healthcare professional before the student can be reintegrated into the KIMEP University academic community. Records of such consultations are entirely confidential.

Enrollment In Specific Classes

The Committee may decide that the best solution to a problem may be knowledge itself: that a student may be directed in certain circumstances to take an academic course offered by KIMEP University.

Ban from Computer Facilities and Laboratories

Violations of the Computer and Communications Code ('Computer Lab Rules') may result in the student being banned temporarily or permanently from computer facilities and laboratories. The Director of Computer and Information Systems Center has discretion in cases of suspension of up to one month. Longer suspensions require action by the SADC.

PART II – TUITION PAYMENT POLICY and FINANCIAL AID SERVICES

TUITION PAYMENT POLICY

SPECIAL STATUS AND INDIVIDUAL PAYMENT PLAN FOR STUDENTS

FINANCIAL AID OFFICE

MISSION

TYPES OF FINANCIAL AID

TUITION PAYMENT POLICY

Payment of tuition allows a student to register for courses. No student is permitted to attend class or to take exams unless the student is officially registered for the class and the name appears on class roster produced by the Registrar office. Tuition is based on the number of credit equivalents that a student enrolls in. The total tuition is the tuition rate per credit times the number of credit equivalents.

Tuition Payment Options

KIMEP University adopted flexible system of tuition payment. At the beginning of the academic year, before any registration, students have four options for paying tuition:

1. Pay tuition at once for all credits required for the degree completion and keep current year's tuition for all years of study. Students willing to pay in advance (before the study) for the whole period of education in a lump sum should sign an Addendum Educational Service Contract in order for tuition to be fixed. Exceptions are cases of retakes and of registration for additional courses. In this cases payment shall be made according to the price, current at the moment of registration.
2. Pay tuition for the semester at the beginning of the semester.
3. Pay the semester tuition in three installments.

Tuition payments must be received by KIMEP University by the due date (please follow the Academic Calendar). As KIMEP University follows cashless operations principle and usually bank transmissions take several days, all payments should be made sufficiently in advance to allow for transmission, processing and posting while before the due date on the payment report of each student. Payments received after the due date are automatically assessed a late payment fee (regardless of when the payment was initiated). It is the students' responsibility to ensure that tuition is paid on time.

Late payment fee

KIMEP University requires all students to be current in their financial responsibilities for payment of TUITION and FEES to the University and will define "current and not owing any outstanding amount" as:

- ✓ Fully paid
- ✓ Paid or Scheduled to be paid appropriately for the second installment before the end of the 5th week and for third installment before the end of the 9th week of the semester.

Students who are registered for any classes in Fall Semester or Spring Semester and have an outstanding debt shall be fined a late payment fee.

Students will be warned at the beginning of the fifth week of the semester; the late payment fee will be charged to all who are not current and fully paid or with appropriate clearance, as per the above-listed categories.

- ✓ This same process will be allowed at the beginning of the ninth week of both the Fall and Spring Semesters when all payments for the both of those Semesters are to be finalized by individuals

Semester Payment and General Installment Payment Plan

Tuition can be paid at the beginning of the semester or in three installments throughout the semester. The first payment is due from the start of registration until the beginning of the semester and allows students to register for classes. The due dates of the first, second and third payments are listed in the Academic Calendar. There is no installment payment option for summer tuition (summer tuition is paid in advance before registration).

Non-payment of tuition

KIMEP University reserves the right to take administrative and/or legal actions to the students whose payments have not been received by the tuition due date, as indicated in the Academic Calendar or in the payment plan. Although, the University notifies students about the payment deadlines by sending a message to the student's University-provided email address and/or by phone, it is responsibility of a student to be current in payment of all financial obligations to the University.

Following administrative actions will be taken in case the student has overdue tuition balance:

1. Withdraw (administrative withdraw) from registered classes, i.e. the student won't be able to attend classes, submit assignments, and sit final examinations.
2. Official transcript won't be available to the student until the balance owed is paid in full
3. Registration for classes will be blocked until the balance owed is paid in full
4. Withdraw (administrative withdraw) from the University, if outstanding balance is not paid in full by the end of the following semester (classes end) unless the student has made satisfactory arrangements prior to this date.

Following legal actions may be taken in case the student has overdue tuition balance:

1. Student's account may be sent to a collection agency. In such circumstances, the student will be responsible for all collection costs, including, but not limited to, agency fees, attorney fees and courts, on top of the balance owed to the University.

Refunds of overpayment

When an overpayment occurs (except for graduating students), KIMEP University encourages students, parents and sponsors to leave the overpayments in the student's account and to use these funds for tuition in the subsequent semester or summer sessions. When undergraduate student applies for refund he/she should meet Learning Support Center (LSC) coordinators. The LSC shall consider each case on merit and reserves the right to inform parents

Payment Obligation

Every student must accept personal responsibility for the payment of all tuition and fees on time. Where possible, KIMEP University and other organizations will provide support to students who need financial assistance. However, it is important to recognize that financial assistance is not a contractual obligation on the part of KIMEP University or any other organization and is always subject to the availability of funds. If anticipated financial assistance is not received, students will need to find alternative means of meeting their financial obligations.

How to Pay for Education

University education is expensive, but some steps can be taken to reduce the costs

1. Explore the availability of grants and scholarships from internal and external funds.
2. Arrange for educational bank loans in order to make tuition payments on time
3. Apply for scholarships or Individual Payment Plan through Financial Aid Office.
4. Use one of the tuition payment options mentioned above
5. Find out opportunities available through part-time employment on campus (refer to KIMEP University Student Portal) or elsewhere.

SPECIAL STATUS AND INDIVIDUAL PAYMENT PLAN FOR STUDENTS

If a student cannot pay tuition according to KIMEP University's general installment payment plan, stated at Academic Calendar, due to valid reasons, such as delayed wage of parents, a bank loan, difficult financial situation, he/she can apply for temporary payment postponement and purpose Individual Payment Plan (or Special Status).

Special Status is a permission granted to student that allows postponement of the deadline of payment for a certain period of time.

In order to be considered for Special Status student must write an application, indicating Individual Payment Plan and student must provide all necessary financial or medical supporting documents that prove the reason stated in application for Individual Payment Plan. Financial Aid Office will consider and decide whether the reason based in documents submitted by student - valid or not. In cases when approval can not be granted by the Financial Aid Office the application goes to the consideration of the Vice president of Administration and Finance.

Special Status Terms

The period of time for Special status and Individual Payment Plan are determined in each particular case and depends on student's financial situation, payment history and other peculiarities. An individual payment schedule must be worked out together with a student and posted in a student's history if approved. It is student's personal responsibility to comply with Academic Calendar deadlines or with the approved Individual Payment Plan.

An Individual Payment Plan is approved for one semester and cannot be changed. Student must inform Financial Aid Office if other unexpected circumstances arise.

In case a student receives payment by agreement with a company, he/she has to inform and work on that contract with Corporate Development Department (CDD). If student receives benefit as a KIMEP University's employee, Human Resources (HR) can authenticate the discount based on benefit.

Student can divide his/her Individual Payment Plan per semester into a maximum of 5 parts.

If student fails at least one payment of his/her Individual Payment Plan:

- 1) The Individual Payment Plan will be terminated and student will be moved to the general installment payment plan offered by KIMEP University and detailed in Academic Calendar;
- 2) If student fails general installment payment plan stated in Academic Calendar, late payment fee will be charged.
- 3) Other conditions stipulated in the Catalog (i.e. non-issuance of transcript, block of further semester registration) will apply.

FINANCIAL AID OFFICE

MISSION

Office of Financial Aid works with all students who apply for KIMEP University financial assistance. It provides students with information and counseling related to financial aid application, distribution and prolongation. It organizes information sessions on a regular basis for students, parents and prospective students.

Customer care and personalized approach is our highest priority. KIMEP University assures that the process of distribution of available funds is the most transparent and deliberate. Selection criteria as well as specific conditions for each type of financial aid are clearly set and approved by the President's Cabinet.

Once in a year KIMEP University may organize an Honorary Financial Aid Award Ceremony where all awarded students and their parents together with donors are invited to share student success and kind contributions toward it.

Financial aid is designed to support academically successful students and encourage all students to be committed to excellence. KIMEP University offers different types of financial aid based on student's academic merit. These include scholarships, grants, teaching assistantships, and on-campus employment. The amount and type of scholarships or grants depends on its criteria and student's academic performance, and may take different forms. There is no need-based financial aid, but University tries to support its students in case of emergency based on documents that prove strong unfavorable situation in student's family. Need-based financial aid is subject to the decision of the KIMEP University's President's Cabinet or other Administrative body. Some students find financial support from outside the University. In some cases, financial aid is provided by current and future employers in the form of scholarships or loans. Every student is encouraged to seek such external sponsors individually.

KIMEP University strives to educate students who are academically qualified regardless of their financial means. Together with families, KIMEP University works on a variety of ways to support students through corporate donations and sponsorships, our own funds, trilateral agreements between industry and students, student work opportunities on and off campus, flexible tuition payment system, including monthly payments and individual payment plans.

KIMEP University makes no promise of scholarships, grants, financial aid to any student or individual. KIMEP University makes no connection between the distributions of any form of financial aid with payment deadlines. Thus, students and prospective students need to be prepared to pay all tuition and other fees according to established KIMEP University regulations and tuition deadlines.

All financial assistance is subject to the availability of funds.

TYPES OF FINANCIAL AID:

External Financial Assistance

Scholarships

Scholarships are a traditional form of financial aid. Corporations, individual donors, and other sponsors give money to KIMEP University specifically designated for graduate or undergraduate students in the form of tuition subsidies. The Corporate Development Department solicits financial sponsorship and support from national and international donor organizations and companies that may vary from year to year. Grants are awarded based on the verified financial need of an applicant as well as academic standing.

Support from the Ministry of Education and Science of RK

The KIMEP University Corporate Development department administers the state support as well as other types of the outside support. Currently, the Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Kazakhstan provides some financial assistance through the Presidential Stipend and through grants to the university.

The Presidential Stipend is an annual award established by the decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan. The program provides a monthly stipend in cash to 10 undergraduate students of the 3rd and 4th years of study. The recipients are selected on a competitive basis in accordance with the criteria established by the Ministry. They include the highest academic performance and participation in extra-curriculum activities, scientific and research work that are supported by the appropriate documentation, international and Republic-level Olympiads and academic competitions, authorship of innovations, scientific articles or original pieces of art, festivals, as well as social, cultural and sport activities at the university.

Candidates should insure that the Corporate Development department has documentation of all activities that may be considered in the selection process for the Presidential Stipend.

Internal Financial Assistance

Focusing on individual student's academic merit achievements, KIMEP University strategy is to lift up the academic quality of our students to new level and encourage student community of KIMEP University to be committed to excellence. To diversify student community, KIMEP University offers financial assistance to a wide range of students including newly admitted and current undergraduate students, graduate (except Ex-MBA) students, students from Kazakhstan and other countries.

Financial assistance is merit-based and for KIMEP University's students only. In order to be awarded student have to have full-time academic load, which is the registration minimum for 4 courses or 12 credits for Bachelors and 3 courses or 9 credits for Masters in Fall and Spring semesters.

