EXPLORE CENTRAL ASIA IN KAZAKHSTAN

MAGNIFICENT NATURAL BEAUTY

Almaty is a city where you can experience all four seasons. The mountains surrounding the city are a wonderful place to go hiking and enjoy nature in the summer. In the winter, you can visit various ski resorts or go ice skating when the city is covered in snow. The blue lakes, lush forests, red canyons, and sandy dunes all around Almaty offer great sights and many opportunities to have a truly memorable time.

DIVERSE CUISINE

Almaty is a melting pot of cultures, and as such, visitors and locals alike face a multitude of options when it comes to enjoying culinary delights. From traditional Beshbarmak and laghman to pizza or burgers, Almaty will not leave any student missing out on delicious food. The many ethnic restaurants, including Georgian, Chinese, Korean, Indian, Iranian and many others, are a treat for any gourmand. And, of course, all of these cafes and restaurants are a great place to hang out with the many friends you will undoubtedly make here.

AMAZING HOSPITALITY

It is very easy to feel at home in Almaty for one reason alone: Kazakhs are a very hospitable and friendly people. Local students always warmly welcome visiting scholars. Even beyond the academic setting, it is easy to strike up a conversation with fellow hikers, engage in various activities with the locals and quickly find groups of people eager to show you around to make your stay in Almaty as enjoyable as possible.

TRAVEL OPPORTUNITIES

Almaty is uniquely positioned to offer great travel opportunities to visiting scholars. The neighboring countries—Russia, China, Kyrgyzstan and Uzbekistan—can be accessed cheaply and easily, making exploration of new cultures all the more exciting. Students frequently use their free time during breaks, and even weekends, to visit other cities and countries in the region. Bishkek, the capital city of Kyrgyzstan, is located only 170 miles away from Almaty. These travel opportunities will make your time in Kazakhstan even more unforgettable.

LANGUAGE COURSES

“World Languages and Preparatory Program” offers Kazakh and Russian language courses individually - minimum 10 classes (20 academic hours).

One class lasts for 1 hour and 30 minutes.

A learner can define the content and vector of the educational process together with a teacher, highlighting specifically important parts and, thus, making it more effective for him/herself and his/her personal goals.

Our instructors are highly qualified specialists with a wide range of lingual experiences, being able to teach both academic and business Kazakh/Russian language.

The classes are conducted on-line via Zoom.
