WHY SHOULD I GET ON KIMEP'S GRADUATE PROGRAM AS A FAST TRACK STUDENT?

KIMEP's fast track program is a great opportunity for those students who are looking to jump-start their learning and ahead on their Master's degree.

The most capable and motivated students continue their studies to obtain their master's degree.

At the same time, they can both develop their skills in their previously chosen area, or change the direction and take a training in another area – if they successfully pass the internal tests and exams by the specialization and meet all the requirements for admission to master's programs.

Studying at the graduate level develops a deeper specialization and analytical competencies, also it sets the foundation for a scientific or managerial career.

With this qualification, it is easier to get a prestigious job and take off from a higher starting position.

In addition, a master's degree diploma is a mandatory requirement for those planning to study for a doctorate degree.