Students who submit invalid or falsified documents or information will be disqualified from receiving Scholarships or financial aid. In addition, disciplinary, legal and/or administrative actions may be taken against those who have submitted misleading documentation.

Financial assistance can be considered for renewal as long as the student maintains eligibility. Continuation of financial assistance cannot be considered if the student no longer meets eligibility criteria. In some situations Financial Aid Office may request additional or updated documentation. Failure to provide the requested documents may result in a loss of financial assistance.

Financial Aid does not cover any withdrawn or retaken courses, any other fees for which the student is liable for: student's fees, late payment fees, late registration fees and other. Financial aid is not transferable and has no cash value. A student awarded external financial aid can receive KIMEP University's financial aid that can be up to the remaining amount of tuition that the student has to pay in the particular semester or Academic Year.

A student cannot be awarded a scholarship or grant and financial aid from internal funds simultaneously; therefore he/she will be given the most suitable one. A student cannot receive financial aid that exceeds the total amount of tuition for a semester or academic year. Awarded financial aid will be deposited to the student's account and covers tuition.

For undergraduate students any scholarship awarded for completion of a degree is limited to the maximum of 4 consecutive academic years.

Applying for Financial Aid

Students apply for financial assistance by completing the online application for Financial Aid at official web site of KIMEP University and submitting the application form with a set of documents (if required) to the Financial Aid Office. Based on approved eligibility criteria and/or documents provided, the Financial Aid Office determines students' eligibility for consideration for Financial Aid. Financial aid could be provided with duration from one semester only to the whole period of study for degree completion (based on the type and terms of scholarship/grant/financial aid). All applications shall be made before official deadlines. Late applications will not be considered.

Applying students are encouraged to present all required documents within the set deadline to ensure fair and timely distribution of the aid. KIMEP University reserves the right not to consider any applications with an incomplete list of documents or submitted after the deadline. Students beginning study at KIMEP University who faced personal/family emergency situation and wish to be considered for certain financial assistance has to provide detailed information on their personal/family's situation and/or prove inability to pay the tuition. Such information consists of size of the family, number of siblings, and salary confirmation documents of parents, and other financial data. Students who are married will be considered as a separate family and need to provide financial documents for their spouses and themselves only.

Eligibility Criteria

All students receiving financial aid will be reviewed each semester for continued eligibility, based on Grade Point Average (GPA). Students who do not meet the criteria set for their award standard will have Financial Aid removed for that semester. They are welcome to submit an application again at the end of the next semester if the GPA has met the eligibility criteria.

Once financial aid is awarded, the recipients will have corresponding records on their student payment account. Scholarship/grant recipients need to come to Financial Aid Office and pick up an Awarding Letter as well as prolongation details (if applicable). Awarded students (scholarships/grants/financial aid) have to maintain full-time status (minimum 4 courses for undergraduate students, and 3 courses for graduate students during Fall and Spring semesters).

Competent Authority

Financial Aid has a policy-making body represented by the KIMEP University President's Cabinet. Approved eligibility criteria can be changed according to the decision of the Admission and Scholarship Committee / Academic Council /President's Cabinet. The distribution of financial aid is made by the President's Cabinet.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Statement of Purpose

The main goal of the Executive Education Center (EEC) is encouraging lifelong learning and providing inspiring, innovative and effective personal and professional development opportunities.

The Center accomplishes its purpose by offering courses, trainings, seminars, workshops, forums and conferences catered to a wide range of interests.

Through the Center's commitment to collaboration with business, government and non-profit sectors, we have been able to contribute to many facets of Kazakhstani society and have consistently provided relevant and practical skills and knowledge. We serve the education needs of learners in Almaty and beyond via both traditional face-to-face interaction and online instruction. With over two thousand registrations annually, our clients range from university students, enhancing leadership skills, to government leaders and business exploring issues of national interest.

Mission

The mission of the Center is to provide cost effective, accessible, quality and recognized career enhancing trainings and courses for students and employees alike.

The EEC provides flexible access for working professionals throughout Central Asia to obtain up-to-date skills and business knowledge in economics, management, finance, accounting and other related fields and for both individuals and companies, a wide range of language training is offered. In today's global and rapidly changing business environment there is only one source of long-term competitive advantage: human capital. Businesses will succeed through the efforts, knowledge and skills of their employees. Executive Education Center at KIMEP University helps individuals and organizations develop and sustain this competitive advantage.

Overview

Since 1994, the Executive Education Center (EEC) at KIMEP University¹ has offered dynamic programs that allow professionals to further upgrade their skills and gain a competitive edge in the labor market. As part of the University commitment to lifelong learning, the EEC addresses this for further skill development through two separate tracks. First, it provides a range of opportunities for middle managers and experienced professionals to come to KIMEP University and receive focused training in a flexible format that suits their schedules. This wide array of offerings includes a market-leading Executive MBA, professional development programs, international certifications and regular roundtables on issues facing the Kazakhstani business community.

EEC also works closely with partners to ensure that they have access to programs that are specifically tailored to meet their particular needs. This makes EEC an excellent platform for business companies, NGOs and Governmental bodies wishing to acquire the necessary tools and global knowledge to adapt to meet rapidly changing market opportunities.

For example, from 2005 - 2006, EEC collaborated with the Eurasia Foundation and USAID to establish a Leadership Learning Center for American Energy Services, a global leader in the production of industrial valves. Using facilities provided by the Kazakh-American Free University in Ust-Kamenogorsk, KIMEP trained 650 mid to senior level managers. The project was so successful that the center has become a permanent institution, continuing to offer targeted trainings and opportunities for professional development. It is just one example of how EEC serves Kazakhstan by supporting professional capacity building and providing various forums for the exchange of ideas and information.

A similar success story is demonstrated by the launch of the International Institute of Banking (IIB) in 1994, the first major initiative of EEC funded by USAID. As the only USAID banking training project that to have ever become self-sustainable, eventually training 2,200 bankers during its initial two-year run. The success of IIB encouraged KIMEP to engage in further outreach to the financial sector, and many successful programs followed. All told, EEC trained 4,014 Kazakhstani bankers since 1994, along with an additional 192 from other parts of the CIS, giving them access to intensive training sessions led by experienced Western financial professionals. Without a doubt, the experience these professionals gained at EEC has directly contributed to the reform and explosive growth of Kazakhstan's banking sector over the last twenty years, which has transformed Almaty into a regional hub for financial services.

EEC has also made a considerable contribution to the development of Kazakhstan's booming oil and gas industry. In 1996, the Natural Resource Executive Management Training Program (NREMTP) was established, funded by the Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA) and implemented jointly by KIMEP and USAID. , More than 1,000 professionals in the oil, gas, and mining sectors have participated in trainings offered by KIMEP, teaching them essential skills like total quality management, human resources development, petroleum project evaluation and contract law for natural resource companies. More than 80 companies were involved in this project, ensuring that these skills were shared throughout the industry.

In these projects and many others, EEC has provided targeted training to more than 12,200 professionals from 193 companies during its history. This includes 34 banks, nine government departments, and a variety of UN agencies and NGOs.

¹ This academic division was known as the College of Continuing Education before becoming the Executive Education Center in the Fall of 2011. Up to 2002, it was know as KIMEP Continuing Education Department.

EEC also plays a critical role in delivering Executive MBA Program at KIMEP University. Following an initial program designed specifically for Food Master that finished in 2004, EEC helped design an open Executive MBA that accepts any mid-level manager with at least five years' experience. This program began in 2007. Based on the success of the program, KIMEP expanded its offering, beginning a new Russian-language Executive MBA in 2010 that uses a unique distance learning platform for its students. EEC has been recognized by Almaty's international business community for its efforts in developing the program. In 2009, during Kazakhstan's first Lawyers, Academics and Consultants Awards, both MBA and Executive MBA programs were recognized as the best in Kazakhstan.

EEC also benefits the local business community through several free forums. The KIMEP HR Club, established in 2009, is a bimonthly roundtable that serves as a discussion forum and networking platform for HR professionals. In 2010, KIMEP delivered its first International Human Resources Conference, focusing on "Training for Superior Results." There were 78 participants from 23 different companies in Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, and Russia. KIMEP University Marketing Club "Navigator" serves a role for marketing similar to the HR club.

Through EEC, KIMEP University is able to make a sustained improvement in the professional skills base of the Republic. Anyone at any stage of their career can access this resource to gain additional qualifications, benefiting themselves, their companies and the community at large. KIMEP EEC has established key partnerships with some of the largest professional service Almaty companies to deliver other international professional qualifications, including PwC, Grata law Firm and ATF Bank, which will push EEC into the forefront of executive education, making it an invaluable resource for the Republic of Kazakhstan.

EEC Programs Accreditation

The Executive Education Center's Executive MBA program has been awarded full, Level 3 international accreditation by the Asian Forum on Business Education (AFBE). This means that the program is recognized by the AFBE with regard to the quality of its mission and overall policies; curriculum; assessment standards; faculty (teaching staff); and other factors including admissions procedures and student support.

The accreditation also reflects the AFBE's belief that the Executive MBA program provides valuable, relevant support for Central Asia's business community. Leading companies look to the Executive MBA program as an important resource in honing the abilities of their top managers.

Executive MBA program was accredited by AQAAA (The Agency for Quality Assurance and Accreditation Austria).

The accreditation received by the Executive MBA program is another milestone in KIMEP University's quest to offer truly world-class education.

The Executive MBA, Mini MBA Programs have also been accredited for five years by the German agency FIBAA, the Foundation for International Business Administration accreditation.

The purpose of FIBAA is to promote quality and transparency in education and science by awarding quality certificates to educational programs and institutions in the areas of higher education and continued professional development, according to the organization's website.

FIBAA is internationally networked and works closely within the framework of international bodies to enhance the comparability of quality standards and quality management procedures.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND CERTIFICATE PROGRAM (PDCP)

Statement of Purpose

The Professional Development and Certificate Program provide learning and networking opportunities for working professionals. In operation since 1994 it services both individuals and organizations alike. A full program of courses, trainings and workshops are regularly scheduled and customized trainings developed on demand. The program offers 'stand alone' and integrated series of courses, seminars and trainings. Participants can gain knowledge of the fundamentals and then, if they choose, pursue an advanced understanding of topics including management, accounting and finance, marketing and sales, human resource management, information technologies, and business administration. New offerings and learning opportunities are introduced every year.

Mission

The mission of the Professional Development and Certificate Program is to deliver high quality learning opportunities to meet customer needs and to support the viability of Central Asia business community. The program strives to develop and offer opportunities that:

- Are relevant to the current business environment.
- Provide excellent value and a sound investment in career enhancement and human capital.
- Instill knowledge and skills that are immediately applicable in the workplace.
- Are delivered at times and by means accessible to any professional.

Program Offering

Courses and trainings are offered in a variety of different learning modes to maximize accessibility:

- Short-term (2-5 days) intensive trainings are regularly scheduled throughout the week.
- Meeting weeknights and on the weekend, are scheduled over longer periods of study, usually lasting 4-6 weeks.
- Hybrid trainings and courses, combining face-to-face and online learning are also offered.
- Some training is also provided via self-study with a trainer available for consultation as needed.

Participants in this program can earn various levels of certification including:

- "Certificate of Completion": This is a certificate confirming participation in a specific course.
- "Certificate of Specialization": Students wishing to pursue one field of study may earn a certificate of specialization by successfully completing 4 courses.
- 'Mini MBA Professional Diploma': This program is developed for business managers wishing to gain enhanced skills and knowledge in the field of Business Administration. They may choose to complete 6 courses composed of 12 modules from the list in major areas: Finance and Accounting, Management, Marketing and Sales; Human Resource Management; Administrative and Secretarial Skills; Leadership.

The duration or number of contact hours/days of Mini MBA as well as other short-term trainings and the methods of student evaluation vary according to the learning objectives, the nature of the course content and the mode of delivery.

Language of presentations of all PDCP programs is Russian. Trainings in English or Kazakh are upon the client request.

Teaching techniques utilized in all PDCP (including Mini MBA) programs differ from traditional methods in the local training market. They consider the specific needs and goals of adult training. An interactive approach is utilized to involve all participants in the learning process. Discussions and teamwork also promote knowledge sharing and networking.

PDCP utilize its wide network of adjunct faculty drawn from both the corporate and academic world to deliver its training. Their skills and knowledge make training practical and applicable to every day business.

Mini MBA Program Accreditation

Course Descriptions:

Accounting/Finance Principles

In the broadest sense, financial and accounting managers are responsible for an organization’s financial performance: cash management (present), reporting (history) and financial strategy (future) to keep shareholders/investors informed about the business. This course provides trainees with skills and knowledge to support accounting/finance systems development for investors to evaluate and make investment decisions.

Managerial/Cost Accounting

This course covers interpretation, use, and analysis of cost data for management planning, coordination and control. It includes the application of theories and concepts underlying cost accounting and budgeting through case-study analysis related to real business activities. Course topics also include job order costing, spoilage standard cost and capital budgeting.

Corporate Finance

The course introduces the fundamentals of finance. It considers theories and tools used to address modern corporate problems and issues in realistic settings. Specific topics covered include short-term financial management, capital structure theory and practice, dividend policy, and mergers and acquisitions.

Financial Statements: How to Develop, Read and Interpret

This course has been specifically designed for the practicing manager and those with managerial aspirations. It includes teacher-led instruction, self-study as well as communication between attendees and instructors through many exercises.

Financial statements communicate important facts about an organization. Users of financial statements rely on these facts to make decisions that affect the well-being of businesses and the general health of the economy. Therefore, it is essential that financial statements are both reliable and useful for decision-making. Useful accounting and financial data is information that makes managers more effective - it makes managers better decision makers.

International Financial Reporting System

This course is designed to explore the role of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) for organizations competing in increasingly global economies. It entails the convergence of difference countries' accounting systems, differences between GAAP and IFRS, and ways of transformation/transition to internationally recognized reporting for local companies. Course learning materials include case studies and assignments that require analysis and that promote discussion.

Taxation and VAT

This course instils the skills and knowledge needed to comply with the taxation principles and practices of local laws and international standards. Attendees will develop an understanding of the key underlying concepts that run through the many specific provisions of the tax law and how income tax considerations interact with business decisions. The course is designed for chief accountants, accountants, managers of accounting and finance departments, and financial controllers (tax inspectors and tax police).

Financial Performance Analysis

This course provides attendees with tools and skills to evaluate the company's financial condition. Financial statements, ratio analysis and their interpretation are critical to making the right managerial decisions. For any business to survive in a competitive and challenging environment it must attract external financial support: via issuing new stocks, applying for bank loans or direct investments. Regular analysis of financial performance indicators will support prompt preventive measures to keep the company attractive for investors.

Financial Analysis Using Excel

This course introduces participants to various MS Excel tools of financial analysis that can be used in getting insight into real problems and making business decisions.

It continues with a study of IT principles and how they apply to financial analysis through the use of MS Excel worksheets, graphs, and step-by-step examples. Participants will learn to perform financial analysis and conduct research.

Risk Management

This course is designed to assess, prevent (mitigate when possible), monitor and control risks. In some cases acceptable risk might approach zero. Risks may also encompass natural catastrophe/force major as well as deliberate actions from other parties. Risk management strategy provides participants with skills and knowledge to prevent, avoid and transfer risks to reduce their negative impact and/or measure them to analyse their actual consequences on the business. Financial risk management focuses on risks to be managed by using existing financial instruments.

Financial Accounting

This course presents the fundamental concepts and techniques of the basic accounting system, including accounting for a complete cycle of business activities. It also reviews the basic principles of internal control and financial statements: assets, current liabilities, payroll accounting, as well as an overview of revenue and expense issues.

Budgeting, Planning and Controlling

This course enables participants to analyse the company's financial stability and to develop the planning and budgeting of the company's operational and financial activities. The tools and skills introduced in the sessions will support budgeting and forecasting of operating cash flows, pro-forma income statement and balance sheet development

Auditing

This course is designed for members of the Board of Directors, finance directors, managers and internal auditors. The main focus of the course is on the auditor's decision-making process. As well, the course discusses and analyses the key issues of internal control functions and their importance from the auditor's standpoint to support and improve the efficiency and profitability of the organization.

Project Management

Project management has become one of the most effective and widely accepted tools of business operation management. This course helps participants understand modern techniques and technologies used in project management: developing a project organizational chart, monitoring and controlling of the project implementation processes/stages and reporting. As well, the course provides techniques for team building and team management, and recognizes the impact of leadership and motivation on the successful implementation project goals.

Fundamentals of Marketing

The purpose of this course is to introduce the general concepts of marketing, its business function and the practices of modern marketing. Attendees will learn how to define a market segment and how to advertise and promote products and services for chosen target segments. Case studies will be considered and discussed.

Effective Business Communication

This course introduces the role of communication in business relations; basic elements of the communication process; and the components of successful communication. It also explores the role of media, advertising and PR.

Marketing Research

This course introduces attendees to the basics of marketing research such as planning and conducting marketing research, interviewing techniques, data analysis, drawing reliable conclusions and the presentations of results.

Sales from Start to Finish

Negotiation has become an important aspect of selling. Salespeople have to work out satisfactory solutions to customers' demands and concerns to reach a mutually acceptable agreement. Modern sales should be cooperation oriented, result in value-added, geared toward problem solving, and should concentrate on building relationships with buyers. The course will provide participants with win-win negotiation skills development.

Conflict and Stress Management

Introducing conflict as an ordinary event in any system, the course uses generated contradictions as its engine for further development. On the one hand, conflict can draw attention to necessary change. On the other hand, conflict can act as a driver for; building better relationships between groups; developing more precise organizational structures; and strengthening organizational behaviour integrity. Attendees will understand how dangerous unrecognised conflicts can be and learn to develop systems of conflict identification, assessment, and resolution. Case studies offered for discussions have been tailored to real relationships that arise in every day business situations.

Strategic Marketing

This course introduces key marketing strategies and their implementation. The main objectives of the course are to:

- Study specifics of strategic marketing.
- Learn key marketing strategies.
- Analyse different methods of estimating a product's and company's competitiveness.
- Analyse market opportunities.
- Discuss different approaches to marketing planning.

Services Marketing

This is an advanced course specifically designed to explore issues relevant to marketing services. Attendees are expected to enter the course with some knowledge of current marketing practice and theory. The course will enable participants to analyse marketing issues, develop marketing solutions, design and implement new creative ideas and apply marketing principles to a broad range of situations.

Making Successful Presentations

This course is designed for anyone whose position requires them to introduce, promote, and sell their ideas, products and services in a convincing manner. Presentation structure, development, applied multimedia and other techniques will be experienced. Videotaping and case studies will be included in the course.

Effective Negotiation Skills

This course is designed to develop and enhance negotiation skills and strategies to successfully communicate and deal with counterparts in the short and long term. It provides practical skills in communicating with people and managing negotiations. Participants will develop a comprehension of the processes and factors that affect negotiations.

Brand Management

This course will explain the differences between brand and trademark, and provide participants with the skills and knowledge to create and evaluate brands. Case studies tailored to local conditions will support a better understanding and competence in building and managing brands and their equity. The course is designed for those who are responsible for promoting a product, service and company.

Essential Management Skills

This course is a study of key approaches in organizational management. It introduces the essential issues of modern business management such as planning, organization design, organizational change, leadership, motivation, group dynamics, etc. Theory will be complimented by a number of cases tailored to actual business thus supporting a better understanding of the topic.

Fundamentals of Human Resource Management

The objective of this course is to provide practical skills and general knowledge to deal with human resource issues within an organization. At the same time the topic covers the current discourse and trends related to human resource management at both the strategic and international level and provides easy access to these issues for both managers and non-experts.

Total Quality Management (TQM)

This course introduces modern techniques of operations management based on TQM principles, including the development of systems necessary to realize managerial goals and objectives. The course objective is to provide attendees with practical skills and knowledge to design and build Quality Management and Quality Assurance systems and to conduct external and internal quality audits. TQM principles and procedures as well as a variety of TQM document samples will support organization TQM monitoring in compliance with ISO standards.

Team Building

Successful teamwork can result in the group's performance being greater than the sum of the individual team member's performances. What differentiates a 'team' from other groups is the successful interaction and cooperation between team members who share and coordinate their experiences, skills, knowledge corporate values and aspirations.

Legal and Regulatory Issues on Tenders

This course is designed for professionals who represent state organizations, (any legal entities with more than 50% of their shares belonging to the government and those affiliated with legal entities) and who deal with the organization of tenders. The course covers the major issues related to tenders: legislation and regulations; amendments and changes to the "Law on Tenders"; tender documentation development procedures/maintenance/security and archiving. As well, different types of tender will be discussed: open/closed competition; one source tender; and tender via open merchant exchange.

Finance and Accounting for Non -Financial Managers

This course provides an introduction to finance and accounting principles as well as managerial accounting basics in compliance with International Financial Reporting System standards. The course is designed for accountant/finance freshmen, line managers and those interested in the use of accounting and finance data to enhance decision making. The objective of the course is to instil an understanding of accounting methodologies, procedures; balance sheets; income and cash flow statement development and interpretation and its use to analyse financial performance.

Investment Analysis

The purpose of this course is to introduce investment alternatives that are available today and develop an approach to analyse and attract investments. The course involves both theory and application. The course discusses available investment instruments and considers the purpose and operation of capital markets around the world. The theoretical part details tools of evaluating current investments and future opportunities to develop a portfolio of investments that will satisfy risk-return objectives.

Small Business and Entrepreneurship

This course provides an introduction to entrepreneurship, including an understanding of legal aspects of small business and entrepreneurship, the process of creating and evaluating opportunities for new ventures, the nature and significance of business plans, the skills and resources required for starting and managing new ventures, the challenges faced by new ventures and how to overcome them, and the characteristics of an entrepreneur.

Database Maintenance (Microsoft Access)

This course provides the skills and knowledge to develop file organization techniques, data normalization and security, and to distribute information using Microsoft Access. The course is designed for computer literate users who need to enhance/upgrade their ability to use Microsoft Access applications.

Advanced EXCEL

The objective of this course is to provide attendees with the most effective means of data processing, a study of relational calculus, data security and integrity, and specific commercial database development techniques using Microsoft Excel applications. The course is designed for computer literate users who need to enhance their skills and knowledge in solving complicated IT issues when working with documents. Excel instruments and functions will be developed using practical exercises.

MS Project

This course is designed to train attendees to be able to effectively implement projects. Attendees will learn to use MS Project programs to develop project plans and monitor/manager their implementation. During sessions participants will learn to use software to optimise project implementation processes and procedures. The course is designed for project managers, IT support people, and those who are interested in automating project management processes.

Performance Appraisal and Motivation

This course is designed to provide attendees with practical and psychologically sound strategies to improve the attitude and behaviour of both staff and manager. This will foster a comfortable working environment characterized by open and effective communication. Participants will:

- Learn how to encourage subordinates to undertake new tasks and face challenges.
- Gain 5 step motivation enhancement tools.
- Learn to make risk weighed decisions and become more creative.

RK Labour Code and Regulations

The purpose of this course is to study the Labour Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan in order to manage labour relationships with relation to labour security, the protection of employer and employee rights and the maintenance and monitoring of medical and health security and insurance. The course material covers regulations and procedures to comply laws to improve labour relationships in the organization. Case studies are used to gain practical skills and knowledge to help students understand how to apply regulatory issues to real working environments.

HR Document Maintenance/Monitoring and Legal Support

A sound document filing/archiving policy and procedures is mandatory for any organization. HR professionals understand that the huge volume of company paperwork to be organized daily can become very difficult to manage. If an important document is stored in the wrong place, and/or unintentionally destroyed/lost it may result in the company facing a lawsuit.

This course will teach attendees how to handle and store documentation in today's electronic era. This includes current requirements to secure specific e-mail as legal documents; and procedures to protect an organization in the emerging environment of E-Risk Management.

Skills for Success: Guide for Secretaries and Administrative Assistants

The course is designed for practicing administrative assistants, secretaries, and office managers who wish to enhance their skills and knowledge to provide better customer care. The course covers such topics as business communication/correspondence, listening, time management, self-organization, conflict and stress management and utilizes learning tools such as group discussions, case studies and role games.

Customer Service

Want to learn how to sell more? How to provide better customer service? How to achieve competitive advantage? The answer is to meet your customers' needs... to satisfy their expectations by offering them attractive services. This course teaches communication and negotiation skills and how to effectively apply them when serving clients. In the course, participants will experience techniques and psychological tools of communication through case study/role play analysis and discussions. Participants will learn to build constructive cooperation with their counterpart.

Time Management

Effective leaders understand the real value of time. It is the scarcest resource necessary to achieve organizational goals. Money can be borrowed and people can be hired. As for time, it cannot be bought, sold or borrowed. This course is designed to teach attendees effective time management techniques. The course provides attendees with the skills and tools of planning, organizing and effectively utilizing their time.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM (LDP)

Statement of Purpose

The KIMEP Leadership Development Program (LDP) was established in 2010, as part of an innovative curriculum redesign, putting a greater emphasis on personal leadership awareness and skills development.

The purpose of the Leadership Development Program is to help KIMEP students develop the necessary skills to assume key positions in Kazakhstani business and government. It focuses on the practical application of leadership skills, ending in a supervised internship. Those students that fulfill all requirements of the Program receive a Special Certificate in Leadership.

The Program brings an academic focus to the study and development of leadership by:

- Teaching - providing students with opportunities to learn about leadership frameworks, challenges, skills and development practices.
- Research - partnering with faculty on research relating to leadership for use by the academic and business communities.
- Outreach - assembling recognized leaders and experts to stimulate thinking and identify leadership development needs.

The key methodology of the Leadership Development Program is the action learning based on the feedback of both participating companies and students. Such program is very difficult to execute, requiring a new level of integration between traditional faculty, career services, and corporate executives.

Program Description

Students start by learning theory and business fundamentals in the classroom. Like most top business schools, KIMEP faculty extensively employs the case study methodology to help students understand the theory in the context of a business problem. Professors encourage debate of ideas and issues, giving students the chance to benefit from the wealth of experience and perspectives that diverse classmates bring.

Through discussions with industry experts and company visits, the realities of executing classroom theory are brought to life. Meaningful dialogue with active business leaders helps students appreciate how real-world executives make decisions in a fast-moving, competitive environment with imperfect information.

However, unlike other top business schools, the learning continues into the practical realm. To fulfill the Program requirements, students participate in a real-world project for a company. With a small team of classmates and a mentor (typically a senior industry executive), students compete against other teams to develop a business case. It gives the students the chance to apply the skills they have learned in the classroom and work as part of a small team focused on solving a current business problem for a top company.

Here are the examples of some projects realized within the Program so far:

- The ICT Development Index in Kazakhstan: The Focus on Business Environment (joint project with Microsoft Kazakhstan).
- Innovation Management: A Critical Analysis of the Government Initiatives to Foster Innovation in Kazakhstan (joint project with Microsoft Kazakhstan).
- Islamic Banking in the Republic of Kazakhstan: The Al Hilal Bank Market Entry Challenges (joint project with Al Hilal Bank Kazakhstan).
- Leadership of the Kazakhstan Banking System in the CIS: Myth or Reality? (joint project with ICC Business Advisors).
- New methods and tools to promote products on the market: Winston case (project for JTI Kazakhstan Company).
- Innovation Incubator (LDP students initiative project on launching business start-ups)

This is the opportunity for the LDP students to demonstrate their mastery of innovation, marketing, finance, strategy, operations, project management, business communications, and other management disciplines. Furthermore, the Program provides an exclusive opportunity for students to work closely with each other as well as senior executives from leading organizations in a real-world business context.

Language of instruction

KIMEP faculty members teaching at Leadership Development Program conduct the academic part of the class session in English. However, the format of the program is designed in a way to attract, additionally to academic hours, business leaders from different sectors to share their professional experience with students. Due to the specifics of the Kazakhstani market, the guest speakers may speak either in English or Russian language at their discretion during guest lectures given at the program.

CONFERENCES, CLUBS AND WORKSHOPS

The Executive Education Center supports the business community by introducing new alternative learning and networking opportunities. These take many forms and can be designed to serve audiences ranging from the general community to specific industries or business functions.

EEC along with organizing its own conferences, seminars and benchmark testing of employees, helps to organize KIMEP University-wide seminars, conferences, symposiums both in-house and virtually, hosts HR and Marketing Clubs. EEC also cooperates closely with other KIMEP University Colleges and Units in hosting different events and offers various trainings for outside clients.

KIMEP HR Club

Executive Education Center at KIMEP University continues to create learning and networking opportunities that will benefit working professionals of Kazakhstan. Created in 2009 in the Executive Education Center, the KIMEP HR Club (Forum) provides HR Directors and other HR representatives from the KIMEP University EEC partner companies with the opportunity to discuss the challenges they are facing in their organizations and to collectively seek solutions. Within the three years of its active work the Forum has grown professionally and is considered one of the best platforms for the HRM in the area. The Forum offers a series of "workshops" designed for people working in Human Resources. The workshops provide the HR representatives with practical solutions and modern instruments and have wide media coverage. Apart from main target, it also gathers together experienced HR coaches, business consultants, trainers and private business owners. HR Club members meet every second month of the year, ultimately, as a result of the Forum discussions, each year the EEC organizes International HR conferences for both members and non-members of the Club.

Participants come from different companies of Kazakhstan, Russia and Kyrgyzstan. The practical role of the HR Forum meetings cannot be overestimated as the HR Forum serves as a strong networking point for local and international HR specialists.

International KIMEP HR Conferences

The International HR Conferences in KIMEP “HRM Architecture Building” with a slogan “Train for superior results” are successfully held every year at KIMEP University campus. The target audience is executives, governmental bodies, mid-managers, HR directors of business companies, HR practitioners, consultants, educators, Business School students and graduates from different regions of Kazakhstan and invited guests from Russia and Kyrgyzstan. Supporters of KIMEP HR Conferences are Almaty Akimat, guests from Russia, Kyrgyzstan and International Corporations executives. KIMEP Executive Education Center invites outstanding key speakers from the area each year. Speakers’ key messages are: “any organization shall be aware of its own potential for developing talents, and be professional in identifying, motivating and retaining those”. The professional audience has a brilliant opportunity to familiarize themselves with the latest trends in business education, to compare the Kazakhstani trends with the Russian Federation trends and look into the global achievements in the field. Finally, they have tools and new ideas in HRM drawn from the conference to apply those in their organizations to achieve ever-higher results. The conference participants also have a great opportunity to participate in Educational Exhibitions.

KIMEP Marketing Club “Navigator”

The mission of the KIMEP EEC’s Marketing Club “Navigator” is to build a platform for working professionals to enhance their knowledge and understanding of modern marketing practices and important professional skills. We also strive to provide the Club members with the exclusive opportunity to network with representatives from the most distinguished companies of Almaty city and the chance to interact socially with their peers.

According to the mission of the Marketing Club, the major focus of its activities is: on the marketing issues, including direct marketing, online marketing, and many others. More importantly, the Club participants are offered to speak out on different topics and the audience is encouraged to actively discuss the practical significance of these issues and challenges that they pose towards local marketers, ways to adjust them to local business environment. In general, the practical implication of the Club sessions is difficult to undervalue as the Club serves as an effective experience-sharing and strong network-creating platform for local marketers.

EXECUTIVE EDUCATION CENTER PARTNERSHIPS

Memorandums of Understanding (MOU)

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

- ✓ To assist international students, faculty, and staff to study and work successfully at KIMEP University during their stay in Almaty and to advise them in collaboration with other KIMEP University departments on cultural and social issues.
- ✓ To enhance the awareness and reputation of KIMEP University in the global academic community by creating and developing partnerships with leading universities worldwide and by supporting joint activities such as academic mobility programs (exchange and study abroad programs), joint academic and research programs.
- ✓ To create opportunities for KIMEP University students and faculty to study, do internships or research abroad as part of their academic program/work at KIMEP University through academic mobility programs, Summer Programs, internships, dual degree or international scholarship programs; to provide KIMEP students and faculty with information on these programs and to assist them before, during, and after their stay abroad.
- ✓ To seek collaboration with international organizations providing funding for academic mobility and apply for international grants to support academic mobility.

INTERNATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS

KIMEP University has established partnerships with over 140 higher educational institutions in Europe, North America, CIS and Asia. These collaborations entail student mobility programs, dual degree programs, international summer programs, faculty mobility programs, short term programs.

RESEARCH OR STUDY ABROAD OPPORTUNITIES

OVERSEAS PROGRAM

KIMEP University aims to offer its students “a window to the rest of the world”. The Department of International Academic Mobility administers a number of overseas programs, some with scholarships, to study for a semester or more abroad or to participate in Summer Programs offered by different universities worldwide. Apart from the exchange programs, the International Office acts as a liaison between universities and students in different scholarship programs and activities. In these cases, the application procedure and requirements and the selection criteria are set up and administrated by hosting universities.

KIMEP students going to study abroad for a short period (short term, internship, summer schools) pay tuition fees to the host universities unless other conditions are stipulated in the agreements between universities. The course transfer procedure should be done prior to departure and is regulated by the relevant college.

EXCHANGE PROGRAM

Exchange programs offer KIMEP University students the opportunity to spend either a semester or a full academic year at a partner university abroad. These exchange programs are not only an excellent learning opportunity, but enable students to gain valuable international experience, make new friends all over the world, improve their English, and study other languages. Students who want to experience study and life abroad are invited to apply to the Department of International Academic Mobility. Generally, applicants are selected based on their overall GPA, language skills, extracurricular activities, and recommendation letter. Undergraduate students who have earned from 30 to 100 credits and masters degree students who have earned at least 12 credits may apply for the program. KIMEP University Fast Track masters degree students may apply after being admitted to the Master program.

All students who take part in the exchange programs remain registered at KIMEP University. They pay the tuition fee for 9 credits per semester to KIMEP University prior to departure. Undergraduate and graduate students may transfer a minimum of 9 credits per semester to be counted towards their KIMEP University degree. The compliance of KIMEP credits versus ECTS credits for transfer purposes and the refund of the tuition fee policy are handled according to the Course Transfer Procedure for Exchange Students. KIMEP exchange students on scholarships at KIMEP University continue to receive scholarships on condition that they meet all scholarship requirements.

Students from partner universities who would like to study at KIMEP University as exchange students are invited to apply through the Department of International Academic Mobility at their home university.

The whole list of KIMEP partners offering student exchange places, the description of each university's application procedure, costs, and the Course Transfer Procedure for Exchange Students, can be found on the Student Portal.

STUDY ABROAD THROUGH PARTNERSHIP IN A CONSORTIUM

KIMEP University is a member of consortia that won Erasmus Mundus grants from the European Commission to implement its mobility flows. Information and procedure can be found on our webpage <http://www.kimep.kz/international/en/erasmus-mundus/>

1. Erasmus Mundus Action 1 –Master Course:

International Master in Russian, Central and East European Studies double degree program (IMRCEES). Only for incoming students from University of Glasgow.

Description: Consortium of 5 European universities and 6 non-European universities and additional non-educational partners. Students of this program study at the University of Glasgow in Year 1. The Year 2 mobility period is spent at another partner university. Students in Semester 1 Year 2 follow specialized study tracks in one or more of the following areas: Central Asian Studies; Caucasus/Caspian Sea Basin Studies; Baltic Sea Region Studies; Soviet and Post-Soviet Studies; and Central European Studies. They complete the writing of their dissertation in Semester 2.

Graduates will receive the degree of International Masters in Russian, Central and East European Studies from the University of Glasgow and the second part of the double degree depending upon the choice of mobility partner in Year 2. KIMEP University receives students for a semester to take courses or write dissertation. Students might be awarded a degree the Master in International Relations with a major in Central Asian Studies from KIMEP university and it is a subject of a case-by-case consideration.

2. Erasmus Mundus Action 2 Partnership: EURO-ASIAN CEA and EURO-ASIAN CEA II

To provide students and academic staff from Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan, Turkmenistan, and Tajikistan with a broad academic curriculum and a range of unique learning, teaching, and research experience in a European environment, within the EURO-ASIAN CEA project, through mobility flows to EU partner universities from 1 to 34 months. The EURO-ASIAN CEA project is focused on the Agricultural Sciences, Architecture, Urban and Regional Planning, Business Studies and Management Sciences, Education, Teacher Training, Engineering, Technology, Geography, Geology, Law, Medical Sciences, Social Science.

3. Erasmus Mundus Action 2 Partnership: CANEM and CANEM II

To provide students and academic staff from Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan, Turkmenistan, and Tajikistan with a broad academic curriculum and a range of unique learning, teaching, and research experience in a European environment, within the CANEM project, through mobility flows to EU partner universities from 1 to 34 months. The CANEM project is focused on the Economics, Management, Business, and Tourism, but the project accepts students from other fields of study, which are adjacent areas of learning.

DUAL DEGREE PROGRAMS

One advantage of being a KIMEP University student is to have the opportunity to study on Dual Degree Programs that KIMEP University has developed with leading world universities. The Department of International Academic Mobility initiates the development of the Dual Degree Programs which are administered by relevant college:

- ✓ Humboldt University Berlin, Germany (MA Economics/MA Economics and Management Science)
- ✓ University of Glasgow, UK (Master in International Relations/Master in Russian, Central and Eastern European Studies)
- ✓ Cass Business School / City University London, UK (MBA/ MSc in International Finance and Accounting or MSc in Energy Trade and Finance)
- ✓ IESEG School of Management / Catholic University of Lille, France (MBA/Master International Business and BSc in Business & Accounting/ Bachelor in Business Administration)
- ✓ EM Strasbourg Business School / University of Strasbourg, France (BSc Business & Accounting / Bachelor in European Management)
- ✓ Graduate School of International Studies (GSIS) of Yonsei University, South Korea (Master in International Relations / Master in Global Affairs & Policy; or Master of Arts in Korean Studies; or Master in Global Economy & Strategy as well as MA Economics / Master in Global Economy & Strategy)
- ✓ Graduate Institute of Public Administration, Lausanne, Switzerland (Master of Public Administration/international MPA)
- ✓ University of Dundee, the UK (LLM)
- ✓ University of Essex, the UK (BAE)

The principle of dual degree programs is that students complete part of their courses at home university and the other part at another partner institution, with credits being recognized by both. Each dual degree program's description is stipulated in an agreement. Relevant college provides consultation on study plan, course transfer, selection criteria, and admission rules. The logistic support is done by the Department of International Academic Mobility.

The information can be found in the information center "Globus", office 409/Dostyk, or webpage <http://www.kimep.kz/international/en/dual-degrees/>

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

KIMEP University established an International Summer School (ISS) in the summer of 2010. The aim of this new program is to increase the diversity of the student and faculty community. Visiting international faculty members are invited to teach students from KIMEP University and other universities in Kazakhstan and abroad. Undergraduate and graduate students are welcome. At ISS, the courses are often innovative in content and format. At ISS, students take classes in business, law, or social sciences taught by international faculty coming from different universities in such countries as, for example, the United States, the UK, France, China, or Australia. Students will have classes in English, as well as the opportunity to learn Russian or Kazakh.

APPLICATION POLICY FOR STUDENTS OF INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

Applicants will be waived from entrance exams. They will apply as non degree students for the International Summer School only. There are no admission criteria. It is a students' responsibility to have the academic background and language skills to enable them to benefit from the attendance of classes.

A limited number of merit-based tuition scholarships are available for international, Central Asian, and Kazakhstan (non-KIMEP University) students.

Information on application procedure, application form, schedule, important dates, and information on scholarships can be found on the webpage <http://www.kimep.kz/international/about/iss/>

KIMEP University students wishing to apply to the ISS should follow the regular online procedure for registration for courses.

After successful completion of the program students earn 3 US credits (5 or 6 ECTS) and a certificate from KIMEP University.

KIMEP BUDDY SYSTEM

KIMEP BUDDY SYSTEM has been created by the Department of International Academic Mobility in order to help international students better adjust to the KIMEP University environment and their new place of living in Almaty. Buddy students assist international students with different issues that the student may have throughout the entire period of study at KIMEP University. The buddy students organize various cultural events for international students and contribute greatly to the planning and implementing of the international student orientation, the Welcome/Farewell Parties, cultural and social activity for international students organized in the Fall, Spring, and Summer semesters.

INTERNATIONAL PROJECTS

International projects of different kinds which KIMEP conducts in cooperation with international organizations, as well as our scholarships and programing, offer remarkable opportunities on campus and abroad, generate intellectual excitement, and give all university constituents access to vital international knowledge. At KIMEP, we always strive to stress the importance of international cooperation. As a result important international institutional projects are currently underway at KIMEP. Among such is the current project Tempus IV.

Tempus IV is the European Commission's program which supports the modernization of higher education in the Partner Countries of Europe and Central Asia.

TEMPUS PROJECT "QUADRIGA": QUALIFICATION FRAMEWORKS IN CENTRAL ASIA: BOLOGNA-BASED PRINCIPLES AND REGIONAL COORDINATION

Consortium involves institutions from Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan and Partners from EU: Koblenz-Landau University (Germany) - Coordinator, Maria Curie-Skłodowska University (Lublin, Poland), University of Algarve (Faro, Portugal), National University of Cordoba (Cordoba, Spain), Quality Assurance Netherlands Universities (Utrecht, Netherlands), World University Service-Austrian Committee (Graz, Austria). Three-year QUADRIGA consortium is going to be implemented in the context of the Bologna Process, creation of one National Qualifications Framework in each Central Asian partner country. Furthermore the project seeks to create European wide transparency with regard to higher education and training.

TEMPUS PROJECT "INOCAST": INNOLABS IN CENTRAL ASIA FOR A SUSTAINABLE CATALYZATION OF INNOVATION IN THE KNOWLEDGE TRIANGLE

The joint project addresses primarily the Knowledge Triangle concept (education-research-business). There are many problems and obstacles on the way towards a modern university model for Central Asia, in which university is working closely with industry on delivering innovations to the market, becoming financially stable and independent in the long term ("entrepreneurial university").

The main output of the project is expected to be the full analysis of socio-economic environment and offering the best solutions for the creation of fully operational Innovation Labs able to stimulate the commercialization of public research in a cost-efficient manner, responding to user needs and being context appropriate while building in previous experience and incorporating best practices into the design of products, processes and services.

INOCAST consortium is coordinated by university of Barcelona, Spain and made up of 3 partners from 3 European member states (UK, Sweden, and Latvia) and 14 partners from the 5 Central Asian countries (Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan).

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The mission of the Olivier Giscard d'Estaing Library (hereafter Library) is to serve the academic information needs of the KIMEP University community. To fulfill this mission, the library is building a permanent research collection and providing access to electronic resources that support University academic requirements, as well as exchanging information resources with other organizations locally and internationally. The library is committed to helping all patrons evaluate and use the available information resources.

PROFILE

The library offers open access to local and global information resources for its patrons seven days a week. The main building is designed to serve up to 400 students at a time. It houses public reading areas, the circulation, reference and periodicals collection. The library maintains its reserves materials collection here as well. Electronic resources are accessible in two independent study laboratories with computer and multimedia workstations within the library. Additional workstations are provided in other locations for use of the online catalog, the reference and periodicals resources. Librarians are available to assist students with finding and evaluating all of the print and e-resource materials. Other public use areas include a Conference Room, ID and Document Processing Center and a lounge in the lobby with vending machines. Across campus in the Valykhonov building adjacent to the University's Textbook Rental Center, the library operates a reading room.

COLLECTIONS

Currently the KIMEP University has about 102,000 print volumes: approximately 74,000 in English with the remainder in Kazakh and Russian. In addition, the library provides electronic access to over 750 000 documents including journal articles, newspapers, conference papers and reference materials. The students may search these collections using online catalog and the library's electronics resources page. These collections contain works in all of the academic disciplines taught at the University including business, social sciences, law, journalism and a variety of other subjects. The reserves collection contains required readings for the courses as determined by course instructors. Donations to the library collection include materials from governmental organizations, leading firms as KPMG, W&C, UNDP, IDEA and different NGOs.

Reference and Periodicals

The reference collection is constantly being updated to provide the most current reference materials available. Periodicals maintain a collection of 110 titles of international newspapers, academic journals and popular periodicals in English and a similar collection of local publications in Kazakh and Russian.

CARD. Librarians have created and continually update CARD (Central Asia Research Database), a bibliographic database of periodical articles on Kazakhstan and other Central Asian countries focusing on topics of particular interest to the students.

For those interested in continuing their education abroad, the reference librarians gather information about universities in Europe, the United States and Canada as well as some universities located in Asia. In the periodicals area students can find a variety of publications, from popular magazines and scholarly journals to local and international newspapers.

Electronic Resources and Multimedia

The library brings students information sources not readily available in Kazakhstan through the Internet. From almost every computer on campus students have access to a number of databases with bibliographic citations and full text articles from hundreds of periodicals including refereed academic journals. Some of these databases require training to use effectively and patrons should feel free to ask any librarian for assistance.

The library maintains a collection of major academic electronic databases including EBSCOHost (multidisciplinary collection of database), ABI/Inform Global (a business information database), JSTOR (an archive of scholarly journals covered by academic and research institutions), Ebrary (over 100 000 e-books in all academic areas), SAGE, Paragraf (Kazakhstan legal database) and Zakon (Kazakhstan legal database published by the Ministry of Justice RK), Westlaw(database that includes documents on law), Emerald, Sage and Springerlink (multidisciplinary journal collections). Since 2012 the library has subscribed to the Web of Knowledge platform (the platform for academics to create and plan their own research strategies) and Elsevier databases (ScienceDirect and Scopus). The library also maintains its own database, CARD which has bibliographic entries on articles of regional and topical importance on Central Asia and Kazakhstan.

Students may also use the library's collection of audio and videocassettes, CDs and DVDs in the Electronic Resources Laboratory, which is located on the second floor of the main building.

Campus-wide Information Resources

Students and faculty may access any of the library's electronic databases from the computers in any of the computer laboratories or offices throughout campus.

The library also works closely with other university units to meet the University community's information needs, including Computer and Information Systems Center, Language Center, Corporate Development Department, and others.

Course Textbooks

At KIMEP University, as at other Western-style institutions of higher education, students check out the course textbooks and other materials they require for study throughout the semester. Reserve copies of required course readings are available for use in the library reading rooms. Some reserve copies of textbooks may be rented overnight.

Textbook Rental

The library operates a Textbook Rental Center (hereafter the Center) to assist students who cannot purchase their required course materials.

Students place a textbook security deposit at the beginning of each semester. The required amount is 20,600 tenge. Students then receive the required materials for their courses. The Center charges a rental fee for all course materials provided. The amount of the fee is 25% of the cost of the material and it is deducted from the textbook security deposit. The deposit must be brought back up to 20,600 tenge before the beginning of the next semester in order for a student to rent the textbooks. At the end of a student's career, the balance of the deposit is returned to the student. The security deposit and rental fee amounts are adjusted periodically to reflect changes in the quantity and cost of textbooks and other course materials.

The library expects that there will be the usual wear and tear of a textbook used for a semester. However, students turning in mutilated or destroyed books or books exhibiting more than usual wear and tear must pay fees and/or fines according to the rules for library books (see Fees and Fines below).

LIBRARY RULES AND REGULATIONS

The Library Administration determines the library's rules and regulations according to the mandates of the KIMEP University Administration.

1. Identification Card

A plastic Identification Card (ID) is issued to all individuals affiliated with KIMEP University. A patron is allowed only one card, thus, if you are both a student and an employee of the University, you must discuss which card is the most appropriate for you.

The ID card should be carried with you at all times while on campus. A student must produce this card or the Kazakhstan identification card when requested by faculty, staff or security personnel. If the student refuses to provide identification information, they will be immediately escorted off-campus. This card also serves as the library ID card and gives access to the library. It should be presented when borrowing materials and may be required to enter the library. The ID card is issued free of charge; the replacement fee is 3000 tenge. If a card is broken or has been stolen a replacement will be free upon the presentation of broken parts or the certificate from local police. Please report the loss or theft of the card to the library so that the account can be disabled. This ensures that no one else can use your card. The ID card is issued to the person named on it. Its use is strictly limited to the bearer and is non-transferable. Allowing another person to use the ID card will result in the loss of the bearer's right to it and thus to use the library and library resources. The ID card is the property of the University. The card must be surrendered to the University upon termination of the status of the bearer or upon violation of library rules and regulations.

Upon graduation, students must relinquish their IDs. A fee of 1000 tenge should be paid if the student cannot return his card.

2. Library Loan

Circulation

Library materials circulate according to the item status (main collection, reserve item, reference item, etc.) and the type of borrower. For students, main collection materials (excluding fiction collection items) circulate according to these guidelines:

- Undergraduate students: 1 week, 1 renewal, 3 item limit
- Graduate students: 2 weeks, 1 renewal, 5 item limit

For textbooks in the Reserve collection, circulation is irrespective of the type of student.

Textbooks from the Reserve collection are allowed to be checked out overnight from 8:00 p.m. and must be returned by 10:30 a.m. the following morning or fines will begin to accrue. The fine for each hour of late return is 430 tenge. For books that are held in the Reserve Collection but that are still available through the Center for rental are available for overnight check out from the Reserves Collection only with a fee of 430 tenge.

Faculty may check out textbooks for up to one full semester. Teachers have a limit of 20 volumes. Reference books may be checked out for up to 2 weeks with one renewal.

Regardless of the type of patron (faculty, student or staff), fiction collection items are checked out for 4 weeks with one renewal with a 3-item limit.

Overdue fines are levied when items are overdue, damaged or missing (see below, Fees and Fines).

Recalls

If a student or faculty member has found an item in the catalog that has been checked out by another patron, he may request that the library issue a recall notice to the patron who has this item. Within three days of receiving such notice the person notified must return the material to the library. Failure to do so will result in overdue fines of 430 tenge per day until the item is returned, and the current replacement cost of the item will be charged to the patron if the item is not returned within 7 days of the recall notice due date.

Reserves Collection

The purpose of the reserves collection is to make limited information resources available to all students who enroll in a course. When a department notifies the library that a specific title is assigned reading for a course, the library withdraws that title from circulation and places it on reserve in one of the reading rooms. Reserve titles can be used only in the library reading rooms. To use a reserve title in the reading room, students must first deposit their ID with the circulation librarian. There is a time limit on using the item, determined by the circulation librarian (relying on information of the item's popularity), after which it should be returned to the circulation desk. When there are multiple copies of a reserve title on the reading room shelves, the circulation librarian may permit a student to use the reserve title outside of the reading room for 3-hour maximum. The student must deposit ID card with the circulation librarian during this time. An overdue fine may be levied if the material is not returned on time (see below, Fees and Fines). The overnight loan of reserve titles can be arranged 2 hours before the library closes (typically not before 8:00 p.m.). The student must deposit ID card with the library overnight. Items are due the next morning no later than 10:30 a.m. Fines will be incurred by the student if the title is returned late (see below, Fees and Fines).

Reference and Periodicals

Reference works, periodicals and journals are located on the third floor of the main library building. These are non-circulating materials and may be used only in the Reference and Periodicals areas. Dictionaries and encyclopedias can not be checked out. Other materials may be available to be used outside the Reference area for a limited time.

3. Library Use

The library is a place for independent research and study. In consideration of students' needs for quiet and study space, the following regulations are enforced: bags, computer bags, briefcases, food and drink must be deposited in the coatroom before entering the library reading areas and laboratories. Coats are allowed within the library reading, study areas and laboratories. Visitors may also leave coats in the library wardrobe. The Library cannot be held responsible for the coats left unattended. The Library is not responsible for items that are lost, stolen, damaged or left behind.

Talking in the library in aloud voice is prohibited. The library seeks to maintain a quiet atmosphere so as to ensure an optimal environment for study and research. Visitors can use the conference room on the third floor for discussions relating to study.

The use of cellular telephones is not permitted in the library reading areas and laboratories (telephones may be used in stair wells and in the library lounge). Ringers must be turned off in the building.

The consumption of food and drink is not permitted in the library reading areas and laboratories. Food and drink may be consumed ONLY in the lobby of the library building.

Visitors, who violate library rules and/or ignore instructions from the library's staff, can be refused admittance to the library.

4. External Users

Individuals and organizations in the wider community are welcome to use the library's collections for the purpose of academic or professional research.

Registered external users of the library are allowed to use the library collections and Electronic Resources in the library and study in the reading rooms during regular working hours, according to policies and procedures established for all patrons (with some restrictions in materials check out).

For the registration of external users, refer to the library administration or any library helpdesk.

5. Fees and Fines

ID CARD.

The replacement of the ID card is 3000 tenge. A fee of 1000 tenge must be paid if the card cannot be returned to the library upon the patron leaving the University (i.e., upon graduation, termination of employment, withdrawal).

TEXTBOOK RENTAL.

The textbook rental fee deposit is 20,600 tenge. The rental fee for a textbook is 25% of the replacement cost of the book. Renting a textbook overnight from the library's Reserve Collection, if textbooks are available at TRC, 430 tenge (if not available for rental, checkout is free).

OVERDUE FINES.

The overdue fine for any item checked out overnight is 430 tenge per hour. The overdue fine for any item checked out for a period of more than one day is 430 tenge. Failure to return a recalled item on time will incur overdue fines of 430 tenge per day until the item is returned, and the current replacement cost of the item if not returned within seven days of the recall notice due date.

DAMAGED OR UNRETURNED BOOK FINES.

A patron is responsible for the any books borrowed under his name (through his card). The patron should inspect the book prior to taking it out of the library to ensure that it is in good condition. The library staff will note and record any deficiencies in the book's condition. The patron will be charged for any damage to a book while checked out in his name. Damaged or unreturned books will be charged on the following basis as determined by the Library Administration:

- ✓ Damaged item – current replacement cost of the book (100% - current retail price plus taxes plus shipping plus import duties).
- ✓ Badly marked or torn pages – proportional to the amount of damage based on current replacement cost of the item, as calculated by the library (50%).
- ✓ Minor wear and tear – cost of repair (15%).
- ✓ Failure to return an item for any reason will result in a fine, typically 3 to 5 times the original cost of the item; this fine is not refundable.

Patrons observed violating these regulations may be asked to leave the library. In case of repeated violations, or a single egregious violation (as determined by the Director of the library), the student patrons may be denied access to the library and library resources, and may be referred to the Dean of Student Affairs and Academic Disciplinary Committee.

PLEASE NOTE

Rules and regulations in the catalog are subject to change without notice. Inquire at the Library's Administrative office for the most current ones.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Office of Quality Assurance and Institutional Research (QAIR) is a corporate unit operating under the President of KIMEP University . The purpose of QAIR is to support quality assurance systems by developing practices of evaluation and reviews that highlight areas for attention and improvement.

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

QAIR monitors, analyzes and evaluates institutional performance, supports planning and decision-making processes within KIMEP University, and provides secure information on KIMEP University's activities for external agencies. It also liaises with external partners, such as state bodies, higher education institutions, national and international agencies, to share best practices and develop wider-ranging strategies for the benefit of the community as a whole.

OFFICE PROFILE

QAIR carries out surveys and reviews of KIMEP University's activities and provides summaries and detailed analyses for senior management, individual departments and other interested parties. Working in partnership with the academic colleges, schools and centers, QAIR ensures that KIMEP University offers high quality in teaching, learning and assessment to its students. In cooperation with the administrative and support units of the University, it provides systems that ensure integrity and quality of services for the academic community.

QAIR is responsible for KIMEP University's regular reporting to the Ministry of Education and Science of RK and other state bodies. It also contributes to KIMEP University's reporting to various external agencies, both national and international.

QUALITY ASSURANCE POLICY

KIMEP University is committed to working to rigorous systems, policies and procedures that will ensure delivery of a quality experience for students. Furthermore, it will put in place measures to continually assess and evaluate its performance, through an independent corporate unit. The role of the Office is as follows:

1. To develop and implement quality assurance systems and procedures across the full range of KIMEP University's activities
2. To monitor the implementation of quality assurance procedures and processes institution-wide
3. Upon requests from KIMEP University management, to undertake reviews and audits necessary to safeguard the integrity and quality of the institution's activities
4. To provide the information and analysis necessary to support decision-making at the institutional level and within colleges/divisions
5. To advise the University on the quality implications of proposals, policies and strategic plans.

QUALITY ASSURANCE AND INSTITUTIONAL RESEARCH ACTIVITY IN BRIEF

The QAIR regular activities include KIMEP University's internal assessment tools -- teaching evaluation by students, students satisfaction survey, faculty satisfaction survey, graduating students exit survey and administrative staff satisfaction survey, as well as two external ones - surveys of KIMEP University's alumni and their employers.

QAIR also carries out various on-request studies that investigate particular quality aspects in individual academic programs or separate areas of the University's activities. Reports on regular surveys conducted during the last eight academic years are available to all interested parties on QAIR page of KIMEP University's website (<http://www.kimep.kz/discover/en/survey-results>).

REGULAR SURVEYS

FACULTY TEACHING EVALUATION SURVEY (FTES)

FTES allows retrieving the valuable opinion of students on quality of teaching in each subject they take and serves as an effective feedback channel between faculty and students - the main stakeholders in educational process. Evaluation results are made available to faculty members and academic management via KIMEP University's intranet. Reports on quality of teaching KIMEP- wide and by units and the analysis of its dynamics are submitted to top management and available for the academic community on the website. Survey results help to determine particular teaching aspects requiring improvement and to promote the quality of education in following ways:

- ✓ Allows faculty member to identify stronger/weaker sides of own performance
- ✓ Creates the spirit of healthy competition among faculty members
- ✓ Serves as a feedback tool between students, faculty and academic management
- ✓ Allows the University to closely monitor and further maintain the quality of teaching.

FACULTY SATISFACTION SURVEY (FSS)

The FSS measures the level of faculty satisfaction with working conditions, professional development and leadership at KIMEP University to further develop the University as a good place to work. The survey is conducted each Spring Semester since 2005-06 AY on an anonymous and voluntary basis. All faculty members are invited to take part in the survey. Survey results are presented to top management and faculty community in the form of the report that highlights stronger and weaker aspects of working conditions and presents the general picture of satisfaction dynamics in comparison with previous period.

STUDENT SATISFACTION SURVEY (SSS)

The SSS aims to investigate the level of students' satisfaction with their academic and non-academic experience, which provides a picture of the overall effectiveness of KIMEP University's services to students. The survey is conducted each Spring semester since 2005. All registered students can fill in the survey via KIMEP University's website on a voluntary basis. The survey report is submitted to the University's management and disseminated among KIMEP University's community. The results allow KIMEP University's decision makers to continuously monitor the effectiveness of the University's operations and highlight areas for further improvement of services offered to students.

STAFF SATISFACTION SURVEY (Staff SS)

In accordance with international practice, the Staff SS provides both management and employees with an overall picture of the quality of the institution's performance from the employees' perspective, and that, in turn, helps to improve strategic management planning and decision-making process and take the relevant actions on further development and improvement of working environment at the institute.

GRADUATING STUDENTS EXIT SURVEY (GSES)

The GSES measures the level of satisfaction of graduating students with KIMEP University experience and invite them to share their future plans. The survey was launched in 2013-14 AY and is conducted each semester on an anonymous and voluntary basis. Survey results are made available to top management in the form of a report that highlights stronger and weaker aspects of learning conditions and presents the general picture of satisfaction. Based on survey findings, KIMEP University's top management develops action plans to further enhance University's studying environment.

KIMEP ALUMNI SURVEY (KAS)

The KAS aims to assure the quality of professional preparation of graduates by collecting their feedback about working experience, job performance and level of satisfaction with the quality of KIMEP University's education, which would allow identifying areas for improvement. The survey is conducted each summer since 2005 by the means of e-mails and phone interviews with graduates of previous year. The survey results are reported to the top management and shared with KIMEP University's faculty and students. The key messages are taken as the basis for the further enhancement of University's programs, services and environment.

KIMEP ALUMNI EMPLOYERS' SATISFACTION SURVEY (KAESS)

KAESS seeks opinion of employers on levels of KIMEP graduates' professional preparedness in terms of knowledge, skills and attitudes. The survey is regularly conducted since 2007 through different channels: electronic mail, fax, post and visits. The survey results illustrate employers' perception of KIMEP graduates' professional quality and help to determine the ways of further improvement of academic programs.

ON-REQUEST STUDIES

The Department also undertakes ad-hoc surveys, reviews and analyses to support institutional decision-making within the scope of University's current needs and focus. The list of studies undertaken varies between different academic years. In AY 2013-2014 the QAIR, inter alia, conducted/reported results of about a dozen studies pertaining to University's internal operations or external educational environment.

Studies with internal focus

- ✓ Survey of faculty and staff on usage of library resources to identify the demand for electronic resources and printed materials essential for academic and research purposes
- ✓ Survey of applicants and newly-enrolled students on factors of choosing KIMEP U as a place of study to identify the further directions of ensuring student retention
- ✓ Survey among students to gather their opinion on best ways to attract new applicants to enter KIMEP University
- ✓ Focus group meetings with KIMEP University's faculty and staff as well as parents and applicants to highlight stronger and weaker aspects of KIMEP website and gather recommendations for its further improvement
- ✓ Survey among faculty on their experience of distance learning and receptiveness to using technology based education.

Studies with external focus

To identify the competitive advantage of KIMEP University's alumni in the labor market, QAIR has implemented the following investigations:

- ✓ Survey of alumni on market value of their degrees three years after graduating from KIMEP University led to an exploratory project “Return on investment into KIMEP University education” aiming to determine the period of time necessary for graduates, both bachelors and masters, to earn back their money.
- ✓ Survey among Executive MBA students aiming to evaluate their employment progress after graduation with the purpose of determining the effectiveness of the program and in terms of return on investment as well.

In order to facilitate the systematic advancement of KIMEP University’s scope of educational services, QAIR has undertaken a number of studies aimed to determine the feasibility of opening new academic programs:

- ✓ Survey of students and alumni to assess the local market demand in master’s program in Accounting (with ACCA preparation) and employment prospects for students planning to attain this program
- ✓ Focus group meeting with students helped to investigate the demand in the new program - MA in Financial Economics

KIMEP UNIVERSITY’ S FACT BOOK

Since Fall 2006, QAIR has been annually preparing the KIMEP University’s Fact Book, which provides reliable comprehensive information on the University and its activities for potential students and collaborators.

Key rubrics include:

- ✓ Student body statistics
- ✓ Faculty body statistics
- ✓ Alumni statistics
- ✓ Success stories of KIMEP U alumni
- ✓ Administrative staff
- ✓ Academic programs and specializations
- ✓ Financial aid and fees
- ✓ Campus and facilities
- ✓ Key contact details.

The book is published in English, Russian and Kazakh.

All eight issues are available online at <http://www.kimep.kz/discover/en/publications>

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The Corporate Development Department was established at KIMEP University in 1998 in order to create and maintain long-term beneficial relationships with business community. The mission of the department is to develop KIMEP as the leading institution of higher education in the region. CDD contributes to KIMEP's sustainable development by generating external resources and promoting mutually beneficial partnership relations with the corporate community, non-government organizations and government agencies in Kazakhstan, the Central Asian region and worldwide.

GOAL AND OBJECTIVES

The goal of the department is to promote KIMEP among businesses, foundations, and organizations in Kazakhstan and around the world, and invite them to cooperate with KIMEP and offer them the opportunity to contribute to KIMEP's development. The department seeks financial sponsorship and support from national and international donor organizations and companies. All connections established by the Corporate Development Department with the business community and donor organizations strictly adhere to the principle of mutual benefit.

ACTIVITIES

The department works to raise funds for KIMEP's academic and institutional development. Through various activities and projects the department engages the corporate community in campus life.

The activities of Corporate Development Department include:

- ✓ Establishing partnership relations with the business community and foundations in Kazakhstan, the CIS and abroad.
- ✓ Seeking financial sponsorship and support from national and international donors.
- ✓ Fundraising for scholarships and grants for KIMEP students.
- ✓ Concluding trilateral agreements between companies/ organizations, students and KIMEP.
- ✓ Providing the business community with opportunities to advertise their businesses and find prospective interns/employees from KIMEP.
- ✓ Bringing companies, foundations, and non-profit organizations to campus for speaking engagements, conferences and seminars.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

PURPOSE

The Alumni Association was established to maintain a permanent relationship between KIMEP and its alumni, with the purpose of mutual service and support. An active alumni network makes a stronger university and multiplies the value and prestige of a KIMEP degree.

GOAL AND OBJECTIVES

The goal of the Alumni Association is to keep Alumni conversant with the programs and activities of KIMEP and provide support to the University and its program. Alumni Association assists the University in the growth of its cultural and extracurricular activities and facilitates KIMEP's involvement in the community. Alumni currently serve on KIMEP's business advisory board and as mentors to various student organizations on campus.

ACTIVITIES

Alumni Association activities include:

- ✓ Developing an active network of alumni branches, as well as discipline-specific alumni groups.
- ✓ Serving an important role to KIMEP as benefactors, as spokespersons and advocates for the University, as advisors to the Colleges, and as a positive voice championing the importance of a KIMEP degree.
- ✓ Acting as role models for current KIMEP students.
- ✓ Fundraising for current students through the Rakhmet Scholarship Fund.
- ✓ Annual reunions, luncheons and networking activities that recognize outstanding alumni in spheres of professional development and community service.

Career and employment opportunities

The Mission of Career and Employment Services is:

- ✓ To be a bridge bringing together KIMEP students with the business community in Kazakhstan and abroad.
- ✓ To provide a wide range services in the development of the marketability of KIMEP students and graduates.
- ✓ To speed up and to simplify the job selection process.

KIMEP's placements are focused on young business professionals seeking opportunities with large multinational companies, international companies operating in Kazakhstan and new emerging and well-established national companies, institutions and organizations.

- ✓ Career and Employment Services concentrates its efforts on assisting leading companies around the world as a source of the most successful and dynamic talent and has succeeded in attracting an important and regular corporate clientele seeking employees.
- ✓ Our electronic database ensures access to a broad range of personnel and employment opportunities.
- ✓ Career and Employment Services provides KIMEP students and alumni job seekers with the career skills and employment services.

The Career and Employment opportunities are available for graduate and undergraduate KIMEP students seeking full or part-time work. Assistance is provided to employers seeking either full- or part-time employees. Students have a choice of either getting information from the Career and Employment Services webpage, the University Life course, or to visit and meet our staff personally.

Our goal is to help you become better career decision-makers and planners by developing job search competencies, learning about employment opportunities, and connecting with employers by:

1. Placing the students with relevant jobs and Internships.
2. Consulting every day with students about how to develop the right career skills required by employers.
3. Consulting every day with students about composing CVs and improving interview and job search techniques (mock interview programs).
4. Conducting Annual Job Fairs (providing KIMEP students with direct contact to company representatives).
5. Inviting guest lecturers and arranging presentations of companies at KIMEP.
6. Creating Career and Employment Events Calendar (to be developed).
7. Maintaining a Career and Employment website.
8. Developing an E-newsletter.
9. Providing students with a Job Opportunities Database, Part-Time Job Database, Internship Database, and an Online Employment Agency Database.
10. Arranging alumni guest lectures.

For KIMEP Students we offer:

- ✓ Job placement for students of undergraduate and graduate programs.
- ✓ Career skills development.
- ✓ Organization of Annual KIMEP Job Fair for familiarizing students with companies -- future employers and for information on employment opportunities.
- ✓ Organization of in-company projects.
- ✓ Organization of guest lectures, round tables, trainings and company presentations.
- ✓ Organizing sessions to improve students' skills that will help them to find a job (such as resume writing, passing employer interviews etc...).

For Employers we offer:

- ✓ Personnel selection.
- ✓ Candidate interviews.
- ✓ Candidate pre-selection.
- ✓ Organization of company presentations, master classes.
- ✓ Annual KIMEP Job Fair.
- ✓ Internship in collaboration with Internship offices.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The CISC Mission is to support and enhance the teaching, learning, research and administrative processes at KIMEP and to facilitate the endeavors of KIMEP students, faculty and staff in meeting the institutional mission and goals through continuous development and maintenance of information and computing facilities and through the provision of the highest quality information technology services.

PROFILE

CISC administers KIMEP's computer facilities and local area network; develops and supports software applications, databases, and web-based services. Currently, CISC employs 23 staff. 5 are full time system administrators and engineers, 4 are software programmers, 12 full-time and part-time lab supervisors, and 2 administration staff.

FACILITIES AND SERVICES

Currently, there are 1150 computers at KIMEP, of which 1150 are connected to LAN and 1020 are connected to the Internet. Hardware facilities also include 520 printers, 30 scanners, 32 cameras, including web cameras, 79 LCD projectors, 17 LCD panels, 2 interactive boards, and 22 servers. All facilities are upgraded or replaced on a regular basis in order to keep up with changing technology and institutional needs. There are 12 computer laboratories on campus, which include 263 computers. 140 additional computers are available for students' use in language lab, multimedia lab (JMC department), math lab (mathematical center) and the reading halls and multimedia lab in the Library. The current student to computer ratio is 7. All computers in the laboratories are connected to LAN and the Internet. The computer laboratories are open early in the morning till late in the evening with some open 7 days per week. KIMEP's classrooms are equipped with LCD-projectors, audio systems, interactive boards and computers, which allow multimedia presentations, access to file servers, electronic materials, and the Internet during lectures. There are 75 computers connected to LCD projectors and audio systems in lecture halls and classrooms.

The multimedia lab in the Department of Journalism and Mass Communications provides means for graphics and publishing, as well as the necessary hardware and software for video editing. The multimedia lab in the Library provides for research of multimedia materials stored on any types of carriers. The Language Laboratory at the Language Center provides opportunities to use computer technology in learning foreign languages. The conference and lecture facilities at the EEC allow for simultaneous translation and videoconferencing. Finally, a number of conference halls, such as the Great Hall and the High-Tech Conference Hall, are equipped with all necessary hardware to run multimedia presentations for groups of varying size. Access to the Internet is provided through a fiber optic line with total bandwidth of 184 Mbps (50Mbps - for computers in offices, 50Mbps - for computers in classes computer labs, 64Mbps - for mobile users (WiFi) and 20Mbps - for WEB services and videoconferencing).The computers are connected through a certified Category 5 local area network . Wi-Fi connection is available on the territory of campus and in students dormitory.

Faculty members have the opportunity to publish their lectures and teaching materials in electronic format for the students on the file-server known as L-Drive. The L-Drive is accessible for students via the Internet upon logging in. Students have the opportunity to store their papers and projects on the file-server known as H-Drive, which is accessible from all computer labs, classrooms, and also via the Internet.

The internal and external electronic communication is carried out through e-mails. Every faculty member, student, and all office employees have individual e-mail addresses, which are combined into appropriate e-mail lists. Faculty members are able to communicate via e-mail with the students in their classes, and administration is able to communicate with specified groups of students. Students are expected to check their student e-mail on a regular basis, and any communication sent to them by the administration or faculty is considered to be received and read by the students.

KIMEP offers an opportunity for distance learning for those students who are away from campus, or for those with tight schedules. The distance learning server operates using the Moodle as course management system. KIMEP has developed its own unique Online Registration System, which allows the students, faculty, the registrar, and administration to enjoy a number of web-based real-time services, and effectively supports the administering of the education process.

Using the Student Portal, students can exercise the following features online: check the schedule for the upcoming semester; communicate with their academic advisors; choose the courses according to their descriptions and prerequisites; register for courses; check their grades for the previous semester; check their GPA for the previous semesters; check their financial obligations to KIMEP; check their individual academic requirements; order transcripts and certificates; complete the financial aid application form, academic leave form, waive course form, graduation request and refund application. The faculty members can exercise the following features online: check the actual number of students registered for the course during the registration period, obtain the list of students registered for a course, carry out advisory services, enter final grades, check students' transcripts and checklists, check the results of faculty teaching evaluation surveys, reserve a hall for extra classes, get attendance lists and make a schedule for semester and exams schedule. The Office of the Registrar can obtain the following current and exact information on any student online: number of credits obtained, GPA, list of courses completed, individual schedules, and financial obligations. The Sports Center can exercise the following features: make a training schedule, control attendance, keep records of medical certificates. Finally, the administration can obtain the following information online, which is necessary for decision making, planning, and forecasting: number of registered students by colleges, academic programs, courses, and years of study; tuition revenue by colleges and academic programs; payment request tracking systems; contracts and internal documents tracking systems; reports on accommodation, payments and settlement in a dormitory. Additionally, KIMEP uses the following systems, some of which have been developed internally, and some have been outsourced: Automated Accounting and Finance System including HR module, Online HR Applicant Portal, Online Admissions, Dormitory Database, Online Directory, Automated Library System, etc. KIMEP strictly follows a policy of using only licensed, freeware, or shareware software packages. The above online functions are available through the Intranet site accessible only on campus, and through the official KIMEP website: www.kimep.kz. Appropriate access rights are granted to different groups of users upon logging in. The KIMEP website serves as an important source of information about KIMEP for students, parents, faculties and staff, potential employees, incoming students and alumni, and the community.

Through KIMEP's communications platform, all members of the the KIMEP community can: check their email from any location with an internet connection; schedule events through an online calendar and notify guests; upload videos to a common storage space; create and collaborate on documents, spreadsheets, presentations, forms, and drawings in real-time; upload and share any file type; develop and display rich websites with many technological features; create mailing lists and discussion forums for communication and material sharing; create profiles in a shared social network, with easy tools for communication and staying in contact.

RULES OF USING COMPUTER LABORATORIES

The purpose of the following rules is to ensure reasonable order of operation of computer laboratories, as well as to protect KIMEP local area network from viruses and unauthorized access. Computer laboratories should be used for study and research purposes only. The students are obliged to satisfy the following requirements:

1. Present a KIMEP student ID to the computer laboratory supervisor upon request.
2. Register in the journal, indicating the time in and out.
3. Log-in when starting working on a computer.
4. Fulfill all instructions and recommendations of the computer laboratory supervisor.
5. Present all portable data storage media in use to the computer laboratory supervisor for virus checking.
6. When working with the local area network, comply with the instructions located at each workstation.
7. The students may work with the information located at the following network disks: Default on cl327n (K:), Default on cl329n (E:), Lecture on 'l-drives' (L:), and H-Drive. Accessing other disks is subject to penalty (see note).
8. In the case of a line, students may work in computer laboratories up to 2 hours at a time only.
9. The volume of information kept by each student on the H-Drive is limited to 100 Mb.
10. Log-off when finished working on a computer.
11. In case of any non-standard situation (system failure, etc.), ask the computer laboratory supervisor for help. Attempts to solve the problem by own means often lead to the damage of software.

IT IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED FOR STUDENTS TO:

1. Install software of any kind on servers and workstations, as well as on H-Drive.
2. Make changes to system files and network configuration.
3. Move, replace, or make attempts to fix computer equipment in computer laboratories.

- ✓ Downloading, executing, or saving on workstations, file servers or H-Drive of any files of the following types: *.exe, *.com, *.bat, *.mpg, *.avi, *.mp3, *.rep, as well as of any other files not related to the academic process – 1 month.
- ✓ Work on servers – 1 month.
- ✓ Installation of software, or changing system or network configuration – 1 year.
- ✓ Accessing pornographic or hacker websites – 1 year.

Notes:

* In the case of repetitive violation according to articles 1-7 the student loses his/her privilege to use KIMEP computer laboratories for a period of 1 year.

 Students who perform activities, which damage the consistency of the KIMEP computer system, lose their privilege to use KIMEP computer laboratories without the right to recover these privileges.

STUDENTS ELECTRONIC MAIL

Every KIMEP student is provided with an e-mail address on the university e-mail server, which is considered to be his/her official student e-mail address. This e-mail system is an official means of communication, and is intended to supplement other communication means. Important announcements, news and messages regarding the academic affairs, student life, or administrative issues can be communicated to the appropriate students via this e-mail system. All students are expected to check their student e-mail on a regular basis, and any communication sent to them by the administration or faculty is considered to be received and read by the students. E-mail addresses are assigned to students by the Computer and Information Systems Center, and are identical to the students' local area network logins. Students should not use other student's e-mail username and/or password, or provide their e-mail username and password to other person(s). Students can be held responsible for misuse of their email address and online privileges by third parties. The student e-mail system should not be used for spam purposes, for monetary gain, for dissemination of illegal information or any purpose in violation of KIMEP's code of practice.

PRINTING POLICY (KIMEP COMPUTER LABORATORIES)

Each computer laboratory at KIMEP has at least one printer available for students during working hours of the laboratory. KIMEP assumes that users understand that printers are expensive and fragile equipment and cannot be used as copy machines for producing multiple copies. Only currently enrolled KIMEP students are allowed to use the printers. The purpose of this policy is to provide equipment safety and reduce toner costs in computer laboratories.

It is strictly prohibited to print the following materials in computer laboratories:

- ✓ Any information from Internet
- ✓ Any information from L-drive
- ✓ Accessory and auxiliary materials
- ✓ Materials unrelated to academic process
- ✓ Slides

It is allowed to print the following materials in the computer laboratories (one copy only):

- ✓ Final version of student's assignment (project)
- ✓ Resume
- ✓ Questionnaire
- ✓ Group assignment (project)
